

Club Collects Clothing

Outfits of clothing for needy French children are being collected by the Cercle de Francais under the direction of James Hambler, president. These clothes are being collected in room 320 and are being sent to Europe through the "Save the Children Federation" of New York City.

Members of the French Club have collected complete outfits of worn but still usable clothing. So complete are these outfits that sometimes even soap and chocolate are included. Any Central student desiring to contribute clothing should bring it to room 320.

Victory Bond Sales

Victory bond and stamp sales last week amounted to $464.20. Bonds and stamps will be on sale in the book store during the Victory Bond Loan.

"Autumn Shuffle" Held

The "Autumn Shuffle," a dance sponsored by the Senior A class, was held at Central last Saturday night, November 3. Dick Van's orchestra played in the gym which was decorated for the occasion. A large crowd was present as was anticipated. Money earned from this affair is to be put toward the Senior A's gift to the school.

Open House Next Week

During American Education Week, Central is having its usual Open House program. It will take place Tuesday evening, November 13. The P. T. A. will serve a chicken pie dinner in the cafeteria from 5 to 7 P. M. before the program. The price is 85c per person. A performance of "Pilgrim's Progress" will be presented by the Barnstormers and Glee Clubs.

Tickets for the dinner are being distributed by the Handy Andy Club and may be purchased from any member.

Central Celebrates Victory

The biggest and best pep assembly to be held at Central in recent years was held on November 5 to celebrate Central's divisional championship. The principals of the other South Bend High Schools spoke, assuring Central the support of their respective schools in the championship bid. Other speakers were Mr. Frank Allen, superintendent of schools, Mr. Forrest Wood, director of physical education, Coaches Crowe and Nash and Mr. Pointer.

In North Central Band

Art Student Wins Prize

On Friday, Nov. 2, the Art students in Mr. Trottnow's fourth hour Art I class gave Dorothy Keene, Home Room 210, a great big hand because she had just received a check for five dollars from the Scholastic Roto Newspaper for a cartoon she had submitted. Her friends and all the art students will be on the lookout for her work, which appeared in the Scholastic Roto included with the Interlude this week.

