HERE AND THERE ABOUT CENTRAL

By Your Roving Reporter

Victory Pins!

"Help the Red Cross! Buy a Victory Pin," is the call of the Amigos girls. The Victory Pins were made by members of the Amigos Club and will be sold next week at Central.

The bulk of the profits received will be used to aid in the coming Red Cross drive, while a portion is to be used for Navy Relief. The club has already contributed toward the China Relief Fund. A dime helps out a lot!

New SPURS

The S. P. U. R. Club elected the following new members at the last club meeting of this semester: Marjorie Keefe, Sally Livengood, Pat Hardman, Peggy Bruggner, Helen Jo Lane, Katha Knode, and Sarah Hayes.

Hall Exhibit

Dainty bedrooms, sophisticated living rooms, charming dining rooms—all these make up the exhibit of room interiors that has been in the main hall this week. The models were designed and made as semester projects by students in Miss Lois Marshall's 5th hour Interior Decorating class. The only requirements were that the models be well-balanced and have an attractive color scheme. A group of paintings, also work of this class, are displayed in the exhibit.

Ushers Buy Bond

The Central Ushers Club has shown its colors again—this time by being the first club to announce the buying of a U. S. War Savings Bond from money in its treasury. The Ushers have set the pace and it is hoped that other Central clubs will follow suit.

Safety Drive

The Central student council is promoting the continuation of last year's city-wide safety drive, in cooperation with the South Bend Association of Commerce.

The purpose of this drive is to make students conscious of the need to be careful in driving. Student council representatives during the past few weeks have been urging students in their home rooms to sign safe driving pledges.

Pledges were turned in to the council yesterday, May 13. Those signing the pledge were given membership cards and safe-drivers signs for their cars.

Comets Elect

The Comet Club takes pleasure in announcing the election of the following boys to the club. Mr. A. W. Peden, sponsor of this civic organization, expresses confidence in the ability, loyalty, and sincerity of the newly-elected boys. The club looks forward to an event-filled year; highlighted by the annual banquet and the premier dance. The new members:

Lyle Van Doren, Don Ratcliff, Tom Piech, Carol Cook, Don Bradley, John St. Clair, Gene Sage, Benny Frankiewicz, Jim Nelson, James Becker, Don Catch, Dick Schwahn, Calvin Yost.

CENTRAL DIAMOND MEN NOW RANK THIRD IN CONFERENCE RACE.

Here are Central's men of the diamond who have come a long way on the season's schedule under the direction of Coach Johnny Wooden. They are pictured here, front row (left to right): Deranek, Burgess, Daines, Schwartz, Bowker, Wilson, Betz, Jacobs (Mgr.). Middle row: Barnes, Kozoroski (Capt.), Flowers, S. Rudasics, Yost, Powers, Noble, Satowski. Back row: Hack, Szczepaniak, Stewart, Fisher, Turnock, J. Rudasics, Miller, Tupper, Moore, Coach Wooden.

COMMENCEMENT INTERLUDE SCHEDULED FOR MAY 25th DELIVERY

COOPER, MUESSEL TAKE FOURTH IN STATE MATH COMPETITION.

This year, the annual State Mathematics Contest was held Saturday, April 25, at the Student Building, Bloomington, Indiana. Contests were held on the different phases of mathematics. Mr. Thornton, Head of the Mathematics Department at Central, announced that Evelyn Cooper came in fourth in the state comprehensive contest. She was the highest of the three whom Central entered in this contest. Only seniors were eligible for the Comprehensive Contest.

In fourth place in the Geometry Contest was Richard Muesel. This contest was open to sophomores and juniors only. The test was supervised by Mrs. Adela Bittner. Next year, because of the tire situation, the State Mathematics Contests will be held at Notre Dame instead of Bloomington.

TESTS POINT TO TREND OF SENIORS' INTERESTS

During the past week the seniors have been taking Interest Tests given by the Guidance Department. These tests were composed by Mr. G. Frederic Kruder. The tests were given to see the different trends in students' interests and so help them to recognize their occupational interests. Some of the interests tested are mechanical, computational, scientific, persuasive, artistic, literary, musical, social service, and clerical.

Mr. C. O. Fulwider, head of the Central Guidance Department, says concerning these tests, "While these tests do not test ability directly, they test where one's interests lie and we know there is a high correlation between interests and aptitudes. From this test one may get a better idea of what occupational family he is best suited for."

