Jack London To Be Shown

Mr. M. Richard has announced that the noon movies for next week will be Jack London with Michael O'Shea and Susan Hayward, A Toyland Broadcast and Gimmie My Quarter Back.

Waltons Have Party

The Junior Izaak Walton League held their annual fall party at the Izaak Walton Clubhouse Friday evening, November 1. About sixty members attended and enjoyed the entertainment consisting of bingo, movies, dancing, and social games.

History Movies Shown

Two movies, the first on the "Declaration of Independence" and the second on "Homes for Veterans," were given on Monday, November 4. These movies were shown all the Social Studies classes.

Clubs In Ticket Contest

Nine clubs have entered the contest to sell the most basketball season tickets before the afternoon of the first home game, Central vs. Riley, on Wednesday, November 27. Clubs competing in the sale contest are Amigos, Ushers, Spurs, Junior Waltons, Handy, G. A. A., Spartans, Smilers, and Hi-Y.

Prizes for the winning clubs include five basketball season tickets to the club winning first place, three tickets to the second place winner and one ticket to the third. All tickets ordered through school by mail or phone will be divided equally among the competing clubs. Record of the ticket sales may be followed by the chart in the main hall. Season ticket holders will be given first opportunity to purchase tickets for the sectional tournament.

Red Cross Starts Drive

The enrollment drive for the Junior Red Cross began at Central this week, in accordance with the National Red Cross Drive from November 1-15. Students are asked to give us much as possible to this worthy organization and Central's goal as it has been in the past is a 100 per cent enrollment. Enrollment fee is $1.00 for each group of 100 pupils or less. Each home room will receive a Red Cross sticker for the door or window after it has a 100 per cent enrollment; students will receive a membership tab and membership card after they have contributed to the drive. Any contribution, no matter how small or how large will be greatly appreciated and accepted. If possible, all money for the drive should be handed in by Friday of this week.

Council Obtains Machines

The Student Council has announced that the city has granted them permission to use two city voting machines for the Council elections next spring. A committee on assemblies to obtain more council programs was formed consisting of Mary Almond, Barbara Molnar, and Betty Jean Vinson.

A committee consisting of Don Kuespert, chairman, Jim Holmes, Jack Sonneborn, and Howard Denbo was appointed in the meeting last Monday to see that the equipment in the gym is repaired. The Council decided in favor of calling a Northern Indiana Student Council Meeting and appointed Dave Gilmour to handle arrangements.

GADOMSKI WINS HONORS

First place honors for the sale of bangle pins at the Notre Dame stadium, October 12, sponsored by the T. B. League went to Joan Gadomski for taking in $29.43 and second place was earned by Martha Pease. Their prizes will be $5 and $3, respectively. Joan was also captain of the winning team for selling $70.30 worth of pins. Their reward will be a dinner in a downtown hotel and a movie. Central took second place honors in the team sales with Clara Shaffer's team taking in $26.51. Central High girls braving the cold that day, sold altogether, $127.97 from the sales, out of the $308.74 taken in by girls from six schools combined. Other captains from Central were Martha Pease, Clara Shaffer, Mary Lou Buechner, and Dorothy Jeworski. Central girls who truned in more than five dollars from the sale of bangle pins include Joan Gadomski, Martha Pease, Valerie King, Anna Pappas, Shirley Miller, Ruth Kinney and Clara Shaffer.

Last year's statistics show that the two football games at which bangle pins were sold, Nona Frazier's team from Central won top honors and the first place individual winners were from Central also. Central teams were responsible for over half of the entire amount taken in from the sales last year.

November 16th marks the second game at Notre Dame this year at which bangle pins will be sold. More girls are still needed to sell these pins. They will be eligible for the cash prizes of five, three, and two dollars plus a dinner and a free movie if their team wins first place.

PLAN ORCHESTRA CLINIC

First rehearsal of the combined South Bend High school orchestra clinic was held at Central Tuesday evening, November 5, in room 41. The clinic which include most of Central's orchestra members will conduct an all-day rehearsal Monday, November 25, in preparation for the orchestra concert November 26 to be held in Central's auditorium. Edwyn Hames, conductor of the South Bend Symphony Orchestra will direct the clinic orchestra.

