

Lost Articles

Miss Montgomery requests that students having lost some article at school, continue coming back and asking for it three or four times.

Rooms Reach 90% Quota

So far this month 22 rooms have reported that they have 90% or over, of these 20 of the rooms have 100%. Miss Montgomery requests that all rooms turn in their 90% reports as soon as possible.

Mr. Peden's and Mr. Sanford's rooms have been the only two to have the banner this year. There are 56 home rooms in Central.

What's Up?

Have you noticed some of the boys walking down the halls with guns across their shoulders? Well, then, maybe you've cast envious glances at a big fat rubber tire rolling down the main hall? Yes you've guessed it, something's up! For further details see the Language assembly on November 8 and 9.

Senior High Party

At the senior high party on October 12, Central cleared $25.60 profit. Around 210 bought tickets though only 160 attended. The money collected will probably be used for a party fund for future parties.

Girls Aid In Study Hall

The girls assisting Miss Margaret Geyer in the girls' study hall office this semester are Frances Caspano, Marie Costoff, Barbara Runbom, Gloria Wedel, Charlene Lemming, Gladys Laure, Beverly Rossin, Betty Ashley, Martha Snyder, Geraldine Gertel, Lillian Koczon, Joan Miller, Norma Miller, and Jenny Arnett.

Football Ticket Sales

Results of the ticket sale for the Emerson and Michigan City games are as follows: At the Emerson game were sold 1145 student, 25 servicemen, and 1189 adult tickets. At the Michigan City game only 797 Central students bought tickets, with 33 members of the armed services and 1100 adults present.

Spurs Make Contribution

The Spur Club recently made a $5 contribution to Mr. Harter, the sponsor of the noon hour entertainment committee. This donation will be used for phonograph records.

Movie Operators

In reporting the activities of the twenty amateur movie operators at Central, Mr. C. C. Miller, their advisor, was indeed proud. These students have systematically studied a program involving the technique and mechanism of the movie projector and coinciding phonograph player. For every hour in the school day an operator is available.

These students have volunteered for civic use, such as at the Red Cross headquarters. Many, after having successfully passed a progress test at school, have gone on to important positions in visual welfare work. Frank Meyers, a former operator, for example, is now working for the government.

The operators have now planned a special movie under their sponsorship for the near future. Any boy interested in the educational project should see Mr. Miller in Room 403.

War Stamp and Bond sales at Central totaled $509.55 for last week, and $4,596.30 to date. The stamp banner was awarded to room 210, for the fourth consecutive week. Last semester at the end of the seventh week, the total was $7,510.55, which means we are $2,914.25 behind.

STUDENTS PARTICIPATE IN TEACHERS' PROGRAMS

H. H. BLANCHARD SERVES AS CONVENTION PRESIDENT

As a result of the North Central Indiana Teachers' Association convening in South Bend tomorrow and Friday, regular classes will not be resumed until Monday. Central is proud of the fact that Mr. H. H. Blanchard is president of the Association. Another Central teacher, Mr. Clarence Needler is co-chairman of the Vocational Education and Administrative group. Superintendent Frank E. Allen is the permanent Secretary-Treasurer of the organization.

"The Impromptu of Versailles" by Moliere will be presented for the speech meeting in the Little Theatre Thursday afternoon by a cast composed of alumni and students of the South Bend Senior High Schools. Central students who will take part are John Pethe, Kay Bristow, Charles Johnson, James Sullivan, Tom Brademas, Stanley Tsalikas, Ted Brummond, Jack Cole, Dick Eisenhour, Francianne Ivick, Peggie Cowger, Miriam Dunkin and Audrey De Man. The student director is Frances Fuller, and Tom Brademas is the production manager. Serving on the various committees are Kay Bristow, James Sullivan, Shirley Clark, Marilyn Hurley, Betty Joan Christians, Audrey De Man, Betty Brown, Elaine Kolman, Rebecca Anton, and Ruth De Man. The production is under the direction of Mr. James Lewis Casaday.

To Play In Orchestra

Selected members of the Central orchestra will join with those of other schools to play under the leadership of Mr. George Dasch, of Northwestern University at the Friday afternoon meeting.

The members of the Central orchestra who will play in the District Orchestra are Norma Burns, John Gaska, Eugene Horvath, Frank Horvath, Joanne Orr, Frances Slack, Barbara Briggs, Nancy La Mar, Herbert Smith, Miriam Dunkin, Glen Moody, and Sarieta Peterson.

The All School District Chorus, directed by Olaf C. Christiansen of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minnesota, will present a program Friday evening. DEMOCRATS WIN MOCK STUDENT ELECTION

The results of the recent student mock political campaign and election have just been announced and are as follows: Of the fifty-six home rooms at Central, six had a Republican majority, forty had a Democratic majority, and ten rooms failed to report, therefore, giving Roosevelt and Truman, the Democratic candidates, a large majority. The popular vote was 800-427.

