

HERE AND THERE ABOUT CENTRAL

By Your Roving Reporter

Prom Music

The orchestra committee for the Senior Prom has chosen Ken Nowlan and his orchestra of Chicago to play for this annual event, which will be given on May 15, at the Palais Royale.

P. T. A. Officers

Newly elected officers of the Central Parent-Teachers Association, who were installed at a meeting yesterday in the auditorium, are:

President, Mrs. Walter Casey; 1st Vice-president, Mrs. H. G. Reed; 2nd Vice-president, Mr. E. H. Kuhny; Secretary, Mrs. R. W. Larimer; Treasurer, Mrs. W. J. Gewetski; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Frank Noland; Board, Mrs. R. Primrose, Mrs. R. L. Culp, and Miss E. Montgomery.

Staff Applications

Since the Interlude staff for the school year 1942-43 must be selected and organized this semester, V. C. Cripe, faculty adviser of The Interlude, announced Monday that applications for positions on next year's business and editorial staff are being accepted this week. Any Central students who are interested in newspaper work may apply by written application, stating name, age, home room, classification, experience, and position desired, together with two references. Applications are to be taken to room 221 or placed in The Interlude box, which is just outside the front office, by tomorrow, Friday, May 8. Present staff members who wish reappointment to the staff, as well as new applicants, must apply.

Hospital Day

The great need for young men and women to enter hospitalization work will be emphasized on May 12—National Hospital Day. As a feature, the Central 12B girls will visit St. Joseph and Epworth Hospitals at 4 P. M. The possibilities of training for desirable and permanent employment are great, according to Clement T. Malan, State Supt. of Public Instruction.

Technical work includes engineering laundry, X-ray, research, chemical and laboratory duties, and dietetics. Trained nurses are in demand and this work offers unlimited opportunity for services in the field of health, sanitation, and prevention of disease.

Lip Readers

Central's three best lip readers will meet Riley's three best lip readers next Monday afternoon, May 11, 4th period, at Center in room 114, to determine who is South Bend's Champion Lip Reader. Leila L. Larsen, teacher of deaf children in South Bend schools, is in charge.

The winners of the elimination contests at Central are Naomi Mulkey, David Hack, and Betty Greenaway. The elimination contest has been going on for six weeks, one part being given at each class period.

Miss Helen Dernbach, Mr. P. D. Pointer, and Mr. Glen Kropf are to be the judges. Mr. Mortan Keegan, Miss Jane Gaff, and Leila L. Larsen are to be the readers in the contest.

"Everyone interested, who can arrange to come to the contest, is most welcome," Miss Larsen said.

Summer School Cited For Profitable Summer Courses.

Summer School offers the best possible opportunity for students to make up work, to earn additional credits, and to spend a portion of summer vacation most profitably. The Summer School course will last six weeks at Central, beginning on June 4.

Subjects such as English, Social Studies, Biology, Health, Mathematics, Commerce, and Aeronautical Science will be offered, if there is sufficient demand. The tuition will be $10 if paid in advance and $12 if paid by the week.

Students interested in Summer School this year are advised to get a recommendation card, soon, from their counselor, filled out and signed by their teacher, principal, and parent. They are to come to room 316 in Central High School at 2:30 P. M., Thursday, June 4, it was announced by Mr. Morton B. Keegan, Assistant Superintendent of South Bend Public Schools, who will be in charge of Summer School.

Students wishing to take music courses may attend centers at Central, Room 41; John Adams, Little Theater; Riley, Auditorium; and Washington, Auditorium. The tuition for music is $3 if paid in advance and $4.50 if paid by the week. Music enrollment will take place June 5, at the various centers. A 25 cent fee for materials will be collected in all subjects except mathematics and beginners in music.

TUPPER WINS SCHOLARSHIP

A Central senior and member of the Smilers Club, Frank Tupper, has been named a recipient of the Edward Rector Scholarship of $1,000 to DePauw University for 1942-43.

POSTER CONTEST FEATURE OF COURTESY WEEK

Next week will be Courtesy Week at Central. The student council is putting final touches to the plans for a poster contest and selection of the most courteous boy or girl in Central for the third consecutive year. The winner of last year's courteous deed contest was James Overfell of the junior high but all students are eligible.

A secret committee will be appointed to scour the halls and rooms for deeds of kindness and courtesy. Doors and drinking fountains are expected to be scenes of gentlemanliness.

Central's front hall will be adorned with hints of talent in the form of posters depicting courteous acts. Each home room is urged to make a poster to be displayed in the main hall and then subject to judging for first honors. The room entering the winning poster will be announced in The Interlude.

