

Contest Held

At a declamation contest held at Riley High School on January 30, in which representatives from several schools took part, James Gleason, of Central received first place and Virginia Norris, also of Central, received second. The contest concerned this year's debate question: That the legal voting age be lowered to eighteen.

Teachers Meet

"The American School Organized for Democracy" was the topic discussed by the South Bend Round Table of Christians and Jews at a meeting of South Bend teachers held in the Central auditorium last Tuesday at 3:30; Mr. Frank E. Allen presided and Dr. Stirling W. Brown, of Chicago, served as moderator. This program and the school assembly on Tuesday morning were in connection with National Brotherhood Week, from February 18 to 25.

To Represent Central

Barbara Runbom has been chosen as Central's representative in the Altrusa club speech contest. Barbara will compete with winners of the other school contests this evening at 7:30 in the Little Theatre at Central. The contest is open to the public. The subject of the speeches is "The Value of a Higher Education in the Post War World." The speakers speak on the advantages in relation to their chosen vocations. Barbara's speech is on the air hostess occupation.

Social Chairmen Meet

The home room social chairmen met in Room 316 on February 5 to make plans for a Senior High Party to be held on Friday, February 12. There will be refreshments, entertainment and dancing. Music will be provided by Artie Shaw, Harry James, Glenn Miller, and many other well known bands (on records, we're sorry to report). The party will begin at 4 o'clock and continue until 5:30. Mr. J. Roy Smith is in charge of arrangements and the party will be held in room 20.

More Tests

The Iowa Silent Reading Test will be given to the 9A's on Friday, February 9, and the 10A's Wednesday, February 14. The purpose of this test is to determine the student's reading ability and comprehension. Any students who fails to make the standard grade will be required to Improvement English next semester.

New Stamp Policy

Miss E. Montgomery has announced that all stamps and bonds which are purchased after home room period, or after the balance has been struck, will be credited on the next day's purchase. This has been the practice since sales of stamps and bonds commenced except on the last day of a "drive."

Students Visit Library

The new 10B's and 8B's will have the opportunity to acquaint themselves with the library this week. Miss Hardy and Miss Crepeau will show them how to find the various types of books in the library and demonstrate the process of signing a book out. The rules of the library will also be explained.

The stamp and bond sale total for last week was $697.40, bringing the year's total to date to $49,732.35. The Banner home room was 116, whose students purchased $160.85 in stamps and bonds during the week. Room 209 was second with $100.80.

"GEORGE WASHINGTON SLEPT HERE" CHOSEN FOR ANNUAL PLAY

Matinee and Evening Performances To Be Presented

The Drama Club will present their annual play on Thursday, February 15 at a matinee performance and Friday, February 16 at an evening performance in the auditorium. They have chosen for their play this year, "George Washington Slept Here" by Moss Hart and George Kaufman, a hilarious Broadway comedy hit in three acts. The play concerns the trials of Annabelle and Newton Fuller as they attempt to make a livable home out of a dilapidated farm house in Pennsylvania in which George Washington is rumored to have slept one night. To add to their complications, Mr. Kimber, a local product, derives great pleasure from thinking up schemes to part them from their money, while Raymond, a pestiferous young nephew and Uncle Stanley, a rich (?) old windbag make life generally uncomfortable. The clever dialogue and humorous situations join to form a highly amusing entertainment as may be recalled from the motion picture of the same name starring Jack Benny and Ann Sheridan.

Play Directed By Miss Frick

The play is being directed by Miss Agnes Frick, and Mr. James L. Casaday is in charge of the staging and production. Miss E. Roop is in charge of properties and Miss Bergan and the Handy Andy club are distributing the tickets. The posters were designed by Ella Fokey and made by Mr. Trottnow and the art classes. Marjorie Manuel, Betty Lou McCarthy, Joan Shanafelt, Murvil Bothwell, and Norma Lu Booth compose the program committee.

BOOK DRIVE SUCCESSFUL

The book drive to secure books for the Marines was very successful. Over five hundred books were collected at school. The Amigo Club handled the publicity for the campaign.

The committee was made up of five college deans, two county superintendents, two city superintendents, two high school principals, two elementary school principals and two classroom teachers. The problems discussed were: state testing programs, education of returning veterans, and cooperation between the various school systems.

PARLEZ-VOUS ESPANOL?

It is astonishing to discover that in this semester's curricula there are but two beginning language classes. This is rather alarming in a high school the size of Central. Even if we were to rely on present-day events to draw our conclusions from, this would be ridiculous.

