

$30,000 in Scholarships to Seniors

Wilmore, Rottach, Allen, Holmes and Fromm Awarded Medals

Hedrick, Grocki, Wetter, Dahlke, and Rickleman Also Recognized

Seniors Give Toward New Curtains

Ten rows of smiling seniors faced the stage as many of their classmates received awards last Tuesday morning. This day was also cap and gown day for all the seniors.

Mr. Harter announced to those attending the assembly the seniors who are receiving scholarships. They are as follows: Tom Bartholomew, N. R. O. T. C. to Notre Dame; Devon Bates, Merit to Indiana; Sara Davidson, state scholarship to Indiana; Marjorie Dobbelaere, woman's auxiliary medical to Memorial Hospital; Richard DeBeikes, Hartford Insurance to Illinois Tech; Gale Diamondis, Indiana Extension; James Edwards, Franklin; Arthur Fromm, science to Purdue; Henry Gewurz, residence to Indiana and also merit to Indiana; Roy Holmes, National Honor Scholarship to Wabash and also Harvard; Marcia Kilmer, River Bend Chapter National Secretary's Association; Ted Kreuser, special merit to Purdue; Jeanne Martin, Franklin; Bernard Minkow, Special to Indiana; Joan Niblick, music to either Ball State or Indiana; Barbara Ogden, Leadership to Western College for Women; John Peterson, Wabash; Kathie Rickleman, first alternate to Indiana State; Sue Savari, Art to John Heron; Carolyn Schaphorst, third alternate to Ball State; Rita Tanner, merit to Indiana; John Toth, Caleb Mills Scholarship to Wabash; Mary Ann Ullery, 4-H to Purdue; Stella Watkins, State to Purdue; Kathleen Wilmore, State to Purdue; and Richard Wolfe, Hartford Insurance Co. to Illinois Tech. Over the four years of college these scholarships will be worth 30,000 dollars.

The program which began at eight twenty-five, and lasted to nine twenty-five, was a very interesting one. Mr. Pointer presented pins to the three valedictorians and the salutatorian. They were, respectively, Roy Holmes, Marcia Dahlke, Bernard Minkow, and Arthur Fromm. Then, pins were awarded to all students who made the National Scholastic Honor Roll with ninety-one percent or above as a grade average.

Miss Frick then presented the English medal to Sarah Allen. The honorable mentions were Jeanne Martin and Ruth Falk. The French award, as presented by Miss Gienand, went to Kathleen Wilmore with the honorable mention being Roy Holmes. The German and Spanish medals were both awarded to Florence Rottach by Miss Gienand and Miss Ceyak, respectively.

Mr. Wilmore presenting the Math medal announced the recipient to be Roy Holmes. The honorable mention is Nils Hass. Arthur Fromm received the Science medal from Mr. Cripe with Ruth Falk the honorable mention. The American History medal was awarded by Mr. Kuhn. It went to Arthur Fromm and Ruth Falk was the runner-up.

Mr. Willis presented the Business Education award to Marilyn Hedrick. The honorable mention went to Frances Dabrowiak. The award is in the form of a plaque to be hung in the hall with the names of the winners from year to year engraved upon it. The Industrial Arts award went to Dan Grocki. It was given by Mr.

Barnbrook. The CIO award was given to Thomas Wetter.

Mrs. Landen, the president of the Central P. T. A., presented the Home Economics award to Marcia Dahlke. For the first time this year a medal was given to the outstanding art student at Central. It was awarded by Mrs. Deahl, mother of a Central graduate, Marlene. It was given to Kathie Rickleman.

Miss Weber gave out the pins for outstanding work done in the department of vocal music. An award went to the outstanding accompanist of the year, Marcia Kilmer. Florence Rottach and Marian Menzie got the runners-up for the vocal music and Joanne Niblick got the award itself.