CAREER MEETINGS END

Third and last in the series of Career Conferences for sophomore B's and seniors will be held November 8 beginning at 8:35 in the rooms designated. The subjects and the people who will speak on them to the students are: Opportunities in the Field of Automobile Repairs by G. L. Schaus, secretary-treasurer of Sherman-Schau-Freeman; Opportunities in Newspaper Work and Journalism by Gerald Cosgrove, editorial writer for the South Bend Tribune; Opportunities in Merchandizing by Mary Phleeger, personnel department director of Robertson Bros. Department Store; What Does Home Economics Training Offer the High School Girls? by Laura Deephouse, director of home economics of the South Bend School City.

Cast For Play Revealed

Barnstormers have reserved the auditorium for nights of December 5 and 6 for the presentation of "The Canterville Ghost," their annual production for this year. Students who have parts in the cast are the following:

Lord Canterville.....	"Sandy" Stutesman
Sir Simon De Canterville.....	Fred Altgelt
Mrs. Umney.....	Jackie Deslauriens
Cecil, Duke of Chesin.....	John Pauszek
The Dowager of Botton.....	Gloria Kemp
	Shirley Stevenson
Madam de Tremoreillac.....	Jackie St. John
	Gerry Miller
Lady Stutfield.....	Marilyn Rohrer
Rector of the Parish.....	Don Massengill
The Butler and Wicked Lord.....	Dick Gen and Jack Schied
Four House-maids.....	Sara Bittle
	Sherrie Gollnick
	Nancy Seaver
	Marilyn Morrical
The Honorable Hiram B. Otis.....	David Brown
	Charles Eldredge
Mrs. Otis.....	Gloria Hans
	Nancy Dodge
Washington Otis.....	Eugene Bolinger
Virginia Otis.....	Bill Eveland
	Beverly Green
	Carolyn Carr
Stars and Stripes (twins).....	Ervin Tobalski
	Reginald Grimm

Boys in the stage crew are Ralph Essen, Howard Freeman, Norman Tobalski, and Chairman Don Kuespert. Russell Lindholm is in charge of lights together with Nancy Lamb, Allan Kester, Harold Ceerle, Don Noell and Walter Nelson. Property chairmen are Carolyn Emmett and Dan Boyd. Other Chairmen and members of committees will be announced later. The play is being directed by Mr. James Lewis Casaday.

PRIMMER EYES NETMEN

Mr. Primmer has a far-away look in his eyes, wishing that football would hurry and be finished, so he will be able to see just what his first varsity basketball team at Central will look like.

Veterans such as Gene Ring, Jerry Perkins, Swede Jensen, Ernie Bond, Dick Flowers, and Sam Winston, all prospective first- stringers, haven't had any practice yet. Coach Primmer uses a different system of play than last year's coach, Johnny Wooden, used, and the first game of the season is looming up just two weeks from tomorrow. The team travels to Lebanon on November 22.

Right now, the fellows out are doing their best to make a good showing, but they lack experience and size. Boys like Balok, Burgess, Olson, Mull, Potts, Clausen, and Lawton are doing their best, though, because the trip to Lebanon includes a stop-off at Lafayette for the Indiana-Purdue football game and competition for the positions on the squad will be keen.

Mr. Stewart's B-team has a good turnout now, and about twenty more boys will swell the total reserve team candidates to about thirty-five. That's about the best turnout in quite a few years, and if quantity is any sign, then Central should be having some good teams for the next few years to come.

Hold Practice Debate

The first practice debate that the Central debate class participated in was with Laporte on Thursday Oct. 24. Two of the debates were non-decision and two more won by Laporte. From now until December, the class will prepare for its winter debate season by holding practice debates with other schools. On Dec. 6-7 the class will travel to Purdue for a debate meet at which four hundred students from schools throughout Indiana will attend.

