

Honor Roll Announced

DEBATERS PRACTICE FOR MEET WITH NEW TRIER

Central's debate season will get into full swing when its debate team meets that of New Trier Township High School, of Winnetka, Illinois, tomorrow afternoon in Room 222. New Trier's debate team is one of the best in Illinois. The members of Central's team are, left to right: Gary Aretz, Don Looten, James Gleason, Bryan McCarthy, Naomi Barcus, Barbara Hagerty, Virginia Norris and Jeannette Tyler.

ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-ONE ON HONOR LIST

12B's TOP CLASSES

Members of the Honor Roll for the first semester have just been announced by Mr. C. O. Fulwider, head counselor.

Assembly Postponed

The Club-Welcome Assembly has been postponed until February 13. At this time representatives of three or four different types of clubs will present their club purposes and functions to the new students. A representative from the student council will also give a welcoming address which will be answered by representatives from Madison, Muessel, and Central Junior High.

Locker Changes

Miss Ethel Montgomery has announced that any student who wishes to change his locker must do it through her office. This is a necessary protection for the student in case of loss of key, for permission to break a lock on a locker can only be obtained for the locker assigned to the person wishing the breaking of the lock. Padlocks are now available in many of the downtown stores and should be purchased for the safety of all concerned.

Library Staff Elects

The library staff has elected officers for the new term. They are: President, Cecile Stein; vice-president, Ella Fokey; secretary, Beverly Frey.

Five new members have also been added to the staff. The new members contain two sister teams in Lillian and Valerie Hertz, and Rita and Carol Loutzenheiser. The other new member is Evelyn Michel.

Season Tickets for Sectional

Basketball season ticket holders will have the right to the best seats for the sectional tourney. Therefore all season ticket holders should save their tickets and present them to Mr. C. L. Kuhn the morning that sectional tickets go on sale.

Cooperation At Lunchtime

Many students eating in the study hall at noon are leaving refuse in the desks and failing to carry bottles back to the bottle tray and deposit the bottles in the compartments provided for them. All this causes extra work and leaves the room most untidy. Cooperation by everyone will put a speedy end to this problem and aid to relieve the increasing duties of those responsible.

Spelling Test

On February 9, every Central student will be required to take a State Spelling Test. These tests are being given to all pupils above the second grade and will be given at Central by the home room teachers during home room period. The tests will take about fifteen minutes.

Noon Movies

The noon movies this semester will be continued on an every week basis as in the past. However, a feature may be shown only every other week rather than each week, as has been the custom. On the alternating weeks, government films and shorts will be shown.

The stamp and bond total for last week was $231.00. As there were only three days in last week, a higher total is expected for this week. The total to date this year is $49,034.95. Banner room, 32, $96.80. Central has maintained her 90% or over stamp and bond purchase each month since last semester began and hopes to continue this record until the Victory. Remember, the war is far from being over!! Buy bonds and stamps every week!!

UPPERCLASSMEN VOTE IN SCHOLASTIC POLL

Two hundred and eighteen Central upperclassmen indicated last week the objectives they would have emphasized in their high school in their response to the January, 1945 Institute of Public Opinion poll, sponsored by Scholastic Magazines and The Interlude.

The high school objectives listed were: vocational guidance, vocational training, good health, good citizenship, personality development, preparation for marriage, leisure time interests, and culture. Students were asked to check these objectives as "Desirable," "Of great value," and "Absolutely essential."

The results of the poll show Central boy and girl opinions to be practically identical. The four objectives selected as being of an "Absolutely essential" nature were Vocational Training, Good Citizenship, Vocational Guidance and Culture, in that order.

High school aid to help develop leisure interests and appreciation of the best in music, art, books, periodicals, drama, radio and movies were voted as the least desirable of the eight objectives. Few votes for preparation for marriage and for personality development were cast.

In addition to the above opinions of the Central students polled they registered an overwhelming belief that girls should plan a career other than homemaking.

A nation-wide sampling of high school students is being made in this poll and the national results will be published in a later issue of The Interlude.

