

Art Classes Aid Red Cross

Under the supervision of Mr. Bert Trottnow, the art classes are making menu covers for the Red Cross. These menu covers are to be sent to the Navy for use at Christmas dinner by the sailors.

This project is national in its scope. Art classes in every state in the union are turning out these covers to help boost the morale of our men in navy blue.

Yearbook Committee

Last week the senior home rooms announced their choices for the yearbook production committee. They are: 32, John Pethe; 101, Barbara Currey; 105, John Vogt; 106, Jenny Arnott; 211, Dorothy Kiska; 210, Jerry Michaels; 225, Alice Barcus; 301, Carol Feiman; 304, Betty Lou Brown; 305, Ann Dunnahoo; 319, Jackie Mostaert; 403, Virginia Mark. The group decided on a material and color for the books hard cover in a meeting Monday morning.

Seniors To Elect Officers

According to Miss Ethel Montgomery, the nomination of Senior Class officers will take place this week in the various senior home rooms. Each student is to choose four members of the senior class for nomination. The eight or ten students with the highest number of votes will be the nominees for the election which will be held during the next few weeks.

In the election, the four students having the greatest number of votes will be president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively.

Each room will elect one member of its group to be on the senior cabinet.

Band Entertains

The Central High School Band marched down to the court house steps Friday at 3:30 to entertain at the Army Manpower Caravan. The baton twirlers performed during the numbers, several of which were marches. Gene Sage, a former Central band member who is now in the Navy, was present and directed one number. The program was closed with the Central School song.

Weekly Spanish Movies

Once each week Spanish classes at Central have visual education in the form of Spanish movies showing the education, architecture, and history of South and Central American countries. These movies, while not spoken in Spanish, give students a background of the language they are studying and provide a picture of the lives of the Spanish-speaking peoples.

Queen To Be Nominated

Next Monday morning senior high school students will make their nominations for the football queen, who is to reign on Mishawaka Day at Notre Dame Stadium.

Nominations are to be made by the students for a girl in their own classification. If a student casts a vote for a girl outside his classification, it will be considered invalid. The votes will be tabulated on Monday, the returns of the nomination being announced in next week's Interlude. The winners from each division will comprise the court from which the queen will be elected, the queen being revealed at the bond fire at Leeper Park the day before the game.

War Stamp and Bond sales at Central totaled $1,067.65 for last week, and $3,453.20 to date. The stamp banner was awarded to home room 210, for the third successive week.

To Hold Political Elections

T. B. CLUB REORGANIZES

Membership Put On New Basis

For all those interested in prevention of the dreaded disease of Tuberculosis, there is an opportunity in the T. B. Club, which has just recently been reorganized and is now ready to accept new members. Membership from now on will be an honorary position, open only to those who meet the requirements. Membership in the club, which is under the guidance of Miss Katherine Dennis, will be limited to two representatives from each grade in senior high school, one boy and one girl. The prospective member must also have an average of at least B in his studies and maintain this. He must have two recommendations from teachers which are to be presented to Miss Dennis in room 310.

The activities of the T. B. Club are not only useful and interesting, but diversified enough to suit all tastes. The most important project of the year is the sponsoring of the Seal Sale at Christmas, but they also sponsor the T. B. testing program in school, the speech contest under Miss Frick, and the poster contest under Mr. Trottnow.

The officers of the club this semester are Frances Gadowski, President; Mona Frazier, Secretary, Richard Cortright, Student Council Representative, and Lois Garnitz, Interlude Representative.

Central's T. B. Club has led all the schools in the city in the Christmas Seal Sale.

FOOTBALL ATTENDANCE FIGURES ANNOUNCED

In the games held at School Field this semester the attendance figures were as follows: For the Adams-Central game, 3,338 adult tickets were sold, 173 of which were sold to service men. There were 2,214 student tickets sold, 1,246 of these going to Centralians, 968 to Adams.