The outstanding band member, Nancy DeWachter, received a pin from Mr. Singleton. Devon Bates, who is the outstanding orchestra member, received recognition from Mr. Kotlowski. The George Davidson Drama award was presented by Mr. Casaday. It went to Allen Smith and Carolyn Schaphorst. The honorable mentions were Jeanne Martin, Ernest Humphrey, and John Toth.

Mr. Weddle stepped before the student body next to give letters to the seniors on The INTERLUDE staff who have had at least one year of experience. Those who received letters were Jeanne Martin, Gail Lone, Duane Schneider, and Alice Abraham. Also, Mr. Weddle congratulated John Peterson and Sara Allen for winning awards from the South Bend Press Club.

Mr. Maple then took the stand and gave the following debating awards: Jerry Moss and Henry Gewurz for recognition for one year's work. Degrees of distinction were given to Devon Bates and Arthur Fromm who have had two years of debating. The highest award of all went to Rita Tanner, Ruth Falk and Tom Bartholomew who have had three years' experience on the debating squad.

Mr. Pointer then presented the Herman E. Ries award to John Dunnuck and the leadership awards to Jerry Moss and Kathleen Wilmore.

Next the presentation of the class gift by Jerry Moss. The gift of $650 is to be used for new curtains for the stage. Then, just as the students were standing for the school song, John Dunnuck said that he had something to say. The school presented Mr. Pointer a beautiful set of matched luggage and a traveling clock. Mrs. Pointer also received a suitcase. After a great deal of applause for Mr. Pointer the school song was sung, ending the awards assembly for the graduating class of 1954. —A. L. K.

Driver Training Course Proves Interesting

One of the most interesting courses offered at Central is the Driver's Training Course. It is taught by Mr. James Powers. Mr. Powers has been at Central for two years. In that time he has had two hundred and forty pupils. Before he taught at Central, Ross Stevenson was the teacher of the course for three or four years.

This year the car used is a light green Pontiac with dual controls. The cars for all the city high schools are donated by the auto dealers of South Bend.

The Driver's Training Course teaches many things. It teaches drivers the correct techniques and the correct driving attitude.

Next year the driver's training program is to be greatly changed. This year the subject is a solid for six weeks, giving the student about thirty days of actual driving experience. At a recent meeting of the driver's training instructors it was decided that this plan is to be changed. The fee will be raised to three dollars and the course will take nine weeks to complete. Students will do their driving either on Monday and Wednesday or on Tuesday and Thursday. Then Friday will be spent in class having discussion.

D. A. R. WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Again this semester, as in many past semesters, Central has the privilege of bestowing on the outstanding freshman boy and girl the D. A. R. citizenship medals.

This semester he medals were awarded to Kathleen Crawford and Robert Antonelli to whom goes our deepest congratulations.

Winning this D. A. R. medal is an accomplishment well deserving of acknowledgment and congratulations because so many factors must be considered before a vote can be cast.

The qualifications necessary to be a recipient of this medal are honesty, high principles, trustworthiness, loyalty, cooperation, kindness, unselfishness, true Americanism effort, application and ability, to name a few.

The medal recipients were voted on by the membership of their class, freshman A and were chosen as the most outstanding girl and boy.

Ferrell Welcomed at Faculty Tea Thursday

Rupert T. Ferrell was named the new principal last week, on the heels of the resignation of P. D. Pointer, by the school board. The move ended much discussion and guessing by the students, faculty, and parents as to who would be the new chief.

A tea was held last Thursday after school for all teachers, where they met Mr. Ferrell and bade Pointer goodbye. Ferrell, 37 years of age, proved quite amiable as he was introduced to the faculty.

His background with the school city featured a five year stint as principal of Jefferson Junior High, from which he resigned a year ago to go into a position with Ranger-Cook Typesetting & Lithoplate Co. of South Bend. Ferrell also has taught at Lincoln school, and Riley High School, where he was a teacher of health and physical education. At Riley, he was assistant basketball coach, which indicates that he, like Pointer, has an interest in promoting sports.

