Room 209 is collecting unused magazines for Healthwin Hospital. Old magazines should be turned into Mr. F. Sanford in that room. The magazines will be given to the paper drive after the patients at the hospital are through with them.

Poster Contest Open

The Student Council Poster Contest which began March 13 will terminate March 31. All students are eligible to enter posters dealing with keeping waste paper off the halls and floors in the school. These posters may be of any size. They should be turned in to Mr. Kuhny in Room 102.

New Club Formed

Students who wish to work should see their counselor first, because application for working permits must be made through the counselors. After the counselor has been consulted, the student may obtain the permit from the Administration Building.

P. T. A. To Meet

The next P. T. A. meeting will be held on the first Wednesday in April in the Central auditorium. Mrs. Raymond Kuespert will speak on "Spiritual Needs of Adolescence." Mrs. Casey, president, stated that the April meeting will be the last general meeting held this semester.

Those who are not eliminated in the preliminary contests will compete in the extemporaneous assembly to be held on Wednesday and Thursday, April 12 and 13. Students who are in this assembly will draw topics for their speeches the night before they are to speak, thus having only one night to prepare the speech.

Barbara Hagerty, who won the contest last year will preside at the assembly and a member of the Hi-Y will present the trophy to the winner. The winner of this contest will also speak at the Kiwanis Club later this spring. Students not in speech classes should see Miss Agnes Frick in Room 114 for details.

Debate Team Will Go to State Friday

TO CONTEND FOR STATE DEBATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The debaters will go to Manchester College, Manchester, Indiana tomorrow for the state debate tournament. Pictured, left to right, the members of the debate class are: Thomas Pauszek, Kingsley Clauer, Harold Boyce, Barbara Hagerty, Gary Aretz, Elver Hoefler, Virginia Northcott, and Glen W. Maple, Coach.

WON ALL TOURNEYS SO FAR THIS SEASON

MEDALS TO BE AWARDED

The debate squad will leave tomorrow afternoon for the state debate meet at Manchester College, Manchester, Indiana. After a dinner for the competing teams in the evening the first round of debates will be held. On Saturday morning the second round will take place, with the semi-finals coming in the afternoon and the finals Saturday night.

Those making the trip for Central will be: Affirmative, Barbara Hagerly, Kingsley Clauer and Elver Hoefler; Negatives, Virginia Northcott, Harold Boyce and Tom Pauszek. Mr. Glen Maple, debate coach, will accompany the team. Individual medals are awarded to each student debating in the state meet, and a huge cup will be taken home by the winning team.

So far in the debating season the Central debaters have won every contest in county, district and state League competition. In practice debates held before the League season started, the affirmative lost one debate to Aurora, Illinois, but won from Rochester, Crown Point and LaGrange, Illinois. The Negative lost one practice debate to Rochester and one to Crown Point; winning one from Rochester and others from Columbia City and LaGrange, Illinois. Out of a total of twenty debates held up to the present time, ten practice debates were won.

Club to Sponsor Intramural Debates

The second annual intramural debate series will get under way the week following spring vacation. Any home room or any club may enter a team, but no individual may be on more than one team. These contests are sponsored by the Student Forum and the varsity debate team to encourage interest in debating and to uncover possible talent for next year's debate squad. The winning team will receive a cup, and the individual members of the team will receive medals. The subject to be debated is: "Resolved: That our Federal Constitution should be amended to limit the tenure of the President to a maximum of eight years."

Entry blanks may be obtained from Mr. Maple in room 222.

CAFETERIA ASKS HELP OF STUDENTS

Mrs. Staples, supervisor of the cafeteria, has asked that students take their trays to the scraping tables after finishing lunch. Leaving trays on the tables makes a great deal of extra work for the cafeteria staff.

The Bond and Stamp sales at Central amounted to $838.55 last week. So for this year students have loaned Uncle Sam $76,478.85. The goal for the semester is $100,000. Mr. C. L. Kuhn's home room 225 won the Student Council Stamp and Bond Banner last week. This home room bought any other home room.

