

D. A. R. Awards

Betty Horvath, 215, and James Gleason, 122, are the semester winners of the D. A. R. award for citizenship presented to one boy and girl in the 9A class each semester. Teachers and students vote on those students they feel possess most highly the traits of citizenship, leadership, reliability, and service.

Summer School

There will be no tuition charge for summer school this year for students who live inside the city limits. A book and instruction fee of $2 will be the only cost. Students living outside the city limits must pay $12. Those interested in summer school should see their counselors immediately.

Room 225 Wins Debates

When the sixth and last round of the Intramural Debates was finished Monday, Room 225 emerged as the winner of this classic contest with the Ushers Club holding the runner-up position.

The 225 squad lost but one debate out of the series. The negative team representing 403 was the pair able to register a victory over the tourney winners. The debaters from 225 were runners-up in the Intramural Tourney last year. Thus the Intramural Cup goes to 225 and individual medals will be awarded to Don Wnslow, Don Koehneman, affirmative and John Bergan and John Brademus, negatives of the winning team.

Though operating under many difficulties the Intramural Debate Tourney created interest in debating, and much more knowledge of our political set up has been gained. More than fifty students took part. The debates were sponsored by Mr. Glen Maple's Student Forum Club.

Moundsmen End Season

At the end of their season, at last, coach Crowe's Junior High baseball team was seconded only by Harrison's Junior High's moundsmen.

Boasting 7 victories as compared to 2 defeats the Bruins have completed a very successful season. The shut out by Harrison in their third game was the most severe loss the Bears had to swallow. In their first game they lost to Muesel 9 to 5 but avenged this loss by defeating the big Red last week.

Central, last Thursday, soundly defeated Washington's Panthers to climb to second place in the Western Division.

S. D. C.'s Plan Party

Everyone's practicing up for the S. D. C. skating party on Monday, June 5, at Playland Park. It'll be a swell last get-together before summer. You don't have to have a date, just come and meet your friends there. Get your tickets from any of the girls in the club, or at the door.

Senior Tickets

All seniors who do not intend to use all of their Commencement or Baccalaureate tickets should return the extra ones to the office immediately so that other seniors desiring more tickets can have them.

Medal Awarded

The John Newberry Medal given annually since 1924 for the most outstanding contribution to young people's literature, was given to "Johnny Freman" by Ester Forbes, it was announced by Miss Genevieve Hardy. This book is part of Central's library.

Commencement Will Be Held May 31

FORE!

The $1,037.60 spent on War Stamps and Bonds last week brought the year's total to $85,782.60. Room 225 was awarded the Student Council Banner for buying the most stamps and bonds last week.

Central To Be On Radio Sunday, May 28

Phil Maxwell and his "Citizens of Tomorrow" radio cast will come to Central next Tuesday and Wednesday to make recordings for the program to be broadcast the following Sunday, May 28, at 1:30 P. M. over Station WGN. Each week the cast goes to a school somewhere in the United States. This time Central has been chosen as the scene of activities; it is the first time the program has come to South Bend.

On Tuesday those taking part will rehearse and on Wednesday the recordings will be made. The Glee Clubs will be represented and many Central students will take part in school yells.

Kathryn Kuespert, who will be on the "Citizens of Tomorrow" program at Central, has been invited to participate in the final program of the series to be heard on June 11 at 1:30 P. M. She will be the guest of the Chicago Tribune for this final program which will take place in the WGN audience studio.

The day's schedule, as planned by the Chicago Tribune, will include lunch at the Rotary Club, visits to the Adler Planetarium and to the Astronomical Museum, and dinner as the guest of the Tribune.

Mathews And Chandonia To Represent Bruins Saturday

Central will send but two men to the State Track Meet in Indianapolis this Saturday as injuries and bad luck eliminated some of the Bear's best thinlies.

Joe Mathews and Dick Chandonia are the two lads who will carry the orange and blue into the battle this Saturday. Mathews, by dint of his taking first in the sectional's 200-yard low hurdle event, will run in that race as well as the 100-yard dash, come Saturday afternoon.

Dick Chandonia, Central's best in the shot put, will fight for honors with John Adams' John Goldsberry whose best toss is 50' 6" while Chandonia has been beaten by Goldsberry but it may be that this will be the week for Central's young giant.

TWIRLERS NEEDED FOR BAND

Students interested in trying out for drum major or band twirlers for next semester should see Mr. Walter Cleland in Room 41 tomorrow.