Ferrell, who holds high school li-

"NEW LOOK" FOR '54-'55 BOOSTER CLUB — BOARD CHOSEN

"I will keep faith," the motto of the Booster Club, is being followed out to the exact letter by next year's executive board. The new executives, headed by the four newly elected officers, Jay Charon, Chris Makris, Margie Molnar, and DeeDee Tubbs, are intent upon giving the club a "new look" for 1954-55. This new look is a combination of improvements over this year's club. The outstanding change is more organization, which will be a tremendous difference.

The executive board was chosen by the elected officers and then placed on certain committees by vote of the entire group. Six committees have been set up with no more than two members on each. Seating at all the games in which the club will play a part will be handled by Carder Kuehl and Maggie Schmitt. Terry Plunkett and Joe Boland are in charge of the publicity end, and Sharon Miller and Terry Botteran will contribute their talents to the art department. Barb Vargo and Brendan Fagan will plan the activities of the club and are on the Program committee. General Business, a committee to take charge of everything and minor details, will be handled by Charon and Makris. Doug

Miss Goppert Appointed New Madison Principal

As all of you have probably heard by now, Central is not only losing a fine principal, but also a wonderful teacher, Miss Goppert. From here she will go to Madison Junior High, where she will serve as principal.

She has lived in Walkerton all her life and graduated from the high school there. She continued her education at Indiana University, winning her bachelors degree in 1924 and her masters in 1939.

Her teaching career began in Groverton and later she taught in Noblesville. Then in 1930 she came to South Bend to teach mathematics at Washington. Later she served as assistant principal from 1943 to 1946. In the last years she was there, she served as head counselor. For the past two years she has been serving Central in the girls study hall. Here, besides keeping the study hall girls under control, she was in charge of the girls attendance and the lost and found department.

When asked how she felt about her new job she said that she was looking forward to it. She added though that she would miss all her friends here at Central.

Her plans for the summer are care for her father who is ailing and also maybe work in a workshop in elementary education.

She is a member Pi Lambda Theta and Delta Kappa Gamma national teachers organizations.

Although all of us here at Central will miss her, we want to wish her lots of luck in the future.

censes in physical education and social studies in addition to the superintendent's license, will take over his duties of principalship next fall, about August 15.

The INTERLUDE, on behalf of the entire student body and faculty, would like to bid Mr. Ferrell welcome and express appreciation to Mr. Pointer for the fine job he has done in his nineteen years here. Everyone wishes the best of luck to both of you in the future.

Reed and Don Illes are in charge of Sales, which includes membership and pin vending. Other members of the board are Pat Slott and Pat Groat.

Once a week meetings have been the schedule for the last five weeks, but these will diminish to about every three weeks during the summer.

A junior board, with the purpose of assisting the seniors, was discussed and three members were named, Gary Wegenke, Janice Plew, and Murray Fiewell, with two more to be chosen in the fall.

Pins for the football season have been ordered, and they look like they are "just what the doctor ordered." About one inch in length, they are burnt orange with blue lettering on the figure of a megaphone. They will sell for a very reasonable 25 cents and a detachable pennant reading "Central" will be included.

Charon urges student participation in all of the activities for every member, if the club is to have another successful year. In view of all the work that has been and will be put in, it is hard to see how the club can fail.

Seems Mr. Powers once brought this to the attention of your Auntie: "Here lies the Body of Julian Gray Who died while taking the right-of-way. He was right, dead right, as he sped along, But he's just as dead as if he'd been wrong."

Take heed of this and remember it during the long, joyful summer months! We want to see you again next fall.