HI-Y TO PRESENT EASTER ASSEMBLY ON MARCH 31

Dr. Charles Tupper Baillie of the First Presbyterian Church will speak at the annual Hi-Y Easter Assembly in the auditorium March 31. Miss Helen Weber, conducting the glee clubs will present a varied program of sacred songs. The following committee has been chosen to plan the assembly: LaMarr Smith, chairman; Bob Bolodor, Bob Phelps, Rudy Wilfing, Richard Liszewski, Jack Wolf, and Conrad Sponholtz.

Officers for the ensuing term have been elected by the Hi-Y. They are: President, LaMarr Smith; Vice-president, Bob Bolodor; Secretary, Joe Pusztar; Treasurer, Don Gudettes; and Chaplain, Rudy Wilfing. Mr. Vernon Harter sponsors the Hi-Y at Central.

HI-Y WILL GIVE PLAQUES

"I Will Keep Faith," the Central motto, is written at the top of the plaques the Hi-Y club will soon present to the school. Opposite the picture of Christ is the Hi-Y purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character." The plaques will be hung at various places throughout the school. (The story on the back of the picture of Christ on the plaque is reprinted on today's second page.)

S. P. U. R.'s OFFER PRIZES FOR BOND KING

The S. P. U. R.'s have announced that prizes in the "Bond King" contest will be $10 and $5. Every ten-cent stamp bought at Central entitles the buyer to one vote for any boy for "Bond King." Votes should be sent to Room 313 after the teacher has signed them. The contest closes Friday, March 31.

INSPECTORS GIVE CENTRAL FIRST CLASS RATING "FOR SUPERIORITY"

Through the halls of Central last week via the grape vine came the message, "The inspectors are here!" After they had come and gone everyone heaved a sigh of relief, but there was little to fear for Central received a first class rating in years the "type of instruction at Central is very superior and the students show a fine attitude of work."

Organization, training of teachers—Central has 35 teachers with Master's Degrees, cleanliness, and student-teacher relationships were praised by the inspectors. The inspectors criticized the lighting in all South Bend schools, saying that it was inadequate.

It was suggested by the inspectors that in about a decade Central should be abandoned and an outlying school built in the northwest part of the city to take its place.

RILEY PRESENTS MUSICAL SATURDAY NIGHT

"A Yank in King Arthur's Court," a musical extravaganza, will be presented by students of John Adams High School in the Adams gym Saturday evening at 8 P. M. Tickets are .40 apiece.

Mrs. Dorothy Pate will direct a Glee Club of 80 members in the singing of modern hit tunes. Mrs. Archibald McClure of Adams and Mr. James L. Casaday of Central are directing the play.

COLLEGES OFFER SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

"Every boy and girl who has any interest in going to college should investigate the scholarships which are offered by a great many colleges," Mr. C. O. Fulwider, Central guidance head, said recently. "These opportunities should be especially attractive to girls. Many boys may lack interest because they soon will be eligible for military service, but it is highly important that they get all the education possible before induction and they, too, might profit by taking advantage of some of these offers," he further stated.

DePauw University offers more than one hundred scholarships ranging in value from $125 to $1,000. Northwestern University offers about

INDIANA UNIVERSITY TO HOLD AUDITIONS FOR STUDENTS

A member of the Indiana University speech faculty will be in South Bend on April 15 for auditions and conferences with promising high school speech and drama students, to give advice and suggestions to those who wish to continue study along for auditions through Mr. C. O. Fulwider, head of the guidance department.

Public speaking students should come prepared to give a three-minute speech on some topic which has appeared in the "Time" Magazine during the two or three weeks preceding the auditions. Drama and radio students should be prepared to present or read five minutes of dramatic material. Requests for auditions must be sent to the Indiana University Extension Division at Bloomington, Indiana. Advance arrangements are necessary in order to plan adequate time for the individual conferences. The exact time and address of the conferences will be sent to the student on receipt in Bloomington of his request.

High school seniors interested in speech and drama and in the possibility of University scholarships should arrange to see the University representatives for competence or promise in speech and drama will be considered, along with scholastic standing, in the awarding of these scholarships. Students will find the interviewers able, in a single interview, to give valuable assistance.

8:30 TO 9:00 STUDY PERIOD

Most of the students seem to think that the period between 8:30 and 9:00 A. M. is a period to visit with each other.

