SEVEN NAMED AS HONOR STUDENTS

COMMENCEMENT JUNE 1

Mr. P. D. Pointer has announced the Distinguished Honor Group of the January and June 1943 graduating class to be Joanne Ebersole, William Happ, Ruth Mitchel, Bettylee Mooren, John Makielski, Joan Wolfe, and James Pankow. These seven students tied for the honor of maintaining a four-year scholastic average of 97.5. This means that they have had a straight A average during their entire high school career.

John Makielski, Senior A class president, has been a member of THE INTERLUDE, captain of the swimming team, president of the student council, Rotary representative, and has participated in many other activities beside keeping up his scholastic record.

Joan Wolfe has been well-known at Central especially for her work in the field of mathematics. She was a member of the Algebra Team.

James Pankow, who will leave for Purdue University before graduation even though he is a 12B, has been a member of the Ushers Club, and is president of the 12B class.

Pankow To Go To Purdue

Joanne Ebersole has been an important member of the many Glee Club productions and also in dramatics. An accomplished accompanist, her talents also lean toward play writing, and she was chairman of the script writing committee of the Senior Revue, "Now".

William Happ contributed much and got much out of his high school career. Editor-in-chief of THE IN-TERLUDE, Rotary representative, and president of the Drama Club, William is now a student at Bowdoin College in Maine.

Both Ruth Michel and Bettylee Mooren were important Glee Club members. Bettylee was interested in all dramatic activities, and attended a special Dramatics Course at Northwestern University last summer through a scholarship.

This year's Commencement will take place June 1 at John Adams High School at 8 p. m. Dr. Norwood Brigance, head of the Department of Speech at Wabash College, will give an address on "Courage."

Several of the Distinguished Honor Group will be at college, and will not be able to attend their commencement. Speakers have been chosen from the remaining ones. The welcoming address, "Youth Prepares for Service," will be given by Joanne Ebersole. John Makielski, president of the graduating class will speak on "Youth Goes to War." The farewell address by Bettylee Mooren will be titled "Youth Plans for Peace."

HANDS OFF

Watch out! Is that school property that was about to be marred? Wait a minute, and think of what was just about to be done. Maybe it was fully intended to be destructive, but that is hardly probable. It's just that we accept the school property as our own-and it is, to the extent that we treat it as our own.

Today, more than ever, it is essential that we preserve what we already have. Replacing many things now is almost impossible. Even without this present necessity, respect is due to another's property. We would want ours to be so treated.

Let's seek to rid dismay and trouble at another's expense. Help the war effort and remember: keep hands off school property!

· SILENCE, PLEASE

There has been much comment made concerning the noise in the halls during the noon hour. Complaints have come both from the faculty and the students who use the noon hour for study.

The noon hour can be used to one's advantage. Many things can be accomplished in the time spent walking around the halls' adding confusion. For those who don't have to study-may we suggest an invigorating walk? Both of these suggestions are good from the physical and mental standpoints.

So, what say we do something beneficial during the noon hour and help both ourselves and those who want to study?

AS YOU LIKE IT

All the world's a beach ball.

And all the men and women merely picnicers.

They have their fires and their foods,

And one man in his time burns many marshmallows,

His reward being several ashes.

There's first the bather splashing and playing in the water.

Then the climbing diver with his grace and water glistening torso,

Creeping like a cat swiftly to the end of the board.

Then the sunbather feeling like a furnace

With a woeful eye cast at the bottle of sun tan oil.

Then the children full of mischief and browned like the sand.

Hungry at all times, sudden and quick in eating,

Seeking the stuffed olive even in the bottle's mouth.

And then the business man resting in the sand and newspaper in taters

With eyes closed and snoring loud,

Full of good hot dogs with mustard on.

And so he plays his part.

The next scene shifts to another bather reclining on the beach With sun glasses on nose and beer bottle at side.

His wet trunks, new, but shrinking in the sun. His big manly voice screaming with pain when someone touches his sunburn Last scene of all to end this frightful picture is packing in preparation for the messy trip home.

Sands in teeth, sands in hair, sands in shoes, sands in everything. -George Yack.

OFF BEAT

"But," protested the new arrival, as St. Peter handed him a golden trumpet, "I can't play this instrument; I wasn't even in my high school band while on earth."

"Of course, you weren't," chuckled the Saint, "that's why you're here."

