PEPSI-COLA SCHOLARSHIP TESTS SOON

Registration for the Pepsi-Cola scholarship tests must take place before Christmas vacation, Mr. Fulwider, head of the Guidance department announced recently. These scholarships pay the tuition of two students from each state to the college of their choice in any part of the United States. The winners also receive traveling expenses to and from college and $25 a month towards living expenses.

Any senior graduating during 1946 may try for these generous, four-year awards. He must be voted by his classmates as being among the top five percent of his class "most likely to succeed." This group will then take the special test, prepared and scored by the College Entrance Examination Board, which will be given in high schools throughout the country on February 15, 1946. Registration for these scholarships closes January 1, 1946.

The winners of last year's scholarships for Indiana were Eric Boade of South Side High School in Fort Wayne and David Cubbertsen of Bosse High School in Evansville. Eric is attending Yale and David the University of Arizona.

LIBRARY DONATES TO SEAL SALE

Continuing the custom of other years, the library will donate to the Anti-Tuberculosis Seal Sale all money collected in fines during the school week of Dec. 17-21. This offer applies only to fines on overdue books, as payments on lost books must necessarily go toward the replacement of the lost books.

Mrs. Robeson Contributes To Noon Committee

Mrs. Paul Robeson, who lectured at the East-West Lecture held here last week and who spoke to the school on Thursday, gave $10 to the noon committee for use in purchasing supplies for the noon entertainment. She congratulated the committee for the fine work they are doing.

The next issue of The Interlude will be ready in the home rooms on the morning of the 18th when students report for their cards and the start of the new semester.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES

The "Cercle Francais" has had its traditional Christmas party with Pere Noel Yule-log-cake, presents for all in 320. The Spanish III class is having a "tertulia" (party to you). Amidst songs and laughter blindfolded Spanish students tried to hit the pinata suspended from a wire. When at last struck at the right place it opened and spread goodies and presents for all.

FOOTBALL HONORS AWARDED

An assembly honoring three of our football players was called Monday morning in the auditorium. Bob Overaker, a member of the Tribune staff presented awards to Dick Flowers, Roy Jensen, and Milt Christen. Flowers was honored as the most valuable player in the Eastern Division. Two footballs were presented to each boy, one the Twin City Award, and the other the All Conference Award.

BONDS AND STAMPS

Central students have purchased a total of $10,805.90 in bonds and stamps during the present Victory Loan Drive. This sum includes purchases made Monday, the 17th of December.

A LETTER TO SANTA

The radio sputtered static as Mary Ann and her mother anxiously bent over it. At last from the big noise of the radio Santa Claus boomed forth from the magical little box and Mary Ann sank back into her pillow and pulled her covers up close, while her mother pulled a tattered arm chair up to the little table by the bed to listen.

Mrs. Smith nervously tucked the blankets close around her daughter to protect her from the cold that seeped in at the cracks of the doors and windows and then settled down to listen to the program.

"Oh, if only she will go to sleep before the end of the program. Or maybe I can tell her he read her letter before we turned the radio on." Mrs. Smith thought worriedly for she knew how her crippled daughter's hopes were set on hearing her letter to Santa Claus read over the radio.

Outside the snow was falling like downy feathers, each flake gently lighting on the ground as if in fear of disturbing the perfectness of the snow blanket upon the ground. Through the window by her bed Mary Ann could see the gay lights of an out door Christmas tree twinkling through the fluffy snow flakes.

Her attention returned to the program when on the radio Santa started to read another letter.

"Now this is a letter from a little girl named Betty Richardson and she says, 'Dear Santa, Please bring me ' and so the voice droned on and on. Mary Ann fixed her eyes upon the peaceful scene before her while she listened for her name. After what seemed an endless age the jovial voice announced:

"Well, I guess that's all the letters, kiddies. See you Christmas." And she suddenly realized that her letter had not been read. Suppressing a sob she looked for the first time at her mother who lay sound asleep in her chair.