Home room period is merely another half hour study hall. During this time business should be done such as purchasing defense stamps, hearing the student council report, and doing some last-minute reviewing. In some home rooms more business could be done, but there is no time to do it because the students don't settle down when the eight-thirty bell rings. If the first half hour of operation goes a long way so don't hesitate to cooperate.

SO YOU THINK YOU'RE PATRIOTIC

Every day people are constantly being reminded to do their part in the winning of this war, and a large percentage of the population are doing their sincere best. But a few just think they are being patriotic. It seems odd the way some people show their patriotism. For instance, a certain family in the city has a large five-foot V sign in their front yard. It lights up in bright colors at night and can be seen from a great distance. Little did this family realize the cost of such a sign, when they bought it, and the electricity it takes to light it every night. Money spent for this very useless object could have been spent for something really worthwhile.

Still, this family thinks they should have a feather in their cap for this token of good-will toward their country. The people who buy war bonds and stamps every week and then accept rationed goods without giving stamps, patronize black markets, obtain extra tickets for excess gasoline for that pleasure trip, and pay exorbitant prices for articles, also, think they are helping win this war. They don't realize the harm they are doing—they only remember the good.

CURFEW LAW TO BE ENACTED

"A curfew law in South Bend! Oh, no! Why that would be awful—this is a free country. We have a right to stay out as late as we wish." These words have been heard among students concerning a curfew law which has been proposed in this city. They are exactly right in saying this is a free country and we have a right to what we want but the things some people want to do are not what is best for them. The problem of juvenile delinquency has become nation-wide. It is one of the most serious problems facing us outside of the war. Many think they are too old for curfew and are perfectly able to take care of themselves. Some can and some can't — it is for those who can't that this law is needed.

What goes on in South Bend in some of our local hotels, taverns, bars, and other so-called joints is absolutely shameful. People constantly talk about how the younger generation is carrying on, and why shouldn't they? We all get tired of hearing about the "good old days" and how demure the girls were then. Of course a lot of things weren't what they were supposed to be then but that is no excuse for the way the younger people are misbehaving now. A 9:30 P. M. curfew in South Bend would do much to prevent more child delinquency.

SPRING VACATION

By gazing out the window, one would think it, but a mere glance at the calendar will tell us that spring vacation is just around the corner. You're reassured of the fact, however, by the way many Centralites are anticipating and talking about it.

From the dreamy look on Ken Tupper's face when someone mentions spring vacation, he must have great things in mind. Unless the draft board changes his mind within the near future, he'll undoubtedly carry out his plans.

Ann Dunnahoo and Pat Wilson are having a great time making plans concerning their jaunt to New York to visit Phil Kroemer. . . John Bergan, Miller McCarthy, Dick Kovacs, and a few others will remain unmentioned for reasons which can be explained in less than 100 words.

Apparently Jim Johnson's greatest desire is to take a tramp back to his home town in Illinois. (Gals, that's bad!) Chuck Dolk is just counting the days 'til Jane Ann Jones has her vacation from school again.

The Esquires are throwing a duzy of an Easter Bunny Hop this vacation.

Poochie Miller will probably be warming up for the baseball season by the time spring vacation rolls around, so he'll be off the eligible dating list. Mr. Stewart is really counting on him this season, gals, so you'd better let him alone.

During spring vacation, Marilyn Bowyer will have her "Billy Boy" back for a few days. She's received so many letters from him that we're beginning to wonder just what goes!

Naturally the teachers will all miss their loving classes—especially Miss Ceyak, to her third hour class, with Ed and Black Bart, and their crazy antics.

vacation promises to be one of the best in many years.

EASTER REFLECTIONS

The sentiment on the back of the picture of Christ on the Hi-Y Placques fits the coming Easter season so well that it has been reprinted below.

"One Solitary Life"

Here is a Man who was born in an obscure village, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in another obscure village. He worked in a carpenter shop until He was thirty, and then for three years He was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never owned a home. He never had a family. He never went to college. He never put His foot inside a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place where He was born. He never did one of the things that usually accompany greatness. He had no credentials but Himself. He had nothing to do with this world except the naked power of His divine manhood. While still a young man, the tide of popular opinion turned against Him. His friends ran away. One of them denied Him. He was turned over to His enemies. He went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. His executioners gambled for the only piece of property He had on earth while He was dying—and that was His coat. When He was dead He was taken down and laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend.