This is the first year the Guidance Department has given these tests, but they hope to make it an established practice.

That the June 1942 Commencement issue of 'The Interlude' will be delivered to the home rooms not later than Monday, May 25, the seniors' last day, was announced by Evelyn Thoner, chairman of the committee in charge of publication.

The book will be the largest one for Central since the boom year of 1929. Both the January and June activities will be included in the publication this year. In addition to the graduates' individual photographs, the subscriber will find a large assortment of group pictures of teams, clubs, musical organizations, and dramatic groups. The book is a picture review of the current year's activities. It has been dedicated to the men in the United States armed forces.

The majority of books ordered by seniors will have an attractive padded cover, silver-blue in color.

The committee responsible for this issue was headed by Evelyn Thoner and assisted by the following persons: History, Dorothy Baughman, Norma Bair; Group pictures, Josephine Smith, Marvin Oestreicher, Mary Alice Jackson; Individual pictures, Betty Hollis, Isabelle Renkiewicz, Nancy Spence, Norman Weissman; Prophecies, Irene Draskovits, Kathryn Sellers, Louan Smythe; Cover, Richard Brosk, Joyce Cannon, Kathryn Sellers; Mock elections, Carol Harper, Margery Hodson; Advertising, Carol Richardson, Carolyn Carlisle.

Extra copies at 75c each may be ordered in Room 221 now.

CASEY MEMBER OF T. B. BOARD

Principal P. D. Pointer announced Marvin Casey as the new representative of Central to the Junior Anti-Tuberculosis County Board for the next year.

Casey, now 11B representative on the Junior Anti-Tuberculosis League, will attend monthly meetings of the Board at the County Court House, where anti-tuberculosis drives among the students originate. He will replace Frank Iverson, this year's representative.

Membership Applications For Drama Club Taken Under New Ruling

For the first time the Drama Club is receiving applications from prospective members. The club has recently revised its constitution concerning membership. To qualify for admittance into the club a student must have participated actively in acting or committee work in some production, been active in senior high speech activities, participated in junior high speech work, or have a genuine interest in dramatics.

Application blanks have been prepared and may be obtained through any club member or directly from Miss Agnes Frick, sponsor, in room 114. After the applications have been sorted, the qualifying applicants will be called back and references checked. New members are fully accepted into the club after one semester of active participation.

At the present time, there are two dramatic organizations at Central. Mr. Casaday's Barnstormers are a group which work with him on all large productions. The Drama Club will have one big play with the Barnstormers and an assembly next year. Coupled with these are the one-act plays presented within the club.

As is the custom, new members will be received at the annual club picnic which will be held later this month.

Dancing To Nowlan's Music Planned; Time—9 to 12

'MOONLIGHT COCKTAIL,' SWEET TUNES WIN TOP PLACES WITH SENIORS.

Central seniors or alumni and their guests, will dance to the music of Ken Nowlan and his orchestra, Friday evening, May 15, from 9 to 12 in the Palais Royale. The prom is the climax in the social career of many Central seniors.

"Moonlight Cocktail," as well as sweet music took first place in the customary music poll conducted in the seniors' home rooms. An average of two waltzes was established and seniors favored at least one rumba in the evening's dance program. "Tangerine" and "Miss You" took second and third places, respectively, in the music survey.

The music committee is composed of Miss Lois Marshall, Paul Prass, Virginia Manby, Ernest Pence, James Cole, Dorothy Baughman, Carol Richardson, and Margery Hodson.

Parents Are Patrons

Patrons of the dance are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fassnacht, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stegman, Mr. R. L. Peil, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Post, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wasielewski, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Prass, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hodson, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Augustine, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Manby, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Brosk, Mr. and Mrs. John Machulies, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haisley, Mrs. Edith Woodward, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gossett. The School Board, class sponsors, and parents of all seniors are invited to attend as guests.

Those in charge of tickets are Margaret French, Jane Post, Patricia Moore, Betty Shaffner, Norma Bair, and Phyllis Bonnell.

One person in each prom couple must be a Senior A or a Central alumnus and all tickets must be purchased in advance from social chairmen in senior home rooms or from Miss Ethel Montgomery. No corsages are to be worn.

