Services For D. O. Miller

Mr. D. O. Miller, head of the commerce department and instructor at Central for the last thirty years, died a week ago tonight of a heart condition that had kept him out of school just five weeks before his death.

Born near North Liberty, Mr. Miller was educated in three Indiana colleges: Valparaiso, Indiana University, and Notre Dame.

D. O. Miller

Before he came to Central Mr. Miller taught in Greene and Portage townships, Rock Hill, Bremen high school, the South Bend College of Commerce, and Mishawaka, a total of thirty-five years of high school teaching. A memorial service for Mr. Miller was held yesterday in the auditorium in which Principal P. D. Pointer presided. Bob Pendl read the Twenty-third Psalm, one of Mr. Miller's favorites, a prayer was given by Howard Johnson, and Shirley Roth spoke as a student who knew Mr. Miller. The administration was represented by Miss Helen Dernbach, and Mr. Wilson Thornton, a former teacher at Central and close friend to Mr. Miller, also spoke. The glee club participated.

Veterans Honor Team

Veterans' Club of Central honored the Central basketball team, coaches, and managers at a breakfast in the school lunchroom, March 25. Also present were Principal P. D. Pointer, Assistant Principal Merlin Richard, Paul Luzny, former secretary of the Veterans' Club and Bill Buhler, a former Central football player. ON THE RECORD

By BOB HOPE

I'm supposed to get out of character and do a serious piece for your newspaper . . . all about interesting sidelights on life in Hollywood, dodging Clonna, making movies and records with people like Dottie Lamour.

No kidding, that what they asked for. Make it unemotional, they said. Give us the straight dope. Tell us how it's done.

Imagine!

Did you ever try being unemotional with your favorite brunette taunting you all over the set? Did you every try singing over Dottie's shoulder and keeping your eyes on the sheet music?

It can't be done.

And anyhow, who wants to be unemotional about a thing like that?

Take our last picture, for example. I could have won Dottie in the first ten minutes. That didn't make sense when all I have to do was insist on a script re-write so I wouldn't get her until the end.

That made it easy to stretch out shooting time—and rehearsals with Lamour. You really have to sneak up on these things or they'll happen and be over before you have a chance to enjoy them.

The last record we made could have been made from two songs we knew well. But that meant I'd only have a few minutes singing with Lamour.

So what did we do?

Somebody wrote a tune we had to learn. Of course they stole the title from the name of the picture (My Favorite Brunette), and that was silly because the tune didn't even turn up in the film.

But it gave me an excuse to take more time with Dottie . . . time to sit and stare and try to hold my hands steady . . . time to keep from lunging across the studio . . . time to hold back the growls welling up in my throat . . . time to hang over her shoulder and rub cheeks like it was the singing I was interested in.

Believe me . . . it's hard to subdue the beast in me. I'm such a man.

Somehow I have the feeling this whole thing is beginning to sound like a scriptwriter's nightmare for Colonna.

Then, we allowed ourselves to be talked into singing "Beside You" on the record. They wanted me to steal the song from Dottie in the picture, but after all, she's a nice girl and I couldn't do that to her.

But I couldn't resist their pleas for the record song.

Now they're sorry about the picture . . . in one way or another.

Anyway, everybody who hears the record says I ought to trade radio shows with the Metropolitan Opera.

Now . . . that's really getting too serious.

Come to think about it, I'm not going to do that calm and unemotional article for your paper after all. I'd rather chase Lamour!

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF OUR DIPLOMACY WITH RUSSIA?

JOAN HARRINGTON: "I think the U. S. is cooking for more trouble than there really is."

CAROL SMITH: "Oh for Petes sake."

NANCY ENGDAHL: "It stinks."
KATHRYN KOONTZ: "Marshall should call Molotov and get it over with."

PAT MORRIS: "Fine idea, what does it mean?"

REX BLYTON: "Our leniency with Russia indicates procrastination of the war that is inevitable."

JIM HAUCK: "Daa."

CONNIE BAILEY: "Ha ha ha."

TOY WOLTMAN: "Let's be aggressive."

Verie Sauer Says:

Latest trinangle: Barbara Jones, Phil Potts, Mickey Carter.