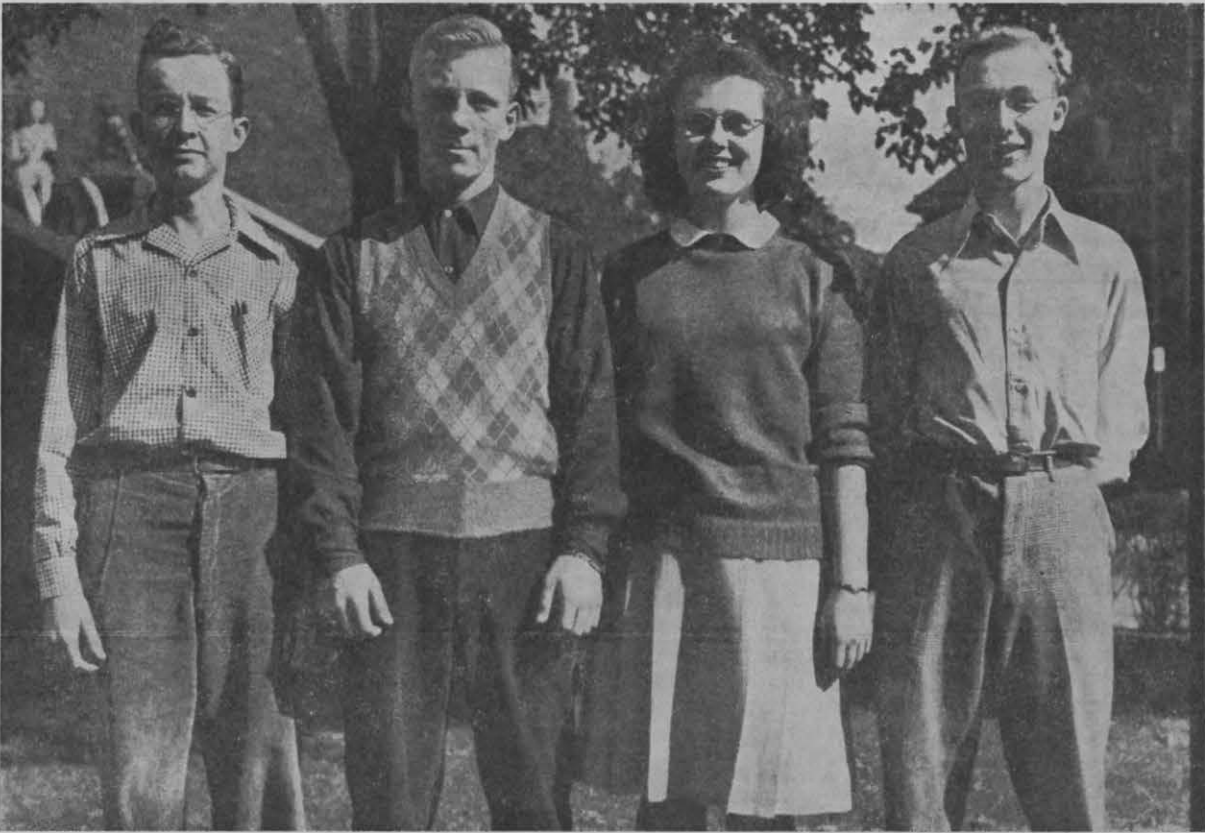

Eye And Ear Tests

Group hearing and vision testing will be started Nov. 5 for 11B, 10A, 9B, and 8A classes. Tests will be given in room 35 in the Junior Building at the time indicated on slips which will be handed to students in home rooms.

"It is very important that students be on time so that there will be no interruptions after tests have been started," Miss Fern Watts, nurse, stated.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS FOR CURRENT SEMESTER

CENTRAL TIES KNOX

The Central debate team in a practice debate last Friday met the Knox team here and tied. The Central negative, composed of James Gleason and Don Looten, defeated the Knox affirmative, while our affirmative, composed of Daniel Bernhardt and Charles Eldredge, lost to their negative. The teams are debating the question: "Resolved; That every able-bodied male citizen of the United States should be required to have one full year of military training before attaining the age of twenty-four." Judges were Glen W. Maple of Central and Miss Abner of Knox.

NOON MOVIE NEWS

Mr. Merlin Richard has announced the movies to be shown during the noon hours of the first two weeks of November. On November 5, 6, and 7, "Pent House Mystery," starring Elvira Queen, will be here; on November 12, 13, 14, Tom Harmon in "Harmon of Michigan," will be featured. Movies for the last two weeks will be announced later.

TEACHER LOSES MOTHER

Mrs. Ida Kuhn, aged 77, the mother of Mr. C. Kuhn of Central's Social Studies Department, died last week in an automobile accident near Akron, Ind. in which Mr. Kuhn's father, Mr. Henry Kuhn, was seriously injured. Central's faculty and student body join in expressing their sympathies at Mr. Kuhn's loss.

NEW G. A. A. MEMBERS

The following girls were recently accepted into the G. A. A. club according to an announcement made by Miss Elsie Chalfant, faculty adviser:

Pat Birnley, Betty Flowers, Betty Grossnickle, Lucy Haskins, Gertrude Kazmierczak, Catherine Megan, Betty Miller, Gertrude Miller, Eleanor Morehouse, Joyleen Przybylinski, Sara Redding, Juana Riddle, Rosie Ross, Dolores Woofter.

These girls are to be honored at a picnic November 10 at Rum Village.

To fill a vacancy, Evelyn Michel was recently elected vice-president of the G. A. A.

DR. JONES DIES

The city has lost an influential citizen in the passing of Dr. Rhys Price Jones who for many years was Pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church. His associations at Central gave him a wide circle of friends here.

The Interlude expresses its deepest sympathy to the members of the family and especially to Lois who is a member of the 12A class.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE ON

Central students are again asked to become members of the American Junior Red Cross. Any contributions entitles a student to membership. Each student who enrolls receives a membership card and badge. The Home Room making the largest contribution will be awarded the Junior Red Cross banner to be kept for one year. Miss Edna Roop is in charge of the program. The following students have been selected to represent the various Home Rooms in the enrollment campaign:

Frances Skaggs, 305; Loretta Rybecki, 106; Patricia Wegenke, x-17; Lois Gross, 210; Dorothy Jaworski, 311; Shirley Shue, 122; Carmila Rulli, 105; K. Forsythe, 310; David Sharp, 36; Katherine Vogt, 101; Dolores Opaczewski, 9; Lorraine Dombeck, 215; Lou Jeanne Hood, 32; Donna Barnes, 14.

