Debate Team Trip

Plans are being laid by the Central debate team and Mr. Glenn W. Maple, their coach, for their trip to the annual State Debate Meet, which will be held December 3 and 4 in Indianapolis. The Meet will be held in Indianapolis this year due to the crowded conditions in West Lafayette where the Meets are usually held. The topic will be: Resolved: "That the United States Should Join in Reconstructing the League of Nations."

Seniors Elect

The Vice-president and the Treasurer of the 12A Class of 1943 who have been elected by their classmates have just been announced. The Vice-president is Richard Kirby of Home Room 222 and the Treasurer is Charles Kale of Home Room 320. Senior A's elected officers last semester, but three of their officers graduated last June and in Summer School. Dorothy Oetjen, of room 222, who was Vice-president, is now the class president. Kenneth Tupper, also of room 222, is the Secretary. Since there are only two Senior A Home Rooms there is no cabinet member. The three officers from room 222 will be given a single vote to represent their Home Room.

Committees Chosen

Committees have been chosen for the combined Glee Club and Barnstormers' Christmas production "Las Pasadas", a Mexican play in one act. "Las Pasadas" will be presented December 8 and 10. Mr. James Lewis Casaday and Miss Helen Weber are directing the play. Miss Antoinette Ceyak is the adviser on Spanish pronunciation. The student director is Betty Lou McCarthy. Bill Koontz is the production manager. In charge of sets is Norma Lou Booth; on the property committee are Tom Brademas and Norma Miller; Doris Loungquist is in charge of costumes; and Jack Beyrer, Maurice Cohen, and George Cohen are working on lights.

Drama Club Repeats Play

"The Far-Off Hills", an amusing three-act comedy set in Ireland, by Lennox Robinson, which was presented by the Drama Club in the auditorium this afternoon will be presented again tomorrow evening at 8 P. M. Tickets for the evening performance can be secured from any member of the club. Miss Agnes Frick is the sponsor of the club and the director of the play.

Thanksgiving Turkeys

"Gobble, gobble." Where're those turkeys? In the Central cafeteria—22 of them, weighing 20 pounds each. Cranberry sauce, baked squash, turkey dressing, pumpkin pie, and all the rest of delicious foods that go with an old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner will be served right here in the cafeteria next week. Roast turkey and dressing will be served on Tuesday and Wednesday. An entire Thanksgiving Turkey Victory Lunch will be served Wednesday noon for 25c. Despite rationing, there will be plenty to eat in a festive atmosphere next week in the Central cafeteria.

A PROCESS OF ELIMINATION

Members Of Football Team Given Recognition For Season's Work

MORRICAL AND DERANEK NAMED CAPTAINS

Dick Deranek and Jerry Morriscal were voted captains of the 1943 and 1944 football teams by the team members in a meeting held last Monday morning. During the current season an honorary captain was elected for each game, Deranek being made the honorary captain for the year at the end of the season. The team also recommended that consideration be given Morriscal for the Reco best linesman award, Deranek the Gilbert best backfield man award, and Deranek for the Kiwanis best all-around player award.

Coach Crowe has awarded the following boys major football awards: John Monhaut, Bill Buhler, Rudolph Williams, Andy Kramer, Jerry Morriscal, Richard Chandonia, Daniel Walkowski, Bob Ehninger Joe Caparo, James Nawrot, Dick Filley, Ralph Kukla, Rin Grossman, Kenny Withkowski, Dick Deranek, Joe Deranek, Dan Jaronik, Dick Flowers, Albert Daoust, and John Peczkowski. Of these players twelve are expected to return for the 1944 season.

Bears Meet New Carlisle In First Tilt Of Year

TIGERS BOAST GOOD CHANCE TO WIN

Saturday will find the Bruins of S. B. Central tearing the cover off the 1943 hardwood season. The Bears will entertain New Carlisle High school who is out to defeat Central for the first time in history. This year the Tigers have a good chance to knock off the favored Bears as the former have almost the whole squad of last year returning while the Bruins have a comparatively inexperienced team with only three lettermen back. Also, New Carlisle boasts a victory over Lakeville by the not-too-fabulous score of 24-19, and over Washington-Clay by a bigger margin, and the downtown high school boys are untried in competition this year.

Central Has Good Reserves

However, we must not paint too gloomy a picture of Central's chances because they boast a strong first team and several good reserves who will undoubtedly see much action. In the first five we have veterans, Buddy Bond, Wiley Hoover, and "Big" Jim Hans. All three of these fellows showed much promise last year and were awarded letters. Also on the floor will be Long-John Hazen and "Tug" Finger who will undoubtedly show up as fine players.