Then Mary Ann thought how happy her mother would be had her daughter's letter been read and how very bad she would feel if she were sad, so summoning as much gaiety to her voice as she could, she called, "Mother, Mother, guess what Santa read my letter, mother! The very last one!"

Mrs. Smith, who awoke at her daughter's words, smiled sweetly at her.

"I knew he would dear! I knew he would!" As she rose to turn off the radio a paper in her pocket crackled slightly, the letter which had failed to go off for lack of a three-cent stamp!

99 STUDENTS GRADUATE ON JAN. 16

"CAP AND GOWN" DAY TUESDAY

By LOIS JONES

Among the graduates of the January '46 class are many service people who have acquired enough credits while in the service to suffice for high school graduation. These fellow graduates, most of whom will be absent from the ceremonies, are:

Robert Bjoraas, John Bill, Dale Brinley, Robert Chezem, John Flaherty, Don Lewis Glaser, Allen Hibberd, Helen Kundek, Henry Luzny, Kenneth McDonald, Clyde Mabry, John VanderBeck, William Voss, Darrell Williams, Earl Williamson, Ronald Topping.

The Senior A bag of events is still packed full for the next month or so after a long, hard journey of four years through the halls of Central.

Our travelogue indicates the next stop to be Monday afternoon, January the 7th, where they'll be taken in by the Senior A tests. They'll stay over at that depot for Tuesday morning, January the 8th, to be fully "granulated" by those monstrous jobs.

Cap and Gown Day

For moral support on that Tuesday morn caps and gowns will bedeck many proud, yet jittery grads. This pompous regalia may be displayed all through the day and will be recorded in the annals of history by moving pictures which are to be taken, too.

Announcements, which have already been ordered, will be distributed on the morning of the 8th, too. If you find you need more announcements, place your order at Slick's Engraving Company, across from the Tribune.

Wednesday, the 9th, of January, at 8:30 a. m. they'll stop back to check on their grades to make sure they didn't wear that cap an' gown for nothing. Then instructions for the Baccalaureate service will be given and tickets for that service will be allotted.

The combined graduating class of the four high schools will travel down to the Central auditorium at 4 p. m. on Sunday, January the 13th. (Contd on page 4, col. 1)

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Merry Christmas. The world is in a state of nominal peace, but there is a promise of real peace to come. Even though the presents we may give may not be up to pre-war standards due to recent conditions of production, we may have a Merry Christmas in spirit.

Many of our friends and relatives have already returned from the armed forces. Conditions in general are much improved. There is a new era facing the world. While people of conquered nations are cold and hungry, the hopes for the future, with a world at peace and with increasing prosperity are brighter and stronger than they were last year at this time. We also feel certain that next Christmas will be brighter for all of the people of the world.

So without fear of sounding as though we are shouting down a well, we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year.

GOOD LUCK, GRADUATES

Before the next issue of the Interlude appears, Central will have bid farewell to another group of graduating seniors. When a class graduates, there are so many things to be said that it is difficult to find any particular phrase to be the most important.

One wish we all have is that the graduates may achieve success in whatever field they choose. High school is behind them, and they are leaving behind them an important phase of their lives. The teachers and students have all contributed toward preparing them for their places in the community. We can do little more.

From now on, seniors, it's up to you, and we say to you "Good-bye. And good luck!"

"Junior is simply out of this world!" Without a doubt this describes the newest addition to one of the biology classes at North Central High, Spokane, Wash. Junior frightened some of the feminine members of the class when he first joined it but now no one bothers to notice his displeasing manners. You see, Junior is a skeleton.

Swapped from the Proviso Pageant: Student (in cafeteria): "What can I have for dinner today?"
Cook: "Oh, we have thousands of things to eat."
Student: "What are they?"
Cook: "Beans."

The Seniors of the Stephen Palmer High School have decided to open a Soda Bar for the benefit of the Palmer Memorial Park. The Soda Bar will be open on school days from 7:15 to 10. Here's hoping that this project will be a real success!