Affirmative and negative teams in the debate class are as follows: First affirmative team—Fannie Hawk and Shirley Roth; second affirmative—Virginia Ewing and Joan Gadomski; first negative team—Dorothy Gruszczynski and Dave Gilmour; second negative—Carolyn Emmett and Marilyn Rohrer.

School Open To Parents Tuesday; Dinner Precedes Assembly

Open House will be held by Central primarily for the parents next Tuesday evening, November 12. Families of students are urged to come and 1300 hundred invitations will be sent out to the parents. The program for the evening will begin with a dinner in the cafeteria served from five until seven o'clock. The menu will consist of chicken pie, salad, vegetable, bread and butter, ice cream, fudge cake, and coffee, and will be $1.00 a plate. Members of the Amigo club will serve. Parents will have the opportunity to visit with the teachers in the home rooms until 8:30 p. m.

"The Waterman" will be presented by the Barnstormers in the auditorium beginning promptly at 8:30 p. m. The play was also given at assemblies for the students on Wednesday and Thursday mornings of this week. The cast includes: Wilhelmina, Joan Trzcina and Claytene Merley; Mrs. Bundle, Gloria Kemp; Mr. Bundle, Charles Baughman and John Scannell; Tom Tug, David Brown; Robin, Charles Budd and Dan Boyd. Production manager is David Brown and stage manager is Don Kuespert. Carolyn Emmett is in charge of properties and Russell Lindholm is managing the lights. Make-up is being handled by Fred Altgelt and Nancy Seaver. Miss Helen Weber is in charge of the musical selections and Mr. James Lewis Casaday is directing the play.

COMMUNITY CHEST DRIVE BEGINS

The annual national community fund drive has already begun this year and the red feather is again a symbol of a contribution given to aid civic organizations and charitable institutions all over the country. South Bend's Community Chest helps by (1) coordinating community resources for the greatest number; (2) guaranteeing detailed study of agency budgets; (3) saving and effort by reducing the number of financial appeals; (4) by giving through the chest to the Community Fund, the people may be sure that their contributions will be used to supply the utmost in community service.

Starting today, November 7, the Community Fund will open its drive at Central and is expected to last through November 15. Students and teachers may give whatever amount they choose. Contributions by the students and the teachers' should be handed in at the office.

ON THE RECORD

The Jazz Concert given by Norman Granz's boys was a big success. A few of the names there were Coleman Hawkins (sax), Illinois Jagues (sax), Rex Stewart (trumpet), and Roy Eldredge (trumpet). The whole thing is a new experiment. For the first time Jazz is being presented in a dignified way in the concert hall. Granz has been giving these concerts around the country and using the proceeds to help stop racial discrimination. This is probably the greatest step taken by Jazz and one of the finest gestures made. Besides all of that these were some of the finest Jazz artists in the country.

Illinois Jacques broke the ice with a hot solo. Then Rex Stewart broke the place up with one of the finest trumpet solos I have ever heard. Illinois Jacques gave a great solo on the tune he made famous, "Flyin' Home." In the final number the whole band joined to play "O'jam Blues."

For some new records is Tommy Dorsey's "Gotta Get Me Someone to Love." On the flip over is "That's My Home." Dinah Shore comes back with an oldie from the 20's entitled "Who'll Buy My Violets." On the back you'll find, "I May Be Wrong but, I Think You're Wonderful." Tony Martin comes through with, "Rumors Are Flying," backed up by "And Then It's Heaven."
—Mac Hartstein.

WHERE DID YOU SPEND YOUR TIME LAST SATURDAY NIGHT?

Cathryn Koontz: "Well, where do most people go on Saturday nights?"
Janice Fries: "I'll never tell."
Mac Hartstien: "Roy Eldredge's. He really has fine jazz."
Betty Farnor: "It's a secret."
Jerry Pukrop: "Looking for my girl. (P. S.—I didn't find her.)"
Kathy Vogt: "Sorry, Jerry, I had a date."
Bill Peterson: "On a train coming from Iowa City."
Pert Oppenheim: "4 STAR."
Pat Lange: "You mean there's someplace besides the Spot? (and Weisel???)"
Dick Woltman: "Ahrumph!!! Ask Carolyn."
Carolyn Wunderlich: "At home."
Phyllis Mills "At Central, listening to Coleman Hawkins (at the sax.)"