From the looks of things Pat Hahn had a wonderful time with Dave Brown at a recent dance.

And we'll always have: Mary Louise Buechner and Kenny Knode.

Maridean Yack has been having a wonderful time with Glen Olson and Jim Hauck.

Joe Briles seems to think the Riley girls are plenty all right.

Verie was very glad to hear every one had a wonderful vacation.

Aunt Verie was sorry to hear that Marty Pettit and Chuck Beyer broke up.

One swell couple: Donna Barnes-Don Shaffer.

Congrats to Katona and Sam Hay for keeping the fire kindled a whole year now.

Koontz and Hesler seem to be hitting it off pretty well lately.

Who is this that Nadine Williams thinks so much of?

Seen at Comets—"Peggy" Gacke and Dan Wrzein.

Margaret Moody and Blaine Richards seem to be getting along pretty well.

One super couple, Norma Schlundt and "Ben" Hogan.

If you really want a laugh, ask

Olson to read a few lines of Shakespeare.

Everybody is so thrilled to get back from Spring vacation 'cause we all missed school so much. (Now I'll uncross my fingers).

From the looks of things at the latest dances Reid and Edwards are hitting it off pretty well.

Question of the week—"Who're you going to the Prom with?"

And then we have Central's own Gregory Peck in the person of Jere Pellisier.

Bob Hope's favorite brunette may be Dorothy Lamour, but we're wondering who Jim Rose's is.

Dear Aune Verie,
Why doesn't Dale Grayson give the girls a chance?
Curious.
Dear Cure-i-us,
Maybe he's just playing hard to get.
Playfully yours,
Aunt Verie.

Auntie's congrats go to the new Amigos, Shirley Roth, Adeline Ryback, Gerry Miller, Coralyn Bradford, Lois Gross, Natalie Swiderski, Rita Patterson and Rosemary Wozniak.

The Pet Brunette received a beautiful cashmere for her birthday from her laddie.

On and off again!!! Woodard and Fries.

What a Smiler!!! Phil Potts.

Seems as though Lachot has Clyde's heart, medal and now I. D.

Marybelle Frith and Zeke Neese are still hitting it off nicely.

The Brain and It's Cell: Parshal and MacLean respectively.

Katona and Sam?????

Patched up again! Glaser and Lawton.

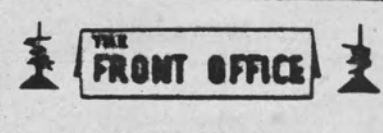

Aunt Verie thinks Gerry Hertle is one super gal.

Verie finds Bev Farnsworth once again dating Bob Pendl.

Our vote for one cute couple goes to Carol Fuller and Bill Johnson.

Everyone is glad to hear and see that Joan Shively and Fred DeLeu are hitting it off.

George Clauson has a gleam in his eye and is looking at MaryKay Jones

JUST SIX WEEKS

Spring vacation is now over and we have only six weeks of school. Report cards for the first period have been given to you and you know where you stand. Many, who have been loafing, received low grades. These grades, however, can be raised by some real consistent work during the remaining weeks of school. If you could hear the comments of boys who were in the armed services concerning their lack of study while in school and their disgust with their effort, you would realize the importance of doing your best.

At the end of each semester your grades are recorded permanently. They cannot be changed. They become a part of your record. Many times you will have to submit your transcript to colleges or prospective employers. If you have done your best, well and good, if you have not then the embarrassment will be yours.

Have you buried your talent?

A man called his servants to him; to one he gave one talent ($2000), to another two, and to another five according to each one's ability.

He who had received five talents, by honest trade doubled them; likewise he who had received two also gained two more.

But he who had received one buried it in the earth. From Matthew—35-30.

Will you increase your talent or let it lie buried?

"Do not think that what is hard for you to master is impossible for man, consider it attainable by you."—Marcus Aurelius.

CO-OPERATION!