Nineteen wide centuries have come and gone and today He is the centerpiece of the human race and the leader of the column of progress.

I am far within the mark when I say that all the armies that ever marched, and all the navies that ever were built, and all the parliaments that ever sat, and all the kings that ever reigned, put together have not affected the life of man upon this earth as powerfully as has that "One Solitary Life."

—Author unknown.

Verie Sauer Says

One sharp fella in Verie's estimation: Posie Flowers. Harriet Lefwel thinks so, too.

From all appearances, the Esquires, in the persons of Howard Millbourn and Dick Forbes, are taking up where Bill Freeman left off.

Another new steadying duet: Bob Malone and Virginia Grant.

Secretive Elva Hagerty won't give out with the previous possessor of a certain pin that she's been sporting. Give, Elva, give!

"No Love, No Nothin'" certainly doesn't apply to Pat Hukill, at least where Wally Bair is concerned.

Verie's vote for a cute couple: Tall Pat Wilson and taller Mike Harper.

Kathryn Adams is one of our dashing sophs. Why don't you fellas look into the matter?

You gals think there's a man shortage, but there's Dick Brown, running around loose, and with no strings attached.

"Something for the Boys": Dixie Stuart.

Jackie Doyle sure has a lot of wishes for the Easter Bunny to bring. All of them concern men, too. (Why, Jackie, you wolverine!)

Flash! Breakup of the week: Hobey Smith and Sally Loomis.

Awfully sweet date bait: Ann Paterson.

New triangular affair: Shirley Berdick, Bill Koontz, and Johnny Rippe.

Does little Joe Deranek have an interest in the fair sex? If so, we would like to hear more about him.

Why doesn't Hobey Smith stop picking up his dates in his little red wagon? Who knows? Tire and gas shortage!

Is Woodard dating at Washington, Adams, Mishawaka, or Riley now? You know, the "right around home" type!

Another member of the Stedman family has come down to Central to follow in his sister's path; Billy is his name.

There's no playing around the girls' swimming team since the boys have moved in and given them a workout.

Seen strolling the halls and dancing at the Hi-Spot: "Queenie" Jozwiak and Gene Koz. What's the story?

Hear tell that Henrietta Ewald has a secret admirer!

Still going strong: Ilene Kohler and Joel Flaherty.

5' 6" of pep and vitality — that's Dorothy (Dot) Oetjen, a senior of home room 123. From the tips of her toes to the top of her lovely brown hair she's full of school spirit. Among her many likes are hamburgers with pickle and mustard, Mrs. Staple's fruit marlow (in fact, she likes almost anything in the line of edibles), people with school spirit, green, yellow (separate, not together), basketball, and the Baer Field Cadets' Band. She's so good natured that there are very few things she doesn't like, but she finally confessed that her pet peeves are people who brag, oysters, and people who don't enjoy eating (as you probably can surmise, this interview took place in the cafeteria).

Dot seems to be almost as busy as she is pretty, because besides being president of last year's January's graduating class and an active member of the SPUR Club, she works in the main office, is captain of the cheerleaders and is on the staff of Ye Olde Interlude.

EXCHANGES

Today I'm in a very romantic mood; therefore I print this little ditty from the Mercury.

Last night I held a little hand
The kind I like to hold
I thought I'd die so thrilled was I
My blood went hot, then cold
No other hand in all the world
Could greater solace bring
The little hand I held last night
Four aces and a king.
Don't hit me! I was just as disappointed as you are.

And now our weekly (or should I say weekly?) bit of wisdom: The only one who should put faith in a rabbit's foot is.....a rabbit.

From the Hyde Park Weekly comes this history lesson for all you energetic students.

History of a Joke

Birth: Freshman thinks up a joke in study hall, chuckles mirthfully, waking up two seniors in back row.
Age—five minutes: Freshman tells it to a senior who says, "I've heard it before."

Age—one week: Senior turns it in to The Interlude as his own. Editor thinks that confidentially . . . well, you know what!

