

Falk Wins Bryan Award

Rolf Eric Falk, who graduated in last June's graduating class, was awarded the Fred A. Bryan Scholarship for scholarship and boy scout work.

The scholarship consists of three hundred dollars a year to help college expenses. In the past seven years Central students have taken six of the awards.

Eric has a high school average of 96.7 and an I. Q. rating of 126. He stood fourth in a class of 280 and is an Eagle Scout.

We Shall Not Fail

When interviewed in her office this week Miss Ethel Montgomery stated, "Even though they expect the war with Germany to be over soon, we still have the Japs to fight. On top of that there will still be the expense of bringing back and taking care of our troops over there, and also providing for the peoples of the liberated countries. So you see, there is still a great need for your help. Buy all the Stamps and Bonds you can."

Miss Montgomery will again handle sales. Last year Central lead the city schools in amount of sales.

Cheer-leaders Dressed Up

At this year's football games Central cheering section will be further enthused by the colorful new costumes our cheer-leaders will be wearing.

The costumes consist of navy blue pleated skirts with orange inserts, orange shirts, and two-tone jackets with orange backs and sleeves and blue fronts. To complete the outfit is a perky navy blue hat.

This year's cheer-leaders are Harvey Feitwell, Jackie Givens, Marjorie Helway, Barbara Oshinski.

Brademas Elected

John Brademas, a senior A from home room 210 has been selected as the Rotary Representative from Central. John will attend the Rotary luncheon each Wednesday noon. The Rotary Club is made up of South Bend business and professional men. Each high school sends one representative. At the end of the semester each representative will give a speech on what he has observed by going to the Rotary luncheon each week.

John is active in school activities, being the President of Student Council, Secretary of the Sr. Class and member of the football team.

Enrollment Figures

Enrollment figures, as released by Assistant Principal Merlin Richard in charge of attendance, are approaching last year's total of 1780. This year on opening day 1634 pupils had registered. Since then the total has reached 1760. In addition to this total of regular students there are 110 pupils who come in from the parochial and junior high schools for just one hour of work each day.

Interlude Heads Chosen

While the Interlude staff for this year is not yet completely formed, the editors and managers have been selected.

The new editor-in-chief is Carol Feiman, with Mina Jean Miller as news editor, John Bergan in charge of the sports department, Lois Garnitz, features, Martha Lentz taking over the editorials, and Marguerite Johnson in charge of the exchanges.

Heading the business staff as manager is Charles Dolk, with Ann Dunahoo and Pat Kistler as advertising and circulation managers, respectively.

The Interlude subscription contest closes Friday, September 22, at 4:00 P. M. Cash prizes and other awards will be given to the winners.

CROWE POINTS SQUAD FOR COMING GRID TUSSLE WITH EAGLES

Shown above is the small but ambitious grid squad, coached by Jim Crowe and Jack Nash, which is ready to face the Adams' Eagles on School Field at 8:00 p. m., Saturday. They are, front row, left to right: Assistant Coach Nash, White, Hayes, Chandonia, Deranek, Hazen, Brademus, Spencer, Ring, Coach Crowe. Second row: Waters, Pope, Moritz, Hood, Sobiech, Peczkowski, Nawrot, Flowers, Chrobot, Ciesielski, Derychere. Third row: Capt. Morrical, Wesolewski, Hays, Lindgren, Matthews, Deneen, Filley, Neimier, Gember, Jensen. Back row: Roytek, Perkins, Rubin, Baughman, Chalmaniak, Taylor, Bond, and Ford.

CENTRAL'S TEACHING STAFF ALTERED

FOUR NEW TEACHERS GAINED

Several changes have been made in the teaching staff this year. New additions to Central's faculty are Mrs. Virginia Tullis, from Ball State physical education teacher and Miss Wanda Detrick, from the Sullivan county schools, who teaches practical arts.

Mr. D. C. Miller has returned to school after a leave of absence caused by illness. Jack Nash, who is a graduate of Central, and has just been released from service, is our new track and assistant football coach.