Please don't blame me for this one: "One man is knocked down by an automobile every ten minutes in New York. You'd think it would wear him out."—The Optimist.

Here's a suggestion from the "Breeze" to save the fellas' nerves and the gals' wits:

When the football season rolls around, the girls should be taught all the mysterious facts about this ever popular sport. If one coach could have an assembly and tell the gals the whys and wherefores of football, maybe they would know the difference between a first down and a fumble. (Cont'd on page 4, col. 4)

"Swimming, swimming in the swimming pool." That's the theme song of Senior A, Lorraine Kreuger. She was a member of last year's varsity swimming team, and is president of the Handy Andy Club. Hailing from Home Room 224, Lorraine is 5' 4" tall with laughing blue eyes and medium brown hair.

This friendly gal likes people, the color blue, sloppy sweaters, olives, Star Dust, lemon chiffon pie, dancing, sports, and drawing.

Her antipathies include chartreuse, homework, cauliflower, eggplant, turnips, people without a sense of humor, and music by the Mills Brothers.

After graduation she plans to continue her display work at Sears.

QUESTION: What new course would you like to see taught at Central and why?

Richard Klinger: "Astronomy, because I like to study stars."

Fred Bennett: "Indiana History, because we don't get enough of it in U. S. history."

David Rydzinski: "A course in pocket billiards."

James Gleason: "Latin V and VI."

Valerie King: "I think we should be taught something about the army or navy with a fine army or navy man to teach it."

George Nusschart: "A required speech course. Everyone needs it."

Howard Kroeger: "None; they teach too many now."

Lois Jones: "A course in religion so that we can understand all kinds of religions."

Verie Sauer Says:

Why does Mary Ellen Bill like Beacon Heights so well? Ask Bob McGrogan.

Bob DeBaun is getting interested in music, eh, Jeanette?

Is Dick Woltman bashful or is it just Carolyn?

Why do Bill Somogyi and Bob Garges keep such late hours?

Hear tell Bob Pendl's interest is clarinets in the name of Jane Grimes of Riley.

What's this about Loretta Bronski and Ken? Give out, Loretta.

Why don't W. R. and M. C. get together in 6th hour English class?

Bill Hatfield is on the loose. Look out girls!!

Why doesn't Carolyn Ponell get wise to D. R. in third hour math?

Seen strolling in Central's halls are Dick Udvardi and Katie Dumont.

Betty Jo Christian is wondering who "Agnes" is.

"Going Steady"—sophomores Marilyn Reid and Bob McDole.

And then Aunt Verie knows all about Bobbie's letters from Conny Spohnholz tied with a blue ribbon.

Congrats to S.P.U.R.'s for the beautiful Christmas trees in our front halls.

We're glad to see girls from Ferry Hall back again Sally Loomis, Shirley Burdick and Martha Mayr!

Sharp new couple--Nancy Engdahl and Jim Nawrot!!

Surprise of the week: Dashing Don Roytek is going steady with Gussy. His poor Central admirers are now in mourning!! Tsk! Tsk!

A sharp group seen at the Prom: Marion Kasuba-Dick Stuller. Mary Barrier-Al Vascil. Beverly Bergeson-Harley Reeder.

Eleanor Hornchuck has done it again: This time its an R.O.T.C. from Notre Dame. Huba! Huba!

Onions to those students that don't support their team--win or lose!

Couples to be seen at Demolay--Carolyn Emmett-Russell Lindholm. Joan Dannerberger-Arthur Gau. Trevona Bartlett-Bob Ott. Doris Elbel-Chuck Edwards.

George seems to be having trouble capturing "Pete's" heart.

I wonder why Russell Caldwell takes such an interest in Home Room 319?

Flash to all fellas! Slick soph on the loose, Bonnie Waters.

From a spark to a flame--Ruth Leonard-Duke Myers.