Maxine Levenson has an extraordinary voice . . . Whether the piano accompanist plays on the black keys or whether he plays on the white keys, Max sings in the cracks. She really has a singular voice. Thank Heaven it isn't plural.

Say, kids, did you hear how my clarinet tone at the recent band and orchestra performance filled the entire Central auditorium? Why, I even noticed several cf the audience leaving to make room for it. Yes sirree! when I began my slap-stick cadenzas, the audience sure showed feeling -feeling for their hats and coats . .

The greatest ambition of many people is to have their face on some money. Right now, with Charlie Spivak coming to town, I wouldn't mind getting even my hands on some.

'Tis Said: "The most difficult thing on the piano is the installments . . The hurdy-gurdy man plays all the pieces by Handel . . . Glee Club members are telling everyone to go to the 'Devil-and Daniel Webster.'

All's well that ends.

Author of the Declaration of Inde-Have all you wolfesses noticed pendence and spiritual father of the usually selling Paul Mohn? Wonder if he's "tooken"? Bill of Rights, Jefferson was the Architect of American liberty. His words and deeds shine brighter with each passing year.

> Today more than ever before Jefferson lives in the hearts of the American people. For he held that all men are created equal, that they possess certain inalienable rights, and that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. These truths and the nation founded upon them, are now challenged by the hosts of tyranny.

It is fitting then, that the 200th Anniversary of Thomas Jefferson's birth should be celebrated as a day of rededication to the truths which he first proclaimed and established. In this celebration not only Americans but the people of all the united nations will participate. For so long as we cherish and maintain and strengthen the democratic principles of Jefferson, the United States will remain what he conceived it to bethe world's best hope.

Foster, McColley Place In State Table Tennis Meet

Jack Foster, a senior A of Home Room 115, won first place in the Men's Doubles in the State Table Tennis Contest. He steamed with John Varga. Foster also ranked third in the Men's Singles in the state.

Dale McColley, a senior B of Home Room 222, ranked second in the Men's Doubles. He teamed with Hershey Miller. McColley also won second place in the Men's Singles State Contest. Both boys are members of the Indiana State Team. The two boys competed in the National Finals at St. Louis, Missouri.

TRACK TEAM OUTRACES ADAMS AND RILEY

The Central track team literally ran away from their opponents, Adams and Riley, in their practice indoor meet last Wednesday at the Notre Dame Fieldhouse.

The Bruins showed what conditioning meant by outclassing their opponents 70½ points to Adams' 29½ and Riley's 24. The Bears took all firsts except two, the 880-yard dash and the mile relay.

Adams made a good showing for their first season on the cinders and should develop some tough boys around conference and sectional time.

Washington was also expected to show but did not when too few entries came so it went on as a triangular meet. Complete statistics on the meet follow:

The war is finally taking its toll on Central athletics as it is on the rest of the world. First it was Bob Jones, football coach, then Chris Dal Sasso, football coach, now John Wooden, basketball and baseball coach, all off to war; so much for the faculty. (Coaches Crowe and Wegner may be nearer military service than we know.)

Then a couple of the boys like Dan Slott enlisted or went away to college and now it looks like Melvin "Buddy" Bond won't be with us next fall to play basketball. So much for the students.

Next there is the transportation angle—tires and gas rationing, crowded buses and trains have made it impossible to travel too far from home. The annual football trips to Dayton and Evansville have been cancelled in favor of a nearby Hammond team. The extensive traveling done by the basketball team has been cut to bare minimum by rearranged schedules. The baseball team has a new schedule of local games with none too far away. They are even threatening to cut the conference, sectional, and state track meets for the duration. So much for transportation.

All in all Central athletics will go on as before only with some new faces and new places to coach and to play at.

oOo

Coach Anson is a firm believer in good conditioning which made it so easy to walk over Adams and Riley last Wednesday. To examplify this, take the meet with Hammond last Saturday. Neal Welch, 440-yard runner and co-captain of the team, was not allowed to run because he was not in the proper condition. A tough race at that time might have ruined him for the rest of the season. Oh, yes, Neal took first place in the meet Wednesday.

000

That sore knee which hampered Bill Buhler's football playing last fall doesn't seem to be cramping his style as a high jumper. He has taken first in both meets to date.

00

Jim Wallis has a bad case of shin splints and has been unable to complete either race. He is expected to regain his stride in a few weeks.

000

Coach Crowe has shelved spring football practice and taken up junior high baseball to while away his time for the remainder of the spring.