Commencement announcements for Senior A's may be gotten on next Monday, May 11, from a representative at the ticket window.

FALL TERM OPENS SEPT. 2

September 2, 1942, is the day which may be looked upon by some Centralians even now as a potential "zero hour," for it heralds the picking up of books, and the beginning of school for the fall and winter term. ### "He Who Sacrifices Gets Most From Life."—Martin.

"Why are we here? What are we supposed to be doing here?" These were some of the questions asked by Dr. E. Burns Martin, pastor of the First Methodist Church, at the 12B Philosophy meeting, held in the auditorium, Monday, May 4, at 8:30 A. M. "Philosophy," said Dr. Martin, "is the way of directing life, so that life will mean to you, as much as possible. Life is one's chance to achieve character. The one who gets the most is the one who sacrifices the most." Dr. Martin also remarked, "The difference between knowledge and wisdom is that knowledge is the engine, and wisdom, the engineer." "There are three things," continued Dr. Martin, "which make lift. The first is Heritage—that which one inherits without working for, such as our flag and our Constitution. The second is Stewardship—the bonds with which you are tied to other people. If you get anywhere in the world, you use what you have. The motto is 'Use or Loose.' The third thing which makes life is Prophecy. This is the way in which you look at things. Either you think you can do something, and work hard, or you just stand and hope something will turn up to help you. What you do, and what you are, rests almost entirely upon you."

Seniors Bring True Spirit Of Fun To Central Stage With "Straw Hat"

Players Take To The Footlights For Evening Audience Tomorrow At 8 P. M.

By Madelon Marcus

One of the fastest moving productions to hit a Central audience blew a refreshing blast of talent across the footlights this afternoon in the form of that hilarious French farce, "The Straw Hat". In the opening performance of Labiche and Miche's magnificent comedy, the Seniors brought the true spirit of fun to the Central stage.

Pacing the entire show was that experienced gentleman of amateur productions, Henry Hoover, in the leading role. His interpretation of Fadinard proved most enjoyable and entertaining. Carrying the feminine lead of Helene, the bride, with a refreshing and natural air was Carolyn Shanafelt. The same part will be enacted by June Soderburg in tomorrow evening's performance.

Earl Stevens handled the role of Nonacourt with a great deal of zip and punch, much in the style of his other characterizations. Mary Lois Coquillard added a full measure of pomp and ceremony plus a dash of comedy to the part of the Baroness de Champigny which is shared with Jane Post. Extremely funny was the characterization of the foot-dunking uncle, Beaupterthius, while Marjorie Dutrieux as Clara, the milliner, was both petite and charming.

The Miss whose hat was eaten and George Davidson as her soldier friend put in convincing and satisfying performances. In the supporting cast were Ernest Pence as the ludicrous Vezinet, Andrew Lorence, in the part of the limpid bookkeeper, Don Olson interpreting the hilarious Bobin, and Marvin Oestricher as the pretentious Felix. Perhaps one of the most successful mob scenes ever undertaken was carried out effectively by the large group of relatives.

The play is given the polishing touch characteristic of his other productions by Mr. James Lewis Casaday, whose staging and direction have rung up another hit. "The Straw Hat" will be repeated Friday evening at 8:00 p. m. in the Central auditorium. As was expressed by many on the matinee performance, "One of the best comedies I've seen in a long time."

BOROUGH'S MODEL AIRPLANE WINS $10 PRIZE

In a model airplane contest sponsored by the First Bank & Trust Company, Bill Borough, Central student and member of home room 311, won second place and a bonus of $10 in War Saving Stamps.

Directed in South Bend by Mr. Sterling M. Pierce, and inaugurated by the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics, is a project for the building of model airplanes. When completed they are sent to various training stations where they are used to train the naval personnel to recognize enemy and friendly craft.

First prize of a $25 bond, was won by Mr. Lipski, a worker at the Bendix plant. Because Mr. Lipski was an adult, he felt it was not fair to take the first prize from high school students, and so, returned the money which is to be awarded to the student making the best model from now to the end of school.

SMITH ELECTED

Arthur Smith, Central teacher, was re-elected president of the Northern Indiana Biology Teachers Association for the year, at a meeting last Saturday at Peru, Indiana.

IT'S PROM TIME

On May 15, the Senior Prom will be held. Every Senior is anxious to attend. The prom is a climax to high school careers and it leaves a memory one will cherish forever.

It is the belief with a few that it is not proper for girls to invite boys to the prom. This is not true. The prom is as much a girl's bid affair as a boy's. Line up those dates, but remember, one member of the party must be a senior or a Central alumni.

