

HERE AND THERE ABOUT CENTRAL

By Your Roving Reporter

Greetings, Sophs

A group of new students mounted the front steps of Central High School yesterday at 1:00 p. m. They were 10B and 8B students entering Central from outlying junior highs and grade schools. The 10B's came to inaugurate their three years of senior high school education and the 8B's, their junior high education.

They were directed to the auditorium where Principal Pointer spoke briefly on the rules and traditions of Central. The 10B's were introduced to Mr. V. Harter, who is to be their class sponsor for the next three years. The students were then shown to their assigned home rooms, where they received their program cards. Classes of 10 minutes each were held to enable the new pupils to clear up the bewilderment as to the locations of future class rooms.

Meet South Side

With a record of twelve wins and two losses, Coach Wooden and his Bears travel to Ft. Wayne Saturday where they will meet a once-beaten South Side quintet in the South Side gym that evening.

Coach Burl Friddle's Ft. Wayne lads have dropped but a single contest. This was to Horace Mann of Gary, who is to date undefeated.

Friddle, an old timer at the coaching game, has created many state-championship teams and from the way it looks now, he has another one in the making. South Side is rated among the first ten in the state.

Central has dropped two contests, to Kokomo and Ft. Wayne Central. Both teams have played No. Side of Ft. Wayne and have defeated the Redskins by approximately the same score. Coach Wooden stated that the Archers were very tough and this game would be one of the boys' hardest battles.

Wranglers Win

Elkhart came, they saw, they debated, but of no avail, for on January 5, Central outwrestled the Blazers in a debate upon the question:—

Resolved: That, as a permanent policy, every able-bodied male citizen of the United States should be required to have one year of full time military training before attaining the age of twenty-one.

Jane Post and Margaret Major upheld the affirmative for Central, faced by Elkhart's negative team, Lois Thornton and Herbert Williams. Central's negative debaters, Marvin Breskin and Bill Mills, opposed William Codd and Bob Semholtz, the Elkhart affirmative team.

The debate team boasts a fine record of no defeats for the affirmative while the negative team has been defeated only once in seven contests.

Juniors Take Three

The junior high basketball squad brought the season's total up to eight won and two lost by chalking up recent victories over St. Adalbert, Nuner, and Madison. Coach Kindy's three wonder boys, Hoover, Gaines, and Winston continued to lead the scoring, aided by McCarthy.

On January 8, Central won over St. Adalbert, 42-13. January 13 saw the C's win again, this time by scoring 30 points to Nuner's 10. The final victory was scored over Madison on January 15, 28-13. On Saturday, January 24, the team will participate in a tournament at Riley. Central's playing time is 10 A. M.

EDITORS AND REPORTORIAL STAFF, THE INTERLUDE, 1941-'42

New Club Replaces Thespian

Among the new clubs this semester will be found the Barnstormers, Mr. Casaday's new dramatic group which will replace the Thespian Club, both divisions of which will be discontinued. The club will operate on a different principle than in the past. There will be a limited membership and only those who are really willing to work will be accepted.

The club will study and participate in all angles of production. Each member will be assigned his own definite duty. New members will work their way up in the club by assisting the older members, like the old college "compet" system.

The Barnstormers will not be a feeder club for Drama Club and will operate independently. However, club members will assist on all shows, and will be eligible for all school productions. The Barnstormers will specialize in acting, directing, designing, lighting, property work, wardrobe duties, and, in fact, all theatrical activities, much like a stock company.

Students interested should come to Room 3 from 12:30 to 1:00 Friday or Monday noon.

ZETAS ELECT

The Zeta Chapter of the Central Hi-Y held a meeting at the Y.M.C.A. recently and the following officers were elected: President, Eugene Swartz; Vice President, John Lonstrom; Secretary, Fred Becker; Sergeant-at-Arms, Kenneth McDonald; Reporter, Jim Pankow; Chaplain, Martin Linderman; and Member-at-large, Charles Schutz.

FOR NEWCOMERS ONLY!

Chillun, take it from one who has learned thru the hard knocks of experience, that it is best to follow certain rules in order to sail thru Central unharmed. These rules are passed on to you, only 'cause you need sympathy in your present bewildered state.

First, you must learn the floor plan, which is very simple if you stop to consider that the top floor is No. 1 and the floor under it is No. 2 and so on.

