National Forensic League Gains 6 Debate Members

The Central debate team has been busy preparing for the coming debate tourney.

Last week the debate class held its induction ceremony. Those becoming members of the National Forensic League were Elinor Moss, Karen Lawrence, Douglas Baer, Dan Tankersley, David Hempstead, and James Manion.

The National Forensic League is a national organization and in order to become a member a debator must have a total of 25 points, which are accumulated from contests held throughout the year.

Two New Members

This year there are two new members in the class, Mike Hurd and Barbara Weinstein. Both of them are working to prepare cases and learn about the topic so that they might catch up with the rest of the group.

A few weeks ago the Peru

Speech Conference was held and Curtis Fischbach placed second and Dick Doyle placed fifth in the discussion contests.

At a discussion tournament held, here at Central on February 5, Curtis Fischbach of Central placed second, Adams, Howe and Riley also participated. Riley placed first. This contest was sponsored by the St. Joseph Valley Forensic League, and the points that were earned go toward a cup which is awarded annually by the league. The cup presentation was started with the idea that the school that won the cup three years in a row would keep it. Central now has five such cups on display.

Cub Class to Start

For those students interested in writing for the INTERLUDE, there will be a cub class. Any student who is interested may attend these classes.

The class, instructed by Mr. Overholt, the faculty advisor, and Bill Murray, editor-in-chief, will last from six to eight weeks. It will be conducted once a week. During this time, those attending will write themes which will be discussed in the class.

After completing the class, the "cubs" will be given an assignment. Most assignments require the reporter to interview a person or person's.

The cub class will probably make trips to the South Bend TRIBUNE and the WSBT-TV station.

Any one who is interested should see Mr. Overholt in room 305 before March 1.

Sectional Tournament Tickets Can Be Purchased Tomorrow

Mr. Kindy, ticket manager, recently announced that tickets for the Sectional Tournament would go on sale tomorrow morning, Friday, February 21.

The tickets, which cost 90c a piece, will be sold in the same manner as the tournament tickets last year were sold. Seniors may get their tickets from 7:15 to 7:30, juniors from 7:30 to 7:45, sophomores from 7:45 to 8:00, and fresh-try to have the correct change in order to simplify things. Then you will pass by another table to have your season ticket number checked off (please line up according to ticket numbers), before you go to the ticket window to get your ducat for the games.

Any season ticket holders who have lost their tickets should see Mr. Kindy before Friday morning and he will see that you are allowed to get your ticket.

IT'S TOURNAMENT TIME AGAIN! Mr. Kindy and Mr. Kuhn show students the procedure for the sale of Sectional tournament tickets tomorrow morning.

Play Presented To Annual Convention

On Tuesday morning at 7:30 about two hundred twenty-five high school students left South Bend for Indianapolis. The purpose of the trip was to present all-city production of "Good News" at the 42nd Annual Convention of the National Association of Secondary Principals.

On the way the buses stopped at one of the outlying Indianapolis schools where the students, including fifty from Central, were served a free lunch. At one o'clock the final rehearsal was held, and later the performers received another free meal at one of the schools.

The curtain went up at 8 p. m. in the Murat Temple. After the show, the tired performers boarded buses for the return trip. On the way home, a free box lunch was served to the students.

The weary cast arrived home at about 4 a. m. on Wednesday morning.

Seniors Plan Trip To East For March Spring Vacation

The spring semester is well under way and with it comes preparation and planning for the annual senior trip.

Although the actual week of the trip is still a month away, seniors should begin thinking and planning for it. The bus will leave Central for New York March 30, and will return April 4. All seniors interested must turn in a $10.00 deposit to the book store before March 10. The balance of $98.00 must be paid by the 21st.

In New York

In New York, the visiting seniors will be staying at the famous Henry Hudson Hotel. A motor sight-seeing excursion will be a boat cruise around Manhattan Island. The visitors will enjoy touring New York City, watching a movie at the Radio City Music Hall and other activities familiar to the big city. Arrangements will be made so the group will have time to shop in New York.

If the group goes to Philadelphia, as in past years, tours of Besty Ross's home, Independence Hall, Carpenters Hall, and Valley Forge will all be parts of the program.

When our capitol city Washington, D. C., is visited such buildings as the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the Library of Congress, Mt. Vernon, and the Capitol building will be important sights. It is expected that the group will meet, as on past trips, with our congressman and have a chance to talk with him.

