

Mr. Pointer Improving

Central's principal, Mr. P. D. Pointer, is making a satisfactory recovery in St. Joseph's Hospital. Mr. Merlin Richard, assistant principal, says that it is possible that Mr. Pointer will soon return to school.

Campus Club Reorganizes

It was announced recently that the Y. M. C. A.'s Campus Club will hold elections and appoint a new board of directors in the near future. The club is open on Friday and Saturday evenings. Students desiring applications for membership may obtain them by applying at the club rooms in the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evenings.

Sketch Of "Noah"

Noah, the Barnstormers' play, is being given tomorrow and Saturday evening at 8 o'clock P. M. in Central's Auditorium.

Noah is a delightful and highly original story of Noah's famous ordeal on the ark. The voyage begins auspiciously enough with Noah, his wife, three sons, and three neighbor girls, along with the animals on the ark. Though the voyage progresses satisfactorily enough at first, before long mistrust and skepticism creep in among the travelers and Noah then becomes the story of a kindly, simple old man, who grows lonely in his faith in God, who pilots his boat safely to shore in the midst of the doubts of his comrades, only to be deserted by the young people as soon as the ark touches ground. Noah's faith in God's sportsmanship is rewarded in a touching scene that will leave a lump in the throats of all.

Noah is a play everyone will surely enjoy seeing!

Booster Pins Sold

The Hi-Y boys, under the sponsorship of Mr. V. C. Harter, recently sold football booster pins to the student body. The fifteen hundred pins ordered were sold on the first day of the sale. This makes a record for sales here at Central. Pins were sold entirely by members of the Hi-Y Club.

Council Board Elected

The Student Council recently announced the new board members who are to represent the four classes in board meetings this semester. They are as follows: Manuel Weisel and Ned MacWilliams from the Senior Class; Phyllis Casey of the Juniors; Philip Potts representing the Sophomores and Patricia Thomas of the Freshmen.

The Executive Board consists of the four officers and these board members.

This year the Student Council is meeting in the Little Theatre instead of Rooms 315 and 316.

Physical Exams Soon

Physical examinations for the 9B and 11B boys will be held on October 8, Miss Fern Watts, the school nurse, recently announced. All 9B and 11B girls will have their physicals on October 15. These examinations are held throughout the city for all 9B and 11B students.

Science Display

Mr. A. L. Smith, of the science department, has a display in the main hall of gavel made of different types of woods. Mr. J. Roy Smith of the Social Studies department made all but two of these gavels. One, made of Sangamon Cedar, is constructed of wood over one million years old.

Booth Enters Art School

Norma Lu Booth, '45, has enrolled in the Parsons School of Fashion Designing and Illustrating in New York City. She was a student of Miss Marshall's for several semesters.

MEMBERS OF CAST PRESENTING "NOAH" ON SEPTEMBER 28-29

Members of the Barnstormers cast for the production "Noah," being given in the Central auditorium tomorrow night followed by a second performance on Saturday, are as follows: Kneeling, from left to right: Ethel Jonas, Becky Anton, Tom Brademas, Ruth de Man, Eugene Zilkowski, Jon Gaska. Second row: Pat Burmeister, Audrey de Man, Joan Dawson, Carol Fuller, Betty Smith, Pat Lange and Joan Dannerberger. Back row: Roger Lane, John Campbell, John Oetjen, Stanley Tsalikis, David Brown, Gene Pendl and Virgil Briggs. Sara Bittle and Floyd Burton are other cast members.

Band And Orchestra News

The band and orchestra, under the direction of Walter Cleland, have elected their officers for this semester. The band officers are: Andrew Swanson, president; Joseph Miller, vice-president; Nancy Lamar, secretary-treasurer, and Donna Rensberger, general manager. The sergeant-of-playing is Joseph Miller, the sergeant-of-promotion, Jim Allison, the sergeant-of-inspection, Nancy Lamar, and the sergeant-of-conduct, Lorraine Szabo.

Officers of the orchestra are: James Allison, president; Miriam Dunkin, vice-president; Joan Larimer, secretary-treasurer; and John Gaska, general manager.

GLEE CLUB TO SING

A combined chorus of mixed voices from several high schools of northern Indiana will sing for the North Central Indiana Teacher's Association the 25th of October. This has become an annual event. Olaf C. Christiansen, who directs the chorus, is a member of the faculty of St. Olaf's college, Northfield, Minnesota.