Central is known for its hall passes but when you know the place, it will dawn on you that this is all a bunch of hokum. The well-known elevator may be found across from room 211 (Cont'd on page 4, Col. 4)

SPURS VOLUNTEER TO SEW FOR RED CROSS WEEKLY

Willingly answering a plea made by Mrs. Teresa Cannon of Room 16, the S.P.U.R. Club of Central has volunteered to make garments for the American Red Cross, beginning next Wednesday and every Wednesday hereafter, after school hours.

Mrs. Cannon is anxious to start the work immediately, and would welcome the help of any Central girls who want to follow the example of the S.P.U.R.'s. She said that it was a fine opportunity for students to do some real service.

FIRST OF SECOND SEMESTER NOON MOVIES ANNOUNCED

My Old Kentucky Home is the story of two aristocratic families suddenly involved in front page scandal. This picture will be the noon movie for January 26-27-28, at 12:30 P. M. in the auditorium.

Decorating Class Exhibits

Members of the Interior Decorating Class showed Central students that good taste and color can be combined to make beautiful miniature rooms.

The outstanding project was a bedroom in white made by Louise Takas. Mary Alice Jackson made an attractive pink room, as did Margaret Schafer and Harriet Gaisley, each somewhat different, showing the tastes of the individuals that made them. Gertrude Millicla, Ruth Gearheart and Richard Jackson competed in the living room division. Thinking, no doubt, of the good aspects of a dining room prompted Joan Milliken to choose this room for a project. Her so-called rival was Jean Orcutt. Come around, girls and boy, we will let you decorate the Interlude room!

The science department presented this month in the main hall a paper products exhibit. This was the first of a series of monthly displays to come on "Things of Science."

GRAD MAKES GOOD

Marilyn J. Lowry, a graduate of the class of 1941, is a reporter for the news bureau of Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, Michigan, where she is a freshman student. While attending Central, Marilyn handled school publicity, and is now continuing her work in the newly expanded College news bureau. In addition to her writing, she is a member of the College Singers and has been pledged to Alpha Sigma Delta.

CALCULUS MUST COME BEFORE AIRPLANES

A PROBLEM IN THE THEORY OF AIRFLIGHT is being discussed (above left) by Prof. Richard Mises (right) and Prof. Stefan Bergmann (center) with three future aeronautics experts.

After a long stay in the educational doghouse, mathematicians have come into their own again. According to a recent Time magazine, students breathed a vast sigh of relief as many an educator omitted algebra as a useless subject. The proportion of high school pupils taking math dropped a third in six years.

Private school headmasters, learning that too many boys knew too little math to qualify as officer material for the Army and Navy, decided to teach more of it. The Navy has had to turn down hundreds of candidates for commissions because of deficiencies in math, Lieut. Commander Burton Davis said, while he urged every boy to take at least 2½ years of math in high school.

There are many arrows pointing out that U. S. schools are returning to the view that much is to be said for the third "R".

ARE WE EASY ON TIRES?

Have you ever considered what you could do in the present-emergency? After all, the students of Central are important citizens of the United States. They can do much to save the wear on tires.

It would be little or no sacrifice to walk to school instead of riding four times a day. It is fun to walk on a date, try it next time. The parents will be glad about your conservation of the tire.

There are sometimes when it is necessary to drive, but why not do it with the least possible wear on tires? There are eight rubber rules to watch: Start normally, drive slowly, interchange tires, apply brakes wisely, keep proper inflation, take curves slowly, avoid sharp objects on the road, and keep the wheels on a true line.