Mr. Stewart has his usual pessimistic attitude and could only groan when we mentioned Central's chances for this year. But, we suspect that his lack of optimism indicates a good team and are anxious to see just what Central will do this year.

STUDENTS ASKED TO AID IN WAR CHEST DRIVE

Students will be given a chance to contribute to the St. Joseph County War Chest Drive being carried on this week and next by giving their money to an agent in their home rooms. Central's drive will end next Wednesday, November 24. Last year students and teachers contributed $7,000 to the drive. This year, it is hoped that even more will be given. The quota for St. Joseph County is $410,000, of which $150,000 will go to the National War Fund and $260,000 will remain in South Bend to help maintain such organizations as the Service Men's Center, the Hi-Spot, the Boy Scouts, the Camp Fire Girls, the Children's Aid Society, and the Y. W. C. A.

MR. SCHULTZ'S MOTHER DIES

Mr. Leslie Schultz was absent from his teaching duties in the social science department the early part of this week due to the death of his mother, Mrs. Samuel Schultz, 1247 Campeau St., this city. The funeral was held Monday at Reddick, Ill.

THREE FROM CENTRAL RUN IN BOND QUEEN CONTEST

Monelle Stedman of Home Room 222, Evelyn Hajducki of Home Room 102, and Ann Dunahoo of Home Room 305 are the three girls running for Central in the Contest for the St. Joseph County High School Bond Queen. Tomorrow is the last time that students will be able to buy bonds at the school. However, they may buy them downtown on Saturday and cast their votes for whom-ever they choose. The contest closes Saturday, November 20.

Each time a student buys a bond he may cast his vote for any girl he chooses. This contest is being sponsored by the American Legion. Central is far behind other South Bend high schools in the race for Bond Queen.

The sale of war stamps and bonds at Central for the current school year was brought to a total of $11,633.05 by a sale last week amounting to $683.30.

More 16-Year-Old Students Needed To Help Merchants

More students, 16 years old and older, are needed to help downtown merchants during the Christmas rush, according to the South Bend Merchants Association. Over 500 students will be needed to help in the stores. More than enough applications have been received from students under 16, but the response of those over 16 has not been great enough to meet the demand.

Each student who wishes to work and fills out an application blank will be interviewed before he is hired if he has satisfactory grades and health. If he is hired he will be excused from school during part of the afternoon in order to work. This type of work gives a student valuable experience.

About one-third of all Central students are already working either full or part time. Students who wish to continue working after the Christmas rush is over must obtain working permits from Mr. Emmett Fisher, Head of Student Personnel, in the Administration Building. A new permit is needed each time a student changes jobs. Students who wish to work should obtain a blank from the office and have it signed by their home room teacher, their study hall director, their parents, and their employer.

RED CROSS DRIVE SUCCEEDS

"The Jr. Red Cross Drive to collect money for Red Cross work which was held at Central last week received whole hearted response from the students," stated Miss Edna Roop, sponsor of the club. All except five Home Rooms were 100% in their contributions, which means that they reached the goal of 10c for each member of the room. The three rooms making the highest contributions were: Room 305 with a total of $7.03; Room 11 with $5.05; and Room 116 with a total of $5. A total of $163.15 was collected at Central.

MID-SEMESTER HONOR ROLL ANNOUNCED.

The mid-semester Honor Roll is shorter than ever before. This is due partly to the fact that the enrollment of the school has decreased and partly to the fact that the grading system has been changed and question marks given for incomplete work. IMPROVE YOUR VOCABULARY

Swearing denotes ignorance! When a person swears he informs the world that he is too lazy or hasn't enough intelligence to use another word; that his vocabulary is stunted, you have probably heard persons whose every other word was profane. Besides showing ignorance, profanity is bad manners. A girl naturally feels insulted, whether she shows it or not, when a boy swears in front of her for she feels he doesn't have enough respect for her to curb his language.

Swearing is a bad habit. Break it and both you and your friends will be happier!

HOW'S YOUR PLAY APPRECIATION?

"Goin' to the play this afternoon? Suppose it'll be a mess, but it'll get me outa sixth hour—." Is this the attitude you take when a dramatic production or musical program is being given? Students who do feel this way are probably those who have never or seldom taken part in extracurricular activities.

