"The Sho-Gun" Opens Tonight CHAMPIONS HONORED AT ANNUAL BANQUET

PERFORMANCES TO BE GIVEN MARCH 26, 27, and 28th

The Central Barnstormers, Glee Club, and Orchestra will present "The Sho-Gun," a comic opera by Gustav Luders, tonight, tomorrow, and Saturday nights in the Central auditorium at 8:00 p. m. Mr. James Lewis Casaday is general director of the show and also designed the costumes. Miss Helen Weber, assisted by Mr. John FitzHenry and Mr. Harold E. Kottlowski, are in charge of the music.

The story of "The Sho-Gun," a series of take-offs on various American "enterprises" and "establishments," revolves about the exploits of one, William Henry Spangle, an American promoter and chewing-gum salesman who figuratively "invades" the imaginary Korean island of KaChoo, in search of a title and ancestors. Upon arriving in KaChoo, Spangle introduces the "seven wonders of modern civilization" (which range from the hot-water bag to the Goo-Goo chewing-gum), organizes a number of trusts and labor unions, falls in love with a royal widow, changes the ancient traditions of the Korean aristocracy to suit himself, and in general lives up to his title of "The Irrepressible Yank."

Just as Spangle is about to marry the lovely young widow Omeo Omi, the High and Mighty Sho-Gun, ruler of KaChoo, arrives on the scene, stops the ceremony, and threatens to cut off the head of the American impostor who has so disrupted the customs of the island.

Does Spangle escape the wrath of the sword-swinging Sho-Gun? Does he finally acquire the royal birthright for which he is seeking? Come to KaChoo tonight, tomorrow, or Saturday night, if you want to find out. The cost of transportation to the island is $.50 for a regular admission ticket, or $.65 for a reserved section ticket, either of which may be obtained from any member of the Barnstormers or the Glee Clubs.

Instrumentalists for "The Sho-Gun" Listed

Orchestra members who will play for the opera are: Anna Lou Shadel, Maria Diamondis, John Oxian, Emery Chonody, Sharon Soash, Nancy Cook, Guy Curtiss, Thelma Bennett, Shirley Tishcoff, violins; Sylvia Stilson, John Shaul, Mary Lou Nelson, violas; Sahan Oxian, Nancy Swanson, Ray Good, Marguerite Mizelle, cellos; Joan Draper, Devon Bates, Margaret Kohlbrenner, basses; Judy Cook, flutes; Nancy Working, oboe; David Niver, Felix Antonelli, clarinets; Miriam Bradfield, Sylvia Stroup, horns; Orton Mills, Roger Matthews, trumpets; Tom Hansen, trombone; Roy Holmes, Peter Diamondis, Warren Schockenman, percussion.

Piano accompanists are Marcia Kilmer, Marilyn Stroup, Robert Hamilton, and Mr. John FitzHenry.

MOO ZOO MAY, LOVLIEST OF THE SING SONG GIRLS, AND THE HIGH AND MIGHTY SHO-GUN, RULER OF KACHOO — respectively portrayed by Florence Rottach and Bernard Pollack, are shown above in their mythical habitat, KaChoo, an isolated island somewhere between Japan and Korea. The two will appear in Gustav Luders' comic opera, "The Sho-Gun," to be presented by the Barnstormers, Glee Club, and Orchestra tonight, Friday, and Saturday at 8:00 p. m. in the Central auditorium.

DEPAUW SPONSORS EDUCATIONAL CLINIC

This June, the Bureau of Testing and Research at DePauw University, is sponsoring a seventh annual Educational Guidance Clinic. It is a non-profit clinic sponsored as a service to graduating high school seniors. The clinic aids those students for whom the unusual guidance service would be very desirable.

The clinic operates on an impartial basis, for the counselors represent different schools such as Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, and not just DePauw.

Pamphlets concerning the clinic and copies of application blanks may be obtained from Mr. V. C. Harter for those students who are interested in the clinic.

FORTY-SEVEN CENTRALITES TO SEE, WASH., NEW YORK

The Washington, D. C.-New York trip will be the thought uppermost in the minds of many of Central's students at the beginning of next week. The spring vacation tour will begin who will return the following Saturday after a week of vacation in the two big cities.

