Invitations are now being issued for the tea to be given for the mothers of the graduating seniors on Wednesday, May 27th, in the cafeteria from 3 to 5 p. m. This tea has been given by the P. T. A. for about four years. All the mothers who possibly can are urged to attend.

Pinhook Picnic

Interlude staff members will drop their reporting pencils and advertising contracts on June 4, and hold a final get-together picnic at Pinhook Park at 11:30 A. M. All staff members, except home room agents, are invited, and are asked to sign up in Room 221 now.

Traffic Counting

The Hi-Y Chapters of Central, Riley, John Adams, and Washington counted traffic in cooperation with South Bend traffic control. Elementary school principals recommended places for traffic lights or policemen. The traffic counting was done in all of the elementary school zones as a check on the need for traffic control.

Jacobs At Finals

Stanley Jacobs, winner of the extemporaneous speech contest at Central, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, competed with winners of Mishawaka, Riley, John Adams, and Washington at the luncheon held at the Bronzewood Room of the LaSalle Hotel this noon. Choosing their subjects at 11:00 a. m. in the public library, the four contestants worked an hour on their subjects, and then went to the hotel, where the final elimination was held. Miss Agnes Frick accompanied Stanley.

New Club Members

The Handy Andy Club has recently taken in seven new members. They are: Mary Ellen Chillag, Joyce Elmore, Joan Hodson, Phyllis Levy, Gloria Stellner, Helen Stewart, and Virginia Turner. Handy Andy activities include distributing tickets for all plays and assisting with publicity.

French Club Feast

Yards of French bread, Room 20, and French songs — what could it have been but the party of the Circle Francais, Central's active club for students interested in French, last Monday.

Typing III Speaker

Mrs. M. R. Schutt of the U. S. Employment Agency spoke to the members of the after-school defense typing class at 3:45 Thursday, May 14, in room 210, concerning requirements for getting typing jobs. Miss Margaret Conlin from Bendix accompanied her. Mrs. Schutt stressed that since we are in a war it is up to girls to hold down jobs and be able to type with speed and accuracy.

The girls were informed that their test grades made at Central would be accepted and they would not have to take a test at the employment agency as has been customary. She also informed them that 50 words a minute is the minimum speed necessary. There are some opportunities for young men who are not of draft age as typists, Miss Conlin reported. At the end of her talk Mrs. Schutt gave the class an opportunity to ask questions.

CENTRAL BAND COMPLETES SUCCESSFUL MUSICAL YEAR.

The Central Band has been most active this year, taking part in a great number of activities—from leading the Mishawaka Day pep parade to a concert with the Choral Club. Membership in the band, directed by Walter Cleland, is gained by tryout.

HAPP AND KETCHAM TO HEAD NEW STAFF OF THE INTERLUDE.

Bill Happ and Dorine Ketcham have been named Editor-in-Chief and Business Manager, respectively, of The Interlude for the year 1942-43, according to V. C. Cripe, faculty adviser of The Interlude. Madelon Marcus of Home Room 322 will be News Editor of next year's publication.

Happ, who is a Senior B of Room 104, joined the Interlude staff as reporter and has worked as a News Editor during this past semester. He has distinguished himself as recent president of the Drama Club, Honor Roll student, and appeared in Central stage productions of "Pride and Prejudice" and "Ebb Tide."

Miss Ketcham will be the first girl in Central's history to act as Business Manager of the weekly Interlude. She is an 11A of Home Room 103, and for the past year has been active on the business staff.

For three years, reporter has been the post of Madelon Marcus on the Interlude. A Junior A student, member of the Central Glee Club, and cabinet-member of the Barnstormers, Miss Marcus has served on casts and committees of both groups' performances.

Those filling other posts on the Interlude staff will be announced at a later date.

BETTYLEE MOOREN RECEIVES SUMMER SCHOLARSHIP

Every summer for a period of six weeks, high school students from all over the United States, selected on a competitive basis, meet at Northwestern University. The National High School Institute, as it is called, consists of classes in different branches of the speech department, such as dramatics, radio, and debating. Representing Central this year is Bettylee Mooren of Home Room 224, in the dramatics field.