Every program offered to the public by Central students, requires many hours of practice, little of which is done on school time. The faculty members in charge stay up long after rehearsals to revise scripts or copy musical scores. Committee members work Saturdays and sometimes Sundays as well as vacations to perfect every detail from the first cough in the script to the last button on the costumes.

If you're one of the people who is impressed by the fact that the leading man forgot his lines once, give him credit for the work he did backstage between scenes and don't forget to watch for costumes, sets, lighting, and musical effects. If you're still unimpressed, try out a few things yourself. You will be amazed at the amount of work necessary and at the amount of good you can get out of a successful performance—or even a poor one.

REPORTER MEETS EDDY HOWARD

After standing backstage for an hour last Thursday afternoon I began to think that the "man of the hour" would never really come, but was purely mythical. Suddenly a young man with brown eyes, curly hair, a 5' 8" stature, and a flashy suit passed by, on his way to a dressing room. Making a famous Central tackle, I started asking questions—but fast.

Among Eddy's likes are steak and more steak and golf. Being an amiable fellow, his dislikes are few, low pitched pianos and bad public address systems really bother him.

Eddy Howard is known for having a "beat" all his own and he has written such groovy tunes as "My Last Goodbye", "Careless", "Million Dreams Age", "Now I Lay Me Down to Dream", and a new song called "I Thought I'd Call Tonight." He features Ray Bast, saxophone and vocalist, Hil Radthe, boogie piano player, and Bob Capelle who sings "Short, Fat, and 4-F."

Some of the favorites played were "Sunday, Monday, or Always", "Pistol Packin' Mama", "Paper Doll", "I'll Never Smile Again," and a specialty of "Jersey Bounce". The tune that really topped the show was "Hill Top Boogie."

Scrambling over instrument cases I finally got out of the Palace and hurried off to make my deadline.

—Audrey Sears.

Famous Last Words:
Oh, go ahead, Mr. Pointer won't care if we ring the dismissal bell five minutes early.
ugh!
Hold that match a little closer, pal, I think we've got a half a tank. . . .
ugh!
Homework, homework, you mean we had homework, Mr. Keltner?
ugh!
I don't know if this gun is clean or not, Sergeant, I'll look down the barrel and see. . . .
ugh!
That's all right, Mr. Cripe, it won't matter if we're a teensy bit late for that deadline, will it?

Who Would Make An Ideal Blind Date?
Deloris Moore: "Danny Jaronik."
Howard Milbourn: "Betty Lou Fleming."
Virginia Grant: "Poochie Miller."
Bill Mitchell: "Dewey Welch."
Bernie Hultgren: "Joan Shanafelt."
Johnny Hazen: "Jim Hans."
Florence Mickley: "Hobey Smith."
Bob Malone: "Gene Butterworth."

To The Moon

When you're away, I'm restless, lonely,
Wretched, bored, disgusted; only
Here's the rub, my darling dear:
I feel the same when you are here.

Meet
Bill
Freeman

Well, folks, speaking of smooth guys, let's throw the gab about Bill Freeman, a senior who hails from room 217.

If you should happen to see a fella with a sleek physique, about 5' 11" and 145 lbs., one brown eye and the other grey (yipe), sandy colored hair, and an "I-got-to-be-agoin'-walk" — that's Bill!

He is quite the busy little boy, being treasurer of Smilers, Advertising Manager of The INTERLUDE, a representative of Student Council, Vice-president of the Senior class, and captain of the swimming team. Whew!

Bill's main interests are Smilers, vanilla shakes, sailing, food, swimming (he specializes in 220-yard free-style), pretty legs, long hair, water-skiing, dancing, and, of course, Marilyn Bowyer!

Mr. Freeman's irks are few, but noisy people, girls smoking, and people in green jackets disgust him thoroughly. By the way, his pet peeve is to have someone talk to him while he's in a movie!

Mutt is his nickname, and he doesn't mind being yelled at 'cause he's an all-round swell fellow!

TEACHING

Teaching is vitally important war work. Yet hundreds of thousands of children are threatened with closed schools or inferior teaching this school year. Salaries are far higher in other fields, and because of the rise in the cost of living, thousands of teachers have been forced to leave the profession. More than 100,000 teachers have left the schools since Pearl Harbor and 200,000 were new to their positions last year. The public must be aroused to the significance of this crisis. The Office of War Information estimates an expenditure of more than 100 billion dollars on the war in 1943. Expenditures for education, only about two billion dollars, must be increased enough to maintain the schools on an effective basis if they are to play their indispensable role in winning the war and the peace to come.