Zoom! And I'm off! Off where? To the dance last Saturday night! Arriving in a "jiffy" on my stream-lined rocket I found that other couples too had fallen in with the theme of the eve and were landing here and there to enjoy a few dances before returning to the planet earth. Namely these were Bev Daube and Bob Hamilton, Sue Carskadon and Tom Borges, Marty Waggoner and Gordy Norquist, Roberta Fink and Bob MacDonald, Nancy Dumont and Joe Boland, Lucy Simon and Bob Governors, and Patti Dee and Terry Botterton. Once there, while repairing the damage done to my appearance by this accelerated mode of travel, I discussed some most interesting things concerning the color of the moon (green, of course) with Rosanne Scheer, Sandy DeVries, Fran Dunfee, Marilyn Coddins, Marguerite Schmitt, Judy Levy and Sheila Besheares who were escorted by Jerry Moss, Roger Lone, Ray Hayes, Wade Leslie, Jay Charon, Larry Medow, and Ned Schmitt respectively. Swaying with some out-of-this-world music, I noticed that Jane Goff and Bob Wortham, Betty Hoehn and Bob Lyons, Sybil Lobough and Tom Osthimer, Shirley Scott and Dave Mikesell, Elgenia Hawk and Jerry Klein, Kathie Wilmore and Roy Holmes, Carrin Cripe and Tom Angus, Julie Orvis and Tom Sears, Pat Price and Ted Kreuser, Donna Wenger and Ralph Duggan, and Joan Machalski and Mike Hague were all doing likewise. While glancing through the "rocket book," I became informed of the facts that Betty Oursler and Dick Holdeman, Dinny Dunlap and Noel Yarger, Judy Garlough and Bill Grossnickle, Lynda Hunt and Jerry Blyton, Jo Mooren and Hank Gewurz, Jeanne Martin and Bob Benson, Nancy Tarnow and Frank Ieraci, Marlene Kazmierzak and Dar Suran, Nancy Singleton and Jerry Chachulski, Pat Suran and Jerry Witucki, Tobey Rosenberg and Audine Manuel, Carolyn Whitmer and Tony McCarthy, Rosie Garte and Bill Wain had all decided to gather stars together. Possessing number 89, the lucky number, Charlotte Hoffman and Jim Artz claimed the doorprizes. While sipping one of the specialties that people drink on Mars, Your Auntie saw Kay Crawford and Dwight Oberholtzer, Carol Posick and Jerry Williams, Sheila and Bob Babcock, Peggy Toth and Don Swartz, Bonnie Palmiter and Bernie Pollack, Barbara Purey and Dick Ugoretz, Barbara Buntman and Ted Freedman, Marge Pinter and Don Dennig, Pat Smudey and Jim Ieraci, Phylliss Petersen and John Fox, and Janice Mohler and Cliff Witkowski likewise refreshing themselves. Then once again on the dance floor, she noticed that Sheila Bedoe and Lefty Pettit, Nancy Griffith and Dan Hager, Ethel Buntman and Pete O'Malley, Bev Carlson and Jon Osthimer, and Patsy Fischer and Don Trowbridge were all spinning in space. Then noticing the face of a Mars clock and realizing that it was already unbelievably late, your Auntie decided to reluctantly call it a night. Parting from Marcia Milliken and Stark Sanders, Marcia Cole and Dick Van Ravensway, Sharon Allin and John Coble, and Nancy Burditt and Ernie Humphrey she mounted into the cock-pit of her space ship and "took off" into outer space to return again next fall to report again to you of all the latest "gossip."

BERGEN'S BEANSTALK

Is room 321 trying to outdo "Jack and His Beanstalk?" We wonder! Miss Bergen brought a sweet little house plant to school this fall—but since then something very wonderful and gigantic has happened. The plant which has "stickers" has grown about "seven feet" upward, and it still isn't happy, even though it has reached the tip top of the window. Now it's turning a corner onto the ceiling in grand style! The growth of the little plant has endeared it to all, but we do fear that home room 321 is going to tear down, not chop down, their favorite plant this June 12. There will be no one to care for the plant during the summer months, so it will have to go home with Miss Bergen for a vacation.

Those of you who attended the recent Central Senior Prom will always remember the lass who stands five feet, four inches high, weighs 110 pounds, possesses hazel eyes and beautiful long brown hair as the regal queen of the '54 prom. The possessor of this envious title and description is none other than Loretta Szalay. Loretta claims she will always hold in memory the moment of her crowning as one of the most thrilling of her life.