A familiar figure around Central is Miss Edith Spray, who has been with us for a whole twenty-one years. Miss Spray attended Lawrence College in Appleton, Wisconsin, and received her master's degree from the University of Chicago. She has taught many forms of English, but is now just teaching "plain English." Among her likes reading heads the list and playing a good game of bridge follows in close second. During the summer she loves to get out and do gardening.

Miss Spray mentioned that she detested gum chewers in class (it seems to me I've heard that before), but her real pet peeve is to be driving along and the car in front of her overlooks a stoplight and then creeps down the highway at 20 miles per hour.

When we asked Miss Spray about future plans, she confided that she expected to be at Central for quite a while. We certainly hope so for its delightful teachers like Miss Spray that make lessons interesting and Central the grand school it is.

Who was that cute little girl that Glenn Woods met after rehearsal a week ago tonight? I'd-like-to-know. Dear I'd-like-to-know:

Sherry Gollnick me thinks. MeKnows.

You mean to tell me that Jackie Givens is available?

"I know a little bit about a lot of things, but I don't know enough about you"—Marilyn Moore to Duane Aiken.

Here's a new steady that is easy on the eyes, Dolores Wiczorek-Kenny Grossman.

Latest triangle: Callus-DeMunck-Farabaugh.

"Sunday, Monday and Always"—Shirley Bain and Dave Gilmore.

To watch Gene Olsen and Pat Bohm you would think something was brewing between the two.

Notice: Carol Fuller is very happy that Tom Brademas will be home in three weeks.

Henry Harlacker had a grand time with Sally Ross at Soro's Halloween party.

Still going strong—Gee Gee and Joe Deranek.

Is Dortha Schubert still receiving mail from her male?

One really sharp couple is Jim McCaffery and Pat McCarthy.

Fred DeLeu certainly had a good time Saturday night.

A free man not to be overlooked is lush Connie Bailie.

Come on Peg Muesel let's have a little co-op with Jerry Freeman.

Your Auntie hopes to see you all at the DeMolay Halloween Dance, November 1.

Janice Salkeld has an eye toward Bob Strebar of Adams.

Why doesn't Carol Smith give Eugene a break?

Who is this certain somebody Bob Woltman has an interest in?

Verie has a sneaking hunch that Mila Richards is interested in Howard Bunch.

Pat Cole's latest heart throb is reported to be Les Hahne of Notre Dame.

Aunt Verie's vote for a mighty cute couple goes to Rita Borntrager and Bony Ivy.

Seen at Smilers: Hardman-Henderson, Shively-Hillman, Kaniewski-McDole, DeMunck-Callus, Morris-Meunter, Keatts-Boyd, Dodge-Gretz.

Is Auntie wrong or is there really something going on between Kathy Vogt and Leo Cunningham?

Then we still have MacLean sitting beside her mailbox every day. Wonder what she waits for. How 'bout that, Nellie?

Orchids to the SPURS for their swell decoration of the Central goal posts.

Janice Fries seems to be doing quite well for herself with Bill Meyer and Tom Cassidy.

Queen Cookie was all aglow at Smilers with Ed McCarthy.

Thanks to Dave Gallup for the blow he gave the Esquires concerning their float in the parade.

Pochie Miller seems to be taking up Barbara Drollinger's time. How 'bout that, Tom?

Clyde Williams seems to have forgotten his former love with Marilyn Glaser's attention.

Surprise! Zeke Neeser and Mary Bell Frith are on the steady list.

Aunt Verie hears that Donna Barnes has quite a crush on cute soph Andy Toth.