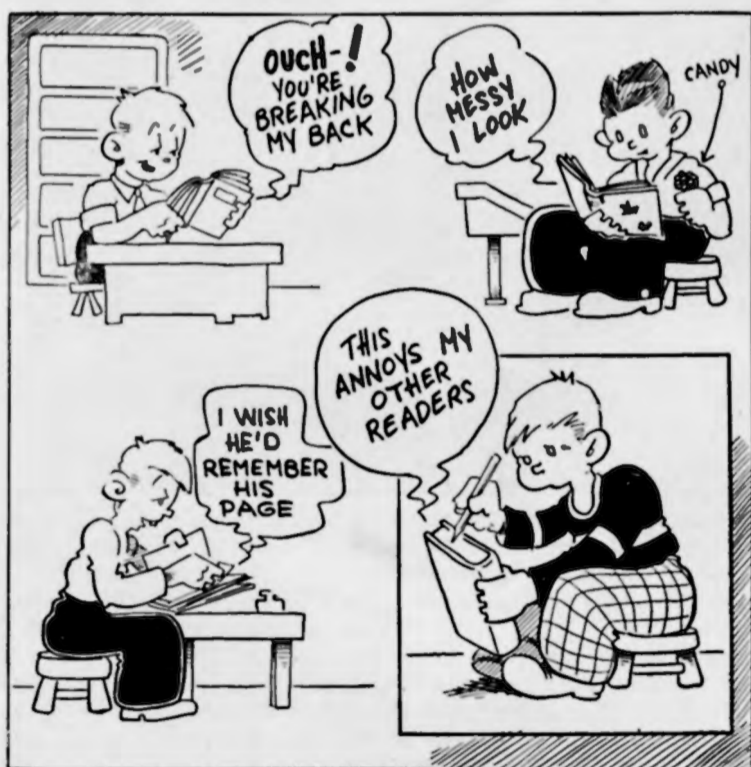

COME SUCCESS—

Success is defined by Webster as being happy, prosperous, fortunate, auspicious, lucky.

Most of us have worked at something to attain success. Some people think of great piles of wealth as success; others think of honor and glory. Still others believe in success as the doing of something to better mankind. Almost all of the successful people today have set out for a goal. To attain that goal they have shown their perseverance and courage until they reached it.

No matter what our goal might be, we should strive to be happy in, and useful to, the world in which we live.

WHY FEE BOOKS LOOK LIKE THEY DO

PLATTER CHATTER

By Jim Cole

Hot licks: Glen Miller is making a new movie for Twentieth Century Fox, entitled "Iceland". For this little arctic tid-bit he will net a cool $100,000. Not bad at all! Artie Shaw and his new 32 piece band have been breaking attendance records at about every spot that they have played in during the past four months. He has been "one-nighting" in the middle west, but has yet to hit South Bend. Duke Ellington has been coining money ever since he released his record of "I Got It Bad And That Ain't Good". The Duke's record has been leading all disc sales of this one recording. An Ellington original, "Take The A Train," has more or less been put on the skids lately, ever since Glenn Miller massacred it. Neither of these orchestras have put out such a red hot recording of this piece, but as far as that goes, few bands have. It just hasn't clicked as yet.

Les Brown's rival as to the band of the future is, without a doubt, Vaughn Monroe. Monroe was heard over the Coca-Cola program and also has held spots in Frank Daley's Meadowbrook. Perhaps the two best discs put out by Monroe so far are, "The Shrine of Saint Cecilia" and "Harvard Square". He is really taking hold as far as popularity, etc. Get his records early — they might become hard to get!

Tops in the line of records for the week are:

"Moonlight Sonata", by Glenn Miller.

"Humpty Dumpty Heart", by Glenn Miller.

"I Think of You", by Tommy Dorsey.

"Nocturne", by Artie Shaw.

TRAITORS to the TRUTH

By CAROLYN CARLISLE

Hope by now you've recovered from the mid-year tests and are happy in all your new classes.

Mary Ann Hauck is being dated by none other than Ed Caparo. George Schmitt is really enthused over the arrival of Mary Katherine Barr—Norma Bair and Dean Patterson are still in love. Clyde Rusk has never-ceasing woman trouble. Kathleen McCaffery, otherwise known as "Pup" and Bob Pence seen together the other night. Carol Richardson greeted the new semester in her usual quander. Going to the Epworth Charity Ball? Patronize the flower girls, among whom you will find Manby, Gossett, Spence, and the beauty Katha Knode. Is there anything between Julia Block and John Lester?

VERIE SAUER SAYS

(Lossed and tossed by Uncle Sam, this man-handled manuscript reached the front office. We did it last year and this year we're at it again - - -)

Dear Brrrrrenda,

I've spent some hair-raising days (and that ain't all I raised) visiting dear ole Central. You'd get a kick out of Central. Their steps sag in the middle and so do the boys. Some of the gals are just too beautiful but some are just!!!!