Baccalaureate Service Will Be Held Sunday

A combined Baccalaureate service of the four high schools, will be held Sunday, May 21 at 4 P. M. at the John Adams Auditorium. It is necessary for all senior A's to report then at 3:30 in their caps and gowns. The program is as follows:
Organ Prelude.....Barbara Concord
Processional.....Seniors
Invocation.....Rev. Glen Weimer
Pastor of First Church of the Brethren

Yearbook To Be Delivered To 12A's Tomorrow

The 1944 Interlude annual is scheduled for delivery to the 12A's on Cap and Gown Day, tomorrow, barring binding delays. Otherwise copies will be in the home rooms Monday morning. Underclassmen will not be able to secure their copies until later next week. This year's book of eighty pages will be bound in blue covers. Dedication has been made to Central's known war dead. The dedication page design was done by Marvin Saruk. The issue was prepared by a committee representing the seniors, consisting of Peg Cook, x-12; Richard Riffel, 123; Alice Gondeck, chairman, 211; Dona Schneider, 216; Mildred Heater, 217; Frances Vignali, 222; Gloria Stellner, 223; Mary Ellin McCrady, 310; Jacqueline Porter, 310; and Robert Nowicki, 401, under the direction of V. C. Cripe, faculty adviser. Extra copies of the book, bound in paper, will be available in room 221 next week at 75c each, and will be mailed anywhere in the U. S. at no extra cost.

Debaters To Receive Medals And Monograms

The Varsity Debaters were awarded letters last week by Coach Glen Maple, and each will receive a medal from the State Debate League as winners of the District and participants in the State Tourney. A new trophy—a large victory shield, hangs in the second floor hall commemorating the winning for the fourth consecutive year of the County League Championship.

Debaters receiving letters and medals are Harold Boyce, Virginia Northcott, Barbara Hagerty, Kingsley Claurer, Elver Hoefer and Thomas Pauszek.

SENIORS WILL INVADE WYMAN'S SATURDAY

By Irene Cherry

All our up-and-coming businessmen and women will be marking their X in the commercial world Saturday, when they take over Wyman's store for the annual event of Senior Day. They'll be doing everything from displaying what the best dressed blessed event will be wearing to modeling the streamlined styles seen on more mature babies, and from proping their newly shined kickers on the desk with the "President" sign on it to chewing on a broom straw in the stock-room.

"Hold your shopping! Save your pay! Spend it all on Wyman's Day!" is the slogan well worth your while to remember. The seniors are counting on you to come down to Wyman's in swarms on May 20. If you can't buy anything you can bid them a fond good-bye, at least.

Executives Already At Work

The office of President of Wyman's Day has been taken by Ralph Witucki whose job it is to see that everything runs smoothly. John Bergan as Merchandise Manager has been learning what it means to buy for a department store while Superintendent Dick Cortright has had his problems with personnel.

Kathryn Kuespert, the Advertising Manager, has been working on publicity and advertising for the South Bend Tribune for the past two weeks. Joan Bothwell, Display Manager, and her staff will trim windows tomorrow afternoon after several weeks of planning. It is the job of Ann Dunahoo, Educational Director, to see that the entire sales force understands its duties.

Several changes and additions have been made in the Wyman's Day staff as follows: Joan Zimmerman, telephone operator. Joan Hodson and Eleanor Wolfberg, models. Betty Buchanon, cosmetics. Delores Koontz, neckwear. Betty Lou Fleming, office. Eileen Koehler, manager of draperies and Marilyn Bowyer, draperies. Elaine Edwards, linen and bedding.

BAND, ORCHESTRA CONCERT TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

The Band and Orchestra will present their annual concert in the auditorium tonight at 8 P. M. Mr. Walter Cleland and Gene Sage will direct the numbers and Mr. Cleland will award monograms.

CLASS OF 1919 TO HOLD 25TH REUNION

The class of 1919 will hold a twenty-fifth anniversary reunion dinner on June 24. Central teachers who taught that class are invited to the dinner. Reservations and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. W. R. Baker—phone 4-6306.

280 TO GET DIPLOMAS AT EIGHTY-EIGHTH GRADUATION

DR. H. H. CRANE TO SPEAK

By Martha Lentz

Central's eighty-eighth graduating class of 280 seniors will hold their Commencement Exercises Wednesday, May 31, in the John Adams Auditorium. The "Entrance and March of the Peers" will open the program, following which all present will stand to sing the National Anthem and will remain standing until after the invocation, to be given by Reverend M. C. Hoefer, pastor of St. Peter's Evangelical Reformed Church.