The boys and girls from Central who will go on the trip are: Dave Niver, Ervin Mrozinski, Ernest Humphrey, Carolyn Schaphorst, Kathleen Wilmore, Delores Turk, Judy Farnsworth, Marlene Schaphorst, Marilyn Jennings, Tom Hansen, Donna Wenger, LeRoy Atherton, Joan Whiteman, Kay Burkus, Kay Unger, Duane Schneider, Eldonna Matthews, Sharon Davis, Joanne Gschwindt, Sue Seaver, Diane Pearse, Mary A. Fichtner, JoAn Fichtner, Joan Groves, Joanne Gilbert, Shirley Wolfe, Richard Cordtz, Mary Lou Nelson, Norma (Cont'd on page 4, col. 1)

The most outstanding basketball team in the state of Indiana for 1953, the bounding Bears of Central High, was honored last Tuesday night at 6:00 p. m. at Central's 17th Annual Basketball Banquet which was held in the school cafeteria. The Indiana High School Basketball "Kings" had, by their championship showing, ruled the students for four weeks; Tuesday night they held that reign with dignity and pride. The state champs had been led down the road to victory by superior coaches and assistants. Coach Elmer McCall and Bob Turnock and their "boys" were honored in the highest degree, as they so justly deserved.

The gallant Bears, their coaches, trainer, and Principal P. D. Pointer are pictured below. Left to right, they are: First row, Emery Molnar, Bob Scannell, Coach Elmer McCall, Assistant Coach Bob Turnock, Captain Tom Schafer; Second row, Jim Reider, Jack Quiggle, Danny O'Donnell, Bill Harmon, Paul Harvey, Jack Wiltrout, and Trainer Otto Neilson. In the third row are Principal P. D. Pointer, Leland Yockey, Bill Greer, Horace Blanton, and Manager Kenny Alward. Senior Manager Ken Dempsey was absent at the time that the photograph was taken. The evening was Mr. Paul Boehm, Assistant Director of Physical Education in the School City and introductions were made by Mr. Ross K. Stephenson, Athletic Director for Central. Guest speaker were Joe Boland, Frank Allen, superintendent of schools, and Robert Walker, president of the board of education. Coach Elmer McCall and Assistant Coach Bob Turnock commented on the champions and the loyal support of all the fans who so faithfully backed the Bruins "All the Way."

Three highly valued awards were given to members of the team Tuesday night. The Kiwanis Award for the year's most outstanding player was awarded to Bob Scannell by Mr. Neal Welch. Tom Schafer received the Gold Award, presented by Principal P. D. Pointer, for the player who had exhibited the best attitude, team co-operation, and best sportsmanship, and the Free Throw Award for the player with the highest average was given to Tom Schafer by Bill Barrett, President of Student Council.

Mrs. Gladys Staples and the cafeteria staff prepared all the food that was served for the dinner and Miss Detrick's Home Economics classes served. The delicious dinner consisted of roast turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce, whipped potatoes, gravy, mixed vegetables, roll and butter, cherry pie, milk and coffee.

The banquet was sponsored by the Girls' Athletic Association (Miss Betty Mathews, sponsor) of Central. Nancy Johnson was the senior chairman of the affair. In charge of other arrangements were Jo Laskowski, Betty Gnot, and Mimi Bradfield.

Orange and blue colors decorated the room and cutouts of the coaches and team members, taken by Mr. Decon Phelps, were placed on each table. A large picture of the group formed the background for the table where the champs sat. Programs for the banquet were printed by Mr. Emrick and his printing classes.

The exceptional work, attitudes and achievements of the great Central Bears of '53 have made them liked and respected by all. They will long be remembered by the many people who are so proud of them.

BEARS SNUFF OUT MILAN'S HOPES

Coach Elmer McCall's fighting Bears solved the slow motion wizardry of Milan's miracle Indians with a 56-37 victory in the first game before an overflow crowd of 15,000 at Butler fieldhouse.

It was a rude awakening for the 1,104 populace of the small southeastern town. The Indians had stunned basketball experts by using a control game to advance through three weeks of tourney play.

First quarter: Central won the jump and Paul Harvey was called for charging. Bob Plump converted from the charity stripe and Milan led 1-0. Tom Schafer pushed one in from the side to put Central ahead to stay 2-1. The very next trip down court for the Bears Molnar plunked one in from 32 feet out. Emery came out ahead on Central's fast break to give the Bears a 6-1 lead. Gene White scored a free throw after being hacked by Tom Schafer. Bob Plump also connected on a gift shot to bring the Indians up to a 6-3 deficit. Jack Quiggle was loose on a semi-hook layup under the basket. Bob Engle came back for the Woodmen with a long two-hand set which swished through. Harvey tossed in a one-pointer and Plump followed with his first fielder, a jumpshot from the keyhole. Molnar and Wiltrout scored on some accurate shooting from the outside to give the Bears a 6 point margin of control, 13-7 at the end of the first stanza.

Second quarter: The high man on the Indians totem pole Jim Wendelman at 6'2 exchanged pops from the side with Em Molnar as Central retained its 7-point margin, 16-9. Wiltrout and Molnar burned in one handers while Plump let go with a jump shot from within the free throw lane to spurt the Bears to a 20-11 advantage. Harvey made it a ten point difference with a free throw. Molnar after missing two free throws tossed in a one-hander. A 23 footer from the side by Schafer was parenthesized by a gift toss by Truitt and a field goal by Plump. Central 25, Milan 14.