Evident in her easy smile is the fact that Loretta has an outstanding sense of humor and a deeper sense of friendship for all friendly people, inevitably making her the popular lass she is with her classmates.

Some of the memories which will always be dear to Loretta, who is graduating from her alma mater next week, are those of the basketball tournaments, of winning the state championship crown, and all the excitement of the traditional Mishawaka Day Parades. Of Central she comments: "The friendly kids make it a wonderful school and it really offers a wide variety of subjects for everyone."

Tom being her favorite favorite, Loretta also likes chicken, cherry pie, the color blue, and popular music. On the subject of music, that of the late Glenn Miller, and of the Hilltoppers is especially to her choice. Oddly though a basketball enthusiast, Loretta doesn't enjoy watching baseball games nor in another moment of thought, devouring salads.

Business courses, especially those taught by Mr. Cole, are her favorite subjects where the classes are informal and make the student feel at ease. In line with this, her ambition is to become a "private" secretary.

Besides being treasurer of her Home Room, Loretta is also a Booster Club member, and an avid Central fan. Somehow, between the furor of a multitudinous number of outside activities, she always manages to get at least four letters written to Tom per week.

So with this typical American girl, a favorite of everyone she knows, departs a group of some 300 Centralites, to try their luck on the road of life. All the characteristics of success which Loretta possesses are bound to be an asset to her as she too takes the first big step on this road, that of graduating from twelve years of schooling—from high school.

GOING VISITING?

Now that summer vacation is just around the corner, our minds can more easily turn to thoughts of visiting friends and having our own house guests. Along with these thoughts should also be our concern for the rules of common courtesy.

As a good guest you should go ready to enjoy yourself and to have a lot of fun. You should arrive with enthusiasm for the opportunities open to you. As a guest you should always enter into whatever has been planned and provided for your entertainment, for the host or hostess has undoubtedly gone to some trouble in the preparation of it. Always be polite and pay some attention to the other members of the family you are visiting. They appreciate it a great deal—especially the older folks. Never under any condition reveal family confidences you may have been told or have overheard. The good guest does not forget to thank his host or hostess nor his or her parents when leaving. It is a courteous guest who returns home and writes a thank-you note for the lovely time. It will be greatly appreciated.

When you are entertaining a house guest you should have everything as nice as possible, but also as natural as possible. The atmosphere of your home is apt to be strained and things apparently uncomfortable if too much effort is put forth to entertain a guest. Of course keep in mind that the pendulum can swing too far in either direction.

Accidents can always happen. The best thing to do if an accident occurs such as spilled milk or a broken flower vase is to say as little as possible about it for the sake of the guest. In some cases a bit of fun may ease an uncomfortable moment.

When preparing a room for your expected guest, or packing your own suitcase to go visiting, it is well to take out and dust or pack in your mind a few of these common rules of courtesy that make having a guest and being a guest so much more enjoyable.

INQUIRING REPORTER

"What do you think about going steady?"

Louanne Schmucker: "It's wonderful as long as it's with Bob."

Nancy Singleton: "Oh, it's just jim-dandy!"

Ronnie Scope: "I think it's O.K., if you don't think about going out with anyone else."

Bobbi Lipert: "Can't think of a better waste of time."

Ronnie Schmanski: "It's a lot of fun, and proves very interesting!" (Just what do you mean?)

Ray Hayes (after gazing at Frances for a while): "It's great!"

Leland Yockey: "I don't know, I never went."

Marlene Kazmierzak: "It's O.K. if you find the right one."

Terry Botteran: "Well, it's like this—you're always sure of a date."

Pat Slott: "Ha! It's great if you can hook someone!"

May I extend my best wishes to the student body, to the faculty and to every one who has been associated with Central in any way.

I wish for Central High School the best in every thing and may the years bring to all of you health, happiness and the best of luck.