Say, Tom Sullivan, why don't you break down and give some lucky girl a break?

What happened to the diamond Norma Burger was sporting on her third finger--left hand? Give, Norma, give!

Jeanette Nowelski seems to be terribly lonesome since Howard Bunch left for the Navy.

What's happened to the Jim Hoover-Jean Hammer romance?

Mary Shupe was one thrilled little girl when Bill Wampler was home on leave.

Rendezvous at Rainbow, Donna Byers-Bill Meyer, Joan Carter-Dave Giordano, Marie Castoff-Spiro Metros.

Dreaming to Duke Ellington's music were Louie Lawton-Marilyn Glaser, Carolyn Wunderlich-Dickie Woltman, Shirley Burdick-Don Shaffer, Dot Tohulka-Ned MacWilliams.

Becky Anton and Vince Daube seem to be hitting it off pretty well.

Well, Doris Krathwoll and Lee Brazy are clanging chains again.

Louie Rosenberg really had a tough time of it at the hospital with all those beautiful nurses.

A newsome twosome, Carol Smith and Bill Meyer.

On again; off again; GlaserLawton.

Two sharp girls seen wandering around eery sixth hour--Pat Melzek and Betty Burke.

Going steady: Paula Rumpf-Bill Mitchell.

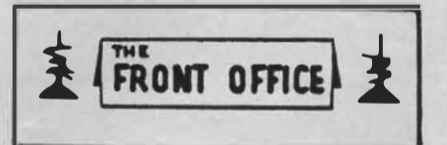

Georgianna Wrobiewski--a cute girl not to be overlooked.

Seems that Adams has a great attraction for Bobbie Runbom--it wuldn't be Bob Nitz?

What's this Mary Louise Buechner and JoeMathews deal??? Sounds interesting.

Seen wandering the Central halls again, Pewee Oestriecher and Jerry Morical.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

The Christmas season is here again, and what shall one say that has not been said a thousand times? How write a cheerful message which will not seem out of place?

There will be homes this Christmas in which there is reunion for the first time in years. Bright lights.Music.He came through. He's home. There will be others in which the day will not reach its happiest--he didn't quite make it.

But in them all the happy, the hopeful, and the sad, let there be for a time, no hate, no resentment and above all, no fear of the future. For these three, hate, resentment, and fear embitter and dissipate life.

Christmas time should be a happy time. Giving and receiving gifts revive our spirits and faith in man. We must hang fast to our faith and hope. Perhaps on this Christmas eve if we pause to listen to the silence of the night we shall find in the silent night the way to peace on earth and good will to men.

BEARS BREAK THE ICE IN CONFERENCE RACE

TRIM ROCHESTER 52-30

The Central Bears had a much happier time last Friday than they have been having on previous weekends. as they dumped the Adams Eagles 40-32 in a conference tilt. Bob Adams paced the victors by sinking 13 points, but he went out of the game on five personal fouls in the fourth quarter.

The Bruins moved into the lead as soon as the game opened. McCarthy, Ring, Adams, Perkins, and Temple helped build up the 15-7 lead the Bears had at the end of the first frame. In the second half the Eagles were held to three points, while the Bruins added twelve more to theirs.

The Eagles outscored the downtown boys in the second half 20-15, but the lead the latter salted away in the first half put the game on ice. Bob Nitz was high point man for Adams, sinking seven shots from the charity stripe and one bucket from the court, for a total of nine points.

This victory, coupled with the 52-30 trouncing handed Rochester on their floor Dec. 11, gives the Bears a better rating than they held last week.

The hottest team in the circuit seems to be either Laporte or Elkhart. In six starts the Slicers have not dropped any and the Blazers from Elkhart have a clean slate to date. The game which may decide the championship may be played Dec. 27 when Laporte invades the Elkhart bailiwick for a conference tussle.

Cubskin was on the beam on last issue's predictions. Here are some more sure-fire tips:

- Central will win the Holiday tourney at John Adams after beating Riley in the final game, 37-33.
- Central over Nappanee (c).
- Mishawaka over Adams (c).