The original United States Constitution and the Declaration of Independence will be among the historic documents to be viewed. A general tour of Washington, D. C. will also be conducted before the seniors leave for South Bend and home.

All and all, the senior trip should prove to be an interesting educational experience.

CONDOLENCES

The INTERLUDE wishes to express its deepest sympathy to Carol Dudley whose mother passed on recently.

Washington - Father of Our Country

On February 22, 1732, there was born into the world a man who was to become known as "Father of his country," a title respected by all and surpassed by none. Although George Washington was born into what was extreme wealth for that period of time, and could have led a life of glamour and leisure, he instead chose to help lead his country into freedom by developing a supreme military knowledge. In addition to his exceled military knowledge, Washington also helped to establish the principles which today are the basis of a modern democracy.

When he was of high school age, Washington already had explored and mapped land in parts of Virginia.

When the United States had crises with France and England, Washington stepped in to lead troops against the enemies in the long struggle for freedom.

Refused to Beking

Very few men would ever refuse the opportunity to become the king of their country as Washington did when freedom came at last. Some people even begged him to be the king, but he would not become something that he had just fought against.

This is just a small part of Washington's life and many towns today remember him by building monuments in his honor. Many schools and organizations use his life as a model and an inspiration, and every American student begins studying his life as early as the second grade.

Nationwide and civic ceremonies are conducted in his honor, and patriotic parades march to glorify the life of George Washington.

seventh week, a hair sylist will attend the meeting and heir grooming will be discussed. In the final week, information on accessories and figure types, current fashions, and basic wardrobe will be given.

Mrs. Hickok, the instructor, thinks the classes are "lots of fun." She studied merchandising and fashion at the University of Southern California, and following her graduation, was employed by a Los Angeles department store as a fashion co-ordinator. Mrs. Hickok trained models and presented fashion shows. Moving on to Salt Lake City, she became a buyer of dresses. Then she married and went to New York, and from there she came to South Bend with her husband and three children.

Central junior, Sheryl Smith, has summed up the entire idea of the course with her words, "It will benefit any girl. I think the teacher is good and the course fun."

—Sue O'Malley.

Here is your chance, girls! Several weeks ago, through the efforts of Mrs. Barbara Hickok, charm school courses were introduced at Central in cooperation with the City Recreation Department.

This course is not originating at Central. It was offered last semester at Riley and John Adams, and this semester is going given at Central, Riley, and Washington.

Figure analysis, posture, and exercises were taught at the first two sessions. The course is taught once a week for eight weeks and lasts from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. on Fridays.

The charm course is limited to 30 girls, and therefore, 10 or more girls may still sign up if they wish to do so. Skin care, posture, and carriage will be highly stressed. A mirror that stands and a package of kleenex are the only equipment needed for the course. There is no fee involved, whatsoever.

Instructions for correct walking and pivoting will be taught the third week of the course, and color analysis will be considered at the following meeting. Skin care will be taught at the fifth meeting.

Sixth Week

Make-up will be the subject for the sixth week, and on the

It Takes More Muscles To Frown Than To Smile

Smile. Please, friend, smile!

The easiest way to make your life miserable is to have a disagreeable disposition. It is also the simplest way to make the lives of the people with whom you live miserable.

Likewise, the easiest way to turn your life into a happy, enjoyable experience is to cultivate a cheerful, pleasant disposition.

No matter you are rich or poor, smiled on or frowned upon by fortune, or fat or thin, the most important single factor for enjoyable living is your disposition.

The most important reason for putting a pleasant disposition at the head of the list of maturities is that it makes it easier to acquire the other maturities.

The dispositions of most children are like good old Indiana weather—variable and unpredictable. Most people grow out of their childhood fears very naturally. Some people don't mature far from their unpredictable emotional outbursts that are so common to children.

Dr. Schindler said, "The happy dispositioned person has been conditioned away from outlooks on life that in involves outbursts of tempers, that resort to nastiness and meanness, that indulge in pouty, sullen moods. He has learned a philosophy of life that makes for equanimity in the face of trouble, a sense of humor, that sees the funny or wry element inherent in almost every situation, and the courage to sail a floundering situation into quite waters.

"Like Walt Whitman, anyone can learn to thrill from everything in the world.

"Like Emerson, we can find delight and amazement in the fantastic accomplishments and abilities of people, even the simplest of people."