COUNCIL ANNOUNCES OFFICERS

The Student Council, with the graduation of John Brademas, president, and Dick Cortright, vice-president, called a re-election of officers for the second semester. The officers chosen are as follows: President, Barbara Hagerty; vice-president, Evelyn Manuszak; secretary, Norma Lu Booth; treasurer, Rollie Cooper.

The Executive Board is composed of the four officers and representatives of each three grades. Bob Rowe, Dick Eisenhower, Deloris Moore, Charles White, and Joyce Fey were selected by the Council in an election prior to graduation in January.

The new senators of the 10B home rooms will be announced in the next week's Interlude.

COMMITTEE FOR ASSEMBLY

Mr. Peden, who is in charge of the properties and stage for the commercial assembly, has announced the following committee: Joe Woltman, Bill Yoder, Mary Bill, Bob Dunbar, Bill Koontz, Kathryn Dumont, Georgia Wroblewski, Juanita Clark.

The assembly, "Personality and Your Job," was presented this morning for the upperclassmen and will be presented for the underclassmen tomorrow morning. Miss Bertille Hindelang is the director of the play.

BARNSTORMERS PICK ANDERSON PLAY

The Barnstormers have chosen as their annual assembly "The Feast of the Ortolans," by Maxwell Anderson. Try-outs will be held Tuesday morning at eight o'clock and 12:15 at noon in Room 20. There are fifteen boys' parts and three girls' parts.

"The Feast of the Ortolans" is a ceremony observed once a year by the Pompignan Family. This play indicates the great change that was to come to the world as in the present time.

HI-SPOTTERS ELECT

An election for the 1945 Hi-Spot officers and board members was held on Wednesday, January 24. Erwin Spanjer, of Central, was chosen to poll the group for the next six months in the role of president; Bernice Wermuth, recently graduated from Central, will hold the office of secretary; and Paul Bradfield and Kenneth Grissman are to be Central's representatives.

Other officers are Phyllis Chidister of Riley, who was elected as vice-president; Bob Michaud, Notre Dame, treasurer; Tom Rutherford, sergeant-at-arms, and Betty Murphy, music chairman—they are both from John Adams High School.

STUDENTS WITHDRAW

During the month of January, five boys withdrew from Central for the purpose of joining the armed forces. They were Roland Matthews, Norman Rubin, Dan Luzney, Victor Niemier, and Elmer Lochmandy.

BEARS TO MEET BLAZERS FRI. NIGHT

The Central Bears will engage the Blue Blazers from Elkhart on the John Adams floor tomorrow night in an N. I. H. S. C. encounter. The Blazers have been leaving a scorched trail this season, losing only two games to date. Riley has put out an aggregation able to beat them down this year and at that the Wildcats edged out with a mere one-point victory.

Rating tops on the Elkhart squad is their guard Kern. He scooped in 16 markers against Riley and is their high point man for all games. Their center, Hoffman, stands up to a six feet three inch measure. They have been well coached at a slow deliberated game.

Central will be there to match the Blazers at every turn. Woodard, Glaser, Adams and Hazen are quite sure to be in there. "Tug" Finger is still on 24-hour call to the Merchant Marines. He may or may not be on the floor when the Bears square off against this opponent which has always been tough on the hardwood. The Bears defeated the Blazers at Elkhart last year, 32-27, needless to say the Blazers are out after victory.

Following this contest Central will have only one more home game, that being with Emerson of Gary on February 14.

MINKLER CO-CHAIRMAN OF DANCE

Bob Minkler, of Central, and Bruce Chamberlain, of Mishawaka High School, were chosen as co-chairmen of the "Swingheart Sway," the 7th annual Twin City Valentine Dance, given by the Hi-Y clubs of all South Bend and Mishawaka High schools. This semi-formal, which promises to be one of the most gala affairs of the season will be held on February 17 in the Progress Club, with Myron Walz furnishing the music. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Hi-Y, but there is a limited number to be sold to each school. The ticket sale will begin February 1.

FEES PAID

Miss Pfaffman's home room, 101, was the first to report 100 per cent payment of fees. Mr. Kuhn's new sophomore room, 225, followed in second place.