Age—three months: Editor has to fill (Cont'd on page 4, col. 1)

MENTAL HEALTH

Sometimes mental health may be even more important to your efficiency and happiness than physical health. Attentions directed toward mental health is something which yields especially high dividends, when applied during the early years of life. Hundreds of books have been written seeking to show adults how to fight off the demons of worry, fear and discouragement and how to find ways back to happiness. Thousands of doctors try to help hundreds of thousands of people clear their minds of unnecessary worries that prevent them from overcoming physical ailments. Lecturers tour the country explaining how to make friends and get along with others in business and social life. Sanitariums and hospitals are overflowing with the mentally and emotionally sick. Why wait for all this trouble to develop? Is it not a much wiser plan to make a study of the principles of healthy mental living during the school years when instruction of this kind does the most good?

Trackmen Will Rival Top Teams In State Saturday

MILE-RUN TO BE MAIN EVENT

The second meet of the current Central indoor track season will take place this Saturday as Central plays host to Riley, Adams, North Side Fort Wayne, and Hammond at the Notre Dame Fieldhouse. Records are expected to fall as some of the state's best track and field men compete in this early season's meet. The meet will begin at 2:30 P. M.

The two best teams in the state last year, North Side Fort Wayne and Hammond High School are heavy favorites to literally run off with most of the honors. Boasting many veterans, both of these teams will vie for first honors in most events since Central, Adams and Riley do not boast many stars.

The feature event of the afternoon will pit fleet Ashley Hawks of Fort Wayne against co-captain Bob Boyles of Central in the mile run. Hawks boasts an amazing record of track victories in his three years of High School competition. Five times he has been a State Champion and in his years of running he has been defeated only a handful of times.

Dick Chandonia, Central's brilliant shot putter, is expected to crack his 49-foot toss of two weeks ago, which set a new city record, breaking the previous record by two feet.

In the 60-yard dash co-captain Joe Mathews, Central's explosive starter is favored to win easily over the large group of starters. He is also the odds on favorite to break the tape in the 60-yard low hurdles. Fort Wayne's rangy Kemp is slated to win the high jump and then repeat on the 440-yard dash.

One of the finest ways for a school to develop unity of spirit is by putting into competition its best athletic teams. You can't win all the games, but more character is built by losing ball games than by winning them. Football, basketball, baseball games, and swimming meets are not won on the field of combat, but only through labor, hard practice, training, and the development of an all-consuming will to win. These factors cannot be developed overnight. It takes time. A senior can't suddenly get the urge to play football or basketball and come out and make the team.

It is essential, then, that young athletes get right athletic ideas early and keep them. A desire to develop high athletic ideals has come from the athletes themselves, in the form of training rules to be followed by each boy. The coaches were not even present when the rules were discussed and acted upon. The entire movement was spontaneous, coming from the athletes because they felt a need for it.

The rules, simple, but exacting, are as follows.

1. No smoking.
2. No drinking.
3. No late hours.
  - a. During season, be home at 10 p. m.
  - b. Be in bed at 10:30 p. m.
  - c. No dances during season.
4. No more than one date a week during season.
  - a. Be in bed at 12 p. m. after that date.
  - b. Leave women alone in school.
  - c. No tom-cattng.
5. Be sensible in eating.
6. Keep grades up.

The football squad has made these rules and they have designated a board to make decisions on infractions of the rules. The student body, however, exercises a tremendous influence toward the success of this program by doing nothing which will cause an athlete to break any of these rules. After 11, it's not just the athlete's team, it's your team, too.

BOSSE CAPTURES STATE B. B. CHAMPIONSHIP IN HARD BATTLE

The old saying that a Southern team will take the state came true once again last Saturday night after an absence of a year, as Bosse of Evansville triumphed over the Kokomo Kats, 39-35. The star in the basketball finals who broke LaPorte and Kokomo was "Brok" Jerrel, 5' 7" guard of the Bosse quintet. In the afternoon "Brok" scored 17 points in defeating the LaPorte Slicers, 41-38, and then came back at night to hit 11 points against Kokomo.