There were 386 tickets sold to servicemen at the Washington-Central game. Around 1,820 Central students attended this game, compared to 1,385 from Washington, a much smaller school.

CLUBS ELECT OFFICERS AND NEW MEMBERS

Some of Central's larger clubs have recently announced their officer and membership elections. The Smilers Club has elected officers for the semester as follows: Pres., Ed Glaser; Vice-pres., Tom Pauszek; Sec., Hobe Smith; Treas., Jackie Woodard. New members of the club are Pat Deneen, Bill Myers and Dave Brown.

New officers of the S. P. U. R. club are Ann Dunnahoo, President; Flossie Mickle, Vice-pres.; Rachel Taylor, Secretary; Murvil Bothwell, Treasurer. New Members of the club are Lois Jones, Peggy Cowger, Lois Fasnacht, Deloris Moore, Mary Louks, Majorie Manuel, Evelyn Manuszak, Joan Shanafelt, Betty Lou McCarthy and Pat Wilson.

The Amigos have elected Joyce Jodon, president; Martha Clark, vice-pres.; Pat Klue, secretary. New members of the club include: Janice McLean, Doris Krathwol, Mercedes Gassensmith, Barbara Hagerty, Anita Nyikos, Mary Wendel, Gladys Laure, Anna Jo Gaines, Jackie Mostaert, Eleanor Hornchuck, Peggy Clauer, Marilyn Shively, Ruth Wallering, Virginia Baim, Joan Whitehead, Maxine Major and Eleanor DeFrees.

Wilbur Laycock will serve as Head Usher for the Ushers Club. Other

REVUE DRAWS CROWD

One of the largest audiences which has ever turned out for a South Bend high school production saw Central's all-school revue, "The Lady in Mauve." The ticket sales having well exceeded the $1,000 mark.

A precedent was set by the seniors, who sponsored the revue, for they sold more tickets than any previous senior class, selling over half of the total number. Several home rooms made a fine record by selling over one hundred tickets. They were 319, 210, 105, and 106.

Miss Margaret Borgan and the Handy-Andy Club, Mr. C. L. Kuhn and the Ushers Club, the continuous work of Miss Helen Weber and the accompanists, Amy Lepkowski, Trevona Bartlett, and Ann Dunnahoo have helped to make the revue a success.

SMILERS ADMIT MEMBERS

The Smilers Club has taken in three new members; Pat Deneen, Dave Brown, and Bill Meyers. The club, which boosts sports, has passed out football schedules and is planning for its annual Hoodoo Hop, which is being held after the Central-Mishawaka football game on October 28. The traditional dance is being held in the Indiana Club, the music being furnished by Bobby Ware and his orchestra, from Elkhart.

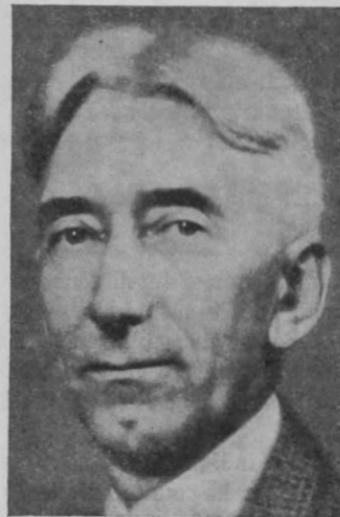

PRESENT CONCERT SERIES

This year the South Bend Junior League is presenting the Children's Concert Series of the Junior Symphony Orchestra. This symphony, which is under the leadership of Zigmund George Gaska, is to be South Bend as the New York Philharmonic Symphony's Saturday morning concerts are to New York City.

The concert series will open here Saturday afternoon, October 14 at 3:30 P. M. at the Progress Club. Their next appearance will be December 16 and again on March 10 in the Central High School Auditorium. In the program at Central, portions of Haydn's "Surprise Symphony" and the Clock Symphony will be presented. There will also be memory contests, notebook contests and group singing.