The Central Glee Club will take part as usual.

The program includes: "A Joyous Christmas Song," a Norwegian carol, composed by Hokanson; "Ida Red," an American Folk Song, arranged by Winstead; "The Deaf Old Woman," a Missouri Folk Song by Davis; a chanty, "Away To Rio," arranged by Bartholomew; "Swansea Town," an English Folk Song, arranged by Nagle; "Ah, Meadow, Meadow, Fair and Wide," a Bohemian marching song arranged by Trenharne; and "Fanfare for Christmas Day," by Shaw.

UNUSUAL VACATIONS

During the past summer many of Central's teachers spent unusual vacations in different parts of the country. Mr. Schultz spent most of the summer on Lake Superior where he recently purchased a summer cottage. Miss Ceyak spent the summer right here in South Bend working at the mailing bureau for Bendix. Mr. Cole spent a varied summer working on a farm, in a store and attending classes at the University of Minnesota. Miss Frick went to the University of Chicago to take a special course in Inter-cultural Relations, while Miss Stegman went to Washington State to visit an aunt in Seattle. She went trout fishing and saw Yellowstone Park.

COUNCIL SENATORS ELECTED

Student council representatives have now been elected in the majority of the Central home rooms. They are as follows: 102, Joe Hickey; 104, Barbara Copelin; 105, Phil Potts; 106, John Smith; 115, Rose Dupresto; 119, Ned McWilliams; 120, Richard Wrote; 121, Carol White; 209, Gene Oppenheim; 210, Jack Durban; 211, Sylvia Ochstein; 222, Betty Grisley; 224, Beverly Frey; 301, Manuel Weisel; 303, Charles White; 304, Glenn Stroup; 305, Marilyn Rohrer; 309, Richard Edwards; 310, Bill Kline; 311, Joan McAlloor; 318, Mary Shupe; 319, Patricia Kelly; 320, Bill Mitchell; 321, Dorothy Grouds; 322, Charles Fisher; 401, Betty Leola Smith; 403, Bob McDole; 30, Jeanette Rucks; 36, Bob Ivy; x-17, Fred Prekosowich.

Mr. Earl Kuhny, faculty adviser, urges those home rooms which have not selected senators to elect them immediately.

OTIS TEST GIVEN

The Otis Test is being given this week to all 10B's during their Guidance class period. This test helps measure pupil's ability to manage average school work.

WIN INTERLUDE SALES CONTEST AWARDS

The first prize of $5.00 for selling the most subscriptions in THE INTERLUDE contest was won by Robert Holdeman of sophomore home room 32, with a total sale of 39 subscriptions. Nona Frazier of home room 313, also a sophomore B, was second and was awarded a three-dollar cash prize.

Other prize winners in the various grades, 8B to 12A, were the following:

3B: Hubert Matthews, 311; Catherine Bernhardt, 215.

9B: Irene Arnold, 310; Jerry Shulman, 122; Sara Bittle, x-17, and Marie Klinedinst, 13, tied for third place.

9A: Shirley Morris, 314; Paul Kunde, 108.

10B: Helen Bryan, 319; Donna Rensberger, 105; Bill Somogyi, 106.

10A: Mary Ann Sutherland, 305; Norma Noble, 37; Eleanor Clafin, 225.

11B: Anna Pappas, 401; Mary Ann Fokey, 309; Phyllis Casey, 217; Dorothy Schmanker, 304, and Lorraine Wisneski, 318, tied for third place.

11A: Verna mulhaupt, 303; Jackie Gross, 222, and Eugene Bolinger tied

Yearbook Committee

The committee which is to edit the yearbook for this year has recently been selected. These students, each representing one of the Senior B or A rooms, were chosen by their respective home room groups. They are as follows: Chairman, Betty Lou McCarthy from Room 224 and Kathryn Adams of 102, Mildred Obermier from 104, Pat Dineen representing 115, Marilyn Klemz of 119, June Whitmer from 121, Georgina Wroblewski of 123, Virginia Norris from 301, Gereine Sass of 322, Bill Ludders of 402, Ramona Green representing 116, and Dorothy Nelson from 209.

P. T. A. NEWS

A Parent-Teachers Association meeting will be held here on October 3 at which the new officers and committee chairmen will be introduced. The officers and chairmen will discuss their respective duties and activities. Following the business meeting, tea will be served as has been the custom here for the past several years. All parents of Central students are welcome and are urged to attend.

for second place.