Basketball Tourney At Adams Dec. 27-28-29

The Christmas Basketball Tournament will open Thursday, December 27 and continue through Saturday the 29th. Drawings will be held this coming Saturday to see who will play who, when.

The tourney this year ought to be plenty exciting because the participating teams are all rather strong, except for a couple exceptions. Central, Riley, Adams, Washington, Mishawaka, Nappanee, Goshen, and Michigan City are the participants. From all pre-tourney predictions, it seems that Riley and Mishawaka will probably be the real threats, while Central, Washington, and Goshen will give their opponents plenty of competition. Riley has the most experienced quintet, having five lettermen back from last year. Nappanee should show well, while Adams and Michigan City are the two weakest of the entries.

Bob Adams, Bob Temple, Gene Ring, Jerome Perkins, and Ed McCarthy will probably handle things for the Bears. These boys can be replaced by able subs such as Ernie Bond, Jack Henderson, George Clauson, and Louie Lawton. Eaton and Fink are the probable officials.

for their Baccalaureate service. As yet the minister has not been chosen to speak.

Commencement exercises will be the next important step at the Central auditorium, 8:00 o'clock Wednesday night. An important rehearsal for the event will take place at 9:30 a. m., same day, same station.

The final stop will be Friday, January 18th at 8:30 a. m. for their last high school report cards. And then—Bon Voyage.

A fine history has been accomplished by the Senior As. In the Spring of 1945 they shifted into high gear by selecting Jerry Hess, Bob Minkler, Lois Jones and Betty Lou McCarthy to the class offices.

The Autumn shuffle with Dick Van's blowing the whistle on November 3rd, was their first public appearance.

Caps and gowns were accurately measured last Thursday morning for the big day next January. Last Saturday night their own Senior Prom was serenaded by Bud Simpson.

Well, so long, schoolmates! This trip has been one of the happiest in life—may the next journey hold just as much fun as this.

Sgt. Charles Liebert, patient at the U. S. Army's Holloran General Hospital, Staten Island, N. Y., is happy that the war is over and he can look forward to a job. The 24-year-old Pittsburgh parachute trooper dropped from the sky in France only to be put out of combat by a shell from a nearby German tank. The shrapnel sliced into his right arm. His wounds have healed but he urges everybody to buy Victory Bonds to help furnish medical attention to the boys who must receive treatment for months.

HOLDING HANDS

Last night I held a beautiful hand,
The kind one loves to hold.
I thought I'd die, so thrilled was I
My blood ran hot then cold.

I wanted to sing; I wanted to dance;
My heart was all a-flutter;
I was too weak, even to speak;
And all I did was stutter.

As I sat there in ecstasy
With thoughts ever so divine,
It was truly grand, to hold such a hand,
The pleasure of it all was mine.

No other hand, held so tight,
Could me more gladness bring
Than the one I held last night—it was Four aces and a king.
—Championette.

ble. Then they wouldn't ask that hair raising question, "What happened?"

Moitle—"What happened when you asked your boss for a raise?"

Hoiman—"He was just like a lamb."

Moitle—"What did he say?"

Hoiman—"Baaaaa'."

COME OUT, COME OUT

A salesman making a two week stay in town, bought some limburger cheese to eat in his room. When he got ready to leave, he still had about half the cheese left. He didn't want to pack it, nor did he want to leave it lying in the room. He went over to the windowsill, carefully removed a plant from its pot, buried the cheese and replaced the plant. A few days later, he received a telegram from the hotel: "We give up, where did you put it?"—Central High News.

Unless I harvest some more corn.

IF YOU PLEASE

Just give me a man with a million or two,
Or one that is handsome
would happily do,
A dashing young fellow
is swell any day
Or one that is famous
would suit me okay,
But if the man shortage
should get any worse,
Go back to the very first line of this verse.