I. U. EXTENSION EXPLAINED

The Indiana University Extension Center was created for students who want credit for regular graduate work and for whom actual attendance at the University is not convenient. Some students merely prefer the smaller classes and individual attention.

The executive secretary is Mr. L. K. Caldwell and one may register at his office in room 219. Regular university subjects are taught by instructors from Chicago or the campus. Classes are held here at Central, mostly in the evening for the convenience of those who hold jobs.

Reporter Checks Up On What You Do in Spare Time.

What students do in their spare time? Good night, what do students do in leisure time? Most of the people I've seen just stand around after school, although those can't exactly be classed as students,—but anyhow, take Dorthea Dunkin: she and her sister save programs and tack them up in their study. That's nice, for when they haven't much to do, they can speculate on their programs. Fred McFaul has a profitable spare time hobby, that (as most of you know) of photography. He helps take pictures for The Interlude and has a really interesting collection of candid shots.

Virginia Northcott retains old fans. Her collection is quite extensive and unusual, with many old and valuable fans in it. Joe Peil has a very novel hobby in his collection of marbles. Ask him to show them to you sometime and he'll probably pull out a beautiful amber-colored agate.

There, you see—everyone doesn't spend his time wasting it. No doubt there are many more interesting hobbies among Central students, but space doesn't permit telling of all. Just look around you a little and perhaps you'll find some new ones yourselves.

BEWARE OF FALSE VALUES!

"He's a Smiler", or "She's an Amigo", or "A SPUR". What of it?

These and other worn phrases are heard every day, but seldom do we realize the needless value we place on them!

Prestige is a powerful word but rather hollow when you come right down to it. It's something of which to beware when you're rating people. Persons with prestige are the ones we listen to and to whom we look up, but they're not the only ones! The organizations bringing their members power by fine work are not to be belittled. They are O. K., but set out the "Danger" sign when they come to mean everything to you.

A fine person is the one to be recognized by his good character—not entirely by his prestige. Keep a price ceiling on false values and remember that it's the person that counts.

MUSIC AT MATINEE

Some of us have thought for a long time that the enjoyment gained from matinee performances at Central could be greatly increased if the orchestra were present. At last our wish came true when Mr. Cleland's group presented incidental music between the acts of "The Straw Hat." The sprightly mood of the play was maintained through the scene changes by the orchestra. We'd like to have the music at all future plays, if you please.

OUR NEIGHBORS TO THE SOUTH

In recent years our government has tried to cement good will relations between the United States and the South American countries.

In past times our tactless dealings with the Latin nations have often incurred their dislike and distrust but the Pan-American Conferences have done much in bringing about mutual confidence and understanding.

We of the New World must stand together, bound by our common struggle for freedom from European tyranny, our common ideal of democracy, and our common wish to preserve them both. The Western Hemisphere must present a united front to the axis!

Spring is here! Yes, indeed it is, but that's no excuse to let down in our school work.

Maybe we get the "urge to roam" about seven-thirty when we should be settling down to some solid studying. If we do, we can squash it with a quick glance at our history unit that has 12 questions yet unanswered.

We all have a conscience, and if it has to be done, that little conscience won't let us get by without doing it. We might as well forget the phone and the moon and the people down the street resign ourselves to studying and get it done. We'll be lots happier with ourselves if and when we do. . . .

PLATTER CHATTER

By Jim Cole

All cats went wild last Thursday afternoon at Cab Calloway's little local jam session. Outstanding were his band's playing of the "Jersey Bounce" and "Blues in the Night," but their remarkable harmony practically put Cab out of the spotlight—in spite of his own set of well used vocal chords. Cab's pianist shared vocal honors with him in his singing of "Skylark." After Cab put on a little skit which interested the local zukes, the boys gave Cosy Cole the rush and he entertained them with a solid little number (forgot the name). Cosy is perhaps the one drummer in the country that can beat a mighty solid skin without really pounding it apart. He possesses the touch of a concert pianist and his co-ordination is superb. The session closed with a number by the sextet—which was on the Dixie land side and slightly out of the groove, but the show as a whole was appreciated by all. Cab is all set as far as South Bend is concerned.