Regular Season Closes With Reitz Game

N. I. H. S. C. CHAMPIONSHIP AT STAKE NEXT WEEK

Coach Jim Crowe's mighty Bruins will again travel south, this time to meet the Panthers of Francis Reitz High School, Evansville, Indiana. Central will tackle their down-state opponents tomorrow night. Although this is not a conference battle, never-the-less the Orange and Blue, new champs of the Eastern Division of NIHSC, must win this tussle in order to maintain their high position in the state standings.

Coach Herman Byers and his assistant Norman Lewellyn have whipped their Reitz Panthers into a mighty nice ball club, boasting a six out of seven games won record for the current season. The Blue and Grey have downed Henderson, Ky., 26-7; Boonville, 6-0; New Albany, 22-0; Memorial of Evansville, 13-6; Washington of Indianapolis, 26-7; Princeton 54-0; and dropped a close one to Evansville Central, 13-6. The Panther starting eleven has a 166 pound average and is blessed by six returning lettermen. They are Pat McCaffty, left end; Gil Pinkston, right end; Warren Cox, right tackle; Jim Wolf, left tackle; Jack Miller, right guard; and Bill Rommel, 195 pound full back.

In this last regularly scheduled contest for Central's Bears, they will meet up with some notable opposition in Rommel, Fisher and McCaffty who are the stars for the Reitz eleven. Of course, the Blue and Grey will be up against our own Deranek, "Posey," Ring and Christen who should make this Friday night pretty miserable for the down-state lads. Reitz High is a member of the tough S.I.A.C. On returning Central takes on the winner of the Western Division of the N.I.H.S.C. for what may be the undisputed championship of the Hoosier prep football world.

BETTER LUCK NEXT TIME

Last Tuesday report cards came out. There were many A's on these cards, but usually no one is completely satisfied with his grades. This is directed to the dissatisfied recipients.

Sad case, isn't it! You don't think you should have gotten D in this subject, so the teacher is discriminating against you; or you received an undeserved F in that subject, because the teacher gave unfairly long assignments. Wake up, it's not the teacher, it's you!

This is no time for recriminations, so let's look at your problems in a constructive light. If you got a low grade, you haven't done your work correctly. The greatest part of preparation for tests is the homework given you. If you get low grades on tests, you probably do your homework badly. If you get low daily grades, you probably don't do your homework at all. This is an extremely unwise policy, as you have already discovered.

There is a sure-fire way in which you can raise that undesirable grade: resolve to do all your homework well, and to concentrate in class, and you shall surely get an improved report card at the end of the semester.

GOOD MANNERS PAY

For several years preceding this, the University of Notre Dame has been kind enough to give us the use of their stadium for the Central-Mishawaka grid' classic, but never before were we offered this privilege twice in one season.

Our behavior was such at the Mishawaka game that it warranted the Notre Dame's officials' lending us the stadium the second time this year. Many people and organizations have repeatedly emphasized the importance of good sportsmanship, but never has that importance been so clearly demonstrated as it was when Notre Dame lent us the stadium partly as a result of our peaceful conduct at the Mishawaka game.

So you see, fellow students, that if we conduct ourselves in an orderly manner, we shall reap rewards which would otherwise be unattainable. Good sportsmanship is a wise policy. We can congratulate ourselves on the year's behavior up to now, and resolve to continue this behavior on future occasions.

THANKS, TEAM

Now that we have had time to regain our lost voices, and thaw out our frozen feet, congratulations are certainly in order for our victorious football team and its coaches.

By winning the game last Saturday, our team put Central at the head of the Eastern division Northern Indiana High School Conference, and raised our position to the highest in the state, alongside Roosevelt of East Chicago, with whom we have a play-off next week. They can well be proud of their victory last Saturday, and we are extremely grateful to them.

The team succeeded in winning all but one conference game, and that one came out a tie. Because of these stellar accomplishments of our team, we all hold our heads a little higher, and are indeed proud to say that we're from Central.

For a living vitamin ad latch your lashes on glamorous gal, Marilyn Shively. She's 5'6½" of vitality with twinkling blue eyes, a sparkling smile, a peaches and cream complexion and, oh, that gorgeous reddish blond hair. Being a reliable sort of person she is often chosen for a Vice President. At present she holds that office in the Amigo Club and in her senior A home room 209. She is also an Interlude Home Room Agent.