A most important phase of education is to have complete co-operation between students and teachers. The student's part in this relationship is very large. Among his obligations he should look up favorably to his teachers and have respect for them and their opinions. He should observe the rules of courtesy and pay attention in class. By taking this attitude his teachers will naturally appreciate him. A student who does not regard these common forms of co-operation is not only a troublemaker in the eyes of his teacher but also to other students. Of course the teachers have an equally large part in creating harmony with students. They should not show favoritism but should give everyone an equal chance to prove his ability. To both teachers and students may be said, "Give to the world the best that you have and the best will come back to you."

FRIENDSHIP!

Friendship is defined as the feeling that exists between friends or binds them to one another; attachment to a person, kind regard, kindness. A friend is someone you can confide in and trust. He is always there when you need him. In time of trouble a true friend will help you out. Many of your so-called friends are really just acquaintances. You know them but yet no honest intimate friendship exists. Many of these acquaintances can eventually become real-friends. It has been said that if we treat people too long with that pretended liking called politeness we shall find it hard not to like them in the long run. But all friendships don't just happen that easily. By doing things for people and being friendly you will get to like them and they you. When we like people we usually think of them as friends.

AND VOCABULARY!

If you have ever overheard a conversation between some students you would think their entire vocabulary consisted of 'get', 'got', and 'ain't'. It's never 'yes', but always 'yeh', never 'no', but frequently 'nah'.

If students would only realize the importance of a complete vocabulary they would, beyond doubt, rush to the nearest Shakespearean book and read it no less than ten times. People are judged by their vocabulary and it makes a much better impression if it is proper but interesting than "dogpatch style" and boring. Why you apply for a job an employer surely takes into consideration your vocabulary and the way you speak it. So let's get out the dictionary you've packed away in the attic and when you haven't a thing to do and time on your hands, glance thru it and pick out a new word to add to your vocabulary.

BEARS LOSE ONE-HITTER

Coach Charlie Stewart's varsity baseball team will travel to Laporte tomorrow to meet the Slicers in an eastern division Northern Indiana conference battle. This will be the third game the Bears are scheduled to play this week. Monday the team met Riley, and the following day it opened the season's 14-game conference schedule at John Adams. Last week Central dropped its season opener to Washington 1-0, even though the Bears outit the Panthers three to one.

The mainstay of this year's team is Gene Ring, a regular third-baseman the last two years, who is doing the catching this season. The only other monogram winners aside from the pitchers are Dick Flowers and Bill Balok, second and third basemen, respectively. Phil Potts is holding down the first base position, and shortstop Carman Chapman rounds out the infield. Outfielders who started against Washington were Chuck Beyrer, in left, John Mull, in center, and Don Helak, in right.

The pitching staff seems well stocked with experienced and well conditioned talent so early in the season. Erv "Gus" Zalas and George Clauson, both starters from last year, and Myron "Buzzy" Redinbo, a returned veteran, are heading the list.

The Central track team pulled down an unexpected second place in their first track competition of the year, at the Notre Dame field-house on Saturday, March 30. The event was the running off of the NIHSC track meet, in which Fort Wayne North Side came out the victor with Central far behind in points, but still in second place. The red-suited men from Fort Wayne copped firsts and seconds in almost every event and amassed the total of 67 points during the afternoon. Central followed with 35 points and Elkhart run a close third.

Central collected her points from the ability of Brummund, who won the broad jump and from the half-mile relay team made up of Lisk, Baumgartner, Kowalski, and Ware. Other Bruin pointmakers were Baughman and Hepler, who took fourth in the shot put; Ware and Lisk placing second and third in the 60 yard dash; and Koehler who finished fourth in the mile.

The rest of Central's points were won by Brummund, who finished third in the half-mile, and by the second place mile relay team composed of Ghrames, Neeser, Baumgartner, and Perkins.

Central: Clauson, Parks (4), and Ring. Riley: White, Ranek (5), and Keiser.

Our choice for this week has brown hair and eyes and five feet 11 inches of masculine charm. He was born in South Bend but shortly moved to Granger where he has lived ever since. He came to dear old Central in the 9B and has become quite a busy lad. For example he is Head Usher, secretary of the Hi-Y, secretary of the senior class and treasurer of student council. His main interests are the Hi-Y, dancing and eating, that is eating everything except breakfast. This he omits for he gets up too late.