TEACHER RETIRES

A former head of the Central mathematics department, Mr. Wilson Thornton, will be honored at a testimonial banquet to be held in the Progress club Saturday at 6:30 p. m. Mr. Arthur Smith will be toastmaster. Mr. Thornton has served Central since 1916 as a teacher and since 1927 as head of the mathematics department.

Mr. Wilson Thornton

He was born on a farm near Elkhart, Indiana in 1879 and has attended school at Elkhart Institute (now Goshen College), Valparaiso College, Purdue University, Chicago University, University of Notre Dame, and Columbia University. Before teaching at Central, Mr. Thornton taught at Granger and worked with the American Bridge Company for several years. In addition to teaching classes at Central he has taught Indiana University Extension for years, and at Notre Dame with special classes. At the present Mr. Thornton is assisting the Mishawaka city engineer.

Central, Riley, Adams Participate In Campaign

STUDENTS TO GAIN EXPERIENCE FROM VOTING

The approaching election for president is one of the most important elections in the history of the United States, one that will be an influencing factor in the future of both our country and the world. For this reason, added to the fact that many present high school students will be voting in the succeeding election in 1948, the student council of several schools are making arrangements for presidential elections to be held in the respective schools. In this manner the future voters will be able to acquaint themselves with the issues of this campaign and the candidates and to familiarize themselves with the machinery and procedure of political elections.

To date, Central, Riley, and Adams have made plans to participate in the campaign. There will be an election manager, a member of the Inter-City Student Council, to see that the campaign is carried out in accordance with the purposes and procedures outlined by the Inter-City Council and a campaign chairman, representing each major party, who is appointed by the Student Council. They shall see that their respective parties' campaigns are properly carried out within the school. A representative will be selected from the home rooms for each party, who will take care of the campaigns in their own rooms. Mr. Earl Kuhny, the Student Council sponsor, and the Executive Board will rule on all questions which may arise.

Dunnahoo, Koehnemann Chairmen

The Republican chairman is Ann Dunnahoo, the Democratic chairman, Don Koehnemann.

There will be an assembly on Monday, October 16, for the reading of platforms and the nomination of candidates. Voting will be done in the home rooms by secret ballot during the week of the 16th. The votes will be tabulated by the two party representatives and the Student Council senator.

A second assembly will be held Monday, October 23, for the roll call of home rooms to tabulate votes. The chairman of the home room delegation, which will consist of the two party representatives and the senator, will announce the result of voting in his home room at the second assembly.

PIN AND RING ORDERS

"Seniors must give their orders for class rings or pins on or before October 14 if they desire one," Miss Ethel Montgomery announced recently. Rings can be ordered at Harry E. Berg Jewelry Store.

THAT'S WHAT THEY ALL SAY

You all know students who have graduated from high school and are now working, who tell you how sorry they are to be out of high school. They say that working isn't all it's cracked up to be, and that we should make the most of our years in high school. To one who is still in school it may be hard to see all their points. By all means we should make the most of every opportunity high school offers us. There can be no doubt about that. But why are they looking back to school days, instead of looking ahead to all the years that are before them? There is one answer that seems to explain it all. This is, that never having planned any definite future, these ex-students don't really know where they're going. They have jobs and they'll have others, but if they have never formed a conception of what they want from life, it is natural that they would miss the security of high school.

Of course this can't apply to all high school graduates. Many of them graduate with a clear idea of what they want to do, and they are working to realize an ambition. Whether this goal is an envied position as an executive or just a respected one behind an assembly line, they know what they want and are too busy working toward it to look back and long for the good old days.

High school is an excellent place to form an idea of what you want to make of your future. If you keep putting off decisions about your vocation or whether or not to go to college, you, too, are likely to find yourself wishing you were back in high school. An ambition in life can also give you a different attitude toward school work. You will really want to study because you will realize what you learn in school will be even more important when you are out of school.