Loads of fun to all and may this prom be a fitting finale to many Central High School Careers.

USE THE WASTE BASKET, PLEASE!

Perhaps one of the filthiest habits that some thoughtless, inconsiderate students possess is that of putting used Kleenex into the desks. Waste paper is annoying enough, but cleansing tissues are inexcusable. There are two reasons why we have no right to do this. The desks in the classrooms are not our private property. Everyone must use them. We are all responsible for their upkeep. Secondly, Kleenex is extremely unsanitary when not disposed of properly. There are adequate trash baskets in every room. If we would not stick soiled tissues in every drawer and cupboard at home, there is no reason why we should do it at school. Remember that every time we put a Kleenex in a desk, it means that someone else is going to have to remove it sooner or later.

Someone Is Watching You!

FACE THE FACTS

Warm weather descended with a gay promenade of lively striped torso dresses and gay peasant skirts. Have you noticed the cute pig-tails on Elaine Ruppert? Maybe she has more courage than some of the rest.

Speaking of courage, I understand some non-members of the Polar Bear Club have been swimming already in Lake Michigan. That's really being brave.

The sun brought on its usual crop of freckles. But don't let the freckles get you down because not everybody is so privileged.

Betty Lou Fleming seems to start the fad of artificial gardenias in the hair. Anyway they're cheaper. How about it, boys?

Marion Moore has a gay variety of wooden belts. Could we rent a few?

PLATTER CHATTER

By Jim Cole

A happy crowd of youngsters were at the Smiler's dance last Saturday. Irv Given, although quite brassy, was a very good band. His ability to copy Glenn Miller was exceptional. Maybe we will get him for the prom—who knows?

For a good mixture of music and showmanship listen to Cab Calloway tonight at the Palace Theatre. Although one of his hottest cats is dead (Chu Berry was killed in an auto accident) he still has one solid boy in Cozy Cole (no relation — disregard any similarity), his ace drummer. If you want to get sent—see Cab!

Records for the week are:
"Skylark" _____ Glenn Miller
"We'll Meet Again" _____ Benny Goodman
"Bishop's Blues" _____ Woody Herman

LIBRARY SHELVES BOOKS OF FAMOUS PEOPLE

Interesting people who have come recently to Central's library in book form are:

The Soong Sisters—Hahn.
Edith Cavell—Judson.
James Whitcomb Riley—Nolan.
Lord Baden-Powell—Fast.
Will Rogers, His Wife's Story.
Clara Barton of the Red Cross—Nolan
John McCormack, the Story of a Singer—Strong.
The Doctors Mayo—Clapesattle.
The Young Churchill—Nott.

INQUIRING REPORTER

What kind of assemblies would you like?

Jim Cole: "A good swing band such as Woody Herman."

Marilyn Morrison: "Band Assemblies."

Rudy Altgelt: "A speech assembly—the less they speak the better I like it."

Mary Vitou: "The debating assemblies. You get a different viewpoint on things."

Leo Cunningham: "Just a good swing band."

Eleanor Hoffman: "Give me some good plays. Serve them with some comedy, please."

Harry Warrick: "Any kind that lasts over 9:10."

ALUMNA TAKES COLLEGIATE NEWSPAPER POST

Gladys Peterson, a Central graduate of 1939 and a former member of the Interlude staff, has been named Associate Editor and Woman's Editor of the Indiana Daily Student at Indiana University for the third semester.

VERIE SAUER SAYS

Well, hi—

Another week and time to roll out a little more prattle for The Column. Every week I try to dig up a few cute women for you fellows to look over — this week's batch: Catherine Hack, Pat Wilson, and Frances Buckoll.

Attention all wolves! Get out your decoder pins, here's a special communique: Frank Tupper has whipped up Mary Minges right from under your woolie noses. It's too late to do much about that one now but let it serve as a warning to you—get on that little old ball, boys!

Have you noticed Caryl Quimby running around keeping out from under people's feet? She's all of five feet tall.

It seems Dick "da brain" Muessel has found his heart beat at Adams in the person of Janet Bickel.

A belle of belles is Verabelle Hazen —(ding, ding—heh, heh, heh!)

Take an equilateral triangle, add a quadratic equation, and subtract a couple of parallelograms and you've got Adeline Swartz, down pat.

Right about now I'd like to give the Smilers a plug for that nifty dance they gave last Saturday. At least I hear it was good from those lucky people that went. Also I was informed that some of the cagier couples were:

Joe Peil and Jackie Kaslow.
Bill Burrough and Mary Woolverton.

George Manuszak vs. Pat Harrell.
John Hazen avec Virginia Lewis.