PERSONALITY

Do you sometimes hear it said, "She has personality." That is a common conception. Personality is present in everyone. Your personality is the sum total of you in your effect upon others. It may be a positive or a negative personality. A colorless, inexpressive personality is negative. A striking personality, which is the usually referred to as "personality," is a positive one. It can be either agreeably or disagreeably so.

It is a mistake to think that a person is born with his personality stamped upon him, or that a pleasing personality is acquired by some magic means. We are born with certain tendencies, which we ourselves shape, or allow to be shaped, into what we will.

A pleasing personality comes largely out of responsiveness. Be interested in all about you. Learn to enjoy your surroundings. Appreciate people; be adaptable; enter wholeheartedly into things. Self expression without too much dwelling on ourselves makes our personality bloom and bear fruit.

Express yourself, instead of reflecting the moods of those around you. If someone is boisterous, you need not attempt to echo or outdo him. One can be gay, and still gentle and gracious.

The thing to do is to get into activities, take up interesting hobbies. Soon you will be enjoying these so much that you will become associated in people's minds with them and be thought interesting and worth knowing because you do interesting things. If you become one whom others like to do things with, they'll like you too, naturally.

—Olive Richards Landers.

OUR NEWSPAPERS

During these days of war, it is essential that we read our newspapers and study the maps published daily for our use. It is impossible for anyone to tolerate a person who knows little or nothing about current happenings on the home and battle fronts.

We, as the adults of tomorrow, will have to know what has been going on in this war, the turning point of our history. When the boys come home, they will expect us to be able to talk intelligently with them about the theaters of war that they have been in. We won't make much of an impression if we think that Luzon is a type of cough drop instead of the largest island of the Philippine group.

If we are carrying on correspondences with servicemen, they will wonder if we are worth fighting for if we don't know that Acken is in Europe, not India!

Of course, not many of us are likely to commit an error as that, but it is important that we learn where the cities and towns talked about are located, and what have been the most recent happenings in these places.

It only takes a few minutes every evening to read and digest the front page of a newspaper. If we would set aside fifteen minutes each evening to read the important news of the day, and study the maps in the paper, we would soon find that the current history and geography is far more interesting than we have ever imagined! Before long we will be up-to-date on the news of the day, and will become so engrossed in current events that we will want to spend much longer than fifteen minutes on the front few pages.

PHYSICS—A. Joker

My name is I. Flufofalot and lately my Physics teacher has been considering setting me up as the typical example of what happens to the flower of American youth when they spend their time sleeping in class. The climax of it all came about last Tuesday afternoon. I could see by the diabolical leer on the teacher's face that he had a real bush of a test for us.

After explaining it he backed off into a neutral corner and shouted, "You're off."

Back at my desk I looked carefully at prob one and had just decided it was a sketch of a relief map of Northern Tibet when a streak of lightning (Smith, with number two) reminded me that this was a Physics class. For the next fifteen minutes I struggled with this gem of all Rube Goldberg contraptions and finally reduced it to a differential screw jack hooked to an epicyclic gear train by means of six cones and five worms. The problem was to find the exact cost of the fuel required by a Model T driven by a midget with a wooden leg which was to raise a ten-pound man twice the height of the flagpole in front of the school in a snowstorm whose coefficient of friction could be found by the integral $\int dx dx$ from minus infinity to zero. Immediately recalling that E. to the minus kt is inversely proportional to the average circumference of the craters of the moon, I applied, f equals Ma , with the result in teeth per horses squared per second squared. Dividing by G , because nothing can accelerate without gravity I ended up with Absolute temperature. That was too much. I waded up my eight pages of calculations and threw them out the window.

Then I took my age, divided by the day of the week, added my shoe size, multiplied by the barometer reading, subtracted the number of seats in the room, and resignedly took my answer up to the desk.

I went back to my seat and started to prepare my forthcoming speech to P. D. when a cry of chagrin pierced the room.

"Great Jumping Jupiter, someone's worked problem one." He glanced at the name and cried, "Flufofalot, you've been deceiving me. Come, come, my boy, tell me who has been helping you?"

"I—But I never worked a Physics problem in my life," I stammered, "there must be some mistake."