The first game of the finals, which were held at the Coliseum in Indianapolis, brought together the 4 to 1 favorite Anderson Indians pitted against the Kokomo Wildcats. The fans were startled as the quarter ended with the underdog, Kokomo, leading 10-4 over the highly rated Anderson team. The fans watched closer as the Kokomo defense shrunk the Anderson offense to one point in the second quarter. The fans were bewildered as Kokomo walked off the floor with a 17-5 lead at halftime over the Anderson Indians who hit but one field goal in the first half. The second half was a different story as Anderson came back with Joe Anderson and Johnny Wilson leading the attack to come within one point of Kokomo at the end of the third quarter, 21-20.

The fourth quarter was nip-and-tuck as Anderson, with three minutes left, roared to a 26-24 lead, but the Indians didn't have that final drive as "Long" Tom Schwartz hit two for Kokomo and Charlie Farrington hit one for the Kats to end the scoring at 30-26, and put the Kokomo Wildcats into the final game.

LaPorte, representing the Northern part of the State and led by Walt Radecki, took the lead over the Bosse Bulldogs in the first half of the other (Cont'd on page 4, col. 2)

SENIOR PLAY PRODUCTION CANCELLED

Miss Margaret Geyer has announced that there will be no senior play this semester because not enough seniors tried out either last Wednesday or Monday to cast the play. "Junior Miss" had been chosen by the play-reading committee. "It is too bad that we have to call off the senior play," commented Miss Geyer, "but I can see nothing else to do."

SPECIAL GYM CLASSES HELD FOR GIRLS

As I sauntered into Room 20, fifth period, the other day, I encountered about 21 girls, who because of some physical condition can't take regular gym. The girls take this special gym course during fifth hour five days a week.

After windows had been opened, the girls went through a series of loosening up exercises. First they did a circular roll with their heads which is not only wonderful for the neck muscles but also for blood circulation in the head. This was followed by arm, bending, foot, and sitting up exercises. Foot exercises for flat feet were done to "Sunday, Monday and Always" and I was beginning to think maybe they taught the perfect art of "swooning" but it was only for grace and balance.

Next came a course that I think should be taught in all classes—walking correctly. Suddenly I heard "I want a small cup." "I want a Hershey bar." Mrs. Moore informed me that during a short rest period the girls send down to the cafeteria for refreshments which liven them up for the next period.

(What about doing that in all gym classes?)

Mrs. Moore stated, "We try to do unusual things to entertain the girls as well as to help them."

DRAMA CLUB PRESENTS TIMELY ASSEMBLY

The Drama Club presented "This Night Shall Pass" in assemblies last week. Pat Deneen and Marjorie Manuel, as a boy and girl recovering from the shock of German bombs, discover that they are the sole survivors of their demolished city. The boy finds an injured German aviator, Vince Daube, in the ruins and succeeds in changing the German's warped views on hate and conquest.

After the death of the German the boy and girl begin to rebuild the city starting with the church. They know that their new city will be indestructible, for it will be built on love and charity instead of on greed and hate.

JUNIOR HIGH PARTY CANCELLED FOR YEAR

Miss Montgomery has announced that the Junior High party has been cancelled for this year. Due to wartime difficulties, such as the problems of obtaining and preparing refreshments, and the fact that many students have jobs after school, it was decided that it would be best to change the usual plan for the party. Instead of the customary Junior High party, farewell parties will be given in the various home rooms at the end of the term.

er afternoon game to the tune of 24-17. Then came the second rally of the afternoon as "Brok" Jerrell and Bud Ritter led the attack for Bosse against LaPorte and took a 32-29 lead at the end of the third quarter. LaPorte couldn't seem to make a comeback in the final quarter and fell to Bosse 41-38.

The final game for the state championship was all Bosse. Norman Caudell led the attack with five field goals, for 10 points, which came just when they were needed most.

Kokomo did not measure up to their afternoon showing, for they just could not find the range until it was too late. Bosse grabbed a 5-0 lead in the opening minutes and the score was Bosse 9, Kokomo 6, at the end of

The second period was a scoring spree for both teams but the Bulldogs out-scored their opponents to lead 26-17 at halftime.

The final half saw the best rally of the three games as Kokomo came from a 30-17 deficit in the third quarter to lead 35-34 during the fourth period. Ritter then tied it up for Bosse with a free throw; Jerrell hit one of his four field goals to make it 37-35; and Norman Caudell finished the scoring with a push shot to make it 39-35 in favor of Bosse—the new Indiana State Basketball Champion.
