Dunnuck Earns Ries Award

By ANNE LOUISE KNOBLOCK

At last it can be released. After many weeks of deepest secrecy the truth can be known! What is this big secret that was so clearly guarded until today? The winner of the Herman E. Ries, Sr. Award of course! And who did receive the award? John Dunnuck!

Mr. Ries, who died last summer, gave us this award in his last will and testament. It is being given for the first time this year and it is in appreciates people who say what they are thinking.

He told this inquiring reporter that he wishes to extend thanks to all the people who helped him in any way to make this year for the Student Council a successful one. He also wishes to especially give recognition to Bill Nicks, Kathie Wilmore, and Sandra De Vries.

His closing words were, "I'll try to live up to this honor, and from now on I will try to be a good citizen." I am sure we all realize that he already is one. Congratulations, John Dunnuck.

the form of a medal to be worn by the recipient.

Mr. Ries, though not a graduate of Central himself, had a great interest in us. His two sons, Herman Ries, Jr. and Milton both are Central alumni. Mr. Ries stipulated that the award be given to the senior boy or girl who best exemplifies democracy in action. This medal is to be given for the purpose of promoting good citizenship and interest in the United States government.

Mr. Pointer appointed a committee of seven teachers who chose John to receive this award. These teachers were Miss Spray, Mr. Kuhn, Mr. Stevenson, Mr. Wilmore, Mr. Harter, Mr. Richards and Mr. Pointer, himself.

And now for a chat with the winnah!

Mr. Dunnuck, what did you think when you learned that you had won the award?

Mr. Dunnuck replied to this reporter's question, "I was very surprised and happy when Mr. Pointer told me about it Friday morning."

Then this reporter continued pestering him with questions, some of which he found very hard to answer. One thing he was positive about, he would like to go to Princeton University. He is planning to take an engineering course and then, after college he will go into the hardware business with his father at Myers Hardware Store (that was a plug in case you couldn't guess).

John has accumulated an impressive list of activities while in high school. Just a few of them are, track, swimming, glee club, Student Council, photographer for the INTERLUDE, and he was president of his home room for two years.

When I timidly asked him about his dislikes he violently exclaimed that he disliked people who only back a winning team, and people who don't back minor sports. But he has such a nice personality that of course he has many likes too. Being a normal young man he likes food, especially rare steak, strawberry shortcake and SPINACH! Also he

J. A. Closes Season

There were 350 Junior Achievers, advisors and business executive sponsors from various companies throughout the city at the annual J. A. Banquet Tuesday night. It was held in the main ballroom of the Indiana Club at 6:30. Here the Junior Achievers had the rare privilege of sitting next to the biggest men in the city. At the dinner they were able to talk to these men about their future plans.

An adult speaker, J. C. Ducommun, the assistant manager of the Standard Oil Company, talked on production and the help J. A. gives in the line of experience. An Adams student also spoke.

Besides all this the awards were given for outstanding work in J. A. There were 100 advance achievers' pins given and 15 junior executive ones. The adults were not left out, either. Citations were given to the advisors and principals of the high schools for their cooperation. Also each adult sponsor received a bronze plaque.

The largest awards, however, were the ten all-expense trips to the national convention, held at Miami University this year. The students who received this award are the ones who have shown the most interest in J. A. and have done very outstanding work. Naturally, since the ten students chosen are delegates to a convention, they will spend some time in meetings with students from 80 other cities. Here they will get new ideas and bring them back to South Bend. However, they will also have fun on the trip. They will be able to play games such as tennis and golf, and do many other entertaining things.