'MACBETH' REWARDS STUDENTS FOR SALES

About twenty members of Mr. Casaday's advanced dramatics class received the thrill of a lifetime when they saw "Macbeth" with Maurice Evans and Judith Anderson at the Erlanger Theater in Chicago last Saturday afternoon. The group was accompanied by Mr. Casaday and Miss Aphrodite Pappas. Some of the theater-goers went to see other plays that evening.

The trip was a class project and the money for the tickets was raised by selling ice cream bars and by giving the play, "Two Gentlemen from Soho," earlier in the semester. They sat in a block of the best seats in the house. Right now, Mr. Casaday's Barnstormers are cleaning and inventorying rooms 2 and 3.

ARE YOU DOING YOUR PART?

At the close of the school year students will be joyous—naturally, because they are finished with school for three months. But this year let us refrain from the usual destroying of our books and other paper articles. Let's conserve these things for future use, and help Uncle Sam win the war.

IN LIBRARY NOOKS

These stories of daring and adventure are to be found in unsuspecting corners of Central's library:

Jungle Performers — Beatty and Wilson.

Four Years in Paradise—Osa Johnson.

The Story of the Winged-S—Sikor-sky.

On Safari—Waldeck.

Aces Wild—Winston.

BUT WERE THOSE THE DAYS?

People are always referring back to the "good old days." On checking up we find that a good many of the customs of that day have come down to us, one way or another. While they may have changed a little, the idea behind them is still the same. Take for instance:

Then

Mustache twirling and playing with the gang at the corner confectionary shop.

Looking in on Lover's Lane.

Looking through the family album.

Bloomer girls.

Such vigorous, muscle-building games as croquet and badminton.

Taffy pulls.

Due to sugar rationing, sunburns, and poison ivy there isn't much dirt today. One thing I'd like to know is when will Dick Malone and Bill Carroll stop fighting over Suzy Iekel?

Don't forget the Prom tomorrow night. Sultan's of Adams will be well represented with Margery Hodson taking Bill Curriese and Carol Harper plus "Pepper" Rice. "Tootie" Thoner and John "Smiler" Coquillard will be there. Dot Gossett is going avec "Mike" Michelson. Julia Block and Dick Lang per usual—also Bonnell and Dale Williamson. Soderberg and Jack Holloway, if he's still in town. Lovely Pat Wass and Jack Keating.

Last Saturday night Ernie Pence had a date with Dot Nash, an ex-Centralite.

PLANS OF SENIOR A'S

What do the high school seniors of 1942 expect to do after graduation? Do they expect to find jobs—to go to college—to continue their education in other schools than colleges? Have such factors as guidance, high school courses, present trends in employment influenced their choice? Our state department of education has just recently made a study of these questions and a tabulation of the student answers show that of every one hundred students in Indiana high schools:

21 expect to enter college
15 expect to take other additional training
36 expect to enter gainful occupations
21 have no definite plans
5 have very uncertain plans

How does this compare with our Central High School Senior A's plans? It is interesting to note that these results are almost identical with studies made here of our own students. We send 20% each year to college, and about 35% go to work. It seems too bad that 26% have nothing definite in mind, but this may be due to a number of reasons. It would be well for our Senior A's to study their own plans in order to see into what group they fall. Your future is worth much study. Now is the time to set your goals.

Cavemen Hosts At Annual Sectional Trackmeet Saturday.

FOUR CENTRAL MEN AMONG ENTRIES

The Mishawaka high school stadium will be the site of the Annual Sectional Trackmeet to be held Saturday, starting at 1:30 p. m.

Along with being hosts, the Cavemen are favored to win the classic. There are approximately 25 schools entered in the meet, including Mishawaka, LaPorte, Michigan City, Riley, Washington-Clay, Argos, Central, Culver, Grovertown, Kingsbury, Knox, Madison, Mill Creek, North Judson, Plymouth, Wanatah, and Washington. There are between 150 and 200 boys entered in the meet. It is an elimination meet for the State Finals held at Indianapolis a week from Saturday, May 23.

The boys placing first and second in all individual events plus winning relay teams are eligible for the state finals.

Winners last year, who are returning this year, are: Wint of Argos, who holds the sectional record in the 440-yard dash, and Dunnock of Riley of South Bend in the low hurdles.

Among the Bruin entries and who may be counted upon for points Saturday in their respective events are Anton, mile; Hunter, broad jump; Harvey, 220-yard dash; Gruza, hurdles, and Green in the high jump.