Thoreau said, "Life is frittered away by trifles." The little routine difficulties in our everyday life are so trifling that they aren't worth getting upset about.

Arm yourself with a sense of humor and a warm smile and you will find that pretty soon things will start "working right" in your life.

Without a sense of humor you will find that your life is devoid of any other kind of sense too. Without it you can never enjoy anything, not even yourself. "If you can't enjoy yourself, what on earth can you enjoy?"

In Answer To A Complaint

A few complaints have been made about the number of advertisements in the INTERLUDE. Look at any newspaper, magazine, or some type of periodical, and you will find a large number of advertisements. Without advertising, expenses could not be met, and newspapers plus the other periodicals would have to charge more for subscriptions. The 45c you pay weekly to subscribe to the South Bend Tribune, merely pays for the paper the news is printed on. Money needed for employees, maintenance, machinery, and other expenses comes out of the advertisers pocket.

Neither the INTERLUDE paper or yearbook will make a profit this year, nor have they made a profit in preceeding years. It may be that they'll be in debt by the time the yearbook comes out. Since business has taken a downward trend and prices have risen, advertisers are not spending as much. Naturally they won't spend very much money for advertising on high school publications. This money is needed badly, and we must confess we would like to have more advertisements!

Al Davidson — "I think the kids should take more interest in them, and put more confidence behind our team."

Snipe Sailing Maestro Digs Rachmaninoff Active Bill Rieder Enveloped By Activities

Centralites, meet Bill Rieder, a guy with interests ranging from music to snipe sailing.

Bill's school life originated at James Madison where he attended the first through eighth grades. There he worked on the school newspaper printing staff and sang in the choir. It was while Bill was attending Madison that at the age of six he started taking piano lessons.

Music, Music, Music

When Bill arrived at Central, he made himself useful and appreciated by accompanying the school orchestra. Gaining much experience from this, Mr. Rieder went on to accompany Miss Weber's Glee Club for the next three years. He also served as accompanist for the following productions of Mr. Casaday's; "Knickerbocker Holiday," "Sinbad," "Count of Luxembourg," and "Good News." His music interests deepened and in his sophomore year, he started taking organ lessons. Last year Bill was organist at the Sacred Heart Church. A year and a half ago when the Notre Dame students organized their group of the American Guild of organists, he became one of its first members. With this group, Bill gives a recital once a year. Bill plays classics only, but says he sees nothing wrong with rock 'n' roll and enjoys dancing to it.

His favorite composer is Rachmaninoff and he regards as the hardest composition he's ever played — Rachmaninoff's Second Piano Concerto.

Bill is Busy Man

At Central, Bill was elected a homeroom officer when he was a sophomore and was also a student council representative. At this time he became a member of the INTERLUDE staff. In his junior year Bill was on the Junior Prom Ticket Committee. Bill has been on the honor roll every semester, and is now a member of the National Honor Society.

Now in his senior year, Bill is "steadies" this week. The happy couples are Barb Dhaene and Tom Wharton, and Sandy Stewart and Larry Coddens. Congratulations to the four of you.

Hey, Centralites, it seems some of our little "friends" are having a Mystery Dance pretty soon. Get some of those tickets and find out what the "Mystery" is.

If anyone sees any girls looking rather droopy eyed, think nothing of it; they are only recuperating from Sandy Stewart's slumber party. Girls present were: Gail Vexel, Gwen Oesch, Nila Grabowski, Sue O'Malley, Carolyn Lipfert, Peggy Wilke, Dee Howard, Weezer Rague, and Sandy Arter.

Two Youth Council dances are coming up. On February 27, the first one will be at Playland with the Rhythmaires playing from 8:00 to 11:00. The second dance will take place on March 1st from 4:30 to 6:30 at Playland also. The Belvederes will provide the music for this occasion. Buses have been hired to transport students from Adams to Playland, as a sectional game is to be played at that time. The tickets for each dance are only 60c per person. We hope to see Central well represented.

On Club 16 recently, we happened to spot Barbara Dunlap and Sid McCumpsey, Carol Stone and John Coleman, and Sue Glenton and Harry Lamberson out on the dance floor.

A few of the couples spotted at "Good News" the other night were: Nila Grabowski and Jim Grainger, Weezer Rague and Bill Fortson, Charlene Peretti and Duffy Magera, Mary Balis and Jerry Andrews, and Larry Morrison and Joan Wolfe. Nila enjoyed the play so much that she intends to go again!

very active in the student council, being co-chairman of the publicity committee.

