"Through their work in drawing the pupils contribute something to themselves through self-expression, development of emotional stability, and adjustment to their environment. Their platforms and lists of candidates follow.

The Student Action Party

The Student Action party has nominated Rollie Cooper for president, Robert Ott, vice-president; Ilene Fink, secretary; Joan Trzcina, treasurer. For their platform they have six points: 1. Council support and action of issues pertaining to the good of you, the student body. 2. Re-install the annual Council-sponsored intramural basketball tournament. 3. Restore Central's former position of leadership in the Intercity Student Council. 4. Boost all civic enterprises, especially a civic auditorium as a memorial to the war veterans. 5. Make it a requirement for all Council senators to report weekly the Council activities to their respective home rooms. 6. Cooperate with other student councils to aid in a more satisfactory distribution of sectional basketball tickets.

The Independent Party

The Independent Party's candidates are: for president, David Brown; vice president, John Mull; secretary, Joan Hardman; treasurer, Robert Pendl. Seven intentions of the Independent Party listed in their platform are: 1. Establishment of photographs of the graduating classes in the halls. 2. Establishment of a medal for the best junior high athlete. 3. Revival of the Student Council intramural basketball tournament. 4. Increased cooperation between the Student Council and the student body by, (a) Selection of an effective election committee to see that the proper people are senators who are doing their duty by reporting to their home rooms. (b) Revival of the now non-existent Student Council weekly bulletin. (c) Closer cooperation between the Student Council and the Interlude. (d) More assemblies sponsored by the Student Council. 5. Closer cooperation with the cafeteria in their needs. 6. Revival of the Inter-city Student Council by Central. 7. Elimination of all Council-sponsored activities unbecoming to a Student Council.

COME AND SEE!

Saturday night the pulse-beat of Central will pump double time to the tunes of Bud Simpson. All you seniors get your dates because this is your prom! You may get in on some other neat proms, but this one is yours, and there will never be another one like it.

About fifty years ago a Victrola set hearts to three-quarter time in the school study hall. Every senior would come to his prom without a date, find the one of his dreams there, and dance a few waltzes. It was a gala affair with everyone there! How will it be this Saturday?

FACULTY ADVISER: V. C. Cripe.

We present to you this week a charming miss whom Central proudly claims her own. She's Lorene Richardson, a senior A of home room 119. Lorene is 5' 3½" of friendliness and smiles.

She's particularly fond of apple pie and second on her list of food likes is spaghetti (although she confesses to finding it a bit hard to eat). Lorene also likes sports (football, basketball, etc.) and the color blue.

When asked what she disliked, Lorene gave, Glee Club members who are late to rehearsals, as her pet peeve. Also, she doesn't like eggs in any way, shape or form.

This busy young lady in addition to doing her studies, is a member of the Glee Club, the Student Forum, the Varsity Debate team, the Speaker's Bureau and last but not least, the Interlude staff.

Lorene plans to attend Wilburforce College where she will study music.

We know that with her fine spirit of cooperation, and pleasant manner as well as musical talent she will be a success.

What are you planning to do this summer?

Pat Morris: "Sleep."

Anna Papas: "Go to Pensacola to see what the Navy's doing."

S. Stutesman: "Be a counselor at Bryan."

Marilyn Bowker: "I'm California bound."

Mr. A. L. Smith: "I'm going to pick pretty wild flowers and shoot (camera) some birds."

Ed Arnold: "I'll eat, drink and be merry—wine, woman, and song."

Kathryne Adams: "Sit and gaze at my diploma."

Bruce Bailey: "Nothing!"

Richard De Freeuw: "J' etudirai mon Francais."

Seen roaming the halls — Mary Konrad and Wier Rummel.

Ah ha! Who is he, Dorothy Grounds? Tell your old Auntie.

Now it's Gloria Prathafatakis and Frank!!

What's this Vince Daube's trying to keep secret? Come on—out with it, Daube!

Something old — Carol Fuller and Tom Brademas.

Something new—Donna and Jack Wedmore.

Something borrowed—Pat Haggerty to Elaine Kolman.

Something blue—Janice Fries and Fred Kiisel.

And then there's always Joan Woodward and Dick Van from Washington.

Who was that sharp fellow that Edith Martins was seen with at the Girl Reserve formal??

We hear Pat Cole is looking Riley way.

Verie wonders who this someone is on Shirley Roth's mind—

Peggy Cutler and ??

Come one, Seniors, get your dates for the Prom. May 11th, at the Indiana Club.

Dear Verie:

"Why doesn't Jerry Stemnock notice girls at Central?"