Teachers who have left Central are Mrs. Swick, Lola Smith, who has been granted a leave of absence, Mr. Bert Anson, who was transferred to Washington High School, Miss May Halnon, who also went to Washington, and Mr. Wilson Thornton, who retired.

26 ARE GRADUATED

Diplomas were granted to twenty-six Central seniors at the Commencement exercises, August 3, following the summer school session. The following were graduated:

Wallace D. Bair, Lloyd Eugene Bowles, Marilyn Jean Bowyer, Harold W. Boyce, Vivian C. Broadwell, Vincent E. Butterworth, Adele Dennis, George DeWachter, Dorothy A. Gewetzki, Harmon G. Hawblitzel, John David Hooton, Wiley J. Hoover, Rita D. Kieloch, Dolores E. Konkol, Richard S. Kromkowski, Doris W. Lochmandy, John Miller McCarthy, Joan A. Manges, William A. Mass, Don A. Million, Robert Blake Mortensen, Ralph Vincent Myers, Robert J. O'Brien, Rudolph E. W. Reinhardt, Brandt Edward Shaul, William G. Wagoner, Jr.

SMILERS ELECT GLASER

At a recent meeting the Smilers' Club elected Ed Glaser president; Tom Pauszek, vice president; 'Hobey' Smith, secretary; and Jack Woodard, treasurer.

The club has already distributed football schedules and works throughout the year to boost sports at Central.

The retiring officers are Dick Kovacs, 'Hobey' Smith, and Bob Farner, president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

CLUBS TO BE PRESENTED IN COMING ASSEMBLY

There will be an assembly next Tuesday, September 19, in which the various clubs at Central will be presented to the sophomores and newcomers. The intention of this assembly is to acquaint the new students with the entrance requirements, regulations, and projects of the clubs.

John Brademas, president of the Student Council, will introduce the speakers from the clubs.

Mr. Barnbrook is sponsoring a new club, the Engineering Club. Those interested are asked to see him.

SOPHS ARE WELCOMED

Incoming sophomores were greeted with an address of welcome by Student Council president John Brademas in a sophomore welcoming assembly this morning. In reply to John's talk, David Brown from Muesel, Nancy Richardson from Madison, Daniel Bernhardt from Central, Claude Whiteman from LaPaz, and Irene Arendelle representing the new eighth grade students made short speeches.

Mr. James E. Col., the sophomore class social chairman, was introduced and Charles Dolk, representing The Interlude, spoke briefly. The cheer-leaders were introduced and Miss Helen Weber led the new students in singing.

NUMEROUS COURSES OFFERED BY EXTENSION

Thirty-three courses in fifteen different fields are offered this semester by the local Indiana University Extension Center here at Central. Courses are being offered in Spanish, sociology, physics, chemistry, philosophy, drawing, mathematics, history, government, English, education, economics, and business.

Several Central teachers will instruct classes. Mr. Arnold Peden will teach typing; C. L. Kuhn, government; F. S. Sanford, chemistry; and John Wilmore, mathematics. New instructors are Dr. Ernest Gerkin who has returned from the university campus to teach chemistry and physics and Dr. W. H. Gillian of Fort Wayne. Dr. Donald F. Carmony has replaced Dr. Lynton Caldwell as executive secretary of the South Bend-Mishawaka Extension Center. Dr. Caldwell has taken a position in Chicago.

BEARS SCHEDULED TO MEET ADAMS EAGLES SATURDAY

Central opens its home gridiron season Saturday, meeting John Adams High School. School Field will be the scene of Central's first conference game.

Adams comes into the game the underdog, by virtue of last week's loss to Mishawaka, 21 to 6. In that game Adams seemed to be hampered by the size of its team. Mishawaka outweighed Adams almost man for man, and the inability of Adams to go through the line forced them into throwing twice as many passes as did Mishawaka. However, Adams has potentialities in their many veterans returning from last year. The most outstanding of these are John Goldsberry, switched from fullback to tackle, and Louie McKinney, transferred from end to fullback.