"Declaration of Faith" will be the subject of Kathryn Kuespert, speaker for the Distinguished Honor group. The Central Glee Clubs will sing "God of All Nature" (Andante Cantabile from the Fifth Symphony of Tchaikowsky), and "Onward Ye Peoples" by Sibilius. The Glee Club will be accompanied by Ann Dunahoo, Trevona Bartlett, and Beverly Klapp.

Lawrence J. Harwood, Secretary of the Board of Education, will introduce Ralph Witucki, president of the graduating class. His address will be "The Meaning of Freedom."

Medals To Be Awarded

Dr. Henry Hitt Crane, Pastor of the Central Methodist Church, Detroit, Michigan, will address the graduating class on "Four Unfailing Fundamentals."

Class medals will be awarded by those who have received them in previous years. Kathryn Kuespert, Virginia Northcott, and Rowena Shorb will receive Medals for Excellence in Scholarship to be presented by Joan Wolf, a member of the Distinguished Honor group of 1943. Sheila Cohn will present the Medal for Excellence in English to Virginia Northcott. Sheila won the medal in 1943.

Ralph Witucki will receive the John Nelson Mills Medal for Excellence in Mathematics. Marvin Tomber, winner of the 1943 award, will present this medal and also the Science Medal to Ralph. Virginia Northcott will receive the Schuyler Colfax (Cont'd on page 4, col. 1)

PRESIDENT'S FAREWELL

By Ralph Witucki

Many of us will be leaving soon. Leaving behind us these beloved halls upon which we have trod so often in the past. We will be leaving the many friends we have made while taking part in numerous activities. Friends whom we will see but a few times in the future.

The joy which is ours upon graduating is truly mixed with a deep regret at having to leave this respected place. It has been very close to our hearts and will hold many cherished memories for us in the future.

We have a job ahead of us—a big job. One that must be faced squarely and dealt with wisely. I am sure we are equal to the task.

Good-bye, good luck, and may God be with you in all future undertakings and adventures.

"I WILL KEEP FAITH"

By Kathryn Kuespert

We seniors are fortunate to have gone to Central for many reasons. Our heritage here has been a rich one. The everyday things that happened here—sharing fun, strolling past the trophy cases, watching a play in the auditorium, or selecting lunch in the cafeteria are all a part of that heritage.

Both in the classroom and in my work on the Interlude, I have found Central teachers invariably interested, helpful, and patient with students. Their sincere encouragement has made many difficult jobs worthwhile.

Central offers so many opportunities to students to discover their hidden talents. Its athletics, debate squad, Interlude, and dramatics open doors for students to acquire new skills and to perfect old ones.

But let us not be satisfied with things as they are—let us be striving always toward something higher. As we seniors go out from Commencement, whether it be to a job, to college, or to the military service of our country, let us never forget that which will bind us together, no matter where we may be, Central's motto—"I Will Keep Faith."

THE INTELLIGENTSIA'S DREAM

For the intelligentsia of Central, this column should be like a lantern through the darkness of this paper. For we bring you news of that intellectual giant, that hope of the cultured, that idol of the idealistic—Marvelous Marvin the Moron.

Here are a few words of immortal wisdom which have dropped from Marvin's magic lips:

Marvin quotes this little ditty which sprang to his sister's brain full grown:
If Little Red Riding Hood lived today
The modern girls would scorn her—
She only had to meet one wolf,
Not one on every corner.

—Murphy Hi Times.

And this from our little friend's second cousin's sister's husband's aunt (she isn't out of school yet):

I wish I were a moment
In my history class.

For no matter how dull the moments are,
They always seem to pass.

—The Sandstrom.

Did you hear of Marvin's uncle who always called a spade a spade 'till he hit his foot on one the other day?

—The Balance Sheet.

Joe Mathews: "Time me around the track."

Coach Anson: "Sure, wait till I get my calendar."

"I told him he mustn't see me any more."

"What did he do?"

"He turned off the lights."

Say Tom, who was that lady I saw you outwit last night?

SENIOR PLANS

As I gaze into my crystal ball, I find that the succeeding week will see the halls of Central almost nil of the usual Joes and Jills that line the walls of the halls during their spare moments. The reason for the abrupt mutation from the ordinary condition of the corridors as you have undoubtedly guessed will be the loss of the Senior A's. There is, however, one consolation for the stolid week that is to come! These fine, ambitious fellas and gals are leaving to find their places in the world of business, in colleges, and in the armed forces. They will represent Central Senior High School in the eyes of the world, and we are proud to have them pave the way for us underclassmen.