12B: Bill Ludders, 402; Vivian Rhoades, 322, and Jane Leming, 123, tied for second place.

12A: Marguerite Johnson, 116; Betty Lou McCarthy, 224; Marilyn Shively, 209.

Winners of the first place in each grade will be given a free 1945-46 INTERLUDE subscription and free tickets to the remaining home football games. INTERLUDE subscriptions go to the second place winners and free admission to all Central stage productions go to the third place winners. Eight home room agents failed to report before the deadline so it is impossible to report the total number of subscriptions sold throughout the school and the city.

Ilene Fink, circulation manager for THE INTERLUDE, advises that any Centralian who has not yet subscribed may do so by sending his name and a down payment of 25c or more to room 221 now. "Our publication costs are higher this year than they have ever been and we need subscriptions," Miss Fink states.

PLAY WASHINGTON POSTPONED GAME ON OCT. 25

PROVISO FOLLOWS TILT WITH KENTUCKY CHAMPIONS

Today Coach Crowe's Bears shoved off for Male High School in Louisville, Kentucky, where they will match their ball playing ability against that of Coach Paul Jenkins.

This is probably the toughest game the Bruins will play all season. Louisville was last year's state champs, and out of their last year's team 19 lettermen are back. The school has an enrollment of 4,000 to 5,000 boys. This is Male High's first game of the year. They play teams from New York, Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee, and other parts of the country. The Bears will be outweighed an average of 10 pounds per man, and they will also be much less experienced than Louisville.

The Bears making the trip are: Flowers, Deranek, Nawrot, Roytek, Ring, Christen, Jensen, Eneyart, Somers, Spencer, Niemier, McIntyre, Bradfield, Stankiewicz, Singleton, Udvardi, Baughman, Kapalczynski, Myers, Gember and Brummond.

Panthers on Oct. 25

The Central-Washington football game, which was originally scheduled for September 22 is the first game in South Bend high school football circles to be postponed twice because of rain. After being postponed from Saturday, September 22 to Monday, September 24, it was again changed to next Tuesday, October 2, then to October 25.

This game, one of the most important of the season, will follow within the next few days with a game with Riley. The team will meet the Indiana and Kentucky state champions within a month when they play the Washington and Louisville teams.

The coaching staff believes that the team will be able to face this revised game schedule without too much trouble if none of the star players are injured.

NEXT MONTH'S MOVIES

The noon movies for the month of October have recently been announced by Mr. Merlin Richard, assistant principal. They are as follows: beginning October 1, "Sing for Your Supper," with Jinx Falkenburg and Charles (Buddy) Rogers, will be presented. Starting October 8, "Hearts in Bondage" with James Dunn and Mae Clark will be shown. "Adventure in Washington" with Herbert Marshall and Virginia Bruce will be the picture for the week of October 22. Otto Kruger and Elissa Elander star on the 29th in "Corregidor."

Movies for the next month will be announced in a forthcoming issue.

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP?

After each game, the winner almost invariably goes around flaunting the victory before the vanquished. The fact that they wouldn't like the other side to do such a thing if the tables were turned, never occurs to them.

This practice is in extremely bad taste, and exceedingly poor sportsmanship. Yet, knowing this, students keep on bragging. This gets a bad reputation for a school and for its students.

Forget about the fact that we have beaten a school, at least in your dealings with students of that school, and if we win the next game, don't parade in front of the other school's students, because it will arouse bad feeling against our school.

CONCERNING CALORIES

Our school has, without question, the best cafeteria in town. Each noon meals are served which consist of better food than that in most downtown eating houses. The price of these meals is their real value, since our cafeteria is operated on a non-profit basis.

We are constantly hearing of hamburgers made with horse-meat and salad dressing with dishwater, which are served at privately-owned eating places, but we can be sure such a thing will never be served in our cafeteria. The reason our cafeteria was established was to give up proper food, instead of the usual restaurant trash. For this reason in itself we shall never be poisoned by stale or bad food. The people concerned with the cafeteria have studied nutrition, and they prepare the food according to this knowledge.

In patronizing the cafeteria you will also be supporting your school, and you are bound to be near many of your friends.