CAFETERIA IMPROVED

Central's cafeteria has made some efficient and time-saving changes for this school year. Thanks to Mrs. Staples' untiring work, much noon-time confusion will be avoided.

The main new feature of the cafeteria is the new dish washing unit in the north room. This is composed of a sub-room where the dish washing will be done. Students are urged to carry their trays to one of the three windows for stacking. This will hasten lines. The malt machine has been moved to the north entrance in the south room. New equipment is constantly being added to your modern cafeteria. Patronize it!

STUDENT COUNCIL READY FOR ACTION

A new Student Council executive and senatorial staff will go into action Monday morning. With officers of the former Student Action, Progressive and Cooperative parties banded in unity, the staff of home room representatives (senators) was ready for business.

The officers, President John Brademas, Vice-president Dick Cortright, Secretary Barbara Haggerty and Treasurer Evelyn Manuszak, have announced that: (1) Edward Smith, Supt. of Buildings of the School City, has sanctioned the construction of Student Council trophy cases as soon as the necessary material is available. (2) The Cafeteria Committee, working with Mrs. Staples has again begun operations, with Dick Cortright as chairman. This committee assists Mrs. Staples in acquiring efficiency in the cafeteria.

"LADY IN MAUVE" IS AN ORIGINAL PRODUCTION

LARGE CAST IS NOT YET COMPLETED

Seniors, here's your chance to aid in the establishment of your senior class fund. Going directly into this fund are the proceeds of the all-school review, "The Lady in Mauve," which is scheduled for presentation in the Central auditorium on October 5, 6, and 7.

The entire production is being directed by James Lewis Casaday, the musical portions being under the direction of Mr. Walter Cleland and Miss Helen Weber. Murvil Bothwell and Lois Garnitz are co-chairmen of the review committee, which worked on the script and music throughout the summer.

There are still at least twenty unfilled parts. All students are eligible for parts in this traditional production. The cast as it stands at present is as follows:

FEW WAR TIME CHANGES MADE DURING SUMMER

During the summer months several improvements have been made in the school building. The auditorium was painted and the expanding vocations department has taken over the entire wing of the south building on the first floor of the junior building. Our cheerleaders have new costumes and a new room has been added to the cafeteria.

The Fun Starts

TO THE TEAM

Congratulations, fellas, for such a brilliant launching of the 1944 football season. We trust from the outcome of Saturday's game that we have a team with outstanding conference abilities. John Adams probably has a contrasting opinion on this subject, so let's start our home season off with a bang by proving that fact to the Adams Eagles this coming Saturday night.

JOSEPH STEWART McCOWAN

With the death of Joseph Stewart McCowan, South Bend lost a truly great person. He will be long remembered, not alone for his outstanding service to the schools of South Bend, but for his strength of character, an inspiring personality and his genius for making friends. During his twenty years of service as principal of Central High School, Mr. McCowan won the respect and admiration of students and teachers alike. He has been described as "a truly great character," and in the words of a tribute paid him by a university faculty member, "there is no greater teacher." The Interlude is grateful for the opportunity of paying this small tribute to the memory of Joseph Stewart McCowan.

BACK TO SCHOOL

It's the beginning of another school year—and those of us who survived the summer's heat and camping trips are back for another dose of education. Shocking as it may sound, we are bursting with ambition, and fairly droolin' for schoolin'—as reported in the South Bend Tribune. According to statistics, local school enrollments have surpassed last year's figures and are fast approaching 14,000. "Is that good?" you may ask. Well, it's a definite sign that more students are deciding that they don't want to wear overalls all their lives; or maybe they're realizing that the best service a high school kid can do his country is just to stay a high school kid. Our best war work is done right in our class rooms. It pays better, too, in the long run. We're getting something that will last us a lifetime and keep paying dividends, while our friends who have deserted school for the factories have nothing to show for it but a weekly pay check, and nobody knows how long even that can last. Yes, being a good student is your war job and mine—and it has a post-war future.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Saludos Amigos:

It seems that all Centralians' interests at present are directed at the All School Revue, "The Lady in Mauve." And this is rightly so, according to the dribblings of information that have leaked out via those happy little people who have been working so hard all summer preparing it for presentation. It's really going to be one "super-duper" show, with a plot that keeps you in stitches from start to finish. I know we're all looking forward to seeing some of our local cuties break out in a can-can dance, and have you hep-cats heard about the Egyptian scene and its mummy's dance with a Boogie beat?