Throughout the summer, Bill enjoys tennis and sailing snipes (boats not birds).

Bill plans to attend Princeton or Yale, where he hopes to major in some field of economics, such as business management or banking. Certainly, Central can well be proud of Bill Rieder.

Cohn Discusses Dazzling Attire

In this column a few of the different clothing styles of our Central males will be the topic of the week. First of all, it is necessary to advise you readers that anything written in these paragraphs is not intended to embarrass anyone, but rather to give you a few tips on the manly art of dressing well.

First of all, there is the cat who has a closet full of new ivy-league trousers, but wears old half-worn pants that have no cuffs to school. Not many of our people are like the forementioned, but many are almost as bad. We have people, and you have seen them, who

Boy, Food And Boys Covered By The 'Ladies' At Tessie's

Time: 2:30 p. m.
Place: Tessie Smith's rec. room.
Characters: Tessie, Molly and an entire slumber.

"Gee, kid, is this ever a cool blast."

"I'm glad you like it kid. If you know all the talking I had to do in order to persuade my mother to have this panic, you'd have a cat."

"Hey, look at Julie over there in the corner under the piano."

"Man does she look like she's on sputnik #2. I guess she's thinking about that guy from I.U. Did you know that he was in this weekend?"

"That's really cool. I should be so lucky to have a boyfriend who comes in from out of town to see me. I should be so lucky to have a boyfriend period."

Green Ruffles?

"Want a cigarette, Molly? They're the new kind; pastel colored, mint flavored and pink smoke. Bubbles, throw that purple package with the green ruffles over here."

"Yikes, these things are but the most! Tess, did you see D.J. at the game? Did he ever look sharp — particularly in those orange slacks. I could have flipped when he looked at me, and when he walked by in that cool mohawk, I about had a heart attack."

"Oh kid, you have all the luck!"

You know BonBon is pinned to that wrestler she met at Podnuk? You should see his muscles. When Lulu saw him flex them at the frat beach party last week, she said her eyes almost popped out of their sockets, and you know that Lulu's eyes don't pop at most anything."

Boys Will Be Boys

"Now gang, what's happening?"
"Eeeek, what's looking through the window!?"

"Oh kid, I could die — it's the guys. Oh my hair, it's a mess. yWhy did I have to put this new, yellow cream on my face? I knew something terrible would happen when that horseshoe fell on my head."

"Don't worry kid — the alarm is off. Dee, the flirt, is out there telling them to go."

A "Killing" Recipe

"These cheeseburgers and jam

wear dark blue and brown, stripes, plaid on plaid, and we even had one boy who cut the buckle off of the back of his pants. Some sloppy boys still wear blue jeans and old unpresed wash pants with their shirts tucked out, but this practice is diminishing rapidly. A few men have yet to switch to ivy-league style, but I think this is because their old lags (pants) have yet to wear out. One radical didn't wear any ivy-threads at all, until a local store reduced the price of crew-neck sweaters. Now he is one of the happy throng.

Woosley . . . Not Repitious

A prime example of a great dresser (not the one in your bedroom) is Everett Woosley. Everett, who owns Spiro's) can be seen wearing a different outfit every day and not repeat an outfit for weeks. Please study his clothes if you get the chance, for it will be well worth the effort. Mr. Woosley even sports a different pair of shoes for every outfit. Our hero claims he has only three pairs of shoes, but he has been seen many a time, with more than three different pairs of shoes on at once.

Forthcoming Attraction

You should all be pleased that we have the use of the auditorium again. The pep assemblies are just as terrific as they were before our new seats were installed. We just hope that the fine quality of the sure to come to the Elkhart assemblies continues throughout the year. Congratulations to Chuck (Continued on Page 4, Column 4)

Eligible Band Members Enter All-State Contest

On Saturday, February 8, the band members participated in their annual District Contest. Of all the players contesting, those receiving firsts will go to the All-State Contest. All-State is at Indianapolis on the 22nd of February.

This All-State Contest is the final one of three consecutive contests. To students receiving a first division rating there, a large gold medal is awarded. The latest contest, District Contest, awards smaller medals, both gold for firsts, and silver for seconds. Only high school students are usually given permission to enter the State Contest. A small fee is required by all to enter.

Many Enter All-State

This year, the band had a large percentage of its members entering the All-State Contest. These are the names of those players and the type of ensemble they participate in.