PREJUDICES OUTDATED

Ever since 1619, when a boat-load of unwilling slaves was brought to Jamestown from Africa, there has been an increasingly question of racial tolerance. There has been more and more debate on this, and many riots have taken place, simply because people have not attempted, or have failed, to settle this problem. It has come to the point where we must do something; either get rid of our prejudices, or have the populace split into defined factions.

High-school students cannot crusade for a better understanding between races, but each can show that he himself is not prejudiced. Since we are responsible for what is established in our country, we must tolerate what is already here. This is not hard, if we have any desire to have this problem ironed out. There are four steps given, by which one may overcome prejudice. They are: 1. Have a sincere desire to do something; 2. Recognize a prejudice when you see it; 3. Attempt to eradicate or reduce the prejudice; and 4. If you cannot do so, realize that you are still prejudiced, and don't act on this prejudice.

This is a sure way to overcome prejudice, so if you really have a desire to do something, you can make things a lot more pleasant for yourself by overcoming any prejudice you might have!

With the scheduled closing of the Service Men's Center at the Palais Royale it seems likely that name band dances will be a regular happening in South Bend. Instead of the occasional short stage-shows, we will get four hours of good music.

Off the record—A record that is taking Europe by storm is Bonnie Baker's "Oh Johnny."

Singer Betty Jane Bonney, formerly with Les Brown, Jan Savitt and Frankie Carle, is known as the female "Voice." She has made two recordings for Victor which have sold out. Now she waxed a third "Ho Hum" and "I Can Make You Love Me." She is publicized as the boys' Frank Sinatra. Hearing is believing. Jo, Stafford's latest release is "That's For Me" and "Gee, It's Good To Hold You" by Ellington—offers a good blues tune with some fine sax, probably by Johnny Hodges.

Walt Disney is making an animated movie "Make Mine Music." Nelson Eddy's voice will make up a male group and also trick solos. Benny Goodman and sextet, Dinah Shore, the Andrew Sisters and the King's Men will supply music although none will be seen on the screen.

The R. O. T. C.'s are having Jack Teagarden for their ball on the 28th.

A quarter of a century may seem like an age to you but to Mr. Carl C. Miller, who has been teaching Centralians for that length of time (it's a miracle he escaped with so few gray hairs), it seems but a few years.

Mr. Miller, who teaches biology and global geography, sponsors the Movie Operators Club, and also has two sons in the service, came from Pittsburgh, Pa. He got his degree at Allegheny College and later took post graduate work at Pennsylvania State, Indiana University, and Northwestern University.

Among Mr. Miller's likes are music and athletics. (He participated in college basketball.) The only things Mr. Miller could think of that he found particularly loathsome were time wasters, loafers, and law violators. He is also interested in aiding underprivileged children. (I think that is why he was always so nice to me!)

If you are ever up 403 way be sure to drop in and see Mr. Miller's alligator, turtles, guppies, and extensive collection of stuffed birds and animals, and, above all, meet Mr. Miller!

If you were principal of Central for one day what rule would you make?

Don Horning: "More time between classes so I can walk Nancy to class."

Nancy Bloom: "Ditto."

Marilyn Bowker: "Parties in Miss Ceyak's room every hour."

Jim Pinkowski: "Pool tables in every room."

Joan Shively: "School from 10 to 2 with an hour for lunch."

Roy Muentner: "Never have school in the afternoon."

Francianne Ivick: "Teachers should be barred from the school."

Janice MacLean: "Throw a big party."

Phil Casey: "Have Dewey in all my classes."

Dear Auntie:
What is the story behind Carol Whites strange rings?
I. M. Curious.

Dear I. M. C.:
Even your best friend won't tell you!

Sincerely,
Auntie.

Central lost two swell kids last week when Betty and Bob Stanford moved away.

Eugene Ryan, why don't you wake up? A girl in your home room is knocking at your heart.

What's the attraction in Laporte,

Bob Rhoades??
Wonder why Lois Hansel goes to so many football games? Could it be sailors??

There's still room in Charlie Budd's great big car, girls!

Seen steppin' out with Louie Rosenberg: none other than Steph Costoff!

And then there's Dave Gilmour and Betty Hulbert from Adams.

Carolyn Emmett still gets starry-eyed whenever the postman brings a letter from Matt!

The I. D. bracelet Vernegene Anderson is sporting is Johnny Smith's.

