Pep Assembly

Tomorrow morning at 8:35 there will be a general pep session in the auditorium. Students attending the session which is voluntary will get their lungs in condition for the football game with Washington Saturday night.

1115!!

On Monday morning, September 21, a very astonishing group on enrollment figures was turned in. The attendance sheets showed that out of a total of 2230 students exactly 1115 were boys and 1115 were girls. These figures include 88 students enrolled in practical arts courses and five post graduate students.

At the present time there are 167 boys who come in from outside schools for one class a day. These students come from the parochial schools and junior high schools like Madison and take mainly shop courses.

Stewart Recovering

Mr. Charles Stewart, Central teacher and coach, is making a rapid recovery from a recent operation in Epworth Hospital. Mr. Stewart entered the hospital last Thursday and underwent surgery the same day.

Alumna In W. A. T. C.

A graduate of Central, Dorothy Jane Konold, has distinguished herself by being selected for the advanced section of the Women's Auxiliary Training Corps.

Dorothy was one of the 38 Indiana U. Coeds so honored, who were chosen from a large field of applicants and required to pass the same physical examinations required for men students in the Army's Enlisted Reserve.

Girls chosen for the advanced corps must have a junior standing and an average of "B minus" and will spend one hour a week in order drill and two hours in general military study.

Seniors Plan Yearbook

The senior classes have voted to take charge of the production of the 1943 yearbook and the staff met for the first time Tuesday morning with the adviser, V. C. Cripe. Bud Parshall, x-16, was elected as chairman of the staff. Other members are: Barbara Wells, 26; Ella Jane Pesta, 30; Jack Mathews, 102; Tom Hynes, 103; Kathleen McLaughlin, 104; Patricia Crawford, 114; Henry Froning, 115; Carolyn Shanafelt, 116; Helen Woodard, 120; Helen Thompson, 121; Clarice Hiznay, 212; Bettylee Blum, 215; Roberta Holbrook, 224; Rodney Moyer, 311; Pauline Snoke, 217; and Ruth Meyer, 322.

Three Cheers

"First in peace, First in war, and First in the hearts of his countrymen." This famous saying might readily be used in describing Mr. C. L. Kuhn's home room. First to report a 100 per cent payment of fees and now first to elect its officers for the forthcoming semester, they are:

President: John St. Clair.
Vice-president: Doris Lochmandy.
Sec.-Treas.: John Krisillas.
Social Chr.: Florence Mikley.
Such a fine group of students, headed by its worthy sponsor and board of officers, should, no doubt, go far in leading the activities of the school.

Ex-Centralites in R. O. T. C.

Three Central alumni are included among the 154 new students accepted into the naval R. O. T. C. unit at the University of Notre Dame this month. The patriotic three are: Edward P. Caparo, Arthur G. Haas, and Henry A. Hoover. Edward is now a sophomore, while this is Arthur and Henry's initial year as freshmen.

These three plus five more young men from the South Bend area, drill with the rest of the new cadets on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons under the direction of student officers who have been in the unit since it was established in September, 1941.

COMMITTEE RESPONSIBLE FOR COMING REVUE.

—Interlude Photo.

Much of the promised success of the forthcoming senior production, "NOW," can be credited to this group of students. During the summer they met each week to write the story of this revue of modern life which will be presented at Central on October 9 and 10. In the back row are, left to right: George Davidson, George Yack, Henry Froning, Bettylee Mooren, and Marian Rice. Standing, are James Sullivan, James Crothers, Carolyn Shanafelt, Joanne Ebersole, and Barbara Wells.

The life of many an American sailor has been saved by the ingenious breeches buoy. Particularly in heavy seas where the buoy is used in taking men from sinking ships. These life-saving devices are not expensive, they cost about $18, or the equivalent of one Series E War Bond at $18.75.

Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps will help save the lives of many Naval officers and men by aiding in the purchase of these breeches buoys for use in the Navy and Coast Guard. BICYCLE RIDERS MEET FOR SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS

Yesterday morning there was an assembly of all students who ride bicycles to school in the auditorium at 8:35. Mr. Pointer asked a member of the Board of Safety to explain the bicycle rules and regulations. Recently the police force has become more strict in regard to enforcement of bicycle ordinances all over the city. Students are warned that fines may result or that bicycles may be impounded when rules are disobeyed.