ACT YOUR AGE

At our age, we like to be treated as persons of intelligence and are likely to resent any suggestion that we are not adults. Why, then, is it that so many of us insist on acting like children? If a teacher assigns a lesson that seems unreasonable to you, you may go ahead and work it out to the best of your ability. This is really the easiest course to take in the long run.

Of course you've heard the student who indignantly says, "Just because I didn't have my feet inside the door, he counted me tardy, and I have to make up time!" Maybe if more of us would act like the adults we think we are, that last-minute rush to classes would be avoided. You can cut out those little between-class conversations and save yourself a lot of time.

Another one of our bad habits is marking initials on desks. Even though the temptation is very great, try to realize that it is school property you are destroying.

A really bad rumor which has reached us concerns the assembly, in which Dr. Frank Davidson spoke to the upperclassmen. It seems that a few students didn't behave in a manner befitting the occasion. There is a time and place to laugh and have a good time, but it is in very poor taste at an assembly of this sort.

By this time we should all be able to avoid showing our childishness in any of these ways. You'll do yourself and the school a favor by acting your age.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Greetings and solutions otra vez amigos; and how are all the jive fans today? If you're ready for the latest dope (I mean the dope on platters), we'll let 'er rip. First of all, there's a new one by THE VOICE Frank Sinatra, to the ickies in the crowd who have outgrown their bobby socks, with Harry James' orchestra "It's Funny to Everyone But Me," backed by "Don't Take Your Love From Me." Another late disc more on the sweet side, for those who like their music sugary, is "Come With Me Honey" by Guy Lombardo, bringing up "Together" as the reverse.

Still going strong (and who can blame is?) is Bing Crosby's "Swinging on a Star" and "Going My Way" from that really smooth picture of the same name. A hit also from the picture that has finally been grooved and is destined for the best seller list right away is the long awaited "Too-raloorloo" by the inimitable Bing. The toss-over is "I'll Remember April," and after hearing Bing sing it, who wouldn't! Then, Jimmy Dorsey has made a really slick recording of "An Hour Never Passes" with "Two Again" as its companion on the other side. It's one you won't want to miss on your next journey to a record store.

And speaking of journeys, have you ever read or seen Thornton Wilder's play, "The Happy Journey from Trenton to Camden"? Well, whether you have or not, there will be a chance to see it next week when the Drama Club presents its annual assembly play.

If I had more time and space, I would like to tell you the story of the dirty window, but then, I guess you couldn't see through it anyhow. That's all, brother.

—Lois Garnitz.

GUESS WHO?

I don't know if you are acquainted with me or not, but I'm very familiar with all that you Centralites do! You see, I'm what might be called a silent observer. I go around to classes and watch your various antics. I've seen Bill Yoder, Jack Beyrer, and Bob Smith in Chemistry class carrying on conversations that were pretty far from the subject of chemistry, I'll bet! And I've had gay times watching Harvey Fiewell try to hold his own in an all-girl English Lit. class. Then, of course, there are those who are really serious when it comes to getting down to work. Take Chuck Hurwich, for instance, who enjoys Miss Gienand's Spanish class so much, he usually spends half an hour after school in her room.

When it comes to health classes, I guess that's where I have the most fun. Mr. Elbel finally caught up with Brademas and Bergan though, I've heard. And then, when I get at all bored, all I have to do is come into the fourth hour health class and I can always find something going on back in the corner where Marilyn Castle and Jackie Doyle are surrounded by men! You know, though, I've been wondering just how much German Kay Bristow and Norma Jones can learn in their class, they seem so much more interested in each other. (And why shouldn't they!) Civics is another interesting course, but in my travels around the school, I've decided that the only way to insure a really mellow time in class is to have Norma Miller in it. Don't you agree, Mr. Shultz?

I suppose that by now you are wondering just who I am. After all, I could be a spy for the school board, or a member of the F. B. I. on your trail, but you can set your mind at ease, because all I am is the little mouse in the corner. What, a mouse in Central.