OPEN HOUSE

On next Tuesday evening we hold our annual Open House. This custom was established several years ago in order that parents might become better acquainted with the school and its program. The better acquainted parents and teachers become the better work the school will be able to do. The modern high school is quite different from the school when most parents were in attendance. More courses have been added and other innovations have been made. Probably the greatest advances made, in addition to more diversified courses to fit every need, is in the field of Guidance. In this department every effort is made to help the student adjust himself to all phases of school work. In brief, an effort is made here to help the student find himself and do those things which will fit him for the life he is to lead after high school graduation.

We hope we are doing this, if we are then the school is doing what it should. The student who can profit by further training is urged to do so. On the other hand those who want to go to work are given the training that will enable them to do that. We hope all will do that for which they are best suited.

IN AGAIN!

SUPPORT THE TEAM

The basketball season-ticket sale is now underway. The schedule of games is really going to be worth while. Isn't it your duty as a Centralite to support the team? We have always had a very favorable record in this field and this year should not be an exception. Basketball is an interesting sport to watch and is a good way for you to gain entertainment in the coming weeks. Let's make this sale of tickets a success and show our team we're behind them all the way!

G. A. A. AND VOLLEYBALL

The girls' volleyball tournament, sponsored by the G. A. A., now an annual event at Central, will soon be getting underway. Many girls have signed up to participate in these games. In order to be a success, the whole student body should support the tournament. With an audience, the girls will be inspired to really put an effort into winning the games. The games are held at noon so attending them would be an interesting way to spend the noon hour. Let's really make this event a success. Attend the games and cheer your team to victory!

WORK HARDER!

Now that we have all seen our report cards and how we are measuring up to the school's work standards; we should definitely make a resolution to improve our grades in the coming nine weeks. If you didn't like your grades there is just one solution to your problem; work harder! The next nine weeks decide your final grade. Try to bring up your first grades so as to average favorably at the end of the semester. Don't be content with merely a passing grade. Certainly you owe it to yourself to do your best and not just slide through with the least amount of work possible. Don't be satisfied with your grades until you have proved to yourself that you have done your best. Next time be one of those who make the distinction of the honor roll. Work well done always receives its just reward!

FIVE CONVENIENT DOWNTOWN LOCATIONS

BEARS CLOSE SEASON AT FORT WAYNE N. S.

Central's football squad will bring to a close a successful season this Friday night when they meet Fort Wayne North Side on the latter's gridiron. Everyone is looking forward to a Bear victory, and from the looks of things the Bruins are just about a cinch to end their season undefeated. Central has a tie with Washington which mars its record.

Many eyes are turned toward the Laporte-Michigan City tilt, which will be played the same night as the Central-North Side contest. Should Laporte be beaten, and the Bears win, then Central would become the eastern division Northern Indiana champion. Laporte, however, is rated a heavy favorite to whip Michigan City, due to their undefeated record including a previous victory of the Prison City team.

Coach Tony Juska of North Side has some good backs in Norb Cowan, Jim Seaman, and Herb Bruick. Up front in the line, however, the North Siders don't seem to have too much to stop the rushes of Dick Flowers, and the end sweeps of Jerry Perkins and Wayman Redding.

Comparative Scores

Last week, Central dealt Riley a 25-6 loss, while earlier in the season Riley had overpowered the "Big Red" from North Side, 39-0, Laporte, considered about on a par with Central, crushed the not-so-Big Red last week, 38-6.

So here's to a Central win!! And also, let's sort of hope Michigan City turns back Laporte.

Probable starting lineups:

Central	North Side
Ring	LE Alward
Jensen	LT Gutman
Enyeart	LG Leffers
Daoust	C Steele
Ware	RG Mansfield
Hagerty	RT Hettinger
Winston	RE Preston
Waters	QB Schearey
Perkins	LH Cowan
Redding	RH Bruick
Flowers	FB Leaman

BEAR FACTS

Central's Letterman's Club, which has been rejuvenated, due to the efforts of the coaching staff in general and Chris Dal Sasso in particular, has started a money-raising campaign to provide funds so that the club may launch several ambitious plans for boosting Central sports. The club wants the Central monogram winners to become better acquainted, as well they should, for many of the athletes are not familiar with the boys who are out for different sports. Another purpose is to meet the athletes from the feeder schools to show them that Central needs and wants them to continue their long tradition of fine athletic teams from the downtown school and that if they make their letter at Central they will automatically become a member of a fine organization where friendship and unity of purpose prevails.