Banquet Given For H. S. Page Staff

By ANNE LOUISE KNOBLOCK

All things come to he that works. I am sure you have heard that saying many times before. It was proved true last Thursday evening as a great number of young ladies and gentlemen were seen pouring into an edifice on Jefferson boulevard. This building, more commonly known as the Indiana Club, housed the Annual South Bend Tribune High School Page Staff Banquet. Attending from

KING AND QUEEN TO BE ANNOUNCED ON MAY FIFTEENTH

The climax to thirteen years of school will arrive Saturday night, as the departing seniors joyfully, and perhaps a little sadly, attend their Senior Prom, "Moonlight Serenade." They will sway to the music of Mickey Isley from nine to twelve at the Indiana Club. No flowers will be permitted. The traditional Grand March will be held at 10:30.

The people responsible for the hard work and planning for this memorable event are Louie Cohen, who is in charge of publicity; Tom Brandon, decorations; King and Queen contest, Mike Ledden and Marianne Ullery; Invitations, Sara Davidson and Helen Mauro. In charge of program are Larry O'Donnell, Bob Pauszek, and Tom Bartholemew. John Dunnuck is in charge of the Grand March.

The King and Queen contest is nearly at a close. The winner will be announced at the Prom Saturday night. The girls up for queen are Loretta Szalay, Carol White, Sue Forrest, and Helen Mauro. Those boys who are candidates for king are Jack Cote, Jerry Moss, Jim Reider, and Bill Przybysz.

Tickets are $2.50 per couple. Seniors, hurry and get yours!

BEARS LEAD CONFERENCE

By RONNIE MINKOW

The Bears used only two hits and nine walks to turn back a battling Washington Panther nine, 5-2. The Bears are now leading the conference with a record of five wins against one loss.

Walt Breske, Central righthander, had a string of fourteen consecutive scoreless innings broken in the fourth when Washington put two hits together to score two runs, only one of which was earned. Walt now has an earned run average of 0.390, based on seven-inning game. Washington got three hits off Breske while the Bears could manage only two safeties from the combined hurling of Dave Roger and Bob Niespodziany. Breske got a single off Rogers and O'Donnell got a double off Niespodziany for the Bear hits. Brazier, Jackowiak, and Kovatch got the Panther hits. Breske struck out nine batsmen in winning his second game of the season against no losses.

Michigan City came to S. B. School Field last Tuesday with the hopes of spoiling Central's three-game conference winning streak but were foiled by a three-run uprising in the fifth. Jim Landen, who started for the Bears, had control trouble in the first inning which accounted for the first of two Red Devil runs.

Trailing 2-0 with one out in the last of the fifth the Bears started to roll. Bill Przybysz started the fire burning by smashing a long single to right center field. Landen was beamed by Flotow to put runners on first and second with one out. Jim Shedd then fanned for the second out and it looked like Michigan City was going to get out of the jam, until John "Ducky" Holmes hit a sharp single over the shortstop's head to score Przybysz and Landen. Dave Hada-way then hit a long double that not only scored Holmes but sent the ace Red Devil righty to the "showers." Greer came in and put out the fire.

In the top of the sixth after one out and a man on first, Walt Breske relieved the tiring Landen and saved the game for the right-handed junior.

'Lost Horizon' Tickets on Sale Now

Rehearsals are in full swing now for the senior class play, "Lost Horizon," to be given May 21st and 22nd. The Barnstormers and seniors are working hard on all sides of this production. We can help them make it a success by supporting the play with our attendance.

Tickets have been on sale this past week and will continue to be so next week. Mr. Kindy is in charge of tickets. Assisting him are Helen Mauro, in charge of distribution to seniors, and Carolyn Whitmer, who takes care of the Barnstormer distribution. Tickets are 50 cents general admission and 65 cents for reserved seats. They may be obtained from any Barnstormer or any member of the senior class. Buy your tickets now!

Band Adds Color to Central Activities

Most of the students at Central take the school band and its fine work for granted. Few people stop and think of the time and energy which go into the making of a superlative band.

The concert given by the band last week opened the eyes of many Centralites who were pleasantly surprised to find that the band has a large and varied repertoire. The soloists who took part in the concert are particularly deserving of praise. They gave the audience a glimpse of the wealth of talent to be found right here at Central.