The delegates representing each party in each home room, met in room 316 on Monday morning to tabulate the results of the election, and a separate report was made by the majority party delegate of each home room. John Brademas, President of the Student Council, presided at the meeting.

Walton Program Announced

The fall program of the Junior Izaak Walton League has been announced by Mr. Arthur Smith. The league is attempting to enroll as many people as possible into the Junior Audubon Society. Each member of this city-wide division of the national society will be given a free season ticket to five lectures on wild life. These will be presented through the year at Central. The club is also planning for an autumn party, which will be given at the Walton Clubhouse on November 10.

Records Sent To Army Camp

Today the Junior Red Cross, as well as the senior division, is helping to further the war effort. A new activity has begun by the sending of phonograph records to Camp Atterbury, Indiana. Records can be contributed to local record dealers and will be greatly appreciated by the Red Cross.

RED CROSS FILMS TO BE PRESENTED

On the mornings of November 1 and 2 special films will be presented to Central students in the auditorium at 8:35 A. M. They will be presented under the auspices of the American Red Cross and will coincide with an annual Red Cross Drive.

BEARS MEET CAVEMEN SATURDAY

This Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Notre Dame Stadium Central's Bears will meet Mishawaka in the thirty-second meeting between these schools. The outcome of the game is two-fold in meaning to both schools and the stakes are high.

First of all, the school that wins this game will put itself in line as runner-up in the current conference race behind Washington. It is practically certain that one of the three local teams, Central, Mishawaka, or Riley, will finish second to Washington, but these teams have yet to play each other. Central, if it is to finish the season in the runner-up position, will have to win all of its remaining games, no easy trick for any team, since Riley and Elkhart remain on the schedule.

This year's Mishawaka team is said to be even more powerful than the juggernaut that rolled over Central last year to hand the Bruins the worst defeat in the history of the series. However, Jim Crowe has whipped together a fighting unit that is sure to give a good account of itself, comes kick-off time.

Although there are but two men on the Central squad who started last year's game against Mishawaka, the squad that will face the maroons this year has more fight, team spirit, and unity than the Bears of last year.

Thus the battle for a new Hickory Stick will begin on even terms, as two great elevens meet this Saturday.

TRY-OUTS FOR BARNSTORMER PLAY TO BE HELD THURSDAY

Try-outs for "The Phantom," the annual Barnstormers' production, will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 in Room 108. The play is a two-act horror melodrama by Dion Boucicault. There are parts for six girls and eleven boys. The judges will be Miss Margaret Geyer, Miss Antionette Ceyak, Miss Jeanne Gienand, Miss Agnes Frick, and Miss Margaret Bergan.

Speaker's Bureau Formed

In order to meet the need for speakers for the many functions that Central must be represented at, the Speaker's Bureau has been formed. This club, made up of students who are experienced in the field of Public Speaking held its first meeting on Thursday, Oct. 19, in Room 114. The Bureau is under the direction of Miss Agnes Frick, who announced the following activities for the members: Education Week speeches for the city schools and service organizations, Anti-Tuberculosis League contest, Red Cross Week enrollment speeches, and exchange speakers for the pep sessions. Barbara Hagerty was elected president of the club and Lois Garnitz was elected secretary. Members are John Brademas, Peggie Cowger, Anita Swartz, Jeanette Tyler, Ned Mac Williams, Don Looten, Don Koehnemmen, Harold Whiting, James Gleason, Shirley Clark, and Virginia Norris.

GIVE A. S. T. R. P. TESTS

Army Specialized Training Reserve Program (A.S.T.R.P.) tests are being given at Central every Friday evening at 7:00 P. M. by Lt. Philip O. Schafer to all young men who qualify for the program.

If all requirements are met, the young men are awarded a military scholarship and sent to a college or university designated by the War Department.

Students who will be no more than 17 years 9 months when they graduate, with written consent of their parents, a statement from the high school attended, insuring graduation in the specified time, and who can pass the prescribed mental and physical tests will be considered.

Enlistments for this program will be suspended January 1, 1945 and any student not available for assignment to college by March 1, 1945 will be considered.

BARNSTORMER BOARD

The Barnstormer Board for the 1944-45 season is as follows: Tom Brademas, Manager; Lucille Bartozek, Assistant Manager; John Pethe, Art Director; Norma Jones, Secretary; June Cox, Production Manager; Gloria Hawthorne, Property Director; Jack Beyrer, Electrician; Stanley Tsalikas, Miriam Dunkin, and Richard Cortright, Members-at-Large.