I'd better not say anymore or I'll give the whole thing away! But speaking of Boogie, have you heard Will Bradley's record of the novel Boogie with the handle "Fry Me Cookie With A Can Of Lard." The other side carries another new one, "Request For a Rhumba," and this record is getting so popular, it appears as if it has a chance of rivaling the current Boogie favorite, "Hamp's Boogie Woogie" jived out by Lionel Hampton, with "Chop Chop" as the reverse. For those who are sent by sweet and sentimental rather than hot. Dinah Shore's "I'll Walk Alone" with "It Could Happen To You" on the turnover, will do the trick. Another record with a great future in store for it is a duet by Helen Forrest and Dick Haymes vocalizing on "It Had To Be You" and an old favorite, "Together."

That seems to be all of "What's Cookin'" this week, so I'll say good bye until next time, but first, have you heard the story of the rope? No? Oh well, skip it! Now I'd really better leave in a hurry!

Adios.

—L. G.

SOPH WELCOME

Contrary to the semi-annual opinion of sophomores, the newcomers of the year are not just a bunch of green-beans! There isn't the usual amount of confusion caused by that demon Wonder! "I wonder where room 495 is?"

When consulting a number of Central's blessed events about the first day at their new alma mama, they beately replied, "No different from your own!"

Gone are the days of "Other stairway, youngsters!" These kids know their stuff. Did Madison, Muessel and other various Jr. Highs distribute maps or diagrams of the next school of learning? Or are Sophs being born bright now? There are very few who aren't acquainted with the Little Theater, the book store, the swimming pool, janitors' "home", or the vocational building.

So I, an aged Senior who once tore his hair (as something new who's been added), offer a tribute to this young stuff who really know their upstairs and downstairs.

—N. L. B.

Verie Sauer Says:

Life won't be what it used to be for Pat Morris, since Dick Forbes got his call for the army.

Lois Louks and Charley Hillman would surely make a swell duet in Verie's estimation.

Chicago's gift to South Bend and heaven's gift to women is Mort Sweetow. He'll tell you so himself!

Seen in Chicago one summery day Rachel Taylor and Don Newman.

Muessel's loss is Central's gain when it comes to Becky Anton. Tom Brademus certainly thinks so too!

Peggie Cowger and Lois Garnitz seem to have had a very enjoyable time at Northwestern this summer, but Peggie had a very difficult time deciding whether her heart belonged to Tulsa, Oklahoma or Thomasville, Georgia.

Jim Morgan was to school on registration day with a pu-lenty sharp fella. Give out with some information, Jim.

We see that Jack Woodard has found a heart interest during the summer in Jean Steinmetz of Adams.

Another interesting summer two-some was made up of Murvil Bothwell and Bill Orr.

Why doesn't Bob Smith get over being so bashful and let Martha Clark know how he feels?

The name Jerry seems to hold some great attraction for Bob Temple.

He can't seem to make up his mind between Jerry Jones and Jerry Decker.

Jack Henderson is one happy boy these days, because Mickey Hardman has arrived from Muessel.

Hear tell that Peggy Muessel (from the school of the same name) is a swell combination of beauty and brains.

Betty Neeser is still carrying the torch for George even though he's far away at Purdue.

Surprise! This summer brought together another new couple, Verna Lee (Pug) Reed and Matt Cegielski.

Verie wonders if "Chuckie" Hurwich is planning to follow in brother Jim's footsteps.

Madison's contribution to the Central beauty parade includes among others Carol Lower, Mary Louise Beuchner and Nancy Richardson.