The band, while giving students whose interests lie in the field of music a chance to display their talents, performs an invaluable service to the school. A football game would not be the same without the color and rousing music of the band on the field. A small group selected from the band, called the "Pep Band," adds color to basketball games and pep assemblies.

A band is an essential part of any high school and Central is fortunate to have an outstanding group of musicians. Congratulations to the Central band on a job well done.

ODE TO A BORROWER

I think that I shall never see
The dollar that I loaned to thee;
A dollar that I could have spent
On varied forms of merriment;
The one I loaned to thee so gladly
The same which I now need so badly;
For whose return I had great hope,
Just like an optimistic dope;
For dollars loaned to folks like thee,
Are not returned to fools like me.

I shall now illustrate what I have in mind, said the professor as he erased the blackboard.

Ohhhhhh Dear!! You young ones!! For every dance of the year, preparations begin way ahead of time. And especially for this dance THE senior prom. That's all I've heard of for weeks. I overheard Bob Ebbole and Bob Benson making the plans and watched them flip the coin to see who had to drive. They're escorting Liz Seritella and Jeanne Martin.

Listened in on some telephone conversations 'tween Judy Derrough and Ernest Humphrey, Cecilia Jurck (St. Joe) and Dick Kovacs, Rosemary Cox (Adams) and Don Onderdonk, and Joyce Anderson (Riley) and Fred Schmidt, and found their plans to be progressing rapidly. Was peeking around the nearby corner to see who planned to take who when I heard Jerry Rohde say his date was Barbara Baird (Riley), Jim Shedd is taking Sue Hodge, and Jerry Petersen plans to spend those hours with Ila Mae Reeve (Adams). Saw Beverly Carlson, Louanne Schmucker, Judy Levy, and Lenore Dymak admiringly window shopping for . . . you guessed . . . THE dress. They have dates with Duane Peterson, Bob Armour, Larry Medow (grad.), and Bernie Pollack, respectively. In the hum of busy tongues between classes your Old Auntie deciphered the facts (we hope) that Ruth Falk and Bob Fassnacht, Frances Dunfee and Ray Hayes, Pat Lalley and Joe Horst, Kathy Wilmore and Roy Holmes, and Marcia Dahlke and Nils Hass are all duos for that evening. (??) Then one sunny day, while calmly walking down a serenely peaceful street, all of a sudden I became drenched. There were the most diligently working examples of that supposedly stronger group of humans called men (?) washing their chariots. Dave Doty planning to take Carol Harness, Paul Priebe escorting Donna Campbell, Ned Schmitt to escort Bonnie Palmiter and Dan Hager counting on an evening with Pat Morris were all knee deep in mud and H2O while their mode of transportation stood supremely shiny in the midst. By the way, that brings about my mode of movement from one edifice to another. Must be off to see just what its present state of shock is!! See you next week.

BARB'S BE-BOPS

Answer Me—Nat "King" Cole

Ummm boy, is this king ever ruling the crazy mixed-up teen-dom. Most likely all you steady-goers have listened to this record and thought of the nite when you first asked the one and only to go with you, and she grabbed your medal, took your sweater, and jacket then replied, "I don't know let me think for a second." Mr. Cole's "Answer Me" is about number four on the Hit Parade. Guess he's got "Too Young" sitting on a stick.

I Should Care—Jeff Chandler

This waxing sounds real cool, but from real recent polls, it's selling like "hottomales." Jeff making his debut on this platter is scoring all over the nation, and with his combination of looks, voice, and acting ability, Mr. C. evidently has it made in the shade with pink lemonade.

Gee—The Crows

The cats get together and give out with the blue-jazz combo. After hearing this disc you'll not go for nay of the "droupy drawl" stuff again. Man, this is the greatest. Ask George Relias—(The Crows . . . I wonder if they're the things my dad was shooting at, with a B.B. gun, since my face couldn't scare them away?)