Drama Club Accepts Twenty-one Candidates For Membership

The Drama Club started its year by making final revision of its constitution and by accepting a group of new candidates for membership. These people include Beryl Backman, Mary Woolverton, Evelyn Manuszak, Lois Garnitz, Dorine Ketcham, Bob Malone, Janet O'Keefe, Janet Cadden, Alice Gondeck, Lorraine Gondeck, Pat Baker, Dick Manuszak, Genevieve Grocke, Rachel Taylor, Pat Hukill, Marjorie Manuel, Betty Neeser, Mina Costin, Nancy Willis, Dixie Stuart, and Carol Fieman.

Council Prepares Rubber Saving And Bond Drive

The Student Council at its weekly session last Monday launched a vigorous all-out war effort derived from two sources, the nation's drive to save our tires and the county's effort to double its quota of war bonds and stamps.

"The only way that we will be able to get our war workers to the factories on tires next year is by cutting non-essential automobile traffic today and not tomorrow," was the striking power behind the fall meeting of the Safety Drivers League of South Bend, attended by Mr. Pointer, Student Council officers, and committee members last Thursday afternoon.

Richard Manuszak was appointed chairman of the committee undertaking this task of educating students to drive as little as possible and then only at 35 miles per hour.

A campaign to sell war bonds and stamps is scheduled to strike the halls of Central. It promises to be a drive more energetic than Central has seen for years. The Council has set a weekly quota that the students are expected to reach.

"Only through the full-hearted and complete cooperation of each student," stated John Makielski, President of the Student Council, "can we make these campaigns for bond sales and tire conservation a satisfying success."

CLUBS PREPARE FOR FIRST MEETING.

Among the new and highly interesting organizations at Central this year are: the Jr. Dramatics, New Weapons of War, and Cheerleaders Clubs.

All junior high school persons talented in dramatics or speech work are eligible for the Jr. Dramatics Club, sponsored by Miss Margaret Geyer. "New Weapons of War" is sponsored by Mr. James Ingram, while the Cheerleaders are in charge of Mr. W. W. Lauterbach. Membership to this club is obtained through competitive tryout.

Established clubs are ready to carry out prepared schedules this year. The language clubs, "Le Cercle Francais" and Spanish Club, are planning to sing and recite folk songs. They are making holiday preparations, and want members who have good ideas and are truly interested in French or Spanish.

Today, with so many social, economic, and political problems to discuss, the Student Forum is an appealing organization. All senior high students are eligible. Mr. Glenn Maple, room 222 is the sponsor.

An active club at Central, Mr. James Lewis Casaday's "Barnstormers," are already engrossed in the production of the Senior Revue, "NOW". Later on in the season, they plan to collaborate with The Drama Club, to give "The Blue Bird." The Drama Club is headed by Miss Agnes Frick.

With Mr. Walter Kindy as their new sponsor, the Comets plan to do bigger and better things than ever before. The main purpose of the club is to back all athletic organizations. New officers for the 1942-43 year are:

President: John McLaughlin.
Vice-president: Carl McKeel.
Sec.-Treas.: Arthur Brown.
Sgt.-at-Arms: Frank Summers.

POWERFUL ELEVENS TO FACE EACH OTHER UNDER LIGHTS SAT.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED

Sabotage!! When? School Field, Saturday night at eight o'clock on the nose. South Bend, the center of war production, will be literally blown apart by the meeting of two strong elevens, hailing from Central and Washington High schools.

Each team has its own heap of bombs. Washington in the way of Woodard, Zernick, Klemczewski, and Zalejski; and Central by means of Gene "Posie" Flowers, Dan "Jarneck" Jaronik, Herb "Herbie" Hoppe and Dick "Dodger" Deranek, the fuse of the group.

Bears Seek Vengeance

The last meeting of these saboteurs brought on a burst of flame. The Panthers tried to stop Central's Rusk and the Bears attempted to halt the West Sider's own "Stampin' Stan" Dubicki. The Washingtonites finally blew the smoke the other way and closed Central's eyes with a 19 to 6 defeat.

Both Coaches, Crowe and Witucki, will dish out their own special bits of strategy to the amazement of each other, and the amusement of the fans.

Probable Line-ups:

Central		Washington
Jablonski	LE	Reed
Grabarek	LT	Chrobot
Manuszak	LG	Vas
Southworth	C	Bietler

SENIOR REVUE COMMITTEES ORGANIZE AND GET PRODUCTION MOVING

Not only are the actors of the senior revue, "Now," to be given October 9, 10, and 12, now plugging on lines and characterizations, but also diligent workers have started the background work. Such things as submarines, ballrooms in haunted houses, swinging mirrors, and desert scenery have begun to take form under the direction of the stage managers. Properties are being assembled by the property committee headed by Bettylee Mooren and Quintella Robbins. Striking lighting effects are to be produced by George Davidson, chairman of the lighting committee.