"That's it, there must be some mistake." He scanned the paper again and suddenly shouted, "Flufofalot, you've forgotten the sign. The department's saved. You're in the doghouse again."

END—and how

—C. Dolk.

What comic strip character would you like to be and why?

Joanne Whitehead: "Invisible Scarlett O'Neil — because she could get me out of difficult places."

David Duncan: "Mutt, because it seems he can control his appetite."

Joyce Penn: "Mary Worth — she's so helpful."

Bill Koontz: "Li'l Abner—ignorance is bliss."

Mina Miller: "Brenda Starr, Reporter—I can dream, can't I?"

Mr. Pointer: "Jiggs—he could slip away much better from Maggie."

Fred Moomaw: "Jeff—I'm always losing combs."

Betty Neeser: "Hatchet-face—so I can get more nylons."

Mary's Little Lamb

Some people say that fleas are black. But I would like to know,
'Cause Mary had a little lamb
Whose fleas were white as snow.

"What's wrong with you? You look kind of peaked!"

"A dog just bit me."

"Is he dead yet?"

Don't miss it!! February 15 and 16.

Verie Sauer Says:

What is this we hear about Sonia not being good to Filley!

To what does Ed Glaser owe his recent popularity?

Hear tell that Chuck Neises has had a fight with his Adams lassie. Now's your chance, gals.

Brademas and Morrical seem to have a big time deal in Mishawaka—what's the story?

Spiro Metros is all aflame about his second hour class, with Helen Pappas sitting next to him.

Fred Moomaw has finally picked one sweet gal, Lucille Bartozek; but it seems she's picked Tom Brademas.

Congrats to the "Six Shooter" for their super dance last week end.

Verie thinks that Lois Jones and Bob Adams would make a sharp couple.

Marilyn Bowker seems to be charmed by Paul Fodge of C. C.

Elaine Kolman and Mickey Hardman are running a race — let's see who wins out.

New sophs Mary Cook and Stewart Burgess (Bruce's brother) are already steadying it.

Joanne Keltner seems to enjoy those spherical trig and physics classes—hm, wonder why!

Central's football players are plenty OK, but as far as Mary Ellen Hasfurther is concerned—she'll take N. D.'s Bob Welch.

Muessel's loss, Central's gain: Beverly Farnsworth, Marilyn Rohrer, and Juanita Hale.

A romance in full bloom—Doris Elbel and Marvin Flower.

Fred Altgelt (yes, he's Pat's younger brother) may turn out to be Central's Jose Iturbe.

Another girl added to the list of N. D. admirers—Audrey Casey, with Jim Hacky as the object of her admiration.

We're expecting big things from Don Kuespert, from Madison — he's Katie's kid brother.

Where soph Bs are concerned, Albert Lawrence certainly gets around.

Move aside, Centralites, and make way for another Brademas—this time it's Jim, a smaller edition of brother John.

Why must the senior Central femmes continually delve into the juniors and sophs for their dates? It ain't fair!

Why does Murvil Bothwell always blush when Louie Lawton comes around?

It was nice to see Jim Hans around school the other day.

Add to the list of new soph sharpies: Nancy Bloom, Joan Nussey, Nancy MacDonald, Danny Neiswander, and Keither Smith.

The numerous dances provide many opportunities for instance, Charity Ball-ing: Bett Lou McCarthy, Bill Mitchell; Ott May, Chuck Dolk.

Now that Johnny Brademas has become an alumnus, many torches are being toted for him, including a fellow grad, Pat Hukill.

A belated thank-you to Betty Ann Keene for her wonderful after-commencement party.

Verie noticed the Hultgren Johnson duet for Prog—on them it looks good.

Conflict in Peg Cowger's romance: Virg Grant — don't tell me that she has Dunbar, too? For shame!

Seen at the Six Shooters dance—Jerry Jones, Bill Welsheimer; Pat Barber, Don Schaffer; Mickey Hardman, Ed Glaser; Jerry Decker, Ed McCarthy.

Why does Bob Stansbury look so happy as of late? Could it be that a certain little blond has relented?

Have you heard that Jim Nelson's still in the Great Lakes Dispensary? No fooling, he's really had some bad breaks.