Happy Wanderer—Henry Rene

Hay, lighthearted and really smooth. That's what this disc is. It makes you sit up a little straighter, and gives you a sort of lift. On the way to Tower Hill (Sunday, teacher, Sunday) I switched the radio on, and the marching tempo came blaring out of the speaker. The rhythm beat made me stop my car and walk the rest of the way, down the highway. (If any of you cats are going up to the Hill, look around for my car. It wasn't there when I returned, and I figured it went for a little walk.)

And now we meet the friendly vice-president of the Varsity Debate Club, Tom Bartholomew. Tom is also president of his home room 123, but almost everyone, at one time or another has seen his friendly personage around the halls. Maybe this description will give you a better idea of him: he's 6'1", weighs 175 lbs., and has brown hair and eyes.

T. Bartholomew

Besides being active on the debate team, Tom is active in band, where he plays the baritone and is sergeant-at-arms. He also is a member of the Senior Cabinet and maintains a place on the honor roll. (By the way, he's taking five solids—industrious!)

Baked ham and sweet potatoes rank right up at the top of his favorite foods, but he also "goes for" iced tea, ice cream and cake, and plenty of snacks! (In other words, he loves food!) Other favorites are Glenn Miller and Benny Goodman and most popular and some classical music, but no "dead stuff, please!" As for liking people, he says he "likes them all," but that's typical of Tom!

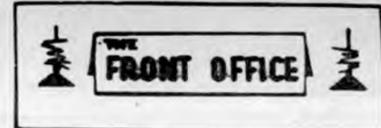

On the side, Tom likes to do color photography, and especially likes to take unusual pictures of landscapes. Cars are fun to work with, he says, admitting that he usually can take the parts out, but that he usually has a "bushel-basket of parts left over" when he finishes.

In the future, Tom plans to go to Notre Dame, one of the few on R. O. T. C., and has hopes for Annapolis in the future, with naval officer training.

POOR WORK NOTICES

This week it was necessary to mail several hundred parents, notices telling them that many boys and girls were not doing as well as they should and if improvement were not shown soon, failure would surely follow.

These poor work slips in many instances unnecessary, and could have been averted had the student put in the necessary time and effort to do what all are supposed to do. Those who do poor work in most instances loaf much of the time. They are not willing to go the full way in preparing the class assignments. They seldom do any home work, and fail to take advantage of the study hall hour.

Last year thirty-six boys and girls in the graduating class received scholarships from colleges and universities throughout the country. These scholarships did not come to those who got poor work slips each nine weeks period. They came to those who went beyond the daily requirements and who were willing to do the extra tasks that help the individual develop into a well rounded student.

These poor work slips should be a warning and those who receive them should resolve now to do better. It would be a real pleasure to teachers and parents if every student would work up to the maximum of his capacity. If he did, there would be many less notices mailed to parents, and your high school life would be much more pleasant.

Track Team Takes 2nd In Sectional

SEVEN QUALIFY FOR REGIONALS

Clark, Cote, and Half Mile Relay Win Firsts

The Sectional Track Championship evaded the brow of the Central team by 4 1/2 points last Friday. The host school, Mishawaka, swept the crown by compiling 41 1/2 points to Central's 37 and LaPorte's 28. Three records were established in the meet which saw the previous winner of the crown two years in a row, LaPorte, contribute one of the marks. Bucky Haag, with a stout wind at his back, raced the 100-yard dash in the amazing time of 9.8 seconds. This was 3/10 of a second under his previous low of the season. Riley's John Abell, the automatic double winner in the hurdles, set new records in both the high and lows.

Some consolation for the Central fans for their runner-up position was the fact that seven men were placed in seven events. The excellent half-mile relay team placed first and also qualified to go into the regionals. With Jim Major replacing the ineligible

JACK COTE, pole vaulter

Ed Love, and Jim Dulcet, John Clark, and Art West contributing the other legs of the relay, they raced the distance in 1:33.9.