Third quarter: Schafer started things off with a free throw. Plump tallied for Milan, but Paul Harvey did likewise for the Bears. Quiggle hit a two hand jump shot from the side to make the scoreboard read 30-16. Schafer tapped one in, an under the basket scramble, and Harvey followed with a layin.

Engle sneaked past the Bear defense for a layup and Plump scored twice on a one hand shot to bring Mila nup to 34-22. Quiggle, all alone, scored under the basket. Plump and Wiltrout traded foul shots as the third quarter ended with the Bears out front 37-23.

Fourth quarter: Jumping Jack Quiggle tossed in a overhead shot. Plump came right back on a drivein shot. Wiltrout hit a long one hander and Truitt tossed in a foul shot. Schafer and Quiggle iced it for Central at a 46-29 count. Mo Molnar was by far the outstanding player hitting 7 of 12 field goal attempts including 6 of his first 8.

BEAR FACTS BY CUBSKIN

Coach Elmer McCall has added the most impressive of all trophies to Central's collection, the state championship. For McCall and the Bears it has been a season filled with success beyond the highest expectations. Central has annexed the 1953 N.I.H.S.C. crown, the sectional prize, the regional prize, the regional title, the semi-final championship, and now the most coveted prize of prep athletic achievement, the state championship. The only title the Bears missed out on was the Frankfort Holiday

Tourney plucked off by Bill Johnson's Jeffersonville's Red Devils. Oh yes, we almost forgot, Central is the twin city titlist, too. Central had a 4-1 record against twin city opposition. Adams was second with 5-2, followed by Riley with 3-2, Washington with 2-4, and Mishawaka with 0-6.

I talked to varsity manager Kenny

Alward before the game about the poll of Indiana sportswriters for the state champs. Twenty-five had picked Richmond, 24 Terre Haute, 7 S. B. Central, and 6 Milan. "Well" drawled Kenny, "I think 7 are honest, 6 are sentimental, and 49 are plump crazy."

The most publicized foul of the tourney occurred when Harley Andrews and Arley Andrews banged into Jack Wiltrout. Don Pollizoto signaled the foul on Harley, but when Arley raised his hand he corrected his decision and gave it to Arley. Any good basketball player knows that he should never raise his hand for a foul until he is sure the official means him. Arley was either awfully sure or was suffering from a guilt complex.

Tony Hinkle, basketball dean at Butler University, estimated that Central gave Terre Haute five free scoring opportunities on bad passes that were pilfered off by the Black Cats for layups. The Cats connected on 3.

The Riley track team finished first by scoring 58 points in the City Indoor Track Meet held last Friday at Notre Dame. Central placed second with 46 1/4 points, trailed by Washington and Adams, each gaining 37 1/4 and 23 1/2 points respectively.

The Bears took first in the mile relay team composed of Mathews, Redding, Clark, and Rohrbach. John Gary won the 60-yard dash and George Rohrbach also copped the 440.

Central noticeably missed Captain Bob Scannell in the shot put, although John Dunnuck took a second. Scannell is rated as the top man in this event in the northern part of the state.

Nationwide Photo Contest to be Held

A 1953 custom-built Nash Rambler convertible is the grand prize in Sylvania Electric's third annual flash photography contest, "Folks are Fun," which officially opened at the National Photographic Show in New York on February 12.

This year's contest is open to teenagers (Junior Division) and adults (Senior Division), with fifty prizes awarded in each division. Some of the other prizes in the Junior contest (boys and girls under eighteen) are a 21" television console, movie camera and projector set, bikes, and electrical and photographic supplies.

Pictures entered in the contest should be of people having fun, such as people being funny, enjoying games, parties, hobbies or classmates together. They should be in black and white, no smaller than 2 1/4" x 2 1/4" and not previously published commercially. All pictures must be accompanied by the printed circle from the outer wrapper or sleeve of any Sylvania flashbulb.

All entries must be postmarked by April 30, 1953, and should be mailed to "Sylvania Folks are Fun Contest," P. O. Box 232, Boston 1, Mass. The contest is open to anyone living in the United States or possessions except employees of Sylvania, its advertising agencies or photolamp dealers and their families or professional photographers.

Entry forms and complete contest rules may be obtained from Sylvania flashbulb dealers.

Oh, pity the poor professor,
 A-sittin' on his stool,
 Trying to cram some knowledge
 Into the head of each little fool.

About HCL and SQ4

And even smashing atoms,
 But brains are something they ain't got,
 And on test days, wish they had 'em.
 —Scribe News.

Teacher: "Frequent water drinking prevents you from becoming stiff in the joints."

Centralite: "Yes, but most of the joints don't serve water."

Prof—I am now demonstrating a most dangerous experiment. If I am not careful, it may blow me to kingdom come. Draw up a little closer so that you can follow me better.