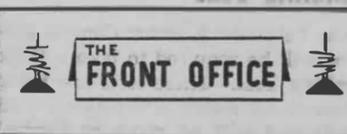

This week we want to introduce to the new soph Bs (to them, because everyone else knows him) that boy with the big smile, that the hero of the week (you would be, too, if you were still standing after I had asked you at least fifty brutal questions about yourself), Charles Dolk.

He's a member of the Smiler's Club and has been on the varsity track, tennis, and golf teams, is treasurer of the Senior Class, and is (notice this, everyone—we want to get a plug in!) the business manager of the Interlude.

His favorite color is red, he's notorious for his ties (just guess what color they are), and steak, scrambled eggs, ice cream, smiles, "those who smile," and sailing are pu-lently on the beam where Chuck's concerned.

C. D.'s pet peeves are zoot suits—he says that they take too much exercise to get into and out of) and the color green.

In the line of ambitions, chief desire in life is for three certain young men to catch chicken pox or mumps, so that he can get his appointment to Annapolis (he's an alternate).

LET'S DO OUR SHARE

The schools of America are in the war effort. Their first responsibility at any point where they can make a contribution to the winning of the war is to do so. This they have done. They have trained eight million men and women for wartime jobs in industry. They have developed nationwide rationing and registration programs which could not have been conducted so efficiently by any other agency. They have conducted scrap and bond drives. They are giving preinduction training to each succeeding group of high school boys as important as post-induction training in any army camp. They have adjusted courses to permit pupils to do wartime work, thus relieving the manpower situation. Meanwhile the schools have continued their regular program of education for twenty-five million boys and girls. But we still have a job to do. The war is not yet won. We must continue to support our boys on the battle fronts. The best way we can do this is to buy war stamps and bonds each week. Are you buying your share?

Maroons Hold Bears To Basketless 4th Quarter

The Mishawaka Maroons grabbed an N. I. H. S. C. game out from under the noses of the Central Bears in the Cavemen's gymnasium last Friday night in a fast moving game. The game was close all the way with Mishawaka leading by just several points at the end of every quarter.

The game was rough from beginning to end. In all there were 37 fouls, Central having 19 to Mishawaka's 18. Glaser put Central in the lead late in the first quarter but Rehbein and Marsee broke this lead to put Mishawaka ahead 14 to 13 at the end of the first quarter.

The Bears were quick in taking the lead in the second period, due to a field goal by Woodard and a charity shot by Finger. The Bears could not hold this lead however. Rhoutsong sunk five points putting the Cavemen ahead but their lead was short lived as Hazen took over and sunk four free throws for the Bears. Mishawaka then zoomed into the lead making the score 25 to 22 at the intermission.

Bears Hold Lead

The Bruins started out the third quarter with a bang. They ate up the Maroon lead and shot into a three-point lead. Apparently the Cavemen were not in the least bit worried, for by the time the third period ended they led the Bears 35-32.

The fourth quarter saw three Bruins leave the game via the foul route line. They were Finger, Hazen, and Adams. Central didn't sink one fielder all throughout the fourth quarter. They were kept in the game by six foul shots. With second to go and Mishawaka leading 40-37 a technical was called and Glaser neatly added the point. With the score then 40-38 the Bears took the ball but the final gun sounded before they could take another shot.

BEAR FACTS BY CUBSKIN

Central's track men are already practicing and getting into shape for the forthcoming season. Under the excellent, although sometimes driving, leadership of Coach Jack Nash, the team has been working out here at school with push-ups and many other energetic calisthenics. Co-captains Bill Yoder and Bob Smith are working just as hard as the newer members and this year's squad promises to make a show for itself. Coach Nash is still looking for new recruits for his track teams and any boy who is eligible as far as grades are concerned is urged to try out for the team. Mr. Nash has taken over the track squad because last year's coach, Mr. Bert Anson, left Central to coach at Washington High School last year.

oOo

Central's last two swimming captains have really made a place for themselves in college swimming rosters. Bill Freeman, the captain of the '43-'44 squad, is now swimming for Purdue, while Johnny Bergan, before his illness, was swimming a mighty fast back stroke. Both of these men were fine swimmers and made names for themselves and Central in the line of swimming. Perhaps they can do the same at Purdue.