Conference Diamond Crown to Bears

Zielinski, Breske Stifle Maroons, 8-3, for Title

By RONNIE MINKOW

After a drought of four years, the Bear nine brought the conference championship home with an eight to three victory over Mishawaka.

The Bears finished with a nine won two lost conference record and an all over slate of eleven and six.

Ken England, ace Mishawaka lefty, got the starting assignment for the visitors while Jim Zielinski, who hadn't lost since the first game of the season, took the nod for Central.

Mishawaka started out as if they were going to be the giant killers with a leadoff single by Skip Deal and, a homer by Art Celie put the Cave-men ahead 2-0 at the end of the first inning. Jennings tripled but was out at home on a play from McNarney to Shedd to Holmes, and finally to Pauszek who put the tag on Jennings. Zielinski struck out the next two batters to end the inning.

The ball started rolling for the Bears in the bottom of the second. O'Donnell started things with a single and moved around to third on Pauszek's single. After an attempted squeeze resulted in O'Donnell being caught off third, Dave Hadaway singled home Pauszek with the Bears' first tally of the game. England settled down and got out of the inning without any more damage being done.

In the last of the third, the Bears moved ahead 3-2 on a walk to Holmes, a single by Mayes, a single by Przybysz to bring in Holmes, and a sacrifice fly by Pauszek that scored Mayes.

In the top of the fourth, a walk to Ganser and a single by Myers tied the game. With one out and the score tied at three to three, Walt Breske came on to relieve Zielinski. Breske faced only twelve batters in the last three and two-thirds innings, which is one over the minimum. In the bottom of the fourth, the Bears broke loose for four runs on one hit (a bases loaded single by Bill Przybysz), three walks, a sacrifice and an error to put Central ahead seven to three. In the last of the sixth, the Bears scored again on a hit batter, a stolen base, and a sacrifice fly. Breske struck out Musary, England and Deal in the seventh to end the game.

The winning pitcher was Walt Breske, who finished his pitching career for Central in fine fashion with a four won-none lost conference. Walt beat LaPorte, in nine innings, 1-0. He chalked up victory number two against Washington 5-2. He bested Gordy-Vohs of Elkhart in a pitchers' duel and won 1-0. Walt was credited with the relief victory over Mishawaka. Walt has pitched thirty-one and two-thirds innings, struck

BEAR FACTS

The new Cubskin would like to congratulate his predecessor on becoming editor-in-chief of the worthy weekly. If we can partially fill the shoes he has so lately vacated, our hopes will be realized.

While in a congratulatory mood, we would like to mention the departing seniors who have so ably participated in sports here at Central, and wish them the best of luck as they enter athletic programs in the college of their choice. A special congratulations should be extended to captains of the various sports, as they depart from the corridors of Central. They are: Jim Kovatch, Emery Molnar, Jack Cote, Ron Kroll, Leslie Lobaugh, Frank Ieraci, Jack Quiggle, Paul Harvey, John Clark, Tom McClanahan and Charlie Thurn. Also, Cubskin would like to take his hat off to a group of men who deserve more credit than they receive. These men are the coaches; they work hard to mold inexperienced boys into a respectable team, and, without exception, we will agree, they have done a good job this year.

Football season next fall will begin on September 10, at Gary Roosevelt. On the 17th, the Bears will play host to the Red Skins from Fort Wayne Northside. Other home games will be against Mishawaka, Adams, Elkhart and Riley. The only newcomer to our schedule will be met on the night of October 9 when the Bears will travel to Fort Wayne. The foe? Central Catholic. This corner has heard that Central's Basketball team will play in the Holiday tournament on December 29, 30 at Elkhart in their newly constructed gym, which will seat 9,000. Rumor has it that Shelbyville, Fort Wayne Central, Elkhart and the ruins will be the contenders.