Please won't someone tell Auntie Why Bob Lindgren's pastime is digging cellars?

In case you didn't know it is Joe Jones' (Adams) I. D. bracelet gracing the arm of Marilyn Castle.

Johnny Spears and Becky Anton sure would make a cute couple in Verie's estimation!

Naomi Barcus can't quite decide whether it's Vince or _____?

Your guess is as good as mine when it comes to Jo Shanafelt.

Groovy new "Lads": Rollyn Boggs and Jim DeFrew.

Dame Rumor says it's Bill Ludders and Joyce Clay again.

Auntie is still waiting for the latest report on the Detamore-Larimer affair.

As long as Joanne Breske attends the games you will find Paul close by.

Congrats to those plaid bow gals: Helen Shaw, Mina Miller, Mary Ellen Bill, Marilyn Klemz, Delphine Jerzakowski and Carolyn Penn.

Say, those Lads are pul-lenty on the beam when they play football. They took the "Comets" 18-0 and then made a 0-0 tie with the "Esquires"—they're al-rite.

The "Comets" added to their sharp list of members Jim Morris, Ed Gunwald, and Don Horning.

"As Time Goes By"—Mickey Hardman-Jack Henderson.

"This Love of Mine"—Peggie Cowger.

"Till the End of Time"—Phyl Casey, Dewey Welch.

"My Buddy"—Marilyn Bowker.

"Let's Take the Long Way Home"—Lou Lawton.

"California Here I Come"—Becky Anton.

"The More I See You"—Nancy Magiera.

"After You've Gone"—Shirley Clark.

"With Love"—Milt Christen.

And then there's always Engdahl and Sellers.

A billion cheers to the football team for that lush game.

What's happening to the Wunderlich-Woltman romance—seems Louis Lawton took over—huh, Glaser?

It's hard to believe Dot Tohulka is a man-hater—it just ain't right!

Katie Dumont looked pretty sharp with Ex-Rileyite Lenny Gelligan.

Does Roy Minter know about female admirers??? Wake up, fellow!

DISCOVER YOUR ABILITIES

On Friday and Saturday evenings we will have the privilege of witnessing another fine production put on by the Barnstormers. The Barnstormers Club is one of many clubs here at Central that offer students opportunities to develop latent abilities. A small and unimportant part in a play or in any other activity which at first may have been in the spirit of adventure may later become a vocation through the experience gained by participating therein. The poise and self assurance attained by the participant through the assumption of responsibility can readily be observed by any one attending this play this week.

Every student owes that obligation to oneself to explore and discover any abilities that have been heretofore uncovered.
—MERLIN RICHARD.

Conference Tournament On Leeper Courts

This Saturday, September 29, on the clay courts of Leeper Park will be held the annual N.I.H.S.C. net tournament. The probable participating teams include Central, Adams, Riley, Elkhart, Misawaka, and Michigan City. Laporte and Nappanee may send teams but as yet they have failed to register for this all-important tennis match.

In four net matches last week, the Bruin racqueteers swept three from their opponents while losing only one. They were beaten once again by the net-men from out Adams' way and lost again by the same score, 3-2. Central's Clauson and Overholser in singles were the only winners as McDole in singles and Paskiet and Mull, Cooper and Dungey in doubles were losing.

The Bears shut out Riley, Mishawaka, and Central Catholic. Riley succumbed 4-0, Mishawaka was also trounced 4-0, and Central Catholic was caught in the breeze of a 3-0 loss. The Orange and Blue winners in these matches were Clauson, Overholser, Paskiet, McDole, Mull, Cooper and Dungey. The remaining schedule:

Sept. 27—Elkhart ----- Here
Sept. 29—Conference tournament at Leeper Park

OVERAKER AND PANTHER SPEAKERS AT PEP RALLY

During the pep assembly held last Friday afternoon two representatives of Washington High School presented a clever skit concerning the game. The representatives, Dorothy Strzeszewski and Stanley Zalas, were introduced by Mr. Richard. Bob Overaker, a member of the Tribune staff, spoke. The cheerleaders then took over, leading cheers and songs.