Yearbook Ready For Distribution In May

Did you realize a staff of thirty people are working daily towards the completion of your yearbook?

This year's yearbook will be ready for distribution to seniors by the time of the Senior Prom, which is in May.

Under the editor-in-chief Myrna Woods, there are eight other editor classifications. Joan Wolfe is the business editor. The faculty editor is Mary Balis; Ann Siekman is in charge of activities. Billie Leslie is chief organizer regarding material on classes. All "copy" in the book is under the direction of DewAnn Drout, literary editor. Bob Rozewicz manages the sports section of the yearbook. Underclass editor is Susan Hoehn. Frances Makris has advertising under her leadership.

Staff Meets Monthly Deadline

The yearbook tries to meet one deadline per month. At the present time the "dummy" book has been completely laid out; the book covers chosen, and all senior and underclass pictures have been taken and sent in. Much of the material on the faculty, clubs, and sports also has been finished. The final deadline to be met is April the 1st. On that day the yearbook will be sent to be printed in its completed form.

Several new features have been added to the 1958 yearbook. The annual will be sixteen pages longer and the senior pictures will be larger. Another new feature has not been revealed by the editors.

Hospital Tour Is Planned by F.N.C.

The Future Nurses Club is starting off on a busy year as they are planning a trip to Memorial Hospital on February 28. When they arrive there they will take a trip through the hospital after which the girls will be shown a film. After both the tour and the film, a special tea will be given for them in the nurses residence. This trip is to acquaint the girls who plan to go into the field of medicine with the duties and chores of every nurse.

The officers of the Future Nurses Club are president, Anita Knoerr, vice-president, Ruth Ann Rintzsh, recording secretary, Connie Ben-eiss, corresponding secretary, Pat Mallory, and Audrey Martin is the treasurer.

Mrs. Foulks is the advisor and the total membership is about forty girls.

Junior A's Now Eligible to Compete In National Merit Qualifying Tests

Junior A's are now eligible to take the National Merit Scholarship qualification examination. This announcement was made recently by Dr. John Stalnaker, Director of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, who also announced many other new values of the program.

On Tuesday, April 29, 1958, the test will be given to any Senior B or Junior A who wishes to take it and who pays the $1.00 testing fee. Students are urged to register promptly — before March 20, 1958 deadline.

Teachers' Assembly And Pep Sessions Planned By Boosters

"Go get 'um Bears, Go Get 'um!" This is one of the many mottos on the signs that the Booster Club has put up around school for boosting remaining games of the season and the tourney play. The posters have been made by the individual homeroom Booster Club representatives or whomever they appointed. More is being done for the tourneys though. Among these things are more and better pep sessions, including the annual teachers' assembly and, of course, the mascot, our bear.

The Booster Club Dance held after the Central-Mishawka game has been deemed as a success. Thirty-nine dollars was cleared. The dance was held in Adam's Little Theater with the music being provided for by the Eddie Sears's quintet. Thanks by the Booster Club is being extended to Valerie Bruce and Jack Hayes, the chairmen of the dance.

Another special thanks is extended to John Boyer and Myrna

'55 Graduate Granted Scholarship Award

Sylvia Stilson, a 1955 graduate of Central High School, has just recently been granted a coveted Ivy Leaf Award for outstanding scholarship at Aurora College, Aurora, Illinois, during the fall quarter.

An Ivy Leaf is given for grades averaging between A minus and B. Four years of high academic achievement are recognized with a permanent gold ivy leaf pin.

Sylvia is a junior this year at Aurora, a fully accredited Christian senior college of liberal arts, founded and controlled by the Advent Christian Church. Aurora also enrolls qualified students from many church backgrounds. The admissions policy is selective.

While at Central, Sylvia was a member of the orchestra and she also played in the South Bend Symphony.

Legislation Program To Be P. T. A. Subject For Feb. 27

The officers of the Central Parent Teachers' Association are calling a special meeting for February 27 to consider the 1958-1959 proposed legislation program. The members of the board of the P.T.A. are especially urged to be present. However, this meeting is also open to all other P.T.A. members and they are very welcome to attend.

The next regular meeting of the P.T.A. will be held on Wednesday, March 12, at 1:30 p. m. in the Little Theater. The guest speakers will be Mitch Arita, Central's exchange student from Japan, and Larry Morrison who was our exchange student to England last summer. They will speak on their experiences as exchange students.