The Lettermen are selling booster plates to all Central fans so that their treasury may be replenished, while at the same time making it possible for people to openly show that they "Boost the Bears." The plates are designed to fasten on to license plates primarily, but may also be used in your lockers, on walls in your room at home, being flexible, they may be used as an arm band to show your loyalty to Central.

oOo

Thanks to the SPURS for decorating the goal posts at both the Riley and Mishawaka games. They did a swell job and are to be congratulated.

oOo

Riley cheerleader Shirley Frazier is the twin sister of Paul Frazier, first-string Wildcat halfback, but even her cheer-leading and his ball playing couldn't bring victory over our Bruins.

oOo

Talking to Tom Keiser, sports editor Riley Hi-Times, Cubskin found out that Riley loses every one of its first string grid men due to graduation. However, jot these names down in your memory book as you'll see lots of action from Horvath, Bohm, Nagy, John Nafrady, Carter, Voynovich, Winters, Whitmer, Prath, and Cerrone next year in the Purple and Gold football uniforms.

oOo

Cubskin had a 1,000 average on prediction last week, but these are just as good.

Central over N. S. Ft. Wayne Washington over Elkhart Louisville Male over Mishawaka John Adams and Riley are done for the season.

Hammond Central Catholic over S. B. Catholic.

Notre Dame over Army.

oOo

Central's first touchdown against Riley came after 11 plays from scrimmage, 1 pass and 10 running plays.

oOo

Jim White who played a whale of a game against Central for the Wildcats, is affectionately known as "Jumbo" out Riley way.

oOo

The Smilers' annual Football Banquet in honor of our swell grid team will be coming up soon so start saving those pennies as you will not want to miss seeing the team. The date, the price, and the speaker all Cubskin made a token with Tom Veiser the other night that Gene Ring and Sam Winston would be all Twin-City ends this year. He guffawed, for he hasn't seen Central play yet this year, but before the game was done he leaned over and said that he was going to lose that venture.

oOo

It's a shame that South Bend's not having a holiday basketball tourney this year 'cause, even though Central is going to Hammond for a big tourney there during the holiday, it's too far for most fans to go to see a tournament.

oOo

Mr. Burger's intramural basketball tourney after a slow start has now gotten under full way with fully 16 teams seeing action. There are eight teams in two leagues, A and B, with each team playing seven times during the course of the tourney. If more home rooms had taken notice of the bulletin in time, several of the teams which had wanted to enter the tourney would have been able to do so.

oOo

If you're wondering who all the fellows are who wait every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday after sixth hour for the girls to come out of swim class, rest your curiosity for it's only the boys' swimming squad which is Something new on the date list—

Delphine Trytko and Richard White.

A new couple we see quite often—
Delores Karmen and Marion Makowski.

Dear Aunt Verie:

Why does "Doll" Jaronik always come late to Dramatics class? Mr.

BEARS 25, CATS 6

Coach Bob Jones' Central Bears
chalked up another victory, last Saturday, before 14,000 fans at School
Field when they defeated the Riley
Wildcats by a score of 25-6.

The Bears scored early in the first quarter when Flowers clashed through from the one-foot line to hit pay dirt. Later, in the second period
Winston took a pass over the line from Perkins to score another T. D.
The Wildcats' fullback, Jim White, intercepted a Perkins pass and ran it back 72 yards for the Cats' only touchdown. Central scored again just before the end of the half with a pass from Flowers to Winston good for the extra point and scored again in the third quarter, making the final score 25-6.

Last Saturday's results left Central undefeated in seven games, although the Bears have a tie with Washington against them. It was Riley's third defeat in nine games.