The publicity committee has started to shape plans publicizing the various stellar qualities of the revue. Madelon Marcus heads the committee. The essential job of making costumes for approximately 125 characters has been undertaken by Clarice Hiznay, Betty Billingsly, and Dorothy Dawson, chairmen.

Ebersole and Treanor Assist

The eyes and ears of the production job, the assistants to director, James L. Casaday, are Joanne Ebersole and Elinor Treanor. A large and important job of sound effects has been handed over to Frank Meyers. Accompanist Evelyn Metzler and the Central orchestra are to provide the varied musical score. Make-up is to be in the skilled hands of Sophie Reisman and Elinor Treanor.

Using the orchestra and most of the properties, the first part of the revue was put together last night and the last part will be put together tonight.

INTEREST IN CLUBS

On Tuesday Central's more than forty clubs will inaugurate their new season. Have you joined a club? Club membership will give you an opportunity for real service to the community, to the school, and to yourself.

In spite of the fine work done by Central's clubs, many clubs have been held down in the past by the presence of students who joined them without intending to contribute to them. Many students join a club to be entertained by others. There is no excuse for "dead wood" in any club, as there are enough clubs for everyone to get into one in which he is genuinely interested.

Central's clubs cover every field from dramatics, music, and speech to public service, athletics, and science. Every student should join a club and plan to contribute as much to it as he possibly can, for you get out of club activities no more than you put into them. Ask your sponsor teacher to let you see the club directory, and read about new clubs in The Interlude. Plan wisely before joining a club and be sure you join the club that is especially designed to suit your interests best.

HOW SHARP ARE YOU?

Learn to be Alert!—How many times have you heard teachers say this? Yet, every day in every class, when Mike, Bill, or Jane is asked a question, the first thing we hear from them is: "Would you mind repeating that, please?" Now put yourself in the teacher's place — no, you wouldn't appreciate repeating that many times, would you?

Right here let's do some figuring: Count the number of times a teacher is asked that question in each class, then multiply by six (classes per day), and that by the number of teachers at Central—our answer is in the thousands!!

Preaching is out of date, so we'll leave it up to you to give yourself a test — Are you a day-dreamer, or are you one who's alert?

You still have time to spend your dimes to buy The Interludes.

PLATTER CHATTER

By John Bergan

Perhaps one of the more solid innovations to hit this planet is T. Dorsey and his crew. Some of his old records which were so popular when they were released will be remembered long after the grooves are worn from them. All of you will remember last fall when he played "Without a Song" and "Deep River." Some of his new discs for which we predict a great future are: "Serenade in Blue" and "Sweet Lorraine." Glenn Miller has a good arrangement of the "Serenade" also.

We hear by the well-worn grapevine that Jimmie Lunceford is coming to the Palais soon. Save up your pennies and hear him play his "Blues in the Groove." You are still clamoring for "My Devotion" and seem to prefer Charlie Spivak's version. "My Guy" is holding his own with good arrangements by Dinah Shore, Kate Smith, Tommy Dorsey, and Kay Kyser.

The DeMolay Record Dance after the game last Saturday was fun. I'm sure that the Rainbow "Sadie Hawkins Dance" coming up will make a big hit with all of the fellows who are going. We hope that you will remember that chivalry is still walking the earth.

We still have a couple of recommendations lying around; take 'em or leave 'em:

I Cried For You.....Harry James
The Mole.....Duke Ellington

INTRODUCING—

She is: Mary Murdock, Interlude Circulation Manager, S. P. U. R.; an honor-roll student, ambitious, popular, and is planning to be an advertiser.

She has: Brown eyes, a T. Dorsey collection, a bubbling wit, and a part in the Senior Revue.

She likes: Suits (on the right people), dancing, funny people, blue, fried potatoes, and joke books.

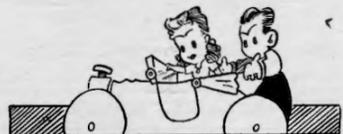

She dislikes: Plain cokes, cats, too much make-up, and people who don't subscribe to The Interlude.

We had steak for dinner. Steak is beef. Beef comes from cattle. Cattle have horns. So has the devil. The steak tasted like it.