Quite an outdoor gal, Marilyn adores swimming, winter sports, especially ice skating, hiking and weiner roasts. She has a passion for food; red apples, mint ice cream and pickles being particularly pleasing to her palate. Her favorite colors are green and blue, chiefly Navy blue (and the people who wear it). Our girl of the week is also fond of dancing, her Chem. III class, people with a keen sense of humor, and the funnies, with the exception of Li'l Abner, Superman, and a few others.

Eggwhites, cottage cheese, oysters and soggy foods turn her stomach. She can't stand bouncing dancers, gushy people, and people who talk too much. Although she likes to read, she doesn't care for True Confessions. (Oh! come now, Marilyn, you can't be serious about that.)

Right now she is looking forward to graduation from the University of Minnesota. Good luck, Marilyn!! We know you'll reach your goal!

ON THE RECORD

Without even being smart I can tell that the night of the 16th will be a great and wonderful evening. The Central COMETS are again on the beam and are presenting their Thanksgiving Dance at the reconverted Palais Royale. With a popular band from Chicago playing the guys and gals of Central are promised a fine dance.

If we all try real hard we might be able to get that band to play some of the new songs that have come out lately. I doubt if Del Rene (the band leader) can do "It's Been A Long, Long Time" as well as Bing Crosby, Harry James, Charlie Spivak or Stan Kenton, but I wouldn't be surprised if he does very well. Another swell new release is "Chickery Chick" with which Sammy Kaye and his Orch. do the Chicken up in fine style. Speaking of chicks, I know about one chick who can just about out-sing any other and that is Miss Jo Stafford, whose "Gee, It's Good To Hold You" is as nice as Central's football team.

Vaughn Monroe once again gives proof to his claim as the "best danceable" band in the country with "Something Sentimental" and Irving Berlin's newest hit, "Just a Blue Serge Suit." Mighty mellow arrangements are the key to Vaughn's popularity. Other bands can't seem to make a song click just the way Vaughn's deep voice and the Norton Sisters can. Monroe, also, has just

The members of the team have trained for months to make these victories possible. They have worked consistently at improving their playing strategy so that they could overcome our many worthy opponents, particularly the top-notch Riley team. True, there is still one non-conference game to be played, but we all join voices in saying "Thanks, Team!" and wishing them the best of luck in the conference play-off.

Verie Sauer Says:

Geometry certainly has a queer effect on Pat Kelly, or could it be Harvey Miller's leaving for college?

Boggs and Fries???

Pat Brannon can give mighty fine impromptu parties we hear.

Hall walkers—Nancy Engdahl and Louis Rosenberg.

Joanne Wolfberg is a swell combination of beauty and brains.

Gal with a sweet personality—Norma Jones.

Joan Shively and Roy Muentner seem to get along pretty well together.

Lois Louks finally admitted she has a secret flame. Who is the lucky fellow, Lois???

Congrats to the Senior A's for that sharp dance last Saturday.

What's this, Senger and Sellers.

Why does Carolyn Wunderlick spend so much time at the Rex drug store? It couldn't be Pat Hagerty, could it?

What's this we've been hearing about Ed Milewski and Philones Chayie?

Gloria Resnick's new heart throb?

We don't like to get personal but whatever happened to Joyce Clay and Bill Ludders?

So now it's Harley Sellers and Marie Lobaugh.

Annebelle and Gladies are feelin' pretty sad. Reason, Middie Graduation.

June Rasmussen and Bob Engel really have been stepping out recently to the dances.

Li'l Margaret Morris feelin' pretty gay. Her R. O. T. C. came back from his leave a whole day early just to see her.

Note that sharp I. D. bracelet Marilyn Moore is sporting.

And then we have Joan Trizcina romancing with a South Bend Catholic football player.

'Tis said Jackie Givens is partial to green convertible and black curly hair.

Why, doesn't Bud Weisel give notice to his followers.

Auntie Verie surely hates to see a swell couple like Joan Dannerberger and Stan Tsalikis break up.

While the cat's away the mice will play. Thus we find Shirley Clark with Tom Halloran.

Now that Tom Pauszek has left, Joan Dawson is on the loose. Clear field, fellas.

Many a lass will have a broken heart now that the Midshipmen have graduated.

Something new in the ball and chain group: Rolly Kahn and Ramona Green.

Vagrant: "Madam, will you give a poor cripple four bits for car fare?"

Lady: "Poor chap. How are you crippled?"

Vagrant: "Financially."

—Lincoln Log.