In order to become eligible for these classes, Bettylee took an examination, whereby she was judged on scholarship, general information, knowledge of the particular field in which she is interested, and character. Not only will this prove advantageous to Miss Mooren, but next semester when she returns to Central, she will be able to pass on the knowledge gained during the summer.

Colorful Art Exhibit Graces Main Hall.

An exhibition of art work done by students in Mr. Trottnow's art classes is on display this week at the south end of the main corridor.

Here students will find, and it is hoped enjoy, examples of pictorial expressions of life as the students live it; rhythmic portrayals in color and design which express attitudes or emotions; and organizations in a wide variety of medium; ink, charcoal, colored chalk, water color and tempera. Also, safety, health, war, and curricula posters are included in the exhibit.

At the extreme north end of the main hall, John Vogel, senior art major, has a "one man show"! John, who has given generously of his art talents during his three years here will be awarded a gold medal by Central at his graduation in June. Vogel has received many local and national art awards since coming to Central from Nuner. His familiar "script" will be missed next year, but he is wished all kinds of luck.

GLEE CLUB AND ORCHESTRA TO GIVE JOINT MUSICAL

The Central Glee Club and Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Helen Weber and Mr. Walter Cleland, respectively, are planning to have a combined concert on Tuesday evening, May 26. Many of the enjoyable selections heard in the recent assemblies will be given. Highlight of the evening will undoubtedly be "The Ballad for Americans," with Frederick McFaul as soloist, accompanied by the Glee Club and the orchestra.

If you liked the previous performances of both groups, let your friends know about the evening concert which is open to the public.

Interlude Mail Subscriptions For Central Alumni.

Attention, seniors! Did you know that you may receive the INTERLUDE regularly through the mail next year at the same price you ordinarily pay for your subscription?

Every alumnus is interested in keeping in touch with Central, and receiving the INTERLUDE weekly is the best way to do this. Seniors may leave their subscriptions now with Mr. V. C. Cripe in room 221. They will be put on next fall's mailing list. For $1.50 you get the weekly issues of the paper and also the commencement issue.

Classes Of Central, Riley, Adams Join Sunday In Baccalaureate.

SENIORS TO BE ENTERTAINED BY FACULTY AS FINALE TO CAP AND GOWN DAY.

By John Makielski

Senior classes from Central, Riley, and Adams will join in a Baccalaureate Service in John Adams auditorium on Sunday, May 24, at 4 P. M. Baccalaureate consists mainly of a farewell sermon to a graduating class, and has been a prominent event in graduating activities of Central seniors for many years.

The service will be opened by an organ prelude, succeeded by the processional, "Festival March" by Best. Reverend V. W. Hinckley, Pastor of the River Park Methodist Church, will give the invocation.

After the combined senior choirs sing an anthem, "The Voice of Praise" by Mozart, Rev. Hinckley will present the scripture reading, consisting of verses from Job and Matthew. Another anthem, "Salvation is Created" by Tschesnokoff, to be sung by the choirs, will be followed by the sermon by Dr. Charles Tupper Baillie, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church. He has chosen "Stars Shall Guide Us" as his topic.

The last anthem will be "Sanctus," from "St. Cecilia Mass" by Gounod. Benediction will be given by Rev. Rinckley. After the Sevenfold Amen by Stainer, the Recessional March from "Naaman" by Costa, will bring the service to a conclusion.

Begowned Figures

The doors of the Senior A home rooms will open tomorrow at 8:30 A. M. and begowned figures will gush forth to fill the halls with the bobbing and flutter of caps and gowns. It will be Senior Cap and Gown Day. The seniors are thus announcing the end of their high school careers with smiles, but there will be some sadness behind those smiles. They will be walking Central's halls as students for the last time.