The Barnstormer Club is under the sponsorship of Mr. James Lewis Casaday.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Education in public schools used to be a matter of learning only the essential things that would enable the students to make a living. Now our educational system has expanded to include subjects in art, literature, and music and to provide for extra-curricular activities. The consensus of opinion is in favor of this advancement. These things are now considered a valuable part of an education. However, some authorities maintain that education should be confined to "essential" subjects. One of their arguments is that students don't take enough interest in special projects to make them worth while. Here at Central we have heard teachers voicing the same complaint. There are many students who have shown an uncooperative attitude when asked to help. If it is so hard to interest students in special activities, why should they be offered for their benefit? Since extra-curricular activities are offered only for our welfare, it behooves us to prove that we are worthy of them.

NOON HOUR FUN

Now that winter weather is on its way, more and more students will be taking advantage of our cafeteria and spending their noon hour at school. Many students seem to think that this means "nothing to do," and will proceed either to walk the streets or Central's halls. However, Central does have a good variety of activities to fill leisure time during the noon hour. For some semesters there have been noon movies. Something entertaining is always shown, and often there is a comedy. If movies bore you, room 20 is a refuge for the jitterbugs; and for those who enjoy playing ping-pong, facilities are provided in the next room. The library is open for the people who want to work there or who simply wish to read a book or a magazine. If you need to study, there is always the study hall. Let's take advantage of these opportunities and show Central we appreciate her efforts to make our noon hour interesting.

BEAT MISHAWAKA!

As you all know, on Saturday afternoon for the thirty-second time Central meets Mishawaka. On Friday afternoon the traditional pep rally and parade will be held. Let's show our team that we're behind them by joining in the parade and attending the game. We'll help them prove that thirty-two is our lucky number.

HALLOWE'EN VANDALISM

Fall and October are here again—and naturally that makes one think of Hallowe'en. You may wonder just what Hallowe'en means. It is the Eve of All Saints Day, a religious feastday. That may seem strange to some of you, because most boys and girls enjoy playing pranks on people and destroying property. It seems that in this day and age any intelligent person could find something a bit more interesting and entertaining to do with his time. With the actual fighting of the war abroad, let us be peaceful at home. In these times, when so many things are scarce because of shortages and rationing, let us preserve all that we have. We hope you will take to heart the meaning of these words and realize that destroying property is really a very poor sort of amusement.

Greetings, gaits, and how does it feel to know that report card time is almost here again? But in order to divert our minds from that touchy subject, let's hop on the Bandwagon and see what's cookin' on waxes for the week. The main news is taken up with some really solid reissues. Like what, for instance? Well, like Ray Noble's "The Very Thought of You," with the old favorite "Goodnight, Sweetheart" gracing the reverse frinstance. Or one that will surely send you on the double to the record store, "Boulder Buff" and "The Boogily Woogly Piggy" by, that's right, you've guessed it, the one and only Glenn Miller.

For those alligators who go for real hot squirm music, there's a new one out by Freddie Slack with the handle "Cuban Sugar Mill," which is Boogie that's strictly out of this atmosphere! The other side is a humdinger called "Small Batch o' Nod."

For those that are in the chips enough to invest in an album the best bet is one that is still going strong after many months, "Moanin' Low," by Lena Horne which contains such numbers as "Stormy Weather," so you see what I mean when I say it's still popular.

While you're out of school this week-end in between the Mishawaka game and the Smiler's Hoodoo Hop you'd better brush up on your French, German, and Spanish, because the modern language department is giving an assembly soon that promises to be real fun from all the indications.

It is getting so close to election time that it seems only appropriate that this column should end with an election story, but seeing as I don't know any election stories, I guess I'll have to tell you instead about the little moron. This one ate five pennies and then asked if people saw any change in him.

Well, good-bye gait, I must evaporate. Good luck, Central against Mishawaka.

—L. G.

Central's loss will be Purdue's gain when Johnny Bergan leaves our halls this week. He really needs no introduction. Curly hair, blue eyes, 5'10" Johnny is one of the most popular fellows around.

An active member of both the Smiler's and Lettermen's clubs, Johnny still finds time to be captain of the swimming team and Sports Editor of the Interlude. Last year he presided at Student Council meetings, and is now a member of the executive board.

Being a very agreeable person, John likes most anything. In fact, the only thing he intensely dislikes is raw oysters! (And who can blame him!) But J. B. admits that he goes strongly for things like tweeds, burning leaves, ham and eggs, swimming, sailing, and the color blue. He is a great fan of basketball and football games and also of Edgar Allen Poe and Bob Benchley.

Mexico City rates with Johnny; in fact, his ambition is to make ink in that city, while John Brademas sells it! (Where have we heard that before?)

We're sorry to see you go, Johnny, but we all wish you the very best of everything! Good-bye, and good luck!