Verie Sauer Says:

Jenny Arnott was very happy about Chuck Kale's furlough recently. They had lunch together to celebrate, we hear.

Flo Mickley looked palenty sharp one Saturday night with Mary Catherine Barr's ex.

Why doesn't Eddie Ford get hep to the attentions bestowed upon him by Betty Smith?

Cute Pat Morrill seems to serve as a magnet as far as Bob Minkler is concerned.

One sharp couple that's really on the beam: Johnny White and Riley's Peg Flowers.

Ex-Smiler Neal Welch certainly made a handsome looking officer in his new uniform when he was home on leave. And chalk one up for Ken Tupper another furlough fella.

Connie Koehler and Jimmy Sullivan would make a sharp twosome, don't you think so, Connie?

What's this that has reached the ears of Auntie Verie about Lucille Bartoszek's and Chuck Dolk's duetting it to DeMolay? Ditto Frances Slack and Charles Johnson.

Seen at DeMolay: Ronnie Helms-Beanie Wermuth, Jim Hurwich-Helen Patty (Adams), Murray Hurtz-Millie Steveson, and Bob Malone-Virginia Grant.

Fred Moomaw is so secretive about his date-to-be for the Hoodoo Hop. He just won't tell!

What's this we hear about Mort Ziker being home on leave and keeping both Gloria Glicksman and Virginia Grant on a string.

Is it love or civics that makes Mary Lou McCoy so attractive to Malcolm McDonald.

Welcome back to Central, JoAnn Day.

We hear that Betty Ein is now at Central—but the fact that she's Bernie's sister is nothing to hold against her.

Sharp new Amigos—Jack Mostaert, Barbara Hagerty, Mercedes Gassen-smith, Maxine Major, Doris Krathwol.

Is it true what they say about John Brademas and Ginny Grant?

The attraction for the gals who eat at Bruggners every noon couldn't be the Esquires, could it?

Marilyn Shively is one super soph, isn't she, Dick Wells?

How long has this been going on—Martha Mayr and Jerry Michaels?

Take a good look at Carolyn Currey, Barbara's younger sister, and you'll be glad you did. The Currey clan speaks well for itself.

Brooklyn's loss and Central's gain, but good: Herbert Weiss.

If you see most of the fellows slicking up, you'll know that they are trying to attract some fair damsel to ask them to Jr. Prog. on October 13.

Hear tell that Jack Cole's new sugar ration is Fay (in Mauve) Bihary.

"Who would you like to see dueting at the Hoodoo Hop?"

Gertie Kresztes: "Murvil Bothwell and Jerry Morrill they are so much alike."

Helen Pappas: "Dick Cortright and Sally Loomis would make a gruesome twosome."

Jack Beyrer: "Bob Smith and Martha Clark, something new."

Lucille Bartoszek: "Ted Brummond and Marion Hall—they've been practicing anyhow!"

John Brademas: "Johnny Bergan and Flossie Mickley."

Johnny Bergan: "John Brademas and Ginny Grant. Well, all he has to do is ask her!"

Barbara Currey: "Freddy Moomaw and Evelyn Manuszak." (Anyhow, Fred thinks so!)

A fellow that really is keeping busy is John Brademas, of home room 225. You've probably seen John running through the halls, and if you wondered why he was in a hurry, it probably meant that he was going to some sort of meeting, as he is not only president of Central's Student Council, and secretary of the Senior Class, but also president of the Inter-City Student Council and the Rotary representative from Central.

John, a muscular 5' 9" enjoys playing football, and basketball, too. All this, and he still keeps up a fine scholastic average, so you can easily see what I meant when I say that he is one of the busiest fellows in the school. He likes the Readers Digest and the New Yorker among other things, but the only two things we've been able to discover that he doesn't like are creamed onions and the Chicago Tribune. His ambition is to have John Bergan make ink in Mexico City while he sells it. (Don't you get it? Well, confidentially, I don't either, but that's what he said.)