GIRLS PLACE 4th AND 5th IN STATE G. A. A. BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

Results of the State G. A. A. Bowling Tourney have been announced and Central teams placed fourth and fifth in the final results.

Team 1, which consisted of Loretta Kolander, Mary Jane Peterson, Lenore Wyford, Doris Platts, and Helen Graykowski, placed fourth with a total of 2556 pins. Team 2 hit the wood for a total of 2549 pins, which was good enough to net them fifth place in the state. Those girls were: Betty Kronewitter, Barbara Browne, Rose Vargo, Beverley Nelson, and Helen Moon.

Two Central girls rolled over 400 pins in three games which is a score for any high school tournament! Helen Graykowski hit 437, with the best single game of the tournament of 202, and Loretta Kolander knocked the pins for a total of 403. Other high net scores were Mary Jane Peterson, 397, and Beverley Nelson, 364. All in all, Central faired out pretty and our congratulations are to be given to these girls. Nice goin'!

Chris Dal Sasso, head football and wrestling coach, who took over when Bob Jones was called to Army duty, has also been called for his first physical examination which is to determine which class he will be placed in. If he ranks 1-A he is likely to be called soon for his final examination.

BLASTING BEARS BOW TO BLUE BLAZERS ON DIAMOND

Central's blasting Bears bowed in defeat to the Elkhart Blue Blazers 2-1, in a N. I. H. S. C. baseball game, at Rice field, Elkhart, last week despite the two-hit hurling of southpaw Bill Moore.

An error, a single, and a triple in the fifth inning marked the Bears' downfall. The Bruins scored their lone tally on Powers' walk and singles by Capt. Don Kozoroski and Steve Rudasics.

Bruce Burgess pitched a one-hit masterpiece Friday afternoon to defeat the Nappanee Bulldogs 10-1 at School Field. The Bruins blasted a barrage of 13 hits to literally knock

INTRODUCING—

He throws the shot
And runs the dash
Played tennis, too
He's quite the flash.

Dave Gorrell, two-letter winner in both track and tennis, takes the spotlight this week to gather well deserved glory. He may be easily recognized walking down the halls not only by sight but by knocking of the knees or flapping of his feet which have three definite characteristics: they are size 12AA, flat, and are pigeon-toed. He played football, basketball, baseball, and ran track while in junior high school but has confined all abilities to tennis and track in high school. He played second man on the tennis courts and on the track team he runs the 220-yard dash, the 880-yard relay team and throws the shot put (no kiddin'). Dave devotes all affections to one girl with whom he is going steady — Gloria Stelner.

Teacher (to her class in English): "Now, can anyone give me a word ending in 'ous', meaning full of, as 'dangerous', full of danger?"

Small Boy (raising his hand): "I can, teacher."

Teacher: "Well, what is your word?"

Small Boy: "Pious, full of pie."

PAPER FOR BLACKOUTS

Defense agencies have requested the American public not to purchase quantities of dark cloth for making window blackouts. In fact, it has been recommended that any heavy material through which light cannot filter readily, even if not black, is perfectly satisfactory.

Many five-and-ten-cent stores are selling dark paper shades. These, if properly fitted to the window, will prevent light from filtering out. The shade should be mounted close to the wall. This may necessitate rebending the brackets, thus making them shorter; or mount new brackets on small wooden blocks.

To keep the shade tight, pry out the catches from the spring end

(marked "X" in the diagram). This places the shade under constant spring tension. In its pulled-down position, the shade may be held in place by a small bent nail.

ADVANCED DRAMATICS CLASS TO PRODUCE TWO PLAYS FOR ASSEMBLY.

It is not very often that a semester's work can be administered in such a way as to show results at the end. This will be done by the dramatics classes on Wednesday and Thursday, May 20 and 21, when they produce two different types of plays in assembly.

The first, "When the Whirlwind Blows," by Essex Dane, takes place after World War I in Central Europe, and shows the hatred of the peasants toward the aristocracy. This will be given by the advanced dramatics class with Jane Post, Lillian Nyikos, and Bettylee Blum taking the parts of Mesdames Androyoa, Josefa, and Anna, respectively. Patricia Smanda and Sophie Riesman are Production Managers, while Bettylee Mooren