Help the girl into the car, Also help her out of it; Will she think you're a thoughtful gent? There isn't any doubt of it!

A girl who has a date and gives Her friends a full report, Will never be the kind of girl The boys all call "good sport."

Each time you keep her out late SHE takes the rap, not you; So be a wise old nightowl, And bide by Dad's curfew.

Verie Sauer Says

If you happened to notice any battered up individuals limping around the halls this week, you can be sure they are Smilers and Esquires. These two clubs were brought out en force last Sunday in the form of a football game. After a series of little "scraps" the game ended with the Smilers the victors with a 13-0 score. The major casualties are Dick Daines (Esq.) with various pieces of skin missing from his face, and Bill Moore (Smiler) without a very substantial back. The scene of the slaughter was Leeper Park.

Peas in a Pod: Princess Elizabeth and Marian Dunkin with her new haircut.

The ushers at the State Theatre certainly have that "certain something" . . . huh, Beverly Cass?

"Goldie" Shanafelt has caught up wif' her Li'l Abner for the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance — the lucky, handsome guy is Jack Stephenson.

Pretty and Shy—Gwen Culver.

Long time no see: Loretta May and Willy Jackson 2-gether.

Several of our local belles have been gracing the U. S. O. tea-dances, and are on their way to becoming full-fledged little "cadets."

"I Got Gobs of Love for the Navy" —Wilma Shaffer.

"Miss You" duet'd by Peg Bruggner, Charlotte Jackson.

"Just as Though You Were Here" —Sheila Cohn.

Our very own little Joanne Eberstoole thinks a certain J. R. at Adams pretty much on the beam. (Along with sev'ral sailors.)

Betty Smedley, who's the "diabolical circle" from?

"How Come You Do Me Like You Do?" warble the fellows to Jenny Arnott of 106.

Edna Shearer is an innocent lamb but nobody'll pull the wool over her eyes.

Do you know a bit of gossip? Have you a suggestion? Don't be piggy—share it with Ye Interlude whose box is right outside the office. Gracias.

Name: Shirlee Kolupa.
Room: 309.
Ambition: To know Jerry Michaels.

What do you like best about girls?

Dan Radecki: "When you get them in a car, they always like to stop—for gas!!"

Joe Caparo: "Their cunning little ways and actions."

Russ Ryker: "A lot of things?"

Floyd Werntz: "How they lead you on all summer to have someone to go with all winter."

Bill Borough: "Most of them are true blue and appreciate vitamin "M".

ALL THE DIRT COMES OUT IN THE WASH

Again we bring you this evil little document of chatter, and again we hope you will take a peek at it:

The Adams game proved to be a rather wet affair, but spirits were high and got higher as the game progressed and the score mounted into our favor. Mary Murdock was there with a very interesting looking male. Hummmm, we'll have to look into that. . . . Dick Kovacs has a personal secretary in the form of Dot Oetjen. Seems she "assists" him with his Spanish. Hello, Miss Ceyak. . . . Note to Verabelle Hazen: One Tom Hynes has both of his green eyes on you so act accordingly. . . . Getting to look more and more like his big brother — Jim Powers He is also looking more and more in Janet Oren's direction.

ARE YOU?

I am a clock-watcher. Every afternoon about 3:15, I begin making preparations for my homeward dash. Yep, "Be Prepared," that's my motto and just look how many more people I can knock down in the halls if I jump the bell. Perhaps you think fifteen minutes is a trifle too long. Now, there's where you're all wrong. Don't I have to close my book—it's a fat baby too, over four hundred pages—park my gum inside the desk, and, what about the pencil I've got to return, if I can remember from whom I mooched it this time?

I guess you can see now why I keep my eyes glued to that minute hand. When I'm a man digging ditches or cleaning streets and someone asks what I did in high school I'll tell 'em I grew four years older.

"What Every Citizen Should Know" is the theme for many of the new books added to our library.

Books about every branch of the service should enlighten boys who are planning to join the armed forces while excellent books on nursing can be obtained for girls interested in that profession. Civilian defense, an all important phase in our life today, is the topic for quite a few of the new books.

A Civilian Defense "must" is to read the book, "What Every Citizen Should Know About the Air Forces," by Col. Harold E. Hartney, with some timely illustrations by Alan Haemer. This book, which is among the new additions to the library, should give valuable information to all boys who have the yen to fly, and will enable "the folks back home" to read how busy the men of the air corps are kept.

Other new additions are in the science, useful arts, fine arts, literature, travel, biography, and history sections. These may be obtained now and others are expected in the near future.