Many occupations have served as magnets to the feminine members of the June graduates, but by popular request, a majority of the Jacksons will be getting their practice on their "hup, one-two's" by autumn.

Marv Schwartz is planning to enter A. S. T. R. P., whereas Bernie Looten is enlisted in the corresponding division of the Navy, the V-12 unit. Air-minded Joe Mathews, Dick Kovacs, and Bob Nowicki have their hearts set on the Army Air Corps; Harland Orr is to join the Air Transport Command. The Naval Air Corps, or V-5, is the destination of Dave Matthews.

Many of the victory-minded girls are planning to join the Cadet Nurses' Training Program. A few of these girls are Dorothy Dawson, Mildred Dyke, Betty Lou Fleming, and Alice Gondeck, the latter of whom is taking her training at Denver, Colorado. The nursing profession has also proved attractive to Ruth Culp, who will take her training at Indiana University.

Food fights for victory, so Bob Ehninger and John Monhaut think that they can help best by keeping up production on the farm front.

A variety of schools have attracted our college-minded students. Virginia Northcott plans to attend William and Mary College in Virginia; Ann Patterson and Barbara Nelson, St. Mary's; Lamoine Carter, Stanley Lewiecki, Kathryn Kuespert, and Jean Sibley, Purdue; and Helen Rupert, Indiana. John Krisilas and Bill Freeman have been at work at Purdue for several weeks already. Michigan University is Dona Schneider and Dorothy Oetjen's choice; Ward-Belmont, Rowene Zick's; Indiana, Doris Lee Massengill's. Martha Downing (Cont'd on page 4, col. 2)

GOOD LUCK

Another school year is rapidly drawing to a close. For the Senior A's it means the end of their high school training. Members of the graduating class are entering a rather topsy turvy world. It is difficult for some to decide what to do. There are many opportunities to work, in fact, almost anyone who wants a job can get one. However, there are many of the graduates who should attend college and I hope that they will be able to do so. Several of the boys will enter the armed services. Many have had their induction deferred until after commencement. To all of you who are leaving Central we wish the very best of luck. We want you to do your best whatever you do. We want you to be a credit to Central, but above all we want you to be a credit to yourself and to your parents. This is the only way you can justify the faith which we have in you.

P. S. Binta

Verie Sauer Says

Aunt Verie had a gay time wearing out her shoe leather at the Prom last Saturday night.

When she wasn't dodging the decorative scaffolding, Auntie spied:

Something old: Koz and Gertie.

Something new: John Brademus-Murvil Bothwell.

Something borrowed: Poochie Miller-Pat Brehmer.

Something blue: Flossie Mickley's dress.

Jiving to Chuck Eaton's zooty music, and having a sharp time, were Morris Katz-Sara Fisher, Millie Steveson-Jim Smith, Tuggy Finger-Ginny Grant, and Virginia Northcott-Kingsley Clauer.

A few of the fellas managed to return home for this gala occasion: Sailor Don Bradley was digging it out with Margie Moyer, while Jack Stephenson seemed to be having a sharp time with Monelle Stedman.

Back into the group of ball-and-chainers we found Jack Woodard and Jo Shanafelt, who were really going to town.

Comes the Prom, and new couples emerge: Bob Hevel-Beanie Wermuth, Maryellen Carr-Charles Johnson, Dick Kirby-Janeann Woodal, Moe Morrison-Pierre Laure.

T. P. D. really worked a charm for Jim Johnson and Marilyn Bowker.

I wouldn't go so far as to say that Deloris Moore is robbing the cradle, but when she appears at the prom with Don Looten, a sophomore, well

Then there were the old standbys: Tobin-Cates, Bergan-McCarthy, Kovacs-May, Hodson-Hazen, Mazurk-Margie, Cunningham-Krothwell, Bailey-Nelson, Newman-Taylor, Hans-Oren, and Nowicki-Tohulka.

Aha! Our spies report that Jo Bothwell was really in the groove with a certain Bryan McCarthy.

Then there were those sharp V-12's with Pat Baker and Marilyn Anderson.

That "Since-You-Went-Away" couple, Pat Hukill and Wad Bair seemed to be having the time of their lives.

As your Auntie picked herself off the floor after tripping over someone's feet, she spied a few more couples who seemed very much in the groove: Loretta Buck-John Zeitler, Virginia Hans-Roger Michaeloff, Ralph Witucki-Dot Oetjen, Ralph Kukla-Maryellen Hasfurther, Dick Deranek-Juanita Clark, Ann Dunnahoo-Cecil Smith, Lucille Bartozek-Dave Matthews, Flossie Mickley-Bob Malone, and Katie Kuespert-Bob Mann.