Wondering.

Dear Wondering:

Let's see if we can open his eyes for him, O.K.? I'd like a date too.
Verie.

John Campbell seems to be taking notice of Yvonne Raker. Oh, those Amigos!

Note: Bill Mapel's forefinger suffered lacerations. Reason, teeth. Result, he'll never go out with her again.

Mr. Shultz's 6th hour social living class certainly enjoys those frequent visits from Joe Hickey.

Says Mr. Shultz, "My soci. classes are model. No gum is ever chewed in the room." (Not while he's looking anyway.)

Stanley Tsalikis has suddenly become interested in the Central girls.

Floyd Burton interested in the operation of Central's malt machine—or Doris Elbel?

Everyone sure enjoyed Rick Edward's swell performance of "Casey at the Bat" in 4th hour English class.

Hear tell that Lorarine Mikula is interested in a certain sailor named Dave.

Auntie hears that a certain Betty Allen of Logansport has captured Don Looten's fancy.

Then there is always Florence Whittmer and her Mike.

Can anyone give Verie any more information on this Raih-Bernhardt deal?

What's this we hear about Betty

Burkowski's date for the South Bend Catholic prom?

Steadying it: Mary Lee Kabay and Billy Balok.

Perhaps some day Verie will find out who Audrey Chause's heart throb is!

CAN YOU IMAGINE—

Dewey without Phyl? Janice Fries in a red dress? Jim McCaffery in knee pants? Anna Pappas with lipstick? Bob Sellers with a year's perfect attendance? Noise in the Library? Quiet in the lab? Nancy Engdahl dancing with Pat Haggerty? Dick Woltman in a baby carriage? John Spears on time to Spanish class? Howard Johnson skipping school? Ruth de Man weighing 160? Summer vacation starting tomorrow?

THE 1916 LEADERSHIP MEDAL

At every Commencement Exercise Central awards a leadership medal to a boy and to a girl who have achieved real success as leaders in their class. This award was made possible by the Class of 1916 and it is called the Leadership Medal. It has been awarded each year since then and if you were to call the roll of those to whom the award has been given, you would have the names of boys and girls who have made good in a big way. In order to receive this award one must be not only a leader, but possess other qualities which make leadership possible. Scholarship, attitude and cooperativeness with fellow students and teachers are other qualities which are necessary for one to achieve such distinction. A committee composed of four students and four faculty members make this annual selection. Will your name be considered when this committee meets? If it is not, then you have been content to ead the easy life and do nothing beyond the regular duties. If it is considered, then you have gone far beyond your regular duties and if you are the one selected you have joined a distinguished group of boys and girls who did things while in school and who will continue to be successful in after school life. This honor is worth striving for. It will always go to the boy and to the girl who can and do make good.

P.D. Binter

BE YE NOT SELFISH!

"Say, Mary, you should see the lush, new coat I bought last Saturday on Wyman's Day. It's simply devine! It's something like Greer Garson wore in 'Adventure.' Now I've three good coats to wear."

"Jane! What do you think everyone has been talking about in school for the last week! You ought to be ashamed of your three coats instead of proud of them. Bring that old brown one that's out of style to home room tomorrow."

"Jeepers, Mary! With my coat and your skirt and sweater, and Sal's shoes, I'll bet we three have outfitted some girl in Europe for next winter. Makes me feel good all over! How 'bout you, Mary?"

"Roger!" exclaimed Mary.

FOR YOU

Inter ludus, meaning between plays. There, you see! Ye olde Interlude is a review of the last act and a synopsis of the next act in our school lives.

You sophs and juniors who are journalistically inclined have a model newspaper here at Central to give you a firm foundation for your future world of journalism.

Are you interested in writing about the different acts and phases of high school life? The Interlude is interested in YOU!

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE

Popular elections are the main problems of the Central student body and the adults of America. Those students who complain the most about the functions of the Student Council are usually the ones who take little or no interest in the elections for their governing body.

Party platforms are serious topics that we, as civically responsible students of a democratic school, should mindfully evaluate for future school laws and policies.

Citizens of Central! study these platforms to become used to the duties of American voters.

GOING TO COLLEGE?

Those graduating seniors who are looking forward to college next fall had better have a definite acceptance in their grip before they start groping thru their dreams of the future. Those dreams can be readily shattered by a "waiting list" notice or a flat refusal from "their" college.

The same old story prevails—"don't count your chickens before they hatch"! Be sure your application is in there, and be sure of your acceptance.