As guests of the faculty, the seniors will attend a party in the gym at 4 P. M., where there will be dancing. Joe Peil, vice president of the senior class, will present the class gift to Principal P. D. Pointer. Paul Prass, the president of the class, will not be present because he is now attending Purdue University.

SR. "A" ASSEMBLY AND MOVIES

Tuesday morning the Senior A's met in the auditorium to get tickets for Baccalaureate and Commencement. Those wishing to secure their tickets may get them in the main office. Mr. Pointer made several announcements of interest to the Senior A's. Friday is Cap and Gown Day. The P. T. A. is giving a tea for Senior A's and their mothers on May 27. Wednesday morning, June 3, at 9:00 A. M., there will be a rehearsal for Commencement at Adams. Everyone graduating is to be there.

On Friday, movies of the seniors will be taken in the following order: 8:20—Rooms 304, 319, 32, 301, 402.

CALM THAT URGE TO ROAM

Spring is here! Yes, indeed it is, but that's no excuse to let down in our school work.

Maybe we get the "urge to roam" about seven-thirty when we should be settling down to some solid studying. If we do, we can squash it with a quick glance at our history unit that has 12 questions yet unanswered.

We all have a conscience, and if it has to be done, that little conscience won't let us get by without doing it. We might as well forget the phone and the moon and the people down the street, resign ourselves to studying and get it done. We'll be lots happier with ourselves if and when we do, . . .

LEST WE FORGET

The SPURS are to be congratulated on their gift of the flag to the school.

It is hoped that their patriotic gesture will encourage other clubs to donate a flag to each homeroom.

In these times what could be a better reminder of our freedom than the constant presence of our beloved stars and stripes?

Help Your America

AND EARN MONEY, TOO-

Many materials that are so-called scrap and waste can be used to make weapons for our fighting men, and so it's up to we Americans to get the scrap moving and save now!

What to save? Waste paper, old rags and rubber, and scrap metal. Salvage for Victory!

FACE THE FACTS

By Carolyn Carlisle

As the hot weather comes to stay (we hope), we see that "Dot" Gossett and Mike Michelson have been seeing more and more of each other . . . could be that something will develop from this. Perhaps it already has?!!?

'Tis rumored that Mary Ann Hauck is having a jolly time teaching Steve Rudasics. Also Steve has been throwing something else besides a baseball, and "Laughie" Hauck has been catching.

One of the up-and-coming boys is that tall, light, and gorgeous Jimmy Pankow.

What is this between Smythe, Jackson, and little Snoke?

More girls are going down to Culver. We hope they have all the luck in the world!

Good old steadies with their quarrels and make-ups. Some of the prominent are: George Gemberling and Barb Wells (as usual), Marilyn Boyer and Bill Freeman, "Lot" May and Bill Jackson (Bill, don't stray in your three weeks of freedom), and Janet Oren and "Petit" Olson.

Sudden thought — how does John Curtis keep his lovely wave?

We found out that Beverley Nelson is now on the loose — take notice, boys!

PENNING PROM-TROTTERS

By Betty Borden

A clash of cymbals and a roll of drums—the June Prom of 1942 is under way. I station myself in a darkened corner of the balcony so that I have a view of the ball-room.

The orchestra strikes up an inviting tune and movement begins. Oh! there is Ginny Manby stepping it with Bill Mills. Joe Peil and Jackie Kaslow—nice couple. Surprise! Mary Lois Coquillard—and on time, too—with Callix Miller! People are coming in droves now! I can't pick out who's who. Now there is a couple who can dance — why it's Barbara Wells and George Gemberling, my what grace! Everybody's sinking to the floor now, dips they call them—so the dance is over. Conversation is under way so maybe I can see some twosomes. Lorraine Hansen and Don Culp of Adams, Phil Bonnell and Dale Williamson; Jim Cole, Louan Smythe; Johnny Coquillard and Evelyn Thoner; Katie Bird, Rudy Altgelt; Elizabeth Curry and Travis Budd—my what a crowd. Success is the word for this prom. Parson Howell is swinging it with Doris Grady.