Central's first places were found in the 220 or 1/2 of a mile in which Johnny Clark outdistanced Haag and teammate Art West, in that order. Jack Cote was a double winner, broad jumping 20 feet, 8 1/2 inches, and vaulting 11 feet, 8 1/2 inches for his two blue ribbons.

Clark also placed second to Haag's record-breaking time in the century; John Dunnuck placed fourth in the shot put; Archie Simmons took a fourth in the broad jump; Carl Ott ran fourth in the half-mile; Gene Foster found his form of last season and tied for third in the pole vault; Cote contributed a fourth in the high jump; and the mile relay team obtained a fourth to round out the scoring for Mr. Early's squad.

"B" Team Closes Out Season This Week; Score 24 Runs Against Wash.

By TOM GATES

Joe MacKowiak's "B" team last week split two conference games. They fell to a two-hitter by a crack junior Michigan City pitcher last Tuesday, but belted Washington for 16 hits and 24 runs Friday.

Tuesday, May 4, Michigan City's Red Devils came to town and administered a 3-0 defeat to our boys. The Red Devils pitched a junior who also played on their varsity squad. The Bears couldn't get to the Red Devil pitcher until the last inning when Aftowski doubled. Still the Bears couldn't score. Tim Zakrocki pitched the whole game for Central.

Meeting Washington next at Pulaske Park the Bears really slammed the ball around. They blasted four Panther pitchers for 16 hits and 24 runs as Coach MacKowiak cleared the bench. Bob Young and Jim Kocsis pitched excellent ball for the Bears as they ran their record to 5 won, 3 lost.

Next week the Bears play four games, two of them conference games. Tuesday they play Riley in a conference game, Wednesday against St. Joseph, Washington on Thursday, and Adams on Friday in a conference tilt. The Riley and Washington games are going to be played here, so come out and watch the team in action.

Phelps' "B" Track Team Undefeated

Any good athletic team in high school whatever it may be—basketball, football, baseball, track—has a reserve team, or "B" team, where they groom younger players who need experience, or players who are not quite good enough for the varsity team. This week we are going to try to relay to you a little news concerning Central's "B" team in track. Coach Devon Phelps and his boys are doing all right for themselves, having won all of their meets, thus far this season. Some of you might ask, where and when does the "B" team meet competition? The answer is that the reserves have their meets on the same day and in the same place as the varsity.

If you would like to try to compare the varsity meets to the "B" team meets, you would get exactly no where. Though the meets are run on the same line, there is a major difference; that difference is in the height of the boys, the time involved in a particular event, as well as the distance they run. However, the experience received is invaluable, for the boys get the feel of a big meet and they are, therefore, better trained for the varsity in the years to come.

Athletic Director Stephenson Outlines Requirements for Awards in Football, Basketball and Baseball

This is the second in a series of three articles written by athletic director Ross Stephenson on the award system. This week we are concerned with Football, Basketball, Wrestling, and Baseball requirements.

A boy may be recommended for a major award by his coach with any of the following requirements:

- 1. Football
 - A. For playing a total of 60 minutes during the regular season.
 - B. A senior who has been out regularly for three years may be recommended by the coach with fifty playing minutes accumulated over a period of three years.
- 2. Basketball
 - A. For playing the total of seventy-two minutes during the regular season.
 - B. A senior who has been out regularly for three years may be recommended by the coach with sixty minutes.
- 3. Baseball
 - A. For playing at least one-half of the total inning played.
 - B. Pitchers must pitch at least one-sixth of the total innings pitched.
- 4. Wrestling
 - A. By winning five matches during the season or at least one-half of his matches if he participated in more than eight meets.

B. By placing in the conference or state meet.

In football and basketball the time is accumulated during the boys high school athletic career. If, as a sophomore, he has played thirty minutes, that amount of time is given him at the start of his junior year.

Regardless of whether a boy has fulfilled the above playing requirements, if the coach feels that the boy isn't worthy of wearing an "SB" sweater then he has the authority to not recommend him for a major monogram. A boy must also fulfill all scholastic obligations set up by the Indiana High School Athletic Association, the high school principal, and the Board of Control.