BRUINS BEAT RED DEVILS

In trouncing the powerful Red Devils of Michigan City, 58-51, the Bruins' track team remains undefeated in track competition this season boasting victories over Niles, Laporte, Washington - Clay, Adams, Goshen, Riley, Washington, Michigan City and a superlative showing in the Goshen Relays in which the Bear thinly-clads copped third place behind Hammond High and Gary Froebel.

Tripping over to the Prison City on Tuesday, April 30, Coach Nash's lads captured seven firsts in individual events and one first in the relays while grand-slamming the broad jump and shot put events. The Orange and Blue thinlies were sparked again by Co-captain Chuck Neises and Pat Altgelt who took firsts in the mile run and the 200-yard low hurdles, respectively, and then teamed up with Graham and "Bulldog" Drummond to snatch the meet-winning mile relay. Dick Taylor was the individual scoring champ of the meet by virtue of his ten points gained by garnering the 100-yard and the broad jump.

The summary:

120-yard high hurdles: Migneri (MC), Lueth (MC), Wilfing (C). Time :16.2.

100-yard dash: Taylor (C), Schnick (MC), Lisk (C). Time :10.5.

BEAR FACTS

Congratulations to Mr. Elbel and his gymnastics club for the work they did in the recent gymnastics assembly. After many weeks of hard work the coach and his squad turned out a swell program which was interesting to all who attended. A pat on the back to Bill Mitchell for his excellent work and also to Alex Barta who really did a swell job along with Mitchell. Nods go to Frank Kealey, Bud Sellers, and Jim Wilcox who did the swell hand stand. Congratulations to Phyllis Ainsworth and Eloise Treaner and the rest of the group for the performance. Possibly next year they may work with the idea of putting on even a bigger assembly; Central needs more of this sort of work.

oOo

George Clauson and Deranek limited Nappanee to but three hits. Nice pitching, boys.

oOo

Too bad the Twin City track meet between Riley, Adams, Washington, Mishawaka, and Central was postponed because of rain last Saturday.

Maybe the extra time for practice will put the boys in better shape for the sectionals which begin next Saturday.

Central lost an excellent shot-putter when Roland Mathews left the squad.

oOo

The Central Bear nine has been going along in fine style so far, by winning eight out of eleven contests.

oOo

Cubskin's hold on the grapevine brings the story that Coach Johnny Wooden is giving serious consideration to a coaching job elsewhere. This will be a pronounced disappointment to the Central followers if the proposed change materializes. Coach Wooden has established an outstanding record at Central and this writer will be sorry indeed to see the popular coach go elsewhere.

Elkhart Beats Bears, 4-1

The Central nine dropped a conference contest to the Elkhart Blue Blazers last Tuesday night by a score of 4 to 1. The Central hurler, George Clauson, was the victim of the Blazers' attack, while Elkhart's Verhagen came out the winner.

Elkhart got six hits to Central's four. The Blazers began their scoring in the fourth inning. A walk, an error, and three base blows were responsible for three of Elkhart's runs, and in the sixth inning a triple by Hoffman scored Swartz who had walked. That ended Elkhart's scoring for the day. Central got their lone run in the first inning.

Thursday afternoon the Bears had much better luck, but unfortunately it was a non-conference game. The Bruins smothered the Mishawaka Cavemen 11 to 3 on the Dodge athletic field in Mishawaka.

The Central boys grabbed three runs in the first inning, and one more in the fourth off hurler Noble Rhoutsong. The Bruins got five more in the sixth, and two in the seventh. Zalas and Stankiewicz composed the batteries for the Bears. Steffof relieved Rhoutsong in the fourth frame.

Jr. High Tract Starts

The afternoon of Wednesday, April 24th, started the Jr. High track season with an official practice. Under the leadership of Mr. Burger the boys are out to do their best to fill up that trophy case.

Three of the thinlies have been working out in some of the events for several weeks, so as to be in top shape for the first meet. The freshmen boys out are: George Shilling, 880 run; Wayman Redding, dashes; and Jack Sharpiro, who is limbering up for the shot put.

The junior speedsters are hoping to win the ribbons in the 100 and 220 dashes, 440- and 880-yard runs, broad and high jump, pole vault, and the 110-yard hurdles.

Uncle Sam Says

Atom bombs will soon be exploding over the Pacific Ocean in a naval operation to assure your security. At first glance, there seems little connection between atom bombs bursting over a fleet of ships and your continued investment in United States Savings Bonds. Think a moment friend. Allotment of a portion of your current income for savings bonds is also an operation to assure family security.