MacLelland for their help on the counting of the ballots for the Basketball queen.

As a reminder to the new students and for those who have been around, Chuck Simon, president of the club, would like to mention that the products sold by the Booster Club in the past several semesters are still available in the book store. This includes pins, hats, sweatshirts and decals.

Most of us know that "Toolie" Coalmon has been in the hospital since last week recovering from an operation on his knee. Chuck suggests that we all send him get-well cards to show him we're still behind him. He is in the Memorial Hospital.

Bowling Awards Presented to Girls

The newly organized Girls' Bowling League of Central, under the direction of Miss Mathews, had their final contest yesterday, February 19, after school. The girls bowled at the Palais Royale alleys.

The girls who won awards were presented with them this morning over the Public Address System. The girl with the highest average received a pair of bowling shoes as her prize. The manager of the Palais Royale was responsible for this award. The members of the teams with the highest averages received pins as their awards.

Mary Pallo Leads Scorers

Chairman of the committee to discuss awards and rules was Carol Kotolinski. Connie Buczykowski and Linda Redinbo were also members of this committee.

Coming into the final game, Mary Pallo led the girls with an average score of 125. In second place was Carol Kotolinski with 112, and in third place was Shirley Chodzinski with 110.

The leading teams and their total pins were the Bowls Eyes with 3649 pins, the Three Devils with 35000 pins, and the Jolly-ett's with 3363 pins.

Tri-Y Induction To Be Held Soon

The members of the Tri-Hi-Y Club of Central, under the direction of Miss Waterman, have been busy, even this early in the second semester.

The first thing that they did was to have a sock hop. It was held Wednesday afternoon, February 8th, in the gym. Just last week, on St. Valentine's Day, the Tri-Hi-Y girls helped to sponsor the 20th annual, "Swingheart Sway," a semi-formal dance, which was held at the Indiana Club. The music was provided by the Rhythmaires, and the dance lasted from 8:30 until 12:00. Rosemary Sherburn was in charge of the tickets, and Wilma Robinson was elected by the girls to reign as queen over the affair.

Induction in Future

Judy Ridenour, Anna Mae Good, Sandy Doetsch, Phyllis Haskins, and Judy Dezamitz, are the officers of this club and they hold the positions of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and chaplain, respectively.

The girls do not really have too much planned for the near future at this time, because of their recent activities, but they do have an induction for their new members in sight. It will be held at the "Y." The girls meet during the club period in Miss Warterman's room.

HONOR ROLL

There are a few additions and a correction to the honor roll which appeared in the February 7 issue of the paper.

Carol Fassnacht, 11B, got 19 points instead of the 15 points reported. Jerry Allen, 11A, received 13 points, and Robert Sotkiewicz, 10B, received 13 points.

Bruins Host Blazers In Finale

Swimmers Cop 3rd in League

Last Saturday the Central tankmen took third place in the Conference swimming meet held at the city natatorium. The top three of the 11 places available in the meet were captured by South Bend teams; Riley first with 70 points, Adams second with 65 points and Central third with 53 points. The other teams and their scores are as follows: Hammond 21, Gary Mann 19, Valparaiso 17, Gary Wallace 7, Washington 6, LaPorte 4, Gary Froebel 1, and Whiting 0.

The Riley swimmers in obtaining their 25th consecutive win set new records in five events. Posting the new times for Riley were Tom Bloom, John Odusch, Dave Richards, John Buchanan, and the medley relay team of Dave Hail, Dave Richards, John Buchanan, and Tom Bloom.

This Saturday the Central tankers will travel to Lafayette, Ind., where they will take part in the state swimming meet. Although the Bears are not favored as a whole to win the meet, their free-style relay team of Tom Yarger, Don Soderberger, Mike Kerestury, and Tom Geyer, is expected to take first place in its event, provided that the Columbus team does not present any problem to it. Allan Rapp, a freshman this year, is also expected to do a very good job down state when he undertakes the 100-yard butterfly.

VIE FOR STATE CROWN

Pictured above is Coach Tom Hoyer's 1957-58 swimming team. The tankers will travel to Lafayette this weekend for the state swimming meet, which will be held in the Purdue University pool. The Hoyermen recently placed third in the city and conference meets, and promise to do well this weekend down state.