SHORT SHORT STORY

Teacher: "Mary Jane, I said to write a page on milk and you only wrote a half a page."

Mary Jane: "Yes, I was writing about condensed milk."

—Central.

FIRE WHEN READY

Man: "Get ready to die. I'm going to shoot you."

Victim: "Why?"

Man: "I've always said that I would shoot anyone who looked like me."

Victim: "Do I look like you?"

Man: "Yes."

Victim: "Then shoot."

Who is your favorite Football Star?

Janice MacLean: "Tall, blond, and big hunk of man—Milt Christen!"

Lillian Somogyi: "Small, but mighty—Dale Spencer!"

"Cookie" Fink: "Don Roytek. Ask Mary Louise Buechner why!"

Harriet Leffel: "Ever-steady—Dick Flowers."

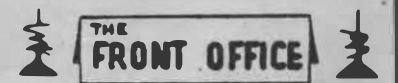

Marilyn Bowker: "'Duke' Myers, 'cause he's sooo funny!"

Kathie Dumont: "Little shy — Joe Deranek."

Virginia Norris: "Jimmy Nawrot—'cause he's sooo bashful."

Jim Sullivan: "Walt McIntyre — 'cause he's an all around guy!"

Anita Nyikos: "Bob Sommers — 'cause he's so big and mighty!"

OUR DUTY

We have won the victory on the field of battle. With our allies we have demonstrated to the aggressor nations of the world that they cannot cope with the power and might of nations aroused by a just cause. The victory has been costly. The price we have had to pay for our triumph in arms is staggering. Our losses in men and material can never be recovered. We can never repay those who have made the supreme sacrifice. Central's boys have fallen on all the great battlefields of the war. One has but to read the names on our memorial to appreciate what a dreadful price has been paid. It is up to us to dedicate ourselves to protect the freedom which they have won. We have a solemn obligation to fulfill. Let us do our part now to so organize the peace, that war will never scourge us again. The best way we can do it is to buy stamps and bonds to the limit of our ability.

BEARS BEAT RILEY FOR DISTRICT TITLE

The Central Bears really do all right for themselves when they play on Notre Dame's sod, in fact this year they have done all right wherever they have played. The Riley Wildcats were the Bruins' victims Saturday afternoon at N. D. in the Eastern Division Conference championship game. It was a well placed kick bisecting the uprights that led Central to a 7-6 victory over their old rivals.

Riley recovered a fumble on the third play of the game, and that led to their touchdown. Immediately following the Wildcats' marker, the Bears began a march that led to paydirt. Unfortunately for the Rileyites the Bruins' paydirt was one point more, and that little point was the determining factor of the game.

The way things looked in the first period it seemed that the outcome of the game would depend on who scored the last touchdown. However, Central had their own idea about this little deal, and they really had to fight to beat off the Wildcats. Flowers stood waiting to punt when the pass from Central's Roy Jensen flew over his head. Both teams raced for the ball, but Riley got there first. This was late in the third quarter, and now things really looked bad for the Bears. The ball was on the Central one-yard line, and Riley had four downs to push it over. The Wildcats carried the ball to the inch-line on the first down. On the second attempt the Bears stopped them cold. The runner on the next play was spilled on the three and finally an attempted end sweep failed, and Central took over on their own three.

BEAR FACTS

The best part of the whole game last Saturday for Ol' Cubskin was that really super-Central goal line stand on their one-yard line after the Wildcats had recovered a blocked kick (not a bad pass from Central) very, very deep in Central's territory. The Central eleven was magnificent on those particular four plays. Then the Bears took over and successfully got out of the extremely tight spot they were in. After this swell piece of workmanship, the Central fans knew that they were yelling their heads off for a real ball club. Remember Coach Crowe's speech Monday morning? He said just exactly what I'm trying to say, that the football squad is made up of the swellest kids that this school has ever seen.

oOo

John White and Gene Ring go after a loose fumble like it was a five dollar bill blowing across the ground.

oOo

Bob Hartman is a superlative passer but Central's alert pass defense was just a little better.

oOo

Saturday afternoon saw "Little Joe" come thru with several nice dashes, in which he squirmed and wormed his way through the Riley secondary for some extra yardage.

oOo

Wanna know what makes games at Notre Dame a lot more interesting to spectators? The clock on the score board, which lets them as well as the players know how much time remains in each quarter.

oOo

Last Monday the Auditorium echoed to the shouts of Central's student body as they cheered for the High School Principals, Mr. Wood, Mr. Allen, Jack Nash and Jim Crowe. It was a fine assembly and showed that the student body really appreciated the fine work done by the

It appears, as of now, that the playoff for the N. I. H. S. C. championship will be held out at School Field on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 17. The following Monday the annual Football Testimonial Banquet will be held at the Oliver Hotel. The principal speaker will be the famous "Tug" Wilson, the commissioner of the Big Ten. Tickets will be available through members of the Smilers Club, who are sponsoring the banquet.