Seriously though, John Brademas is a really mellow fellow and it will certainly be Central's loss when he leaves.

GOOD LIVING

One cannot be sure of doing right unless he knows what is right. He cannot make wise decisions either in the management of his own life or in public affairs if he habitually leaves important facts out of consideration. The will to be informed and to apply wisdom to the daily improvement of one's situation is at the very foundation of good living. People remain ignorant thru lack of school opportunity because they have not learned to observe and to listen; because they put money before truth; because they ally themselves with partisan groups; because they do not associate with intelligent people; because they occupy their minds with trivial things to the exclusion of things that count; because they do not form the habit of studying and of buying carefully selected books. Determine to keep your mind active and to seek and apply truth.

BEARS COME FROM BEHIND TO WIN OVER PROVISO HIGH

TALLIES MADE BY PECZKOWSKI, RING AND MORRICAL

Coach Jim Crowe's Bruins came back in the second half of last Friday night's game with Proviso at Maywood, Ill., to defeat Coach Slimmer's Pirates 20 to 7. Entering the second half with a 7 to 0 deficit hanging over their heads, the Bears rolled up three consecutive touchdowns, made by Peczkowski, Gene Ring and Jerry Morrival.

Angelo Marini split Central's line apart when he ran untouched for 72 yards down the middle of the gridiron for Proviso's only touchdown, and very neatly kicked the extra point.

Passes Click

Passes from Dick Flowers to Peczkowski and Ring were responsible for two of our touchdowns. Morrival kicked the extra point after the first touchdown, but failed to gain the extra point after the second. Morrival then ran through center to score and Flowers ran the extra point across. The Buccaneers fumbled three times, with Dick Chandonia and Milton Christen recovering twice.

Numerous injuries of Proviso players, including, Marini and Johnny DeAna, star halfback, weakened the Proviso squad. A crowd of 9,000 fans showed very good sportsmanship and supported their team to the end.

With one of the most powerful teams in Michigan City history the Michigan City Red Devils will come to South Bend tomorrow night as guests of Central. Boasting a pair of pass-catching ends and a trio of hard-running backs, the Red Devils pin their hopes on an air attack which will rival the bombing of London.

Although the team is a bit smaller and lighter than Central the fact that they are fast will be a big factor in their favor. However, Coach Jim Crowe knows well the attack that will be employed by Michigan City and during the past week, despite the bad weather, he has been sharpening the team on the weak points of Central's defense with reference to Michigan City's plays. With a victory over a tough Proviso team under their belt Central will be hard to stop this week.

oOo

Word comes to this desk that the Proviso team which Central defeated last week had a squad of 500 reporting to first drills early in September. From this squad Coach Slimmer of the Pirates picked the 100 best and retained them for his team. In contrast to them, Central had 28 boys out for first drills and from these 15 made the trip to Chicago.

oOo

The most unpopular boy in South

Bend, or the person most unlikely to succeed in running for president of Central's Student Council is John Sparks, Proviso's right end. Sparks was the only man on the Pirate squad

If you've noticed a swooning look on the faces of many of Central's fair damsels lately, just take a look at Lieut. "Hank" Froning, who is home from the Air Corps on leave and you'll understand why.

Another eligible male has been snatched. Don Bradley, famous wolf of Central's halls, and Marjorie Moyer have decided to stroll down the aisle soon.

Hear tell that Bill Hayes and Lorraine Moxley are dueting it again.

Flash of the week Jim Sullivan-Pat Bome, Bob Erb-Kate Laughlin, Jim Paskiet-Mary Helen Kroger have been ball-and-chaining it.

A certain lad would like to know who escorted Nita Barton home from the party that Sunday night.

One mighty smooth Jackson is Joe Hickey. He has all the Janes in the second hour chemistry class passing the drool cup.

A couple that's strickly dude: Bernice Ivy and Bradford Green.

No bells to those kids who dropped out of the revue because they were given small parts instead of leads.