They told him it couldn't be done. With a smile he went right to it. He tackled the thing that couldn't be done, and found that he couldn't do it.

Exams are just like women, This statement is quite right, They ask you silly questions, And keep you up all night.

JOHN CLARK, Central sprinter who took a first in the 220-yard dash in the Sectionals last week. A senior, he is one of the standouts on Coach Early's talented squad. John is depended on for good performances in the 100-yard dash, 220, and to run a leg of the half-mile relay. He has won first in the 220 in the conference and also ranked high in the 100.

"B" Golfers Tie Adams and Place Second In Triangular

By BOB JONES

Those well tanned boys you see around school are probably members of the Central High varsity or "B" golf team. The Varsity team seems to be doing all right, but at this point we are interested in the younger and more inexperienced members of the "B" squad.

These boys are coached by Bud Emerick who hops between Erskine and Studebaker Golf links, first to look at the varsity and then to look at the "B" boys.

The team has had two meets so far this season; one against Adams, and the other a triangular meet with Riley and Adams. They have tied Adams 7 1/2-7 1/2, and placed 2nd in the triangular meet which Riley won.

John Carey, John Fill, Dan Dembrowski, Don Klinger and Mike Carlington make up the playing five. Also on the squad are: Larry Hurtle, Tom Lynch, Jim Cronk, Fred Conn, and Rudy Rems.

Boosters Game of Week: TOMORROW Bears vs. Adams

BEAR FACTS BY CUBSKIN

Baseball has again ascended the king's throne and assumed its rightful place alongside the other championship and top-notch teams in the various sports. After an absence of a few years, Central's diamond crop has finally reached its peak and presently is leading the league with a five-won-and-one-lost mark. They have lost two non-league games also, one to Riley, 10-1, and the other to Niles on a no-hit performance by the Viking pitcher.

The many years of baseball "famine" here at Central are apparently over in view of the present record. How long we will remain near the top of the heap is a question that is hard to answer. The "B" team is having a successful season and some of the younger boys should develop into top-notch performers next season. There are also many juniors on the varsity which is a good sign for the future. The pitching staff, in particular, should be in very good shape next season. The two seniors, Larry Snyder and Walt Breske, will be sorely missed but such outstanding twirlers as Jim Landen, Ray Cieslik, and Jim Zielinski will be around for another season. The catchers will both be graduated but Bob Governs from the "B" team should handle the job. Captain Tom McClanahan and Bobby Pauszek handled the receiving duties very ably this season.

Whether the Bears, under Coach Lou Newbold, will wear the conference crown when the season is over remains to be seen. This week, we play our two toughest rivals, Adams, who has defeated us once, and Riley. Either could knock us clear out of the race or vice versa. St. Joe plays host to the Newbold nine this week also. Central has defeated the Saints once this season, 6-5.

Adams, the baseball champion of the league for the past seasons, isn't afraid of the Bears. They have little reason to be. Tom Goldsberry, the Eagles' southpaw slinger, has defeated the Bears every time he has pitched against them in the last three seasons. It is a cinch, in view of his one-hit performance earlier this season, that Coach Swartz will nominate the 6-foot, 200-pounder to try to stop the onrushing Central team. Whatever it is Goldsberry has, he certainly isn't stingy about dishing it out on the diamond. He doesn't confine his speed-balling activities just to the Bears, but treats every team in the league equally. His present record is three wins and one loss. In his 22 innings pitched he has allowed only five hits. Twenty-nine of the sixty-six batters he has faced have gone down swinging or with the bat on their respective shoulders. Cubskin would like to nominate the 200-pounder for the title of "Fastest Pitcher in the League." Now, if this big build-up doesn't win the game for the Bears by placing a jinx on Goldie, I don't know what will.