Central Cubs marched to LaPorte last Saturday where they encountered the Slicer seconds in a conference grid struggle, and lost 6-2. The score for Central resulted from catching a LaPorte man behind his own goal. In the third quarter the Bruins tried a pass which was intercepted and returned for six points. The Cubs' next game will be on Nov. 10 with Riley, the city champs, at Riley.

FOOTBALL (Cont'd)

Things were quiet from here on. The ball changed hands many times. The Bears suffered the injury of Co-Capt. Jimmy Nawrot. Johnny White was also injured, but he went back into the game after a little rest. Riley had control of the ball in the last two minutes of the final quarter and Hartman was throwing passes for all he was worth. All the Bear fans had one eye on the field and the other on the clock all during these last two minutes. They all well remembered what had happened in the Washington game at the close of the final period. This could easily happen again, because Hartman is no weak sister when it comes to heaving long ones, and one long pass could do the trick now. The gun finally sounded, and Central became the Eastern Division champs. The Bears finally took over the title which the Washington Panthers have held for the last four years. Central will probably play East Chicago Roosevelt in the conference playoff. Roosevelt is the leader in the Western Division and so far have been undefeated. Their next game is with Washington on Friday.

ON THE RECORD (Cont'd)

released a new Album on Victor called "On The Moonbeam." Each song has to do with the moon and "Carolina Moon," "Only a Paper Moon" and "Racing With the Moon" are only a few in the album.

With the "Dolly Sisters" movie just out of town, that tune on everyone's lips, "I Can't Begin to Tell You," has been recorded and released by Charlie Spivak, the man who "blows the sweetest trumpet in the world."

That railroad man, John Mercer, has switched from an iron horse to a real horse and has gone to the "Camptown Races." That is one baritone who Mr. Tibbett and the Metropolitan do not worry about. But, I doubt if there is any thought about who is the better singer. Is there?

Without a single mention so far of an instrumental I am entirely off of my usual line. Being a friend of the hotter "classics" I want to let all of you know that the really fine jazz instrumentals are produced on 12" instead of the regular 10" records and, while costing more, the quality is incomparable. Many jazz masterworks are available and warrant a look-see on your account.

My orchids this week go out to the best of the best. Look to No. 1 below to see my point.

No. 1. "It's Been a Long, Long Time" by Bing Crosby.

No. 2. "Chickery Chick" by Sammy Kaye.

No. 3. "Gee, It's Good to Hold You" by Jo Stafford.

So-long for now and if you've forgotten, read the first paragraph over again.

—Ned MacWilliams.

Howdy-doo, chiluns. It's time for a few swaps out of the grab bag. The first item makes me kinda dizzy.

Advanced art students of Austin High School, El Paso, Texas, went on an "art sketching excursion" and climbed 7500 feet up the side of Mt. Cristo Rey.

York High School, Pa., has an employment club to aid students in securing jobs. The club is handled entirely by students who desire any job from taking care of children to parking cars on parking lots.

I shall now apply for a job of escorting any male over the age of twelve to Rainbow this month.

A sad case—

Sweet Young Thing: "I'm sorry to drag you so far out in the country, Doctor, on such a bad night."

Doctor: "Oh, that's all right; because I have another patient near here so I can kill two birds with one stone."

For the first time in the history of Dickenson High School, North Dakota, a homecoming queen will be elected this year for their game with Williston.

"You Be the Judge"

One way of making geometry easy:

Given: I love you.

Prove: You love me.

Proof: 1. I love you.

2. I am a lover.

3. All the world loves a lover.

4. You are all the world to me.

5. You love me.

—The Electron, Franklin, Ind.

Out of the Barron Hi-Life comes: Sergeant: "Why didn't you obey when I said 'Company halt?'"

Rookie: "Well, I've been here for three weeks now and I didn't think I was company any more."

Enough korn for now,
Yours until down step Elsie (L.C.)