COUNCIL ELECTION (Cont'd)

for the Student Council election to be held next week. Running are: John Speares, president; Barbara Drollinger, vice-president; Marilyn Bowker, secretary; and Dorothy Tohulka, treasurer. To encourage the betterment of Central by the practice of special campaign weeks (Clean-up week, Courtesy week, Safety week, etc.). 4. More varied intramural activities. 5. More support to minor sports. 6. To encourage more interest in school activities by entire student body instead of by a vast minority. 7. Three pupils in aeronautics classes at Central High school have been awarded free flying courses by three local operators as a reward for excellence in class work, Mr. Sterling M. Pierce, aeronautics teacher, announces.

They are Martin Mount, 12A of home room 322, William Fross, 11A of room 217, and Robert Stanford, 11A of room 223.

Martin Mount is a graduating senior with a strictly air-minded disposition. If Martin is not drafted before the next school term, he will go to Illinois University where he will major in aeronautics. But if drafted, he will go into flight training.

The favorite subject of William Fross is aeronautics. He will take glider lessons as soon as possible, now having 1 3/4 hours of instruction. Being so very much accustomed to the speed of a plane, Bill tried it in his car once. Yes, he was in court at 9:00 A. M. the next day. His lessons are awarded by South Bend Air Service.

Bob Stanford first became interested in flying when he began the course in the Central aeronautics class. Aside from aeronautics, he likes science and all mechanical subjects with a particular dislike for Spanish. Bob's lessons are being awarded by the Stockert Flying Service.

The flying awards are a continuation of a pre-war policy.

Father: "And, another one?"

Student: "Go thou and do likewise."

LOOK RECORD REVIEW

TOPS IN WAX—Tonsilectomy and Forgetful. Boyd Raeburn, the boy of the sensational band now on the West Coast, has himself an instrumental holiday and a painless operation in Tonsilectomy. This side bears listening, it's a musician's musician type of recording, built around a "riff" reminiscent of Woody's "Goosey Gander." He features the band, there are few solos, all is handled in a relaxed and slow style and as modern as tomorrow! For the reverse, he has a vocal chorus by David Allyn, a competent singer who gives in a moderate and easy manner. Ben Pollack, the great Dixieland stylist and prexie of his own recording company, Jewel, turned out this winner. Your dealer can get this disc from Jewel's Hollywood plant.

VOCAL STANDOUT—Jo Stafford, who won most of the Nations vocal polls last year, adds the support of ork leader, Paul Weston, and turns out one of her best recording sessions. This time she produces a four 10-inch record album, titled, Songs By Jo Stafford and issued by Capitol. Four of the eight titles — Over The Rainbow, Yesterdays, Carry Me Back To Old Virginny and The Boy Next Door. Frank Sinatra's first album, also four plates, lists eight of the best tunes during the past ten years. Stordahl's orchestra, Columbia's release, and the title: The Voice Of Frank Sinatra.

DANCE DISCS — Wild Root and Atlanta, G. A. Woody Herman and the Herd make a frantic, emotional, and a very fine side named after their hair goo sponsors, which, by the way, proved to be one of their top "head" tunes for air shows and theatres. Wild Root drives hard throughout, and it features the tenor of "Flip" Phillips and tram of Bill Harris. The climax builds up to Pete Candoli's wild riffs in his upper trumpet register. On the reverse Woody sings, the band supports fully, although done in a moderate bounce tempo, and again Pete Candoli features, but in a Gillespie style improvisation (Columbia).

Victor debuts the new Glenn Miller band with Tex Beneke in a production of two extra special records—Swing Low Sweet Chariot and I'm Headin' For California; and It Couldn't Be True and One More Tomorrow. Highlights: California is one of the last compositions that Glenn wrote, therefore valuable from a collector's viewpoint; Tex, supported by the Crew Chiefs, handles the vocals. On Swing Low, Tex's tenor sax is heard, and also a muted trumpet chorus. Couldn't Be True moves at a lively pace with Tex and the Crew handling the vocals. The last side effectively shows off the voice of Artie Malvin. These discs plainly show the Miller band still up at the top.

Thanks To The Amigos

To express appreciation for the May baskets given to the teachers by the Amigo club, Dian Hersom, 8A of room 38, wrote the following poem.

MAY-DAY

A narcissus by a lilac,
A tulip standing near,
Some lilies of the valley,
And a violet, make it dear.

A thought behind each flower,
An action with the thought,
Makes pleasure like the rain,
Something dear, that can't be bought.

Bewildering, Huh?

No one has ever been able to discover where pins go. The trouble is that they are headed in one direction and pointed in another.