And then every time you turn around there's M. C. Ghetz wolfin' some woman. Perky little Ellen King has been noticed walking the halls with Dean Bowker at her heels.

One John Krisela wants to know if G. Alexander won't ever stop chasing Mary Latimer?

In the estimation of a lot of little cookies about Central, Bill Rinehart is about the most beautiful man that is—

Jack Cole must be quite a lover, his latest—Mardell Boskowski.

Marjorie Scholtz has been receiving a lot of fan mail via the INTERLUDE box, drop around sometime, Margie, we'll give it to you.

If any of you girls want someone to carry your books and tie your shoelaces call in Dick "just call me helpful" Brosk. What's happened to Irene Vaghy, we haven't heard from her for a long time. Which reminds me let's keep throwing our little blows into the box by the office — they're much appreciated.

We're thinking of taking a collection of worn out pants and shirts for those poor dear boys who have nothing to wear but T-shirts and blue jeans.

YOUR RECORD

There are only four more weeks in this semester. The year will soon be over. The grades will then be recorded. They can never be changed. Your transcript will bear the evidence of work well or poorly done. The responsibility is wholly yours. It is not too late to do some real effective work. The last four weeks really determine your final grade. If you have received a poor work slip it should warn you that there is much room for improvement. However, if you did not receive one, why not resolve now to do better, if you are not doing your best. Your record is all important to you. You will ask for it many times in later life. You should make it the best record possible. It will always stand as a testimony of how you spent your high school days. You will be ashamed to confess later that you did not do your best.

PITCHING MASTERPIECES ADD UP TWO WINS FOR BALLPLAYERS

Bill Moore stole the baseball lime-light last week with a pair of pitching masterpieces. On Tuesday afternoon the battling Bruins journeyed to LaPorte where they defeated a scrappy Slicer nine, 11-0, behind the one-hit hurling of Bill. Again on Friday afternoon Moore pitched a two-hit game, defeating Mishawaka, 3-2, at the School Field. Eugene Flowers slipped a home run in the second inning of the LaPorte tilt with one aboard for the only home run of the game.

Bruce Burgess, Bruin hurler, handed a highly favored Fremont ball team their first taste of defeat in 18 starts by virtue of a 5-1 victory. The contest took place at School Field on Wednesday afternoon. The Fremont nine featured a fancy chucker in Howard Mingus who had previously been the victor in 15 starts. Errors behind Mingus and smart baseball on the part of the Bears knocked the pedestal from under Mr. Mingus.

INTRODUCING— JACK HUNTER

He goes like lightning
He's fast on the start.
He's little Jack Hunter
Known as "fiddle art."
Jack is a senior and has been a member of the Central track team for three years, doing duties in the dashes, broadjump, and relays.

While in his junior high school days he was an all-around athlete, capturing four letters while in the ninth grade. When he entered Central as a sophomore he dropped football, basketball, and baseball, and put all his effort towards track. He is now high-point man for the track team.

He is a member of the Hi-Y Club. He is never (?) out later than nine o'clock during the track season and has thus given up relations with the fairer sex (that is, until after season).

His outstanding feat of the season was his tying a Culver record of 21 feet, 6 inches in the broadjump in a meet with the cadets. Much may be expected of Jack in the coming conference and sectional meets.

WINNERS ON CINDER PATH

The Bruin trackmen conquered two foes in dual meets last week. On Wednesday defeating Niles 57-47, there, and on Thursday smashing Goshen 63-46 at the School Field.

These triumphs gave Central a rating of five victories against three defeats in dual competition this season. Central winners and points gathered in both meets are as follows: Tuttle, 19½; Hunter, 12½; Harvey, 10½; Boits, 9; Welch, 8; Wallis, 8; Gorrell, 7½; Green, 7; Anton, 5; King, 5; Hourigan, 4; Frankiewicz, 3; Matthews, 3; Slot, 2; Kayser, 2; and Redding, 1.

Diner—"Then you'd better have some one else buy your steaks for you."

A ten-year-old boy rushed into the shop.

"Father's being chased by a bull," he cried.

"What can I do about it?" asked the shopkeeper.

"Put a new roll of film in my camera," said he.

What Will They Think of Next?

This seat represents the pilot's place in an airplane. The learning aviator sits in it and manipulates the "stick" and the pedals before him and these, by means of electric impulses transmitted through a cable, actuate the control surfaces of the model aeroplane shown in the lower cut.

This model plane is so supported that it is free to turn in any direction. Wind from a fan blows against it so that it tilts or turns or noses up or down in response to the movements of the student aviator just as a real airplane would do under like circumstances. A patent has been awarded for this invention.