Some mighty mellow fellows who have joined the Central wolf pack are Louis Rosenberg, Roy Muentner, Jim McCaffery, Dick Woltman, and Dick Schaeffer.

What was your first impression of Central?

Joan Carter: "I couldn't find my way around."

Malcolm Hartstein: "We don't have to walk on the right side of the hall any more."

Connie Koehler: "Lots of fun sight-seeing." (Hm, never tried that).

Marilyn Glaser: "I got lost."

Chuck Hurwich: "Maybe after I get adjusted I'll have an impression."

Marilyn Hurley: "I never realized that so many people existed."

Becky Anton: "It's confousing, but definitely not amoozing."

BACK TO SCHOOL

The opening of the first school term will not mean, this year, the automatic return to the classroom of all America's younger generation.

Principal P. D. Pointer

The reason of course is the war. Youngsters in every state have left their studies by the thousands to take jobs. Over all, there has been a drop of about a million in high school enrollment. Obviously this is a serious situation. Few youngsters who quit school ever return. Invariably they regret their decision by the time the responsibilities of developing maturity have made it impossible for them to go back.

Now, then, is the time for parents and youngsters to sit down and decide whether high wartime wages are worth the price these boys and girls will pay later for having broken short their education.

If patriotism is the factor that invites them to continue at their jobs, they should be reminded that there is a higher patriotism involved in the case for their return to school.

It is a part of good citizenship for boys and girls to learn all they can in preparation for maturity. If you have a brother or sister who dropped out of school for a job, urge him or her to enroll now.

P. D. Pointer

SERVICE NOTES

Miss Loretta Ladew, of the graduating class of 1936, is an aviation machinist's mate in the WAVES. In a recent program at Pensacola, Florida, which honored outstanding WAVES of the 1,700 stationed there, she was named Pensacola's adopted daughter from Indiana. Miss Ladew is serving at Whiting Field, a naval air training center.

Another Central graduate who has distinguished himself in Army life is John Edward Nitsche, valedictorian of the class of 1936. He is reported to be the youngest Lt. Colonel in the Army. Nitsche was promoted to his present rank on November 15, 1943.

Lt. Col. Nitsche has been stationed in Miami Beach, Florida after spending two years in England in the AAF.

Bear Squad Earns Victory In Season's Opener

CENTRAL 15, E. CHICAGO 7

Central's battling Bruins triumphantly opened the 1944 football season 15 to 7 last Friday at the expense of Washington of East Chicago. Joe Deranek and Dick Flowers, holding down the halfback spots, starred for Central, each going across the scoring stripe once. Alertness gave Central two points in the fourth period, as Keyer of Washington was nailed behind Central's goal.

Two new backs showed up well for Central as Brademas and Morrical started in quarterback and fullback spots respectively. Brademas made a good showing as blocking back in his initial varsity fracas. Morrical, taking over fullback duties for the first time, looked good and broke into the scoring column by chalking up a point after touchdown.

Elbel Greeted By Large Junior High Turnout

Unusual enthusiasm marked the first meeting of Central's junior high football team last Thursday. Coach Clarence Elbel was besieged with an unusual turnout of 45 candidates which may be an indication of a successful season in store for the Cubs.

Although the team this year will be inexperienced, the large number of candidates will offer a large selection of talents for Mr. Elbel to choose a team from. The Board of Control has promised good uniforms for at least the first three teams, which will add color to the enthusiasm already shown.

This is Mr. Elbel's first year as Freshman football coach, although he has successfully handled the intramural sports program at Central for several years as well as turning out champion swimming teams in his years as swimming coach.

Practice is being held on the empty field on Colfax Avenue across from the senior high building which has this week consisted chiefly of fundamentals and calisthenics. The first scrimmage will be held late this week.

STARS IN SERVICE

U. S. Treasury Department

"Although the spirit of the football team is remarkable, it is a shame that there are so few boys out—only a handful of seniors," remarked Coach Crowe before the East Chicago game last week. Everyone will agree that it is disgraceful when out of a school of 1800 students only a bare 30 men turn out for first drills. Is there something drastically wrong with the spirit of the school? Of course in the words of Coach Crowe, "The ??? ???? have been weeded out," and only those who are really interested in playing are out there.