Bears And Blazers Fight Weather And Each Other

20 - 13 Win Marks Third Conference Victory

Head Coach Jim Crowe and his fighting Bears wrote finis to Central's 1943 football season with a flourish as they defeated the Blue Blazers of Elkhart 20-13 last Friday.

The game was a real fight from start to finish and we mean that in two distinct ways. Not only did Elkhart provide powerful football opposition, but they also liked to play rough in the clinches. It is sufficient to say that our boys weren't pushed around by anyone.

The weather caused distress to both sides. On this point it is doubtful as to who suffered the most, the spectators, or the boys who were playing. Only those few brave Bear backers who witnessed the battle can appreciate such a statement, but for the benefit of those who weren't present, we merely say that it was "plenty cold."

Deranek in Last Appearance

Dick Deranek made this his last game in Central togs, a further milestone in his already much appreciated local football fame. To watch him carry the ball is a thrill and we expect him to go a long way in college. Give him a little blocking and nothing will stop him. Last year he ran right through and over his opposition; this year he combined this and his amazing speed with a new maneuver—poking to outrun the opposition completely.

Dick Deranek ran 43 yards through the entire Elkhart team for a touchdown on the fourth play of the game. The second Bear touchdown came in the second quarter on a pass from Flowers to Bill Buhler. Elkhart tallied in this quarter and again in the third on inspired drives. At the start of the fourth quarter things were getting noticeably rough for both sides and putting the officials to no end of trouble. Then came the turning point of the game. Elkhart lost the ball on Central's 25-yard line and Dick Deranek immediately took off for 56 yards to set up the Bruins' third T.D. and their drive for an impending fourth as the game ended.

Jerry Morrical was honorary captain for this game. We should also mention the playing of Joe Deranek, (Cont'd on page 4, col. 1)

ANY BATHING CAPS TODAY?

Mrs. Moore, girls' swimming teacher, has asked that all students having extra or old bathing caps bring them to the gym office in Room 214, so that they may be sold to the girls in the swimming classes. The caps should have a price tag affixed to them. Since new caps can no longer be bought all second-hand ones are being put to use.

STARS IN SERVICE

The opening game of the 1943 football season was against Washington of East Chicago. They were thrashed to a tune of 25-6. This game displayed the best performance of blocking and tackling seen throughout the 1943 season and it looked then like we had an exceptionally good team in the making.

John Adams was next plowed under by the flashing cleats of the Deraneks and Dick Flowers, bowing to a 26-0 final score.

Gloom clouded our boys on the following week as the Washington Panthers defeated them 18-0.

The black clouds were soon eliminated, however, as the Bruins won their first game away by trouncing Emerson of Gary 32-2, in spite of the soot; pulverizing Central Catholic 32-6; and blasting Michigan City part 9-7 in their own mud at Michigan City.

Again the gloom settled on the boys and this time for two sad weeks. They were defeated by Mishawaka 42-6 and Riley 13-0 respectively.

Last week they ended the season with Elkhart, winning 20-13.

oOo

As we look back upon another Central football season which is even now history, plenty of credit is forthcoming to many.

First in line are the coaches, Jim Crowe and Corby Davis. They did a swell job, and next are the boys. Most of them worked hard all year and they deserve plenty of credit. It's not easy to practice football for 14 straight weeks. Deranek, Jaronik, Kukla, Buhler, Ehninger, and Walkowski are seniors who have finished their play for Central.

oOo

The junior high and "B" football teams have finished a very mediocre season while the "Cubs" lost two games and tied two. The "B" boys lost four and won three. Although the Junior High team did not succeed in winning a single game they tied for third in the western conference race and finished in a scoreless tie with Riley in the play-off. The Junior High team succeeded in tying Harrison, 6-6, and Muessel 0-0; and losing to Washington, 13-6, and Oliver 12-0.

The "B" team, on the other hand, registered victories in their first three games as they defeated Washington 7-0, Riley 7-6, and Adams 26-0. On the deficit side, however, the Bees dropped games with Mishawaka twice and replay games with Washington and Riley. The Bees scored a total of 59 points and allowed 77 points to be scored against them.

oOo

Mishawaka has spread broadcast their football monograms this year. A total of 26 men received honors. That is two full terms and four boys from the third team also received sweaters. Mishawaka also elected honorary co-captains for the year. The honors went to two swell fellows, Umbaugh and Miltenburger.