He: "Please."
She: "No!"
He: "Aw, just once."
She: "No!"
He: "Aw maw, all the kids go bare-foot!"

Verie Sauer Says:

Sonia Shetterly and Dick Finley seem to have a gay old time in the lower hall during the noon hour—hm!

Something on the ball: Donna DuComb and James Ransom.

"Sunday, Monday, and Always" together: Lois Fassnacht and Mary Louks.

There was a leak somewhere! We all know now that Fred Moomaw will be taking Peggy Muesel to Smilers.

It would seem that Betty Christian prefers Adams men to those of Central, for what other reason would she be going steady with Wayne Holmgren?

Evidence of the childishness in upperclass damsels: Fay Bihary thinks Will Wampler is simply super.

Your Aunt Verie wishes she had a penny for every wrong prediction concerning the members of the football queen's court.

One event which will cause a lot of lonely hearts hereabouts — the graduation of the Midshipmen at Notre Dame.

First hour English V class is very enjoyable for several girls, but then, why wouldn't it be, with Chuck Neises in it?

A suspicion which has become a reality: Ginny Grant and John Brademas are twosoming it to Smilers.

Speaking of Smilers, you Jacksons ought to be getting your dates lined up, or somebody's liable to beat you to it.

Don't know whether Ramona Green's feet are large enough so that she can follow in brother Bob's footsteps, but his sweater surely seems to fit.

Stanley Lewiecki's short return to Central's halls caused quite a bit of admiring glances from the femmes, 'tis rumored.

Aunt Verie cut in on a very personal conversation not long ago, but she simply must repeat it: There in a dark corner stood Beverly Snyder, while John (Barrymore) Campbell romantically said, "Will you wear my Dewey pin?"

Hear tell that Tuggy Finger's theme song is "Is You Is Or Is You Ain't My Baby." Could he possibly be hinting to Deloris?

Verie's vote for some Kute Kombinations:
Jimmy Sullivan-Ginny Grant.
Ted Brummond-Marian Hall.
Jean Hammer-John Vogt.
Ham-Eggs (now how did that get in here?).

Add to the membership in the Jim Johnson fan club Virginia Meyer.

What would be the first thing you would take from the ration list if you had the proper authority?

Juanita Barton—"Gas, maybe I'd get to Chicago oftener."

Barbara Mahler—"Canned goods, it's the only thing I miss." (Lucky girl!)

Barbara Drollinger—"Shoes. These callouses are killing me!"

Pat Noble—"Shoes, not that I mind going barefooted, but—"

Wayne Touvrance—"T-Bone Steak. Bologna gets mighty tiresome!"

Bob Minkler—"Gas, to put in my tank." (Naturally.)

Harvey Miller—"Meat and canned vegetables. I need my vitamins."

PUBLIC SPEAKING

A call was made recently for boys and girls who are interested in appearing before various groups to speak on the work of the Red Cross, Anti-Tuberculosis League, the Community Fund and other causes. The response was good, but should have been better. The training one receives through public speaking is invaluable. To be able to stand before a group and present your views clearly, concisely and intelligently requires training and a lot of work. The art of good public speaking is not a gift but the result of much planning. Adults are embarrassed more frequently because of their inability to stand and say what they want to than from any other cause. Take advantage of all the training you can receive in public speaking. It will repay you later many times over.

Jr. High Gridders Downed By Strong Panthers

Coach Elbel's junior high football squad was defeated by Washington's junior Panthers 26-0 in a game held at School Field last Friday.

Central was just too small for the big Washington squad, but they did get off a few nice runs and several passes. All of their scoring attempts were halted by fumbles or they were held for downs. Alex Santa looked good on offense with Bill Dungey and Fisher on defense.

The junior Orange and Blue's next game is against Oliver at Rum Village on Friday, October 27th. They have lost to Harrison 40-6; Muessel 20-0; Madison 7-0; Jefferson 12-0; and Washington 26-0; so far this season.

SMILERS SPONSOR PARADE

The Smilers Club is again sponsoring the annual Mishawaka Day Parade. They are offering prizes for the three best floats. The parade will start at 4:00 Friday afternoon on Colfax Avenue in front of the school, and from there it will proceed through town and eventually end at Leeper Park, where the annual pep session is held and the queen is crowned. All those who are interested in entering a float in the parade should sign up with Miss Hubler in the main office.

To Aid In Paper Drive

Central's football lettermen will aid in the city-wide collection of waste paper next Sunday. According to Mr. Forest M. Wood, director of health and physical education in the public schools, a group of more than 200 junior high school boys are being assembled to man the approximately sixty trucks that will be used in the collection.

High school students are being urged to go about their neighborhoods asking housewives to save paper and have it ready for the collectors who will canvass every street and block in the city.