Well, look who's walking in—Joey Smith, Dick Seybold, Mary Alice Jackson and Conrad Hinz. Wonder where they have been? Why Carolyn Carlisle and casanova Tom Matthews of Adams are here! Dot Gossett and Duane Michelson just arrived! Smooth George Schmitt and Mary Kathryn Barr are cutting a mean rug! Such excitement! Marilee Rumpf and Ernie Pence go well together. Leona Hosinski and Tom "Student Teacher" Schmidt seem to be having fun!

Hundreds of people are gliding to the melodious tunes of Ken Nowlan's orchestra. Toes are stepped on, dresses tripped over, shoulders bumped — such grace, these modern dancers have acquired!

As the hands of the clock come together Promanaders divide — one to the powder room, the other, the cloak room and another Senior Party comes to an end. Lights out on a grand success!

PLATTER CHATTER

By Jim Cole

Well, the seniors can relax now. The prom is over for another year. Ken Nowlan's interpretations of many popular pieces were very much enjoyed by all. A bit on the jump side, Nowlan was strictly solid. His 10-minute sessions, in which practically every man in his band took a ride (solo to you), really sent the cats solid. He even wore most of the jitters down. Although he didn't play any too much sweet music, what (Cont'd on page 4, col. 3)

REAL EDUCATION A VITAL MOTIVE

And what of the education we are giving to children in the schools and to young men and women in the universities? Is it actable education? Is it of the kind they can follow up and develop into the continuous culture of a lifetime? Will it help them to enjoy the universe and to love it, or will it merely swell the army of exploiters who would make what they can out of the blind machine, and so increase the confusion into which that unhappy drama is now drifting? Will their education cease the moment they leave school, as a thing for which they have no further use, or will it continue and prolong itself to the end of their days as a vital motive for good work? As the answer falls one way or the other, you have the difference between an education which is a reality and an education which is a sham—a mere time-consuming pretense.

Trackmen End Mishawaka's Eleven-Year Reign Over Sectionals.

HALF-MILE RELAY, DECIDING MEET BY ONE POINT, SENDS BEARS TO FINALS.

Coach Bert Anson's trackmen put an end to the eleven-year reign of Mishawaka over the sectional field by out-pointing the Cavemen 49 1/3 to 48 1/3. Riley was third with eight points.

The half-mile relay was the crucial event of the afternoon when Mishawaka led the Bruins' 42 1/3 to 39 1/3. The team winning the event would get ten points and the one placing second would receive six. With Central and Mishawaka having the strongest teams, the winner of this event would also be the winner of the meet. The race was a dead heat all the way, except at the finish line where Ben Harvey, the Bear anchor man, emerged one foot ahead of his rival to determine the winner of the event and meet.

Gruza Two-Time Winner

Frank Gruza, Bruin speedster, was the only two-time winner of the afternoon, placing first in both the high and low hurdles. Other Central firsts were won by: Jack Hunter, who leaped twenty-two feet four and one-quarter inches to establish a new record in the broad-jump (the old mark was twenty-two feet one inch set by Kristl of Mishawaka in 1936); Harvey in the 220-yard dash; Neal Welch in the 440-yard dash. The winning half-mile relay team consisted of Jack Hunter, Dave Gorrell, Ben Harvey, and Don Tuttle. Placing second were Don Tuttle in the 100-yard dash and Tom Green in the high jump. Winning third place honors were Tom Anton and Joe Hourigan.

Little Jack Hunter is quite a jumper. For last Saturday he did soar. To glory, no joke. For a record he broke. With a jump of twenty-two-four!

Indianapolis, Here We Come!

Seven Bruin stalwarts of the cinders weathered last Saturday's sectionals and won for themselves a trip to the state finals, which are to be held at Indianapolis this Saturday. These Bruins and the events in which they have qualified themselves are as follows: Jack Hunter, broad-jump and half-mile relay; Neal Welch, 440-yard dash; Don Tuttle, 100-yard dash and half-mile relay; Ben Harvey, 220-yard dash and the half-mile relay; Frank Gruza, 120-yard high hurdles and 200-yard low hurdles; Tom Green, high jump; and David Gorrell, half-mile relay.