Athlete's Footprints

Stepping into the spotlight this week is Bob Pauszek. Bob, sometimes known as "Glubby Dups" (pronounced Glue-Be) is a senior "A" from home room 315. Bob is 5'7" weighs 183 pounds. Glubby excels in sports as he has won two letters in football and wrestling and one in baseball. He is looking toward getting his second letter in baseball this year. Bobby made the All-Twin City football team in 1952 but suffered a shoulder separation last year and was sidelined most of the year.

out thirty opponents, walked only five, given up twelve hits, and allowed only one earned run. He has an earned run average of 0.221 which is a tremendous record.

TOM McCLANAHAN, Central's catcher and captain, has led the Bears this season to a conference championship. Tom has batted .250 and made an outstanding fielding record of no errors in all the games in which he has participated. Congratulations, Bears.

Golfers Close Season With 12½ - 2½ Win Over Adams

The Central High School golf team under the direction of Bud Emrick closed out a very successful campaign a week ago last Monday afternoon by overwhelming the Adams Eagles by the score of 12½ to 2½.

The Bears were led by Jim Larson and Bob Jensen who both shot two over par, 73's; but, fell short of Tom Angus 72 which was good enough for medalist of the day. Angus also totaled the 2½ points tallied by the Eagle golfers. Follow-Larson and Jensen came Mart Kleva who shot a 74, Earl Garson with a 79 and Dale Rems, who finished with 86 strokes for the 16 holes.

Totalling the four top players points the golfers had a 299 score which was the lowest team score of the year. All the boys except Kleva tallied 3 points.

Looking over the totals for the year we find that Charlie Thurn finished the season with 12 victories and no defeats, an average of 74.7 strokes per meet. Following Thurn comes Jim Larson who averaged 78.4. He won 8 matches, lost 4 and tied 1. Next, Marty Kleva with 5 victories, 8 setbacks and 1 draw, averaging 81.6 strokes. Bob Jensen averaged 81.7 strokes and won 7 matches, lost 6, tied 1. Earl Carson was the only other undefeated regular, winning 7 and tying 2 while averaging 84 strokes. Jerry Bankson and Dale Rems both averaged 86 strokes; Bankson won 2 meets losing 3 and tying 1, while Rems won the one match he competed in.

The Bears finished the season with 9 victories and 5 setbacks, not counting the sections where they placed second, and the state where they finished fifth.

Thus, we close another golf year at Central. —B. J.

'B' Loses Final Game; Mishawaka Victor, 3-1

Playing their final game Tuesday, May 25, at School Field, Joe Mackowiak's "B" team lost 3-1 in six innings. The Bears lost again on errors. Lee McKnight pitched another fine game, but lost behind poor support. During the past season, McKnight has pitched 22 innings, had a 0.04 earned run average, but wound up with a 1-3 mark. Tim Zakrocki wound up with a 5-3 record and was the workhorse of the staff, pitching 40 innings. Jim Kocsis wound up with a 1-1 slate, pitching 9½ innings while Bob Young pitched 5½ innings and had a 1-0 record. Hank Taghon pitched one game and won it so he winds up with a 1-0 mark and 5 innings pitched.

The team as a whole won 9, lost 7, and batted .314. Below are the individual batting statistics:

Name	AB	R	H	Avg.
*McKnight	35	12	16†	.471†
*Aftowski	29	9	13	.446

Tests for Annapolis to Be Given July 12 Here

A news release was sent to The INTERLUDE this week announcing a competitive examination for appointment to the Naval and Air Force Academies. Shepard J. Crumpacker, Third District Congressman, will appoint a principal and three alternates from the test to be given by the Civil Service Commission.

The exam for the Air Force Academy will be to select ten candidates to compete for six Indiana appointments to the first class at the new school.

There will be no Third District vacancy at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point in 1955.

All interested should send their applications to 352 House Office Building, Washington 25, D. C. in care of Shepard J. Crumpacker. The exam will be held at 8:30 a. m. in the South Bend Federal Building, July 12.

G. A. A. AWARDS PRESENTED AT ANNUAL BANQUET

The Girls' Athletic Association held their 8th annual banquet on Wednesday night, May 26. The theme of the banquet, given for the graduating seniors by the juniors, was "Stars in Our Eyes."