Although the spirit of the team is excellent, the physical size is good, and they act as a unit, there is a quality missing. That quality of wanting to scrap, not just play at the game, has been shown by only a few boys in the early practices. The possibilities of the team are tremendous because the boys are rugged, but with the one quality missing the team may not come up to its potentialities.

TENNIS TEAM TO START PLAY

Coach Walter Kindy's tennis men play Tuesday at Michigan City. Considering that Ed Glaser is the only veteran, the team did rather well and expects to do even better as the season continues.

This year's squad consists of: Ed Glaser, Jack Woodard, Hobey Smith, Charles Dolk, George Clauson, Jim Johnson, Bob Farner, and Tom Pauzek.

Coach Kindy will take the squad to Elkhart a week from Saturday, for the conference tournament and expects the boys to come through pretty well.

The coming of Jack Nash to the Central coaching staff is greeted with great joy by the members of this department as well as by all friends of Central athletics. For a long time the plea for more coaches, particularly football coaches, has been sounded by all that knew the true story of the work done by the obviously undermanned coaching staff of Central. The momentous work done by Mr. Crowe practically single handed in last spring's football drills showed the spirit which has carried Central on where other schools have failed.

But even he could not have handled fall practice alone. This Saturday, when Central opens its home football schedule, will perhaps write a new and more glorious page on the books of Central athletics.

More and better school spirit is being shown not only by the students but also by those who are planning to participate in athletics. This view has been expressed by coaches and students alike and may herald a better year for Central athletics. A good turnout for Mr. Kindy's tennis team, a great interest in the swimming team and the enthusiasm at the last pep session, all indicate a better support of teams this year.

VERIE (Continued)

Come now, Joanne Keltner, you know we don't believe you when you say you're through with men, especially with Jack Beyrer.

Look-alikes: Tom Pinkowski and his brother, a new-comer from Muesel.

Verie sees some very smooth material in Dick Lamarr. And can he ever beat a mean drum!

Congrats, Nita Barton, for your latest conquest.

"Is-She-Is-Or-Is-She-Ain't" that-a-way about a certain rugged lad from Philadelphia? Natch, it's Barbara Currey whom we mean.

Lonesome wolf since Ruth graduated: Bill Yoder.

FOR MEN AND YOUNG MEN

HERE's a brand new, grand new magazine of your own... geared to your interests and your way of life. Interested? Then take yourself to the nearest newsstand and ask for SEVENTEEN.

ARE YOU FOND OF CLOTHES? You will find wonderful colored pages upon pages of them—picked with you, and only you, in mind.

WANT HINTS ON GROOMING AND GOOD LOOKS? Read Diana Markey's own beauty routine. Diana is Joan Bennett's fifteen-year-old daughter, and she talks sense on this most vital of subjects. Also answer our "Twenty Questions" on good looks and good health.

INTERESTED IN MUSIC? Read "No Curls for Harry James," the inside story of a colorful career, plus "Music on a Platter," our regular feature on important new records.

LIKE SINATRA? See our exclusive pictures showing his newest and possibly unsuspected talent—dancing.

PUZZLED ABOUT ETIQUETTE ON A DATE? Take SEVENTEEN'S quiz and learn all the answers.

WANT TO KNOW WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE WORLD? See "British Girls are Busy"—first of a series of the doings of high school girls in other countries. And speaking of schools, you will probably like the feature on Hollywood High School.

WANT A HAPPIER HOME? Don't miss "Why Don't Parents Grow Up?" It talks turkey without cranberry sauce.

ARE YOU A BOOKWORM? A contest fiend? A senior who wants advice on preparing for college or tackling a career? Do you need help in letter writing? Do you want tips on how to study? Do you like silly pictures and silly verse? All this—and Sinatra, too—in our first issue of SEVENTEEN—your magazine.