Orchids to Malcolm MacDonald for the generous use of his house for the "Lady in Mauve" cast's lush party last Saturday.

Barbara Currey seems to think that David Brown is pretty much on the ball.

Mrs. Peterson need have no fear of Jim McCaffery's skipping Spanish class, with a magnet like Connie Koehler to draw him to class.

POST WAR PLANNING

Bond And Stamp Salesmen Deserve Cooperation

All of the home rooms at Central have either elected or appointed a home room stamp and bond salesman. These people are doing an important, difficult job and have assumed the responsibility of collecting and taking care of the money.

They all need and deserve all the aid and cooperation that can be given them.

If they request the proper filling out of bond applications, follow their instructions exactly. This will save trouble for the purchaser, the bond salesman, and the person who issues the bonds.

The list of Central's bond and stamp salesmen follows: 101, Margaret Dawson; 102, James Hippensteel; 104, Harley Reeder; 105, Evelyn Tuttle; 106, Leona Butcher; 108, Phyllis Goddard; 114, Audrey Clause; 115, Sylvester Durskey; 116, Donna Wilson; 119, Agnes Kramer; 120, Marjorie Zimmerman; 121, Carol White; 122, Alan Hober.

301, Lois Garnitz; 303, Odetta Smith; 304, Julia Crikosovitch; 305, Betty Fitz; 309, Frances Fuller; 310, Francianne Ivick; 311, Martha Boyer; 312, Janice MacLean; 313, Joan Thorstanson; 318, Verna J. Bybee; 319, Betty Neeser; 320, Sally Loomis; 321, Mary Jane Monroe; 322, Jerane Sass; 401, Joanne Orr; 403, Adeline Ceerle.

209, LaMar Smith; 210, Bill Weaver; 211, Jean Kistler; 215, Betty Horvath; 217, Glori aDe Ferbrache; 222, Mary Kayser; 223, June Rasmussen; 224, Barbara Mahler; 228, Helen Pappas.

9, Delores Wiczorek; X9, Emily Rehm; 11, Jack Scheid and V. Johnson; X12, Dortha Schubert; 13, Walter Zimmerman; 14, Marilyn Moore; 15, Da Mary Fredericks; X16, Joan Herkla; 10, Arlene Rosender; X17, Nona May Frazier; 24, Billy Ruff; 25, Robert Leek; 31, Joan Hammer; 32, June Lydeen and Margaret Goddard; 35, John Love; 36, Hoy Hoetel; 37, Bercy Loy; 38, Rosemary Myers.

Dr. Dammon Of Purdue To Meet Seniors

Mr. Clarence E. Dammon, the Director of Admissions at Purdue University, will be at Central on Friday, October 13, to discuss entrance to Purdue University with any students interested in attending college there.

He will be glad to discuss the Government Plan of Education with any war veteran or person interested in this plan.

Mr. Dammon will be here from 1:00 to 4:30.

And then there was the mama kangaroo who took her two little babies out of her pouch, banged their heads together and shouted: "How many times do I have to tell you to stop eating crackers in bed?"

Three little worms were digging. Three little worms were digging in earnest.

Three little worms were digging in dead earnest. Poor Ernest.

WHAT GOES?

At Other High Schools

Kankakee, Illinois High School has a service flag denoting the number of boys in the armed forces. How about one for Central?

Lincoln High of Tacoma, Washington claims a war veteran. He was honorably discharged from the army because he is only 14 years old. This ex-soldier, Bob Hall, fought in the battle for Anzio Beach.

"The Advocate," of Lincoln, Nebraska is celebrating its 50th anniversary as a school paper.

War Bond Drives are going full swing all over the country.

STANFORD TEST GIVEN TO 11B's

The Stanford Arithmetic Test was given to all Junior B students last Wednesday. The test contained problems ranging from simple arithmetic to algebra and geometry.

All students who do not make a grade of seventy or above are required to take a semester of emergency mathematics. Another form of mathematics may be substituted for emergency math if the student desires.