The toastmistress was Jane Jackson, with the invocation by Jill Burgeson. The speaker for the freshman class was Joan Hagenbouch, the sophomore class was Lois Long, the junior class was Leah Rae Benson, the senior class was Pat Lagan, president. The guest speaker for the evening was Elmer McCall. After the guest speaker came the presentation of the All-Sports Award given to a graduating senior by Ross Stephenson. Pat Lagan won this award. P. D. Pointer presented Mary Ann Marshall with Sportsmanship Award. The awarding of the G. A. A. letters and S. B. letters was done by the sponsor, Miss Betty Mathews.

The winners of these awards: G. A. A., Marilyn Paitkowiak, Helen Hayes, Lillian Kotzmacher and Mary Ann Marshall. S. B., Barbara Cudowski, Jane Jackson, Tim Ragen and Phyllis Shonborn. Three chevrons were won by Leah Benson, Jill Burgeson, Jane Jackson, and Joyce

Student Gift to Pointer — Clock, Luggage and Brief Case — Presented at Assembly Tuesday

Immediately following the presentation of the various medals and scholarships at the Honor's Day assembly, a special presentation was made. In honor of the many years of service given by Mr. Pointer, our retiring principal, he was presented with a traveling clock, two suitcases and a brief case. John Dunnuck presented the clock and Dwight Oberholtzer, president of the Freshman class presented the brief case. The two suitcases, an overnight bag and a three suiter, were presented by Jack Coppens and Dan O'Donnell, presidents of the Sophomore and Junior classes respectively.

An additional gift, a ladies overnight bag, was given to Mrs. Pointer, who was present at the assembly. This was presented by Helen Mauro, secretary-treasurer of the Senior class.

Mr. Pointer, deeply moved by this tribute to him, promised the student body that Central's scholastic and athletic achievements would always be foremost in his mind.

MYSTERY MISS

This delightful lady has the vocabulary of a teen-ager and a small touch of the mid-Victorian.

Her age—"You should never ask a lady that!"

Her height—"I don't know—but less than it used to be."

Her weight—"Don't know, do you?"

Homeroom—all of them.

Activities—everything.

Favorite hobby—other people's business.

Favorite food—purple cow steak.

Pet peeve—steady couples who break up.

(Her name can be found in one of the ads in this issue. You'll have to look hard!!)

Pinkerton. Tim Ragen won one chevron. Gold volleyballs awards were won by Pat Lagan, Mary Ann Marshall, and Q. C. Neal. Pat Lagan won the sweater for graduating with the most points.

DEBATERS SPEAK AT ASSEMBLY

Thursday morning a very interesting Debate assembly was held. Mr. Pointer revealed that he had been looking forward to this assembly all year. One of the main things that the debaters do is extemporaneous speaking. Four Central debaters spoke on varied topics, all of very definite interest to the student body.

The speakers were introduced by Tom Bartholomew. They were, Marilyn Brown, Tony McCarthy, Ruth Falk, and Murray Fiewell who spoke respectively on, the segregation problem, the eighteen year's old right to vote, the situation concerning Senator Joseph McCarthy, and why the White Sox will take the pennant away from the Yankees this year.

GAGS??

Hypochondriac—A man who just can't leave being well enough alone.

A sensible girl is more sensible than she looks because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible.

Mrs.: "John, the baby swallowed the matches. What will I do?"

Mr.: "Use the cigarette lighter." (She probably was going to light a pipe and couldn't use the lighter.)

South Bender: "What do you think of our little college town?"

Notre Dame Student: "It certainly is unique."

South Bender: "What do you mean by 'unique'?"

Notre Dame Student: "It's from the Latin 'unus' meaning 'one' and 'equus' meaning 'horse'."

Kids need more than "readin', writin' and 'rithmetic" in this day and age if they are to be successful in their adult years. It calls for a real education. Many a boy — and girl — has gone to college because a savings account eased the financial strain.