Language is useful in almost any situation, and necessary in many. With the current combats taking people to all parts of the world, those in service have found such foreign language as they had had invaluable, and those who had had no language regretted their not having taken it.

Aside from the utility of a foreign language, it also broadens a person's outlook on the world, for studying a country's language brings us closer to the country itself, and helps us understand its people.

A language may not be a "snap course," but taking it is not only interesting, but well worth our while. So let's have more foreign language next semester, for we shall find it beneficial in the future.

DO YOU HAVE A HOBBY?

Do you have a worth while hobby? Perhaps you have and perhaps you haven't. Maybe you collect buttons, sea shells, stamps, or old coins. But what is the object of such a collection? Unless you plan to be a novelty dealer, none will do you much good. Webster defines the word hobby as "something in which one takes an extravagant interest." To merit such interest, a hobby should be of some tangible worth, and such a worth could only be in the line of vocational interest.

Practically all of us have some idea of what we would like to do after leaving school. This makes the choice of a hobby comparatively simple. We usually like to do one thing more than any other, and career if one is truly in earnest.

The best way to start a hobby is to study it first. Our libraries are treasure houses, for books have been written on practically every conceivable line of interest.

Get a hobby, keep working at it, and you will never have "nothing to do."

DO THE ENDS MEET?

Budgeting your allowance means planning it so as to get the most out of it that you can. Whether your personal income is allowance from your parents or your own earnings, or both, have a plan as to how you are going to spend it, and then stick to the plan. That makes it go further in satisfaction than spending it as it comes, and then wondering where it has gone.

ARE YOU A MILQUETOAST?

The desire for popularity often leads a student into agreeing with statements made by others in which he does not believe. Stick up for your own convictions and what are right and wrong. True popularity comes through the route of sincerity and real friendship.

MUSIC IS WHERE YOU FIND IT

Hello and how are you! Well, gates, what with the new semester truckin' right along, what should happen but a grand and glorious event. Artie Shaw is back on the available list with his sharp new Ork. His best waxing to date is the new tune "Let's Take the Long Way Home," from de' Bingle's new picture "Here Come the Waves."

Also in store this time for the long hairs of ye olde Central are the new platters of all the popular "Porgy and Bess" numbers. Those of you who saw the opera recently will really tear for these.

For the best in smooth, dancaable music, turn to Charlie Spivak's "A Wonderful Winter," with the flip-over "Right As the Rain," from the Broadway hit "Bloomer Girl."

And now they've made a successor to the Stein Song. It's "Rum and Coca-Cola," featured by the Andrews Sisters. Speaking of novelties, maybe Square Spike hasn't one in "Don't Give the Chair to Buster."

As this new semester gets into full swing, you hep cats had better become "clickin' chickens," because this column, like your .45 will be really loaded.

'Bye now,

Seeing breezy, brown-eyed, blond Lucille Bartozek, people unconsciously start looking around for some can-can girls, for she will long be remembered for her very entertaining portrayal of "Zo-zo," the dancer of "The Lady in Mauve."

Pretty, 5' 4" Lucille has been active in several other presentations, including the recent "Phantom." She has taken a large part in Glee Club, Barnstormer, and S.P.U.R. activities. She liked her part in the revue and her death scene in "The Phantom" more than any others she has had. She also likes dancing, swimming, screaming (in plays, naturally), hot-dogs with stacks of mustard and onions, and dramatics class. Her pet peeve is undependable people, especially those who don't show up at rehearsals.

Lucille loves musical comedy, but wants to be a dramatic actress. Her only other ambition is to show certain people she can sing on pitch. We all know that Lucille will fulfill her plans, and we wish her the best of luck!

And then there is the poor man who had his eye on a seat in the bus and someone sat down on it.

"I guess I've lost another pupil," said the professor as his glass eye rolled down the sink.
—Ye Pilgrim.

Notice the Central ring Mary Ellen Hasfurther's wearing—it's Didge Wagoner's.

The Shirley Proud-Ted Kolassa affair couldn't possibly be as casual as indicated.

That diamond looks wonderful on Ann Scott's third finger-left hand.

Hear tell that Bill Hare can be plenty persistent when asking for dates.

For that pa-lenty steady list there's always Dick Chandonia and Dorthea Shubert.

Now why must Dick Pope play the field so constantly???

Now who can be so important in 4th hour soci-class besides Mr. Maple, that Ginny Grant would want to change from 3rd???

Don't listen to Lois Jone's complain about her 2nd hours, she really loves it!!!

Added to the list of sailor admirers—Gladys Laure.