NOW ON THE STANDS!

LEND A HAND FOR VICTORY

By Lois Garnitz

On December 7
In '41,
We went to war
With the "Rising Sun"!

These treacherous men
While pretending peace,
Bombs on Pearl Harbor
With great force did release.

So "Remember Pearl Harbor!"
Is our battle cry.
We will fight till we win,
Freedom shall not die!

Things don't look too bright right
now,
But for this one fact be glad
We've never, never picked a fight,
But we've won all we've had.

It will be a tough struggle,
But the end will see
America's and her Allies'
Victory!

May God be on our side,
May we have the might,
May He always be with us
To show us the right.

This war shall decide for us, whether
All lands, from Pole to Equator,
Shall be democratic and free,
Or enslaved by a half-mad dictator.

We shall win, that we don't fear
But it will take courage and money and work,
So give your all, and remember
There is no room for those who shirk.

By buying War Bonds and Stamps,
And giving to Red Cross, too.
By sewing, knitting and giving,
To your country you are being true.

"Freedom forever" is our slogan
And with that, we'll go on to the end,
If you will remember to do what you can,
And all of your services lend.

The last issue of Ye Interlude for this year finds weary old Cubskin pounding out the last copy for the year. Through thick and thin, through football and track, Cubskin has kept his nose to the typewriter grinding out Bear Facts under the strict surveillance of the slave-driving editor. But now the time has come when Cubskin must at last hang up his pencil and scorebook and join the ranks of those long forgotten pencil-pushers who at one time followed the tide of Central athletics. But Cubskin does not die—next fall a new and younger news-hound will eagerly fall to work turning out copy for the first issue. Through the Fall, Winter, and Spring Sports the new Cubskin will toil; hounding Coaches and athletes alike until the fatal May comes and then Cubskin will again die—and return. Cubskin goes on, and on,—forever; LONG LIVE CUBSKIN.

Then there was the little moron who cut a hole in the rug to see the floor show and then covered it up because he didn't like the dirty cracks.

Medal for Excellence in American History to be presented by Evelyn Cooper, 1942 winner of the medal. Lester Weiss will be presented with the award for the highest rank in Vocational Education by Richard Riggs, honorable mention of 1942. Patricia Thompson will present the Nineteen Sixteen Leadership Medals. Patricia won the girl's medal in 1943. Virginia Northcott, speaker for the Distinguished Honor group, will give an address entitled "The Future We Face," which will be followed by a cornet solo, "The Southern Cross" by Gene Sage, and accompanied by Mrs. Walter E. Cleveland.

Principal P. D. Pointer will present the senior class, and the diplomas will be awarded by members of the Board of Education — Laurence J. Harwood, Russel H. Downey, Fred Helmen, Orlo Deahl, and Mrs. E. M. Morris.

The audience will remain seated until after the Recessional.

What are your plans for summer vacation?

Jackie Woodard: "Going to Mexico."

Audrey Casey: "Going to entertain the services."

Jim Sullivan: "I'll be translating Cicero."

June Cox: "Factory work."

Eldon Rosson: "Sleep!" (That's ambition for you.)

Gloria Hawthorne: "Nurses' aid work."

Don Newman: "Loaf!"

Jim Overholser: "Going to summer school."

Senior Plans

will attend radio and dramatics school at Northwestern University, whereas Elva Hagerty will be Terre Haute-bond, to continue her studies at St. Mary's of the Woods. Rosemary King is going to do Indiana Extension work.

The Coast Guard is the destination of Gene Mazurkiewicz and the Navy is that of Jack Voight, Martin Linderman, and Ralph Kukla. Following in his brother's footsteps is Bob Green, who is joining the Marines.

Erma Hunt is planning to do occupational therapeutical work, which is an excellent phase of medical work to go into at the present time. Beverly Baim, also having a sincere interest in the field of medicine, is planning to study to be a woman doctor. Florence Czarnecki, after her experience in Central's library, is to be a hospital librarian.

Office work has proved interesting to most of the feminine graduates, many of whom already possess part-time jobs, which upon graduation will become full-time positions.

Then there is Bill Tobin, who is planning to join the USO and entertain the servicemen.

U. S. War Loan Slogan: "Back the Attack!"

Japanese Slogan: "Attack the Back!"

Said the skunk as the wind changed, "It all comes back to me now."