Coaches Jones and Dal Sasso are really he-men — he, he, he. Suzie Quizie (my hostess) introduced me all around till I was dizzy, but the nicest people I met on my own time. The Interlure (one of which I am enclosing) room is a "pip". There are pictures of Petty gals hanging around as well as the staff, which is usually late to class because they have to stay and shuck the corn they write.

I met some cute gals who belonged to a club called Spurs. On the whole they're OK, but they sell fudge which pours through your fingers, as you take it outa the bag (and I don't mean someone's mouth. Speaking of bags, as I was strolling down the hall I met some lassies community sling-ing. It seems Don Tuttle had asked one of them if he could come over and play. Suddenly a brilliant light blinded me, and when I recovered sufficiently to see what it was, Bill Mills was approaching in his RED shirt.

Another funny experience I noted while tramping around, was two fellas discussing a test. One was terribly griped and he says, "I'm gonna go in and tell that teacher a few things. You wait here." Several seconds had elapsed and he came out. The friend said, "Hi, March!" "How's that?" asked the first one. "You went in like a lion and came out like a lamb," the pal retorted.

Well, when everything's done and considered, I still like Homer better than the Central boys. I guess I love him cause he don't know how to kiss, the Jerk. But oh, these lads! Don't you think travel is broadening?

Well, pardon me, boys, while I go study the natives and their picturesque ways.

BE PREPARED

We are beginning a new semester today. To some it means that their high school career is over; to others that they are now starting a new school experience. We hope that those who are finishing will find the jobs they are trained for, awaiting them. Some will enter colleges or universities for further training. It is interesting to note that institutions of higher learning are making many changes in order to help new students adjust themselves to the new and changing conditions caused by the national emergency. These are trying times, but the most anyone can do is to prepare himself the best he can to serve his country. This, it seems to me, can best be done by continuing your training in high schools or colleges or other specialized schools until called by your country for special service.

REDSKINS SMOTHERED IN LATE BASKET BARRAGE

After being stopped for nearly three quarters, the Bears finally fired both barrels in the final quarter to decide the ball over the Goshen Redskins at Adams last Thursday, the final score being 35-28. It was the Bear's fifth straight victory in the defense of the eastern division Northern Indiana conference championship won last year.

The game was very close all the way, with the Redskins taking a major hand, up until near the fourth quarter, from which point the Bears outscored their visitors 16-4 to decide the game. Capt. Howell again paced the Bruins with thirteen points. Don Whitmer of Goshen was runner-up for the honors with nine points.

TANKERS PREPARE FOR FOES

Coach Elbel's merry mermen entertained two guests at the natatorium this week-end; Jackson, Michigan, on Saturday afternoon January 24, and Hammond High of Hammond, Indiana, next Monday, January 26.

As past records show, these schools produce very strong teams. We were defeated by Jackson last year and barely won over a strong Hammond team. We were beaten by Hammond in the state meet. But come on, let's show 'em this year!

Students Lick Teachers

Mr. Anson's bowlers took on the honorable faculty last week in a friendly bowling match and came out on top averaging 13 points more per man. The teachers' average score was 144 and the students' 157. (Sh! don't tell anybody, but nice goin', boys.)

The boys were really "paradin' with Parson" the other night against Goshen. "Howlin" Howell again paced the championship-bound Bears. Midway in the third quarter, we were behind 24-19. Then the bouncin' Bears took on the rebound to outscore the Redskins 16-4 in the remaining minutes to take the game 35-28. Nice goin', boys! Remember South Side!

'Tis revealed that the mighty Parson Howell is leading the conference scorers. In second place is Golichowski, of Washington, and coming a close third is Hinga, of North Side.

| Conference Standings | W | L |

| S. B. Central | 5 | 0 |

| Mishawaka | 2 | 2 |
| S. B. Washington | 1 | 4 |
| S. B. John Adams | 1 | 5 |
| Nappanee | 0 | 4 |

The Bears now rate No. 1 in the conference standings with five wins and no losses. Nice goin', boys! Let's double it.

Close behind is Ft. Wayne North Side with four wins and one loss. Their only loss was to us.

Although not gaining so much publicity as the boys, the girls' athletic teams of Central are definitely doing things. Beulah Bowman said that during this semester, the 8th and 9th grade girls will play basketball every Tuesday and Thursday after school in the Y. W. C. A. gym. Senior high girls will stage their games on Mondays and Wednesdays after school in the same place.