Is Mickey's spell on Hendersen slipping??? It's said he's casting his eyes toward Marilyn Bowker.

Sharp new couple—Jerry Decker-Bill Welsheimer.

Betty Hull certainly had a screaming time during Christmas vacation.

Question of the Week—What was it that Norma Miller and Martha Snyder gave to Gertie Major??? It certainly gave her a lift!!!

And what were Temple and Hazen up to the evening of the Six Shooters Dance??

What have we here: Marilyn Glaser and Louis Lawton—oh, that gal!

Added to the new list of steadies are Al Walsh and Beanie Wermuth.

Seems as though Howie Milbourne has a few admirers.

Back home again from Purdue—"Rick" Falk!

Hobey Smith can tell you how to get to the Mishawaka airport!

Edward Arnold, not the movie idol, is Central's biological genius.

Wondering—Is there any relationship between Jim and Van Johnson? They are both cute.

A new triangle (or is it?): Ginny Grant, Bob Malone, Pat Harrell.

Will Tuggy ever make up his mind? Or has he already!!!

It's said that Carolyn Wunderlich and Dorothy Tohulka have their hearts at Riley.

Looking extra sharp at Rainbow were—Joanne Whitehead and Johnny Vogt.

Don't you wish you were Joan Taylor and could pick between Illinois, Notre Dame, and Central!

Verie's vote for one swell kid: Carolyn Currey.

Changeable as the weather: Fay Bihary. In the morning it's Conrad Sponholtz; after school, John Cox.

Verie can always count on such weather-proof romances as Dave Reid and Mary Lou Linsner; Beverly Berguson and Harley Reider; Joan Jozwiak and Bob King.

Whats the secret about Harvey Feiwel's date for Rainbow?

Talk about triangles—take a gander at Wunderlich, Woltman, and MacWilliams.

You can bet your life that Betty Farner won't get lost in the shuffle.

And what does Duke Meyers do in his spare time? Many Central lassies would like to know.

Why doesn't McCarthy get wise to himself? A certain young lady won't wait forever.

This Schaffer Stuart romance seems to be getting warmer and warmer.

Central's glad to welcome home Bob "Unk" O'Brien. Looks sharp in khaki, doesn't he, gals?

We have a feeling that Pinky's heart will always stay at Adams.

Too bad about Dean Bowker — it seems that he's in the dispensary at N. D.; and right in the middle of his leave, too.

What improvements would you like to have made at Central?

John Rippe: "Get that elevator running."

Barb Hagerty: "More boys like Mouse Spanger."

Annabell Kish: "Velvet lounging chairs in the hall during a ten-minute rest period between classes."

Jerry Hess: "Movies with Lana Turner."

Lillian Takacs: "How about some escalators."

Marilyn Shively: "Van Johnson."

Louie Lawton: "More girls like Murvil Bothwell." (What goes here?)

Joan Witters: "More cute men!"

Parson: "Do you know where little boys go when they smoke?"

Boy: "Yep, up the alley."
—Crimson Comet.

LOOKING AHEAD

The life of a person with a plan is like the flight of a plane which is following a radio beam. Such a person's energies are bent toward succeeding at some definite task and he makes his efforts count instead of squandering them on trifles. He has found out what he wants and has arranged his habits of life according to his plan for getting it. Ambition puts enthusiasm into his work, reduces his fatigue, makes his disappointments easier to bear, give strength and distinctiveness to his character. That is what is meant by saying that the world gets out of the way of the man who knows where he is going. The world does not move over any but its hard work and disappointments don't seem half so bad when they are leading toward a realization of a dream. Nothing is work unless you would like to be doing something else.

Bears At Home To Conference Foes At Nat.

CALUMET DISTRICT TEAMS ARE FAVORED TO TAKE TITLES

Central will be host to the other six N. I. H. S. C. teams in the swimming conference at the annual Conference swimming meet which is to be held in the Natatorium on Saturday, February 10. At 10:00 a. m. the elimination trials will be held while in the afternoon at 2:00 p. m. the finals will be run. Powerful Horace Mann of Gary and Hammond are the heavy favorites to cop the meet. The other teams competing are: Washington, E. C., Whiting, Gary, Froebel, Lew Wallace, and Central.

During the past week the Central swimming squad rated 50-50, winning two and losing two. Gary Froebel and Whiting were drowned by the Bear Tankers while Gary Horace Mann and Washington of East Chicago outpointed Coach Elbel's swimmers. Central lost to Horace Mann 16-50 and to Washington of East Chicago 24-42. Froebel was outswum 50-16 and Whiting succumbed 38-28.