PHYSICAL FITNESS

We should do all we can to keep physically fit. It will repay many times in later years. It is difficult for a student to do his best if he is handicapped by poor health. Our physical education program is planned not only to help the weak, but also to help condition those in good health.

The State Board of Education of Indiana recently passed a ruling that all high school boys must take gym work during their junior and senior years. We can all realize the importance of this now. Our boys at Central are to be commended for their fine response to this new requirement. They know that they must be in the best possible condition if the call comes to serve. Let us give our moral support to this program which has for its purpose the development of our boys.

Bears Repeat 1941 Score In Win Over John Adams

A hard-fought contest took place under a blanket of cold rain last Saturday that brought joy to a fair crowd of Central onlookers and shivers to others. It was the Bruins-Adams game at School Field which ended as a conference victory for the Bears with the score standing 13-0.

Many exciting features were scattered throughout the game. One of them being the defeat of an English Bulldog that dominated for a few laughable minutes.

Crowe's lads dug into pay dirt twice. First on a long drive by Dick Deranek, Central's brilliant left half-back, which occurred in the second quarter, and later, in the third period, Gene Flowers ripped and dove for the final score. This last touchdown was set up by a power drive that included excellent running on the part of Birschitzky, Ed Royteck, Dick Deranek, and Gene Flowers.

Bear Goal Threatened

Adams put up a lone score threat late in the last quarter when they knifed their way to the Bear's five only to lose the ball on downs as a result of fine defensive play on the part of George Manuszak, Bill Brillan, and Al Grabarek.

The line-ups and summary:

CENTRAL		JOHN ADAMS
Manuszak	LE	Piper
King	LT	Ray
Jablonski	LG	Bowden
Southworth	C	Keb
Brillan	RG	Beverstein
Grabarek	RT	Ball
Lash	RE	Gerhardt
Jaronik	QB	Nash
Deranek	LH	Bailey
Hoppe	RH	Fragomeni
Flowers	FB	Troeger

Score by quarters:

Central	0	7	6	0-13
John Adams	0	0	0	0-0

Scoring: Central — touchdowns, Deranek, Flowers; point after touchdown—Hoppe (place kick).

Substitutions: Central — Birschitzky, Buhler, Mikelson, Winston, Jenkins, Roytek, Morrical; John Adams — Holmgren, McKinney, Granning, Slutzky, Ladyga, Lundberg, Barber, Zimmerman, Simeri, Goldsberry.

TENNIS SQUAD UNDEFEATED

Last Thursday the Central tennis squad won a match from the Hammond Clark team 6 to 1. The match was played in Leeper Park. This made the second win of the year, two of the matches having been postponed.

Summaries:

Singles

Moore (C) beat Wasielski (H), 6-1, 6-1; Daines (C) beat Creswell (H), 6-1, 6-3; Brown (H) beat Bowker (C), 7-5, 6-1; Nowicki (C) beat Wetrigh (H), 6-2, 6-2; Lindahl (C) beat Schraer (H), 6-1, 6-2.

Doubles

Moore and Daines (C) beat Wasielski and Creswell (H), 6-1, 6-1; Witucki and Lindahl (C) beat Brown and Wetrigh (H), 6-1, 6-0.

Central traveled to Nappanee Tuesday afternoon to gather in their third straight conference tennis victory 5-0. Moore, Daines and Bowker won in singles and Daines, Moore, Lindahl and Witucki defeated their opponents in the doubles.

Clear the decks and prepare for action. Action and plenty of it. Reason, Central-Washington game. This game is different from all the others, as it exposes more color and fine playing than any other contest on the schedule.

Let's all go and get in on the fun of a big game. Assemble your "buddies" and then take in a good evening of football.

oOo

If you want to see pictures of some top-flight footballers take a "peep" (that's all it is, because Wooden says "What chew want son?" and you say "Nuttin', chust lookin' at chure pictures"; then Wooden says, "Scram!") in the coach's office.

oOo

Did you ever see the trophies in the main hall? They should make you realize, if you haven't by now, that Central ranks very highly in both scholarship and athletics. They display the fact that the groups or teams behind them were possessors of spirit, fine coaching or teaching, teamwork, and ability.

You will find if you happen to visit other high schools, that they have neither such a fine collection of trophies nor the things that are behind them. They are more than just silver or gold cups, they are the outward signs of the foregoing qualities. All Centralites should be proud of them.