Reviewing the positions around the infield and outfield we see that many of the regulars will be back next year. At first base is junior Dan O'Donnell, who leads the team in batting. Senior Jim Shedd will be missed at second, as will Bill Przybysz at third. Peanut Kaminski, a junior, is one of the returning veterans in the infield. Fleet John McNarney will be around for another season in centerfield.

Central were Mr. Paul Weddle, advisor of The INTERLUDE, and four well-known members of The INTERLUDE staff. They were, namely, Barbara Vargo, exchange editor; Terry Plunkett, sports editor; Lucy Simon, feature editor, and Anne Louise Knoblock, news editor. Those four, as well as Jeanne Martin and John Peterson turn out the stories that every week go onto the high school page concerning Central.

The program which was preceded by a delicious meal of fried chicken was a very informative one. The master of ceremonies of the program was John Carrol, writer of Carrol's Corner, a daily column in the Tribune. While introducing the speakers he kept the audience laughing at his droll remarks. He introduced Franklin Schurz, F. A. Miller, editor and owner of the Tribune, Clarence Harding, and George Canright, the man who has charge of the high school page.

Mr. Canright spoke, thanking all the reporters for the wonderful work that they had done during the year. He then presented awards to the four reporters who had done the best job consistently throughout the year. The awards went to four girls, Lourdene Becker of St. Mary's, Ellen Dooley of St. Joseph, Joyce Stuck of Greene, and Mary Jane Osowski of Washington. At the banquet Mr. Canright said good-bye to all the reporters for the summer as there is only one more high school page left this year.

Bill Neesley threw his second no-hitter of the season against Central Bears, defeating them 4-1. The loss broke a five-game winning streak for the Bears. Neesley whiffed 15 in his sparkling triumph. Central took advantage of Neesley's wildness to score lone run in the first inning. Bernie Minkow led off with a walk and went all the way to third on a wild pitch. Carlos Mayes squeezed Minkow home with the lone Bear tally. Niles scored the tying run in the bottom of the first, after two were out, on three successive singles.

Larry Snyder threw on just about even terms with Neesley until Niles got to him for three runs, on an error, a single, a triple by Hall, and a ground out in the fourth inning.

Coach Lou Newbold used 14 players in the non-conference game.

Spring in the Biology Department

Have you been to the fourth floor of the Central High recently. There have been some new developments which might surprise one if he was not acquainted with the situation. Mr. Weddle's classes have placed two bee hives upon the roof and are expecting to be rewarded with some honey in the fall. They have also learned that bees are very interesting creatures which work for you while aiding other people. Some of the individuals that have contributed to this project have been John Perkins, John Holdeman, Willard Higgins, Eddie Gray, and Robert Machulis.

The Biology classes are now in the process of setting up a new hive, using a Hybrid queen. The last report from Holdeman and Perkins was that the workers had not taken the Queen from her royal cage in which she was shipped. The bees were feeding her well, however, and it is thought that she would be taken out by the workers in the next couple of days. The queen will then start on an egg laying spree which will last probably 10 to 15 years.

It was mentioned that being in royalty is many times like being in prison (your life is not your own).

Mr. Early's classes have been enjoying a young screech owl which one of the students found. The bird eats meat and seems quite contented in its reed cage. Upon being approached a sharp snapping of the bill and a ruffling of the feathers tell you that Mr. Owl will stand his ground.

Students were completely startled Tuesday P. M. when several "jug-er-rum-ms" were heard coming from an adjoining room to 403. A complete search of the place revealed a large bull frog with a voice twice his size.

The students in Mr. Smith's classes are enjoying the soft and sweet tones of a ring-necked dove which flies about the room. The owner of the dove is James Kile, home room 105. James has tamed the dove and can walk to it and pick it from its perch.

Spring flowers are a common sight in the laboratories as spring moves into season. There are many things that are not happening as yet—chickens are not hatching, the snakes have not escaped and the hamster has not strayed away. Mr. Opossum is enjoying his freedom at the Izaak Walton Reserve after spending a warm winter in Mr. Weddle's room. Soon we too will be out for the summer.