BEAR FACTS

BY CUBSKIN

One of the most satisfying events of the current basketball season came, in Cubskin's opinion at least, in the form of a letter to the Voice of the People in the South Bend Tribune last week. The letter was written by a Mishawaka Fan in protest about the lack of tickets — and especially the lack of good ducats — given to the Cavemen for their Central game of a couple of weeks ago.

* * * * *

This staunch Mishawakan overlooks the fact that the only people from an opposing school with a chance of getting into a Mishawaka home game are the members of the team and they probably wouldn't be admitted if the Maroon administration could figure out a way to have the game without them. If this gentleman got into the Central game at all (and it is pretty evident from his complaint about the location of the tickets that he did) he fared a lot better than Central's fans would have if the game had been played at Mishawaka.

* * * * *

Cubskin joins with everyone else on the local sports scene to wish Sylvester Coalmon a quick recovery from last week's operation on his well-publicized knee. The injury was worse than a misfortune — it was almost a tragedy as it was thought for a while that the damage might put an end to "Toolie's" basketball career. The operation, however, was reported to be successful and it appears likely that Sylvester will be back in a Central uniform again, even though this probably will not be until next winter.

Seen in Chicago last week-end . . . a heck of a lot of snow . . . the International Boat show, which included the Century Crusader Speedboat, price tag "$16,000 each" . . . you'd think there would be a special price for people who want a dozen . . . a basketball game in which a team behind by one point with one second to go and the ball out of bounds won the game (Loyola of Chicago beat Kentucky on Art McZier's blind hook shot in the situation just mentioned) . . . Notre Dame looking like the best basketball team to come along since last year's Central Bears as the Irish whipped North Carolina . . . a heck of a lot more snow.

Central After 17th Win, ENIHSC Championship

Tomorrow evening on the Adams court the South Bend Central roundball quintet, in their final game of the regular season, meets a formidable foe in the form of the Elkhart Blue Blazers. The Bruins will be after their 17th win in 20 games. This conference affair finds Central tied for first in the ENIHSC with Michigan City, and Elkhart in a third place tie with Mishawaka. Rebounding from a five point loss to Adams, the Elkhart hardwood five, which possesses a fine 12 win and 7 loss record, could give the Bears all the trouble they would want.

Starting at center on Coach Max Bell's squad in 6 foot-4 Jim Liechtenberger. He, along with starting guard Jim Swathwood, provides a strong scoring threat for Elkhart. The probable starts at the forward positions are Riem and McDowell or Campognoli with Mann or Merritt at the other guard slot. In their last outing, the Blazers used a varied zone, press, and man-to-man defense to foil the opposition. This may give the Bears some trouble, but they will give Elkhart something to look forward to in a 46 point defensive average.

The Central starting lineup will probably consist of Floring at center, Anderson and Winston at the forward posts, and Bishop and Clark at the guard positions.

In last Saturday's conference clash with the Fort Wayne North Side Redskins, the balanced scoring attack of the Bears downed North Side, 66-49. Leading the way for Central was Joe Winston with 16 points, Rudy Anderson with 15 and Bill Floring with 14. Denny Bishop contributed 8 points and Bob Clark got 6 for the Bear cause. Besides Anderson's scoring, he did an excellent defensive job on North's high-scoring Tom Waters — holding Waters to 9 points. Bilger was high for the Redskins with 18 points.

The INTERLUDE is happy to note that junior star Sylvester Coalmon is doing fine after the surgery on his knee last week and hopes that the McCallmen will pick up speed once more and get into championship form for the state tourney.

The Sectional Champ Central Bear wrestlers will send 10 grapplers to Lafayette for the regionals tomorrow as the result of these boys taking nine first places and a second place in the tournament held last Saturday in the Edison gym.

In winning their 10th such meet in 11 years, the Bruins finished with the comfortable margin of 47 points ahead of second place Adams. Their 129 point total was amassed by first place finishes by 95-lb. Jim Johnson; undefeated Odell Newburn in the 112-lbs. class; Dave Anderson, 120-lbs.; 127-lb. Jim Cytacki; Bryan Hittinghouse, 133-lbs.; Gene Zarembka in the 154-lbs. class; 165-lb. Bob Jerzak; Jim Love, 175-lbs.; and heavyweight Ken Ellis. Don Grzegorek will also make the Lafayette trip because he captured second place in the 138-lbs. class and Willie Wilson added to the team scoring by taking a fourth at 145-lbs.

Best of luck is wished to Coach Szucs and the 10 boys downstate by the INTERLUDE staff.