If you have been in Central as long as Venus has (in the main corridor, that "babe" is Venus) you would probably remember Bill Brillan either from sight or acquaintance.

Bill Brillan is Central High School's 1942 football captain. He has shown many times what it takes to make a good football player; one that knows the game; is fighting for the team; fighting to win under any condition; and win or lose always retains a good sportsmanship like attitude.

Brillan is 5' 10" tall, weighs 165 lbs., dark eyes, black hair, not married. (That's what I get for looking in the police records for statistics.)

So far in the two games the Bears have played, Brillan has shown fine leadership and spirit. One quality in Bill's leadership is his ability to get along with the fellows.

Good luck, Bill, and may this, your last year at Central, be a successful one.

ANN MILLER STARTS CAREER IN ENTERTAINMENT

Ann Miller, a former student of Central High school, has been made a member of the "Six Lucky Girls" entertainment troupe. She left South Bend, September 15 to begin a nation-wide tour which will include theaters and service camps.

Ann was an active member of the Central Glee Clubs and dramatic organizations and often helped with dance routines in programs at school. Recently, after completing a course at the Winn Taylor Dancing School in Chicago she was chosen as a member of the "Six Lucky Girls."

FISHER TRAINS IN TEXAS

According to a letter received last Monday from Mr. Emmet Fisher, former assistant principal of Central, he is receiving his basic training at an infantry replacement center at the 60th Infantry Training Battalion, Camp Wolters, Texas.

To Make A Short Story Long
By Kate Geyer

When they told me to interview Shep Fields, I had no idea of the job I had before me. The story of the interview I did not get goes thusly:

Leaving school at exactly 3:30 accompanied by moral support in the form of ye olde feature editor, Jackie Kaslow, I headed for the Palace Theater. After searching the alley we found it, through the Stage Door. We entered and were nearly submerged in a blare of saxophones and clarinets. We came upon a blond who looked as if she might know something. We asked her as to the whereabouts of S. F. and got the answer that she had just left him at Walgreens.

In a second we were in the aforementioned place timidly tapping a likely looking man on the shoulder, offering the question, "Are you Shep Fields?"

We got the answer that he was not Shep Fields, but only a member of the band. I had seen pictures of the maestro and had my mind definitely made up that this man was Shep Fields and that he thought that I was just another autograph hound. After practically telling him that I thought he was lying, we left and returned to the theatre thinking bad things about Shep Fields.

As we stood there the "member of the band" came by and offered to help us find him, thus making us look like first class heels for doubting him.

We found that Mr. Fields was not in and that I would only be able to talk to him after the next show. Soooooo back I treked at 5:30 with spirits high. Well, I did get to talk to him (for three minutes), during which time he informed me that he would not be able to give me the interview because of a previous engagement to have his picture taken for a bond drive. My ideals of coming back with the story were shattered then and there. So, if you happen to see a picture of Shep Fields holding a defense bond, think of me and the interview I did NOT get.

Professor: "Is this theory clear to you now?"

Pupil: "Yeah. Just as clear as if it had been translated into Chinese and read to us by a tobacco auctioneer."

CLUBS (Cont'd)

An active group, the "Hi-Y" have planned a widespread program of activities for this year's calendar, which include: complete charge of Mishawaka Day—the election of the queen and her court, the queen's escort, the bonfire at Leeper Park,—the extemporaneous speech contest held every spring, and the Easter assembly. The Swingheart Sway which is a project of the Twin City Hi-Y, is always something the school crowd looks forward to. The board, which is composed of officers of the three chapters, is headed by Tom Hynes.

Plus the fine aggregation of young men now assembled under the name of "Smiler's" and sponsored by Mr. M. O. Richard, two new members have been added, Bob Farner and Hoby Smith. An active organization, it is shaping a fine calendar for the coming term.

One of the oldest organizations at Central is the SPUR Club. Active since 1928, they have recently added six new members to their fold, raising the membership list to twenty-two. New initiates are Mary Katherine Barr, Joan Wass, Kate Geyer, Phyllis Prevost, Monelle Steadman, and Pauline Snoke. Miss Lavinne McReynolds, sponsor of the club, revealed the four-fold purpose of the group:

- 1). To help new girls become acquainted.
- 2). To promote a democratic feeling and unify the interest of girls in school.
- 3). To help any girl financially.
- 4). To use influence in supporting any worthwhile measure endorsed by the school.

With so many organizations at Central having such fine purposes and objects, the extra-curricular activity of students at Central is carried on in a way to be most beneficial and enjoyable to all.