JUNIOR ACADEMY OF SCIENCE

In the last club period on Tuesday morning, the Junior Academy of Science elected Jack Fassnatch as their new president for the year 1954-55.

The fall meeting of the Academy will be held at Purdue University on Oct. 16 in connection with the Science-Math Assembly.

JUST JOKES

The English language is a funny thing. Tell her that time stands still when you look into her eyes and she'll adore you, but just try telling her that her face would stop a clock.

A man stalled his car on the railroad track with the train coming. His wife in the back seat screamed, "Go on!" Her husband said, "You have been driving from the back seat all day. I've got my end across. See what you can do with your end."

THE LINE—Who's a pushover for a line, the Don Juan or the Clinging Vine? Judge for yourself when their sweet talk is done.

SAYS SHE "When are you going to introduce me to some of your friends in Fence Club?"

(I bet this slob couldn't even introduce me to the janitor.)

"Say, that's a tricky dance routine you have there."

(When's this Eskimo going to take his snowshoes off?)

"My, your arms are strong! Do you play football?"

(One inch closer and he gets a knee in the stomach.)

"Oh, look, isn't that the football captain? Can I meet him?"

(What a hermit this guy is. So far I've met no one but a campus cop and the dining hall dietician.)

"Gee, what with your traveling and other extra-curricular activities, you must have done just about everything."

(This boy reads too many Big Little Books.)

"I could use a little excitement. Why don't we get our coats and leave?"

(Out the Ladies Room window and over to Beta to see Fred. So long, George.)

SAYS HE "Well, naturally, when I met you at Christmas, I just knew you were the girl to ask to the prom."

(Atta boy, George. This girl really eats this stuff up.)

"I guess you've noticed how popular I am."

(Gee, I hope these guys I don't know don't mind my speaking to them.)

"This particular step was all the rage last summer in Paris."

(It's easy to see shes impressed with me. Now to play it smooth and move in.)

"I almost couldn't make the Prom, but the polo match at Princeton was cancelled."

(Which means you're darn lucky to be here babe!)

"This college crowd is pretty tame compared to the International Set at Monte Carlo."

(Oh, Georgie, you rake, wait'll they read your memoirs.)

"It's a bit stuffy in here. What say we step out and find something more exciting."

(What a cad I am to take advantage of this innocent girl.)

Indo-China Scrutinized

Indo-China and its problems have been in the foreground of the thoughts of the students in Mr. Hoyer's Global Geography class. For the past two weeks, the class has been doing extensive research on the subject, as not too much has been written on this country until very recently.

Betty Oursler has served as pronunciation expert. With the aid of Bob Houser of WSBT-TV, and Mr. Hoyer's reference books, she has compiled a pronunciation guide to Indo-China names.

John Stancati and John Peterson have reported the day-by-day news to the class. They have used a large map covered with Eisenglass on which they could show attacks and counter-attacks of the Viet-Nam and Viet-Minh forces; this medium has made their lectures more vivid.

Patti Dee has been class cartographer. She has made three maps: one showing Indo-Chinese railroads, canals, and cities, another showing the states and provinces, and a third showing the surrounding countries and bodies of water.

As a climax to the work, Monday morning Miss Camy Thung from St. Mary's College came to speak to the class. Her home is in Saigon in southern Indo-China.

Alums Make Plans

Attention Central High School alumni! The class of 1924 is planning the thirtieth reunion of their graduating class. This affair is to be held June 19 with headquarters at the La-Sale Hotel. The registration will open at 2:30 p. m. on that day in the mezzanine of the Hotel LaSalle. From 2:30 to ? will be time well spent in recalling fond memories.

Mr. Charles Schilling is the general chairman of the reunion. Other South Benders on committees are Petra Beck, Paul Kelly, F. Kenneth Dempsey, Dr. Harold Armstrong, Lewis Gerber, Anne and Albert Kahn and Burton Toepf. This promises to be very interesting so all old grads from 30 years ago should plan to attend.