Central's backbone of the meets was Ernie Hood who just recently became eligible, and who took four firsts while the team was on the road. Supporting him heavily were Alex Berta, Eugene Hahaj, and Capt. John Noble, all of whom got second and third places against tough competition.

TECHNIQUE

"Twas just one kiss I asked for, And he gave me his consent. And then I asked if e're before his kisses he had lent. When he answered no in tone so meek, my chest swelled out in pride, But when he showed me his technique I knew darn well he lied."

Central's basketball squad was honored last Thursday afternoon in a pep assembly. Coach Charles Stewart was the principal speaker. In his talk, Mr. Stewart expressed his appreciation for the fine school spirit shown by the student body throughout the season and including several games played away from South Bend. He also stated that more pep assemblies would be very desirable, and that the sixth period would be the desired hour for assemblies. Assistant Coach Walter Kindy who serves as athletic director and "B" team coach spoke a few words of praise for his "B" squad which lost but two contests this season. Mr. Kindy is also in favor of more pep talks to the student body.

If pep assemblies should become a more common occurrence at Central it is likely that more boys would come out for Central's team, if they know that the student body is interested and behind them.

Two Conference Foes Fall Before Bear Attack

A high spirited Central hardwood team, sparked by the brilliant playing of Charles Finger and Jack Woodard, handed a fighting Washington five a close 42-41 defeat in an eastern division N. I. H. S. C. contest. Finger and Woodard had 19 and 8 points respectively, but the real hero of the evening was Bob Adams, who with 45 seconds remaining in the game, stepped to the charity line and collected a point, putting the Bears in the lead 42-41. The Bears got possession of the ball and froze the game for the remainder of the time.

Coach Clem Holley, of Washington, had everybody baffled when he put in two second stringers and one B team man at the beginning of the game, along with two of his best regulars, Bob Banaszak and Ed Myers.

The Panthers were slow at getting started and by the time the first period ended, the Bears were ahead 14-7.

The West Siders lost no time in the second period. Banaszak laid in five fielders and this put the Panthers ahead. The Bears took over the lead again, but it was shortlived as Banaszak slammed one in to tie the score at the intermission.

The opening minutes of the third quarter found the Bears in the lead 26-20 after Woodard, Adams, and Finger all dumped in one-hand shots. The Panthers fought hard and cut down the Bears' lead, but the Bruins slipped through the Panthers' defenses and rallied again, making the third period score 33-26.

Ashot from the side by Wydrzynski followed by a free throw by Glaser moved the score to 33-28. The Bears cut loose again as Hazen hit from the side and Woodard sunk one from the charity stripe. Finger also sunk his eighth fielder at this time, giving the Bears an 11-point lead. The West Siders then struck back with fury. They ate up this 11-point lead to tie the score at 41 all. Then came Adams' free throws that put the Bears in a 42-41 lead when the final gun sounded.

Blazers Thoroughly Trowned

Charles (Tug) Finger spurred the Central Bears into a 48-41 victory over the Elkhart Blue Blazers in a rough N. I. H. S. C. game last Friday night in the John Adams gym before a roaring crowd of 2,900 fans.

The downtown boys showed no mercy for the Blue Blazers in the third quarter. Glaser, Hazen, and Finger all went point collecting and when the third period gun sounded the Bruins led the Blue Blazers by a margin of 37-27.

The Bruins hit the basket with great skill again in the fourth period and increased their lead and were still in the lead 48-41 when the final gun sounded. High scorer of the game, "Tug" Finger, was on the receiving end of rough-house tactics throughout the game. Hoffman was ejected from the game after his third foul.

Sounds Familiar
 There was a little girl,
 She had a little smile,
 She sent it to a little boy
 Across a little aisle;
 He wrote a little note,
 But he made a little slip,
 And they both went together
 On a little office trip.
 —Rouse Recorder.

"That's the guy I'm layin' for," said the hen as the farmer crossed the yard.
 —Welion.

WHAT GOES AT OTHER SCHOOLS?
 This is something new. West Linn High. West Linn, Oregon, auctioned off cakes, candy, chickens, rabbits, clothing, jam and even T-bone steaks for war bonds. The grand total was $6,000 dollars sold. Good idea. Congratulations to the Students Pen newspaper on their 50th birthday. The Seniors of Lincoln High, Tacoma, Washington gave a nautical touch to their Senior prom. The invitations, decorations and programs leaned on the sea side. The handle of this hop, for your information was "Neptune's Garden."