The girls play all sorts of interesting games and would welcome any girls who have not yet taken part in the activities.

Since the holidays, Central's "B" team has chalked up a pair of wins against two defeats. On January 3, Riley conquered Central, 28-17. Burgess, Bond, and Hack were the leading scorers. Central scored a victory over Nappanee on January 9, 25-14.

In their game with the Five Star A. C., the Bees won 25-21. Gassensmith scored eight points for Central. The most closely fought contest was with Goshen on January 15. The Redskins emerged with a 23-20 overtime victory. Central played a losing game until the last quarter when it tied the score. Gassensmith and Hack led the scoring column.

A promising sophomore girls' swimming team defeated the juniors by two points in a dual meet last Wednesday. The juniors missed their number one back stroke swimmer, Doris Platts, who was ill. Results of the meet:

On Friday, January 16, sophomores, juniors, and seniors swam together in the final meet of the first semester. The Juniors clinched the championship with 49 points. Sophomores were second with 32 points and the seniors third with 30 points. Irene Nemeth, in the last swimming meet of her high school career, broke the side stroke record of 25.3, which was set in 1933, by .3 seconds.

The juniors broke the crawl relay record which was set in 1939. Swimming on the junior relay team were: Marian Harris, Pat Crawford, Ellaine Hass, Jean Grunert, and Beverly Yost.

First places were taken by Nemeth, Yost, Grunert, Snyder, Crawford, Bothwell, and Poden. The juniors won both the crawl and medley relays.

Tryouts for new students will be held on Tuesday, January 27, in the school pool. A new series of inter-class meets will follow.

THE SHOP SCOUT

A member of a Psych. class on tour asked an inmate his name. "George Washington," was the reply.

"But," said the perplexed lad, "the last time we were here you were Abe Lincoln."

"That," said the inmate sadly, "was by my first wife."

If there's any doubt in question to your mate or the history of the lot you own, trot down to The Abstract & Title Corp., located in the Bldg. & Loan Tower, and let them straighten out the matter for you. The reliability of this corporation goes back to 1856.

On board ship in mid-Atlantic: "Going across?" "Yes." "So am I."

And to make sure they wouldn't get lonesome, they took a pile of records from "Pop's Record Shop." "Pop" also carries all kinds of needles.

Blue eyes gaze at mine—vexation. Soft hand clapped in mine—palpitation.

Fair hair brushing mine—expectation. Red lips close to mine—temptation. Footsteps—damnation. You should hear the footsteps rushing to "Clark's", to "meet the mob." Clark's is noted for their friendly atmosphere and prompt service.

Mary Alice Scott: "I hear you're a three-letter man?"

Clyde Rusk: "You mean I excel in three branches of sports, don't you?"

Mary Alice: "No, you're always giving friends I. O. U.'s."

You won't be in debt, if you invest your savings in the Tower Federal Saving & Loan Assn. of South Bend. This organization is conveniently located at 216-218 W. Washington.

Jerry: "A rare coin was recently found in Scotland."

Jim: "Any coin found in Scotland would be rare."

You don't need a lot of coin to get a completely individual photograph of yourself, and it is rare to find such beautiful portraits as those put out by the McDonald Studio, at 116 W. Colfax Ave.

JONES REENTERS SERVICE

Bob Jones is back in the army again! He has been called back into service after having been discharged three months ago! Like many other men who have passed the 28-year-old mark Mr. Jones was called back to the colors. He will again be stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana. As a farewell gift the Central faculty presented Bob with a brown leather traveling bag, and he probably will have a lot of use for it. Everyone at Central wishes Bob the most of luck in his new venture back in service!

HARDY ANNAPOLIS APPOINTEE

Wade L. Hardy, Jr., a Central graduate of 1940, recently received an appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. Hardy, who now attends Purdue University, where he is majoring in mechanical engineering, was an honor student and member of the varsity swimming team while at Central.

and in case you're sleepy, dose off in study hall. One distinct feature of study hall is that you never sign out and yet the teachers know right where to put the touch on you.

By now, it's clear that this information is definitely on the wrong side. To clear up these difficulties and to aid these poor kids, the S.P.U.R.'s spent yesterday afternoon showing the sophs how to conquer the wonders of Central.