oOo

Hammond's power packed tank squad outpointed Central's swimming team 42-24 in a meet held at the Natatorium last Saturday afternoon. Central's tankers placed as follows: first place to Chreist, in the 100-yard breast stroke and to Noble, Makielski and Hood who made up the winning medley relay team. Capt. Noble annexed second place for Central in the 100-yard back stroke event while Hood in the 100-yard free style, Berta in the 40-yard free style, and Hahaj in the long 220-yard free style event also took red ribbons. Third place honors went to Mitchell in diving and to Berta in the 100-yard free style. Incidentally this is the first time that Capt. Noble has been beaten this season. He was beaten by Miller of Hammond in the fast time of 1:12.4.

This Wednesday the Bruins tank squad traveled to Gary to meet Froebel and Horace Mann, and Saturday they jaunt over to Whiting for a meet in the afternoon, and then to East Chicago to meet Washington in the evening. When they met Horace Mann in the "Nat" on January 17, the visitors won 41-25, but the Orange and Blue tankers did not meet the other three squads in early season competitions.

Debaters To Meet Nappanee

Central's negative debate team will debate the affirmative team from Nappanee at an assembly for upperclassmen in the auditorium on Wednesday, February 7. The question will be: Resolved, That the voting age be reduced to 18. Central's team will be composed of James Gleason and Don Luten. On the same morning in another room, Central's affirmative, composed of Barbara Hagerty and Virginia Norris will debate the same question against the negative from Nappanee. On Thursday, February 8, the team will debate before the lowerclassmen against a team that has not been decided upon as yet. The other two members of the debate team are Gary Aretz and Virginia Mark.

The senior class of the Washington-Clay High School will present "Ever Since Eve," a three-act comedy of high school life, on February 8, at 8:00 p. m. Reserved seats 50c, bleachers 35c. Washington-Clay gym.—Adv.

 "Westward to Chungking"—Kuo
 "Giants of China"—Kuo
 "Introducing Africa"—Wells
 "The Pacific"—Carpenter
 "The Making of Modern China"—Lattimore
- People Worth Knowing
 "The Exile's Daughter" (Pearl Buck)—Spencer
 "John Philip Sousa"—Lewitan
 "Fuss 'n' Feathers" (Tecumseh Sherman)—Long
 "Handel at the Court of Kings"—Wheeler
 "The First Woman Doctor" (Elizabeth Blackwell)—Baker
 "Tales from the Vienna Woods" (Johann Straus)—Ewen
- Romance and Adventure
 "Bride in the Solomons"—Johnson
 "Signed with Their Honor"—Aldridge
 "Destroyer from America"—Fernald
 "The Building of Jalna"—De la Roche

DON'T BLAME MR. KUHN

Why does our constitution resemble a lame dog?
 Because our constitution is full of rules and a ruled sheet is ink lined and a inklined sheet may be said to be inclined and an incline is a slope up and a slow pup is a lame dog.

BARNSTORMER BOARD

The Barnstormers elected a new board at a recent meeting. It is to be headed by John Pethe, manager and art director. His assistants are as follows: Tom Brademas, assistant manager; June Cox, stage director; Kenneth Hawthorne, lights; Ted Brummond, production manager; Frances Slack, music director, Audrey deMann, properties; Lucille Bartozek, costumes; Stanley Tsalikis, publicity, and Vivian Anton, membership.

RECORDS GIVEN TO SCHOOL

The recordings of the program "Voices of Yesterday" have been presented to the school city by WSBT and are now in the library. There are 54 records, which contain the voices of such famous people as Pope Pius XI, Enrico Caruso, King Albert I of Belgium, P. T. Barnum, Theodore Roosevelt, and Woodrow Wilson.

LOOK AHEAD

What!! No French I, German I, Pre-Induction Spanish and World Literature to be offered this semester? Doesn't every person realize that the only way to secure a lasting peace after this war is by better understanding among all the countries in the world? What subjects could possibly further world understanding more than languages and literature of other nations? It's time to stop and think! What are you doing to educate yourself for the post-war world?