A "TOO, TOO" STORY

oOo

As usual Elkhart has a powerful net squad but Adams and Central are also strong. George Clauson and Tom Overholser representing the Bruin racqueteers should go far in the conference matches this Saturday as neither one has been beaten in competition this season. Bill Baker of Adams is a fine player but Clauson, the Central captain, has beaten him two out of two in very close sets.

oOo

Central's golfers in two matches this week split in a triangular match with Michigan City and Adams, and lost in a twosome to Mishawaka. The Bruins by-passed Michigan City, 11 to 1, and tied with the Eagles 6-6. Mishawaka's Maroons thumped the Bears 8½ to 6½. These matches were conference contests and were both played on the Erskine Country Club's links.

oOo

Central's swimming captain, Jim Makielski, is eager to get the tank squad practicing as he has called for practice two times a week. If you hear shouts and splashing after 6th hour on Monday and Thursday, you will know who it is. C. E. Elbel, the coach, is busy with the junior high football team and will not be with the team until the last of October.

oOo

The Orange and Blue tennis squad has a new coach for this season. He is Mr. Barnbrook, who is called by most of the tennis lads "Barney." He is down for every match and some of the practices. He is doing a swell job and all of the netmen like him.

oOo

The boys who swing the golf clubs for Central are sharpening up and playing every day possible, as on October 6th, the Bruins along with six other golf teams from neighboring schools and cities, will embark for the Beechwood Country Club in Laporte for the annual N.I.H.S.C. golf tournament.

TEENS INN NEWS

"Teens' Inn" is located in the Herring House at 726 Western Avenue. It is a club sponsored by Rev. John L. Frazier. To become a member one must attend school and pay fifty cents for a membership card.

The younger children are provided with a well equipped playground with slides, teter-totters, swings and bars.

The teen-agers enjoy themselves playing pool, checkers, ping-pong, and reading books. They also have dances for which Frances Hampton and her orchestra furnish the music and entertain. There is a small fee for these dances.

"Teens' Inn" is open on weekdays from 7:00-9:30 P. M., except for Friday—it is open from 8:00-11:30 P. M.; and it is never open on Saturday.

WHAT'S GOOD ABOUT IT

Buu-z-z-z. Darn that alarm clock! Just when he was going to kiss me (in my dream, natch). Gosh, it can't be morning already. It seems as though I just went to sleep. Now don't get me wrong, I did go to bed early.

Gotta get up, gotta get up, oh I wish my conscience would keep quiet. I push one eye lid open but I close it with a thump. That sun certainly has nerve, shining brightly so early in the morning. It's so nice, quiet lying here, too bad that thoughts such as going to school must enter my mind. Oh well, it's now or never (I sure wish it was never). Crash! Bang! I didn't exactly land on my feet that time. After rubbing my bruise I start a frantic search through my closet for something to wear. Nothing to wear—oh nuts, why didn't I iron those blouses last night. Hmm—this skirt does have a fruit stain but will have to do, let's see now, sweater, sweater, this one is too baggy and this one doesn't go with my skirt—oh fiddlesticks. I'll just start a new color scheme.

One glance at the clock reminded me that I was one-half hour late. Pop! then goes the button off my skirt and I haven't time to fix it—this safety pin won't show anyway, much. I'll just run a comb through my hair and it looks it too. I grab my books and purse and like Superman I fly down the stairs.

Grabbing a glass of juice I drink half and spill the rest on my sweater. I stuff a piece of toast in my mouth (if Emily Post saw me now) and whizz — I'm out the door. All my energy is gathered together as I dash to the corner just as the bus arrives there. I finally landed in a seat after stepping on numerous feet and dropping my books in the aisle. Oh, oh, I left my Latin book at home.

At twenty-nine and 1/2 minutes after eight I run in the building.

Is it a wonder I want to scream when the teacher comes up to me, smiles and says so enthusiastically, Good Morning!

LIBRARY CLUB OFFICERS

Library club officers, recently elected are, as announced by Genevieve Hardy, librarian and club sponsor, as follows: Lillian Robaska, President; Therese Spitkiewicz, Vice-President, and Dorla Forrest, Treasurer. There are now seventeen members in this organization. From these girls, the Library staff members are chosen.

CAFETERIA VISITORS

Mr. Meyers, principal of Mishawaka High School, and Miss Charlotte Bragg, director of the school cafeterias of Mishawaka, visited the Central lunch room last week. Mrs. Gladys Staples, director, stated that the visitors were especially interested in the plate lunch, which they hope to introduce in their schools. Mrs. Staples served lunch to several hundred city teachers on Wednesday before the teachers' meeting.