WILDCATS FALL TO HURLING OF BURGESS; SCORE 6-2

The frolicking Bears went on a rampage Monday afternoon when they overwhelmed the Riley Wildcats 6-2 behind the four-hit hurling of Bruce Burgess at School Field. Steve Rudasics, fiery Bruin third baseman, led his teammates in the hitting department with three solid bingles in four attempts at bat.

Capt. Kozoroski started the Bears on their scoring spree in the first inning when he slammed the first pitch for a single into left field. He scored on S. Rudasics' ringing single.

Burgess's victory over the Wildcats was his sixth of the season against no defeats.

The game was a non-conference tilt.

BEARS EDGE OUT RILEY 8-7 WEDNESDAY

Central's rollicking Bears tied the proverbial knot in the Tiger's tail Wednesday afternoon when they edged out the Riley Wildcats 8-7 in a slug-fest at the Riley bowl.

The Bruins had a field day in the fifth inning when they score five runs on four hits, two of them doubles by Powers and Capt. Kozoroski. The Bears scored two more runs in the sixth inning on a single by Steve Rudasics, a walk by Noble and a double by Kozoroski—his second of the game.

Bruce Burgess was credited with the win; although he was relieved in the fourth frame by Bill Moore.

Central's victory over Riley added number four to the Bears' list of conference victories and places them just one game behind the league-leading Adams Eagles.

GRAND LEADER

Do any of these people ring a familiar bell of recognition in your mind? Maybe not, for they're the graduating class of 1892. Many of these people are prominent members of South Bend's social and economic circle.

Vernon Maurer, for example, is an architect, and widely known; Miss Cora Vanderhoof is now Mrs. Horace Kimble; Miss Ada Hillier is the Supervisor of Home Economics in the school city; Mr. Harry Skillman is an attorney who compiles law books; Mr. Fred Elbel has his interest in The Peerless Press; Mr. John Campbell is now affiliated with the Campbell Box and Tag Co. The rest are either residing in South Bend, out of town, or are deceased. The faculty heading the class of '92 is seated in the middle and consists of, from left to right: A. J. Woolman, Martha Catton, Marie Fleming, E. F. Loehr, Elizabeth Eberly, and Laura E. Sprague.

The remaining graduates, who published the first year book at Central, The Rubicon, are planning to meet sometime in June for their Golden Anniversary.

PLAYDAY (Cont'd)

50-yard dashes, running broad jump, high jump, and the softball distance throw are a few of the games that will keep these girls busy during the afternoon. Refreshments will be served following the termination of play.

SPURS MAKE GIFT OF FLAG AT MUSIC ASSEMBLIES

With the blare of bugle and stir of martial music, the SPUR Club gave a new flag to Central in assemblies last week. Pat Moore, president of the club, presented the flag, which was accepted on behalf of student body, by John Makielski, newly elected president of the student council. Calix Miller led the assemblies in a pledge to the flag.

I haven't any ankles
I haven't any feet
I'm just a little earthworm—
One long chunk of meat.
One swell chunk of meat can be found in the form of hamburgers, at HOWELLS, the place to "meat" your friends.

Pat Moore: "I can't eat this soup."
Waiter: "Sorry, madam, I'll call the Manager."

P. Moore: "Mr. Manager, I can't eat this soup."

Manager: "I'll call the chef."

Moore: "Mr. Chef, I can't eat this soup."

Chef: "What's wrong with it?"

P. M.: "Nothing. I haven't a spoon."

You don't like to eat soup? You don't like to spoon? Well, how about a book from the BOOK SHOP? They "manage(r)" to have the "ch(i)ef" articles from "soup to nuts", without "wait(er)ing"?

Miss Pehrson: "I take great pleasure in giving you 81 in shorthand." Mirth Tippy: "Make it 100 and thoroughly enjoy yourself." You too will enjoy yourself 100
